Patriotic Program Sponsored

Chemeketa Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, formally observed Constitution day yesterday when an open meeting was held in the chamber of commerce room. Seymour Jones, formerly speaker of the house of representatives in the Oregon legislature, gave a formal address on the making of the constitution, its significance and the importance of its preservation. Mr. Jones covered both the historical background and the recent amendments which have been added to the great document.

In addition to members of the local chapter, the audience at yesterday's meeting included a goodly number of representatives from other patriotic organizations in Salem. Following the address tea was served in the reading room. Hostesses were Mrs. Elmo S. White, Mrs. F. H. Spears, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. Roy Mills and Mrs. Lewis Griffith.

Mrs. Caspar Whitney of New York city, first vice president of the National League of Women Voters, and Miss Margaret Owen, legislative secretary, will visit Portland this fall, according to the announcement made yesterday by Mrs. Charles Carver, Jr., president of the Oregon League of Women Voters, and Mrs. Hester Hollingshead, regional secretary of the National League of Women Voters, who have been spending the last few days in conferences with the chairman of the standing committee outlining the work for the coming year. Miss Hollingshead has also been making preliminary arrangements for the visits of the two officers of the league.

Miss Owen, who will be in Portland for three days beginning October 19, will devote most of her time to conferences with local women on future work for the child labor amendment. As chairman of the local league's committee on child welfare, Miss Owen J. Baxter will complete arrangements for Miss Owen's work in Portland. After leaving Portland Miss Owen will visit Salem and Corvallis.

Mrs. Whitney will come to Portland about the middle of November and will speak at a public meeting on the work of the National League of Women Voters. She will also confer with the state board on questions of organization and on citizenship schools.

Senator and Mrs. Charles L. McNary, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stolz, Miss Margaret and Richard Stolz have returned from a visit of several days at Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meyers and their home guest, Miss Helen Jordan of Seattle, left Wednesday for the Puget Sound country. Mr. and Mrs. Meyers will return next week.

Mrs. Breyman Dole left on the Shasta yesterday for Los Angeles where she was called by the illness of her father, Ralph Jones.

Miss Lenta Baumgartner left on Tuesday for Eugene. Miss Baumgartner will be a junior in the university this year and is a member of Delta Delta Delta.

The "get together" dinner at St. Joseph's auditorium on Sunday at twelve o'clock, promises to be one of the most popular social events that has taken place for some time in the parish. Everyone is welcome and many out of town people are expected to be present. There will be songs, stories and short, impromptu talks. The affair will be a preparation for the harvest festival, fair and bazaar which will take place in the auditorium on Nov. 6th, 7th and 8th.

Albany—Miss Thelma Alta De Young became the wife of Harold W. Poling at a wedding ceremony here Tuesday morning at the home of the groom's parents, Dr. and Mrs. D. V. Poling, in the presence of relatives and intimate friends. The ceremony was conducted by the groom's father, who is pastor of the First Presbyterian church here, assisted by his uncle, Dr. C. C. Poling, pastor of the First Evangelical church at Salem. Prior to the ceremony the groom's sister, Mrs. Kenneth Lancelotti of Portland, sang, accompanied by Mrs. Bert Stevens, who also played the wedding march. A reception followed the ceremony, Mr. Poling is an engineer employed by the county. His bride, a daughter of Mrs. Myrtle De Young of Bendleton, had come here recently. Both Mr. and Mrs. Poling are musicians.

Reception At Church Tonight

All members of the First Presbyterian church will be hosts tonight at a reception at the church honoring Dr. and Mrs. Norman Kendall Tully. Dr. Tully and his family came to Salem two weeks ago from Racine, Wisconsin, as Dr. Tully was recently elected to the pastorate of the First Presbyterian church.

The church has been decorated with vivid colored autumn flowers. Mrs. Max O. Buren is in charge of the decorations. A number of addresses will be given and music will add to the entertainment of the evening.

