Winter Activities Embraced

The first formal tea of the season, a number of bridge teas, the announcement of the winter concerts by the musical organizations—these happenings of the past week are proof indisputable that Salem society and club women have definitely resumed their summer calendars and are entering the winter period with zest and enthusiasm and for the interests and pleasures that lie just ahead.

Miss Rachel Chambers of Reading, Pennsylvania, was the inspiration of a most attractive formal tea on Thursday afternoon when Mrs. J. William Chambers, Mrs. L. F. Chambers, Mrs. J. W. Chambers, Jr., and Mrs. Carl T. Pope entertained in the Chambers home on Court street. Mrs. Lloyd Farmer and Mrs. Donald Young entertained at an attractive affair early in the week. Mrs. Reed Rowland and Mrs. E. C. Purvine were hostesses at an informal affair and several clubs had their first meetings.

Brides-elect and girls who are leaving for college continue to be the "raison-d'être" of many informal affairs and there are rumors afloat of more elaborate events during the next fortnight.

Only one more week remains before fall time and Salem hostesses are planning supplementary entertainments for their house guests. One fact remains—the coming winter will be one of many and varied attractions.

Mr. and Mrs. William McGilchrist, Sr., were hosts at dinner on Thursday evening honoring the fortieth birthday anniversary of their son, William McGilchrist, Jr. Members of the immediate family were guests and covers were laid for twelve. Zinnias and ferns were used in the center-piece and in addition to the golden candles centering the table individual candles marked each cover.

The honor guest was born in Glasgow, Scotland, forty years ago and came to this country with his parents at the age of six. He is their oldest child.

Mrs. Charles H. Robertson, Mrs. Thomas B. Kay and Mrs. Hollie Huntington spent several days in Portland early in the week. Mrs. Robertson was the house guest of her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Robertson.

Word has been received here that Mrs. R. L. White will return to Salem about September 26. At the present time Mrs. White is studying both classical and aesthetic dancing with Adolph Bohlin, well known Chicago dancing master.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Brophy and Mr. and Mrs. George Richey left today to spend the week end at Neekowin. On their return they will be joined by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McCormick who will close their summer home there this week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Irwin will have as their guests over the week end Mr. Irwin's mother, Mrs. L. M. Irwin of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McLeod were the honor guests last Wednesday at a farewell party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. K. Smith. Games and music interested the guests during the evening.

In the group were Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McLeod, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kestly, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Hudson, Miss Jones, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Pettit, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Barber, Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Barber, Mr. and Mrs. J. Dietz, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Klinger, Mr. Daniel Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. K. Smith, Helen and Mary Jane Keeth, Hazona Huddleston, Bill Pettit, Norman Bacon, Edward Dietz, Glen Smith and Juanita Klinger.

Members of the Episcopal guild will meet on Tuesday afternoon beginning at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. U. G. Shipley. This will be the first meeting of the season and a number of important matters will come before the group.

Definite announcement has been made by the officers of the Civic Music club that the Portia Mansfield Dancers will give their concert in Salem sometime during November. This attraction was announced last week for October but it was not possible to secure the theater on that date.

Other artists who will appear in Salem under the auspices of the Civic Music club during the coming winter are Blanche and Helen Hodnett, who have returned recently from a long tour abroad; Carol Robinson, well known American pianist, and Laurence Strause, tenor.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Baker have as their house guests Mr. Baker's brother, W. E. Baker, and his niece, Mrs. Eva Blank of Petaluma, California. They will be house guests also of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Baker.

Members of the Monday afternoon bridge club will motor to Portland on Monday where they will be the luncheon guests of Mrs. R. B. Goodin, formerly a member of the club. Mrs. Goodin will entertain the Salem matrons in her apartment in Trinity Place.

Friends of Mrs. George G. Brown will be happy to hear that she is responding favorably to treatment at the Portland Medical hospital where she will remain for several weeks more.

California Beauty Crowned

FAY LAMPHER, MADRIENNE DORE

Fay Lamphier, as "Miss California," carries back to the golden west the crown of the nation's prettiest girl, won at Atlantic City in competition with representative beauties from all parts of the country. Adrienne Dore, "Miss Los Angeles," was second. The decision evidences that the slender Venus of the past decade is no longer in style, in the opinion of the judges.

Mrs. Baker Honors House Guest

Mrs. Lina Delahoyde of Colorado Springs, Colorado, who has been the house guest of her sister, Mrs. Edwin L. Baker, for a number of weeks during the past summer, was complimented at an attractive affair yesterday when Mrs. Baker entertained at luncheon at the Gray Belle in her honor.

