VALUATIONS OF POLK COUNTY INCREASE $96,990

Dallas, Or., Sept. 18.—The 1925 tax rolls of Polk county show the highest total valuation of property yet reached, according to figures compiled by Fred G. Hotman, county assessor, covering a comparison of assessment rolls from 1915 to 1925.

The total valuation for 1925 exceeds 1924 by $96,990. The figure for 1925 is placed at $12,566,819 while in 1924 it was $12,469,829. The increase for the 10-year period has been gradual however for the 1925 total is $715,615 greater than that of 1915. Only two years in the period have shown a loss of valuation, 1917 which shrank $373,105, and 1919 with a loss of $37,490. The 1917 loss was rapidly made up, however, for the 1918 valuation showed a gain of $462,200. The gain of 1924 over 1923 was only $1496.

The greatest increase in any assessment division is shown in shares of stock, with a gain of $25,410 over 1924. The total valuation for 1925 was $99,531, although the number listed was slightly less than in 1924. Manufacturing machinery was next in line of increase with $23,760 above 1924. The total 1925 valuation in this classification was $407,230. In 1916 the valuation of manufacturing machinery was placed at $120,160.

Valuable land, largely timber land increased in valuation $14,910 to a total of $3,420,069, although this classification decreased in acreage 7999 acres.

General improvements on deeded land show an increase in valuation of $29,550 over 1924 while town improvements show a gain of $11,630. Stocks of merchandise, which includes lumber, increased $21,420 over the previous year.

A slight increase was shown in money and notes listed with a total of $21,410 as compared with $20,510, the lowest in the 10-year period. The value of goats and sheep also increased slightly.

Tillable land led in the decrease of valuations which were noted in six general assessment divisions. This was $12,230 less than the mark of $5,040,570 listed in 1924 and was principally due to a decrease in valuation on prairie lands. Cattle and swine dropped sharply in both number and number. Cattle decreased 150 in number to 8557 in the county and $5220 in value to $265,290. Hogs dropped 749 in number and $5950 in value. There are 1357 listed on the assessment rolls with a value of $13,590. The high mark in number of swine was 5511 in 1916, and in value, $39,510 in 1918.

Horses increased slightly in number but showed a drop of $600 in total valuation. There are now 2153 horses in the county valued at $159,480.

Farm implements fell off $9010 in value from the previous year. The 1925 valuation is placed at $121,210. The high mark on farm implements was $165,120 in 1917 and $157,930 in 1921. Tractors remained almost at a standstill in value with a decrease of $240. The valuation now is $57,100 as compared with the high mark of $199,250 in 1921.

JAMES M. BERRY PIONEER, DEAD AT MILL CITY

Mill City, Sept. 18.—The ranks of the Oregon pioneers were depleted by one last Saturday with the death of James M. Berry, one of the first residents of this section. Mr. Berry was born in Sheridan county, Mo., April 30, 1838. At the age of 14, in 1852, Mr. Berry, with his parents Francis and Pamela Berry, started to drive to Oregon with an ox team, the boy driving a major portion of the way. In 1853, they located on a donation land claim in Llan county, one mile west of Lyons, on what is now known as the Potter place. He lived here with his parents until January 26, 1872, when he was united in marriage to Sarah A. Gardner, who also made the trip west by ox team in 1856. With the exception of about five years spent in another part of the state, Mr. Berry lived the remainder of his life in this immediate vicinity, which at that time was infested with friendly Indians and bountifully stocked with wild game. When Mr. Berry moved to Mill City, there were but two little shacks and the railroad was unthought of, and Mr. Berry aided considerably in starting and building of the community. Relatives still hold the original land grant that was secured to Mr. Berry's parents, and which was signed by President U. S. Grant in 1873.

Mr. Berry remained active up until the time of his death, going to the breakfast table Saturday morning, quietly passing away while eating his meal. He is survived by his widow, three daughters, Frances N. Berry of Mill City, Mrs. Pearl Colby of Lyons, and Mrs. Christina Downing of Prairie City, Or., and three sons, Leander Berry of Astoria, C. Preston Berry of Darby, Mont., and John D. Berry of Mill City, one brother, William Berry of Sisters, Or., and two sisters, Mrs. L. N. Hennessy of Edmonds, Wash., and Mrs. E. J. Fryer of Sisters, Or. Funeral services and interment was held at the Fox Valley cemetery Monday afternoon, Sept. 14th. Mr. Berry was a veteran of the Snake river Indian war, having served with the "A" company of the Oregon volunteer infantry.

BOY SUSPECTED AS PETTY THIEF

Mill City, Or., Sept. 18.—Numerous cases of petty thievery have been experienced at Gates for the past few weeks and it is now thought that the work has been, in part at least, done by Alvin Carter, and steps have now been taken to have him taken into court. Ed Davis of Gates recently had the dynamo out of his electric light plant stolen. The Carter boy, under cross-examination, admitted knowing where it was and later took Mr. Davis to the point, but saying that he had found it there. Later Raymond Goodwin had a bicycle stolen, and a few days afterwards the Carter boy rode a bike into Gates which, though it had a different frame, had the wheels of the stolen bicycle and other parts which had been transferred to a different frame. The Carter family was arrested several months ago for stealing, on complaint of Dan Carow and attracted considerable attention in Albany, being nicknamed the "Mountain Children," but were turned loose without any action being taken.

Was a Good Judge of Liquor

"Since a young man I had liking for liquor and was considered a pretty good judge of it at one time, but constant drinking gave me stomach trouble which became chronic. My stomach would have been a valuable addition to a gas factory. Doctors did not seem to relieve me. One day my druggist got me to try May's Wonderful Remedy, and I am now as good as new." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. J. C. Perry, D. J. Fry and druggists everywhere.—Adv.