Mrs. J. W. Harbison will be in charge of the serving. The serving tables will be centered with brass baskets filled with helenium and orange tapers in crystal holders.

During the early part of the evening Mrs. George Pearce, Mrs. William Stenoff, Mrs. C. P. Bishop and Mrs. H. E. Barrett will preside at the urns. Their places will be taken later by Mrs. S. E. Purvine, Mrs. D. A. Hodges, Mrs. J. P. Bateo and Mrs. W. W. Emmons.

Assisting in the serving will be Mrs. O. J. Wilson, Mrs. L. F. Sheldon, Mrs. John Griffith, Mrs. G. F. Chambers, Mrs. A. F. Marcus, Mrs. Charles Wiper, Mrs. Guy L. Rathbun, Miss Dorothy Pearce, Miss Mirpah Blair, Miss Lucille Ross, Miss Helen Marcus, Miss Helen Davie and Miss Velma Davie.

H. E. Barrett is in charge of the program.

Salem families who took cottages at Pacific City during the past week end were Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Marsh and daughter, Maxine, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Davis and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. O. L. Scott and children, Patricia and Russell, Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Pound and children, Jean and Bobbie. Dr. and Mrs. Scott had as their guests Dr. Scott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Scott of Oregon City.

Senator and Mrs. McNary Honor Guests

Senator and Mrs. Charles L. McNary were complimented at an attractive affair last night when Dr. and Mrs. J. Shelley Saurman were hosts at a twelve cover dinner in their honor.

Autumn flowers in shades of lavender and yellow centered the dining table and lavender tapers were used in crystal holders. Covers were laid for Senator and Mrs. McNary, Mr. and Mrs. John Lytle, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Lively, Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Smith, Jr., William Walton and the hosts, Dr. and Mrs. Saurman.

Announcement was made this morning by Miss Julia K. Webster that the entire amount necessary to defray the expenses of transportation for Miss Hilda Hughes, one of the students at the deaf school who has won a scholarship to Gallaudet college in Washington, D. C., has been contributed by members of the business and professional women's club of Salem. Nearly half of the necessary sum was raised at a meeting on Wednesday evening and last night Miss Webster and Miss Grace Breckenridge received from club members not present at Wednesday's meeting contributions which will make it possible for Miss Hughes to go to Washington to enter college.

Mr. and Mrs. Don C. Roberts have as their guests for several days Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Risley (Frances Mann) of Portland. Both Mr. and Mrs. Risley have many friends among the young college set of Salem.

Early in the week Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gray (Ruth Deal) were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roberts for a short time while en route from their home in Eugene, to Portland.

Mrs. O. L. Scott was hostess at a delightful affair on Tuesday afternoon when she entertained in honor of her daughter Patricia's fourth birthday. A color plan of pink and white was carried out in the living room and refreshments were served in the dining room with a large white cake bearing four pink candles centering the dining table.

The guest group included Patricia Scott, Beverly McDonald, Jean and Bobbie Pound, Mary McCracken, Jackie Craig and Russell Scott.

Miss Emma Godfrey and Miss Mary Braun of Portland, left by motor this morning for Pendleton where they will be the house guests for the remainder of the Round-up of Miss Alice Forehan.

A "hard time" social will be given at the First Christian church tonight with the choir hour song "Long, Long Ago" by the choir; obligato, Johnnie Morgan and Violet Hese; reading, Gerald Simpson; number by the choir; reading by Thelma LaDuke; solo, Vivian Whaler; laughing song, E. T. Wood; and two additional numbers by the choir. The church orchestra will assist also.

Mrs. J. E. Shade and Mrs. J. C. Davis have returned from a visit of nearly three months with relatives in Iowa and other parts of the middle west. Returning with them was their niece, Miss Beale Bradley of Rock Rapids, Iowa.

Mrs. T. S. Golden and Miss Annabelle Golden were guests recently at a house party given by Portland friends at a summer home at Brightwood, near Rhoadsdendron on the Mt. Hood loop.