Covers were placed for ten at a table laid in the Chinese room. A large bowl of lavender and purple petals centered the table and lavender candles were used in crystal holders. Attractive favors of lavender and purple marked covers for Mrs. Delahoyde, Mrs. H. H. Olinger, Mrs. Milton Meyers, Mrs. O. C. Locke, Mrs. W. H. Dancy, Mrs. Ivan Hucey, Mrs. W. H. Lytle, Mrs. Ercei Kay, Miss Nean West and the hostess, Mrs. Baker.

During the afternoon bridge was enjoyed at the Baker home. High honors were won by Mrs. O. C. Locke.

Sorority Girls Tea Hostesses

A group of the younger girls who are planning to enter Oregon Agricultural college, were the honor guests at an attractive tea held in the W. P. Babcock home on South Commercial street this afternoon when alumnae and active members of Chi chapter of Alpha Chi Omega entertained in their honor.

The living rooms of the Babcock home were lovely with many baskets and bowls of red carnations and zinnias. Miss Bertha Babcock greeted the guests at the door and the chapter members formed an informal receiving line in the living room.

A beautiful golden lyre, the national emblem of the sorority, surrounded by red carnations, formed an attractive centerpiece on the tea table. Red candles were used. Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, Mrs. Edgar Hartley presided at the urns and Miss Virginia Holt and Miss Dorothy Moore, younger sisters of chapter members, assisted in the serving.

During the tea hour Mrs. Monroe Gilbert and Mrs. Martin Fersethan sang, Mrs. A. G. Bates gave a reading, and little Miss Margery Webb danced.

The women's auxiliary to the master plumbers association will hold their first meeting after the summer vacation at the home of Mrs. Jos. A. Bernard on Wednesday afternoon, September 24th. The Salem auxiliary has the honor of an officer in the national association in the appointment of Mrs. Jos. A. Bernard as a national director. Mrs. Theo M. Barry has also been appointed as state organizer. The Salem auxiliary has received notification that it is the first auxiliary to have responded to the national auxiliary in contributing toward the scholarship fund.

Mrs. H. T. Love, Miss Lillian Applegate and Miss Ruth Rulison were the guests of Mrs. D. H. Looney of Jefferson, on Wednesday of this week.

Mrs. George Nelson's home was the scene of a delightful affair on Tuesday evening when members of the Adolynk club entertained in honor of Mrs. Reed Rowland. Special guests of the afternoon were members of the Nevia club and Mrs. Etta Magers.

Fall flowers were used about the living rooms. An attractive centerpiece of pastel colored asters were arranged on the tea table laid in the dining room. Mrs. E. A. Paulsen presided at the urns. Mrs. Jesse George and Mrs. Carl Chapler assisted Mrs. Nelson in the dining room.

The hostess group included the following members of the Adolynk club, Mrs. James Teed, Mrs. Reed Rowland, Mrs. E. A. Paulsen, Mrs. George Nelson, Mrs. Jesse George, Mrs. Carl Chapler, Mrs. Armin Berger and Mrs. Oscar Zellner.

The work of renovation and remodeling at the home of W. C. A. has been practically completed. Mrs. J. C. Currie will assume her duties as housemother on Monday, a new cook has been employed and the work of varnishing and furnishing the additional rooms will be finished on Wednesday. Miss Marion Wyman took up her work as full time secretary on August 18.

The women of the St. Joseph's church are holding a rummage sale in the auditorium on the corner of Auditor and Chemeketa streets today. Directly sponsoring the affair are Mrs. E. Eckerlin, Sr., Mrs. James Heenan and Mrs. C. J. Healy.

Members of chapter G of the P. E. O. sisterhood were the guests Thursday of Mrs. W. H. Byrd, Mrs. D. X. Beechler presided during the regular business meeting. Interesting roll call responses were followed by a brief program. Mrs. Miles, a member of chapter I in Idaho, was a special guest.

Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Cashatt left Thursday for the east. After visiting relatives in the central west for a short time they will go on to New Orleans, Louisiana, where Dr. Cashatt will take a post graduate course.

One of the most attractive early autumn bridge teas was an affair of Thursday when Mrs. E. C. Purvine and Mrs. Reed Rowland entertained in the Rowland home complimenting Mrs. William Gosser.

Asters and marigolds in vivid autumn hues were arranged effectively about the rooms. Among the three tables of players high bridge score was won by Mrs. Karl Becke.

Interesting letters have been received by Salem friends from Mrs. C. D. Gabrielson who with her grandson, Charles Kay Biehop, is spending a month with relatives in Des Moines, Iowa. In one of her most recent letters Mrs. Gabrielson said that Ezra Meeker, famous northwest pioneer, was in Des Moines and in a pioneer celebration held there recently he drove an ox team in the parade. Charles Kay had an interview with him. Mrs. Gabrielson told of the "elicker coal" craze that has hit Iowa. Every school boy and girl has one and pictures and designs are printed on all of them.
