

CONFIDENCE IN ENVOYS ASKED BY PRESIDENT

Washington, Sept. 19.—(AP)—With the approach of funding negotiations on the French debt to the United States, President Coolidge believes the American press and people can best serve the end of an equitable settlement of all yet unfunded war debts by reposing confidence in the ability of the American debt commission to accomplish this.

Convinced that in each case the commission has accurate information on the capacity to pay of the several debtor nations, the president believes that body can be depended upon to safeguard the interests of the United States and to impose no unnecessary hardships on those nations in so doing.

As to the form of security given the United States in the foreign debt settlements already effected, Senator Howell of Nebraska has raised a question with which the debt officials take issue.

Announcement by the Nebraska senator that he would insist, when congress meets in December upon immediately conversion into negotiable bonds of all foreign obligations to the United States has brought response from debt commission officials that this already has been done.

Insisting, however, that this was not the case, Senator Howell said he believed the principal reason such bonds had not been furnished was because it would have given the United States a commanding position in fiscal affairs by permitting their marketing should occasion require.

In the British debt settlement as an example, he said, non-negotiable "notes" instead of negotiable bonds had been accepted to replace the original loan notes. While both note issues contained provision for substitution of negotiable bonds upon demand, no such demand, the senator said, had yet been made, nor, so far as he knew, was in contemplation.

Floyd B. Blair, legal adviser to the debt commission, saying it was unnecessary for the commission to issue a denial of the senator's contention, asserted that the bonds in the British debt settlement were negotiable securities in every sense.

THREE AUTOS DITCHED AT CHEMUNAWA CORNERS

Three automobiles were piled in the ditch at the Chemunawa four-corners on the Pacific highway early yesterday, due to wet pavement. The first to go in was Pete Bylles, a driver for Stenshoff Bros. hutchmen. His car turned completely over in the ditch at the right side of the road as a result of the driver's having applied his brakes. Soon afterward a Willys-Knight car came by and thought he would have a job at the wrecked delivery car. When he put on his brakes his touring vehicle skidded across the pavement and piled up beside the other in the ditch. Next came a Ford sedan. The driver was interested in the beached vehicles and thought to look them over. On went his brakes, and into the ditch on the other side of the road went his car. No one was hurt.

HUSKIES PREPARE FOR WILLAMETTE BATTLE

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 19.—(A.P.)—The University of Washington football candidates were divided into four classes today for first scrimmage of the season. Today's scrimmage is expected to determine a tentative lineup for Washington which is to play the first game of the season with Willamette university September 26.

The squads tasted their first mud of the season when they practiced signals and tackled dummies in a driving rain.

SENATORS PLAY MIXED TEAM ON LOCAL GROUNDS

Tomorrow afternoon, weather permitting, the Salem Senators will clash with the Albany and Toledo baseball teams. The visitors are bringing one of the fastest teams that they can get together and they are planning on bringing a team that will take the Senators to camp.

Several new players have been added to the visiting lineup. Baumla and Strickmeyer are to be on the bench in case they are needed but the combined teams are bringing an improved battery with them.

The Senators defeated the Toledo nine in three straight games and they have strengthened considerably to get revenge. It is a cinch that the Senators can't win all of the time and with them on the local tail most of the time they are liable to win one with their new players in the lineup. Baker, Robbins, Segree and Escalante have been added to the combined teams. Escalante and Segree are well known to most of the Salem fans and they have been in fast company.

With the new additions the Senators will be the underdog to a certain extent which will help them materially as they have been winning too frequently and are liable to get a bit over confident. With the odds against them, however, they might get in and play unbeatable ball. Two other games have been scheduled by Edwards. He is scheduled to take the Senators to Albany for a return game there on the Sunday of September 27. The Ray Brooks all-stars of Portland have been signed and will meet the Senators on the home grounds the week following the game at Albany. The All-Stars have a fast team and are expected to return home victorious. If Jupiter Pluvius decides to lay-off the ball fans are in for one of the best games of the season. Ed Hankin is scheduled to appear behind the bat with the indicator.

JONES DEFENDS FOOTBALL

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 19.—(AP)—Ted Jones, football coach at Yale, has answered recent attacks on the gridiron game.

Defending the sporting charge made by an unknown graduate football manager in newspaper articles, Jones told the Lion's club yesterday that the assertion that it cost $20,000 to put a football player on the field was with out "foundation."

"In my opinion football is the finest game in sports," Coach Jones said.

"No other sport draws on the finest qualities a man possesses as does football, no other game calls forth and indicates his sense of fairness and sportsmanship."

Jones denied that "we go out after players."

FIGHTERS EASE UP ON WORK FOR BATTLE MONDAY

New York, Sept. 19.—Mickey Walker, welterweight king, and Dave Shade, California challenger, eased up in their training today for the championship bout at the Yankee stadium Monday night.

Walker weighed 145½ pounds yesterday on the scales at his training camp in Red Bank, N. J. His workout was inspected by Chief Deputy Curry of the state athletic commission.

In accordance with the rules of the commission Deputy Curry plans to inspect the training of Shade at a gymnasium here. Shade predicts victory inside of nine rounds.

The Californian has displayed considerable speed in his workouts and the champion will be compelled to exert himself. The bout is fifteen rounds to a decision.

New York, Sept. 19.—For failure to remove his hat in salute to the flag, John Granetzer, a young Lithuanian is serving a sentence of 10 days in a Brooklyn jail.

He pleaded guilty of disorderly conduct while watching a Mardi Gras parade at Coney Island.

Granetzer said: "My flag is a red flag."
