Brides-elect Honored at Bridge Tea

Miss Margaret Griffith whose marriage to Bert T. Cosmos, helianthus and zinnias, with the pastel shades predominating, were arranged attractively about the rooms of the Griffith home. During the tea hour Mrs. Claude Stoufflet and Mrs. Roy Mills assisted the hostess.

Campus Y W Honors New Girls at Teas

One of the delightful traditions on the Willamette university campus is the series of teas which are given annually by the campus Y. W. C. A. during registration week for the girls who are new on the campus. On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week the Y. W. members are hostesses in the association rooms to all the university women who are registering for the first time.

Willamette traditions are told and the affairs serve as "get acquainted" functions. Prominent faculty women pour and assist about the rooms.

The first of the series was given yesterday. Mrs. George H. Alden and Mrs. W. E. Kirk presided at the tea table which was centered with a bowl of bright fall flowers.

Among the entrants in the golf tournament at the Eugene Country club last week and this week is Mrs. Harold Grady of Salem. Mrs. Grady is paired with Mrs. Lillian Eldridge in the finals against Mrs. Albert Silea and Mrs. George P. Hitchcock this week. A number of delightful affairs have been given during the past week as a compliment to Mrs. Grady. Today Mrs. Lynn McCready of Eugene, is hostess at luncheon in her honor and for Mrs. Herbert Roome who will come to Salem shortly to make her home.

"The Oregon Business Woman" is the name selected for the new official publication of the Oregon Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs. This name was suggested by a number of members of the several clubs scattered throughout the state, but Mrs. M. E. Brewer of Salem was the first to suggest the name, hence the prize, a national federation pin, or its money equivalent will go to her, according to announcement made by Miss Louise M. Hacker, president of the federation, and Miss Mame Ziegler, first vice president, who is chairman of the bulletin committee.

When the contest opened several weeks ago, Miss Julia K. Webster, president of the Salem business woman's club, announced that she would personally contribute the annual dues of a member of her club who would submit the prize winning name, hence Mrs. Brewer is a double prize winner. The new magazine will probably be a quarterly publication.—Oregon Journal.

Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. E. E. Fisher, Mrs. N. C. Kafoury, prominent members of St. Paul's church spent Friday in Portland, in attendance at a meeting of St. Stephen's pro-Cathedral.

Six Salem matrons, members of the Monday afternoon bridge club, were the honor guests at an attractive luncheon and an afternoon of bridge, in Portland yesterday, when Mrs. R. B. Goodin, formerly a member of the club, entertained the group in her apartments in Trinity Place. Motoring down from Salem for the occasion were Mrs. H. S. Poical, Mrs. J. W. Lewis, Mrs. W. E. Wilson, Mrs. E. Shafer, Mrs. J. R. Pollock and Mrs. Arthur Moore. Additional guests of Mrs. Goodin were Mrs. A. L. Ryan and Mrs. Herbert Hald of Portland, who were also formerly members of the club.

A profusion of autumn flowers arranged about the rooms of Mrs. Goodin's apartment, added a bright color touch. Luncheon was served at one and bridge was enjoyed for several hours during the afternoon. Mrs. W. E. Wilson won high honors and the consolation award went to Mrs. Poical.

The story telling section of the Salem Art league will be organized tomorrow evening when Mrs. Lola Belle Dellinger, section leader, will call a meeting in the educational room at the public library. Mrs. Dellinger has planned a series of nineteen lectures to cover the complete course both in theory and practice.

Mrs. Margaret Hansen of Seattle, who was the house guest last week of Mrs. W. W. Moore, is (Continued on Page Six)

Painful and Itched and Burned. Cuticura Heals.

"I had small pimples on my face which grew worse all the time and soon covered it. Later the pimples grew larger and were painful. They flared and scaled over, and itched and burned causing me to scratch. I could not rest because of the irritation, and my face was very much disfigured.

"I was bothered with them about a year when I sent for a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and used it with success. I purchased more and in about two months I was healed." (Signed) Miss Jessie Schlerman, Box 35, Lancaster, Wash., May 2, 1925.
