National Secretary to Be Guest

The national field secretary of the woman's home missionary societies of the Methodist churches in the United States will be a guest of the three societies in Salem on October 23. Plans are being made for a tea in First church on the afternoon of October 23 in honor of Mrs. C. J. Brock, the national secretary. The presidents of the auxiliaries at the Jason Lee and Leslie Methodist churches will assist the president of the First church society in arranging the affair. Invitations will be extended to all the auxiliaries in surrounding towns—Albany, Corvallis, Dallas, Silverton, Woodburn, etc.—to be guests of the Salem groups at the tea in Mrs. Brock's honor.

Mrs. C. Wiedmer was hostess at a charming affair last night when she entertained members of the birthday club at dinner. Mari-golds and zinnias centered the table with covers laid for Mrs. T. M. Barr, Mrs. D. Lane, Mrs. M. J. Pitzer, Dr. Th. Schoettle, Mrs. E. A. Pruitt, Mrs. B. J. Dimeler, Mrs. Josephine Suing, Mrs. T. D. McClain, Mrs. Chris Ringwald, Mrs. F. A. Enright and the hostess, Mrs. Wiedmer.

Mrs. T. M. Barr will be hostess to the club after fall week.

Mrs. S. Taylor Jones left this morning for Corvallis where she will be house mother at the Beta Kappa sorority house on the O. A. C. campus during the coming year. Mrs. Jones' son, Russell, and Quentin Cox, students at Willamette university last year, returned last week from Yosemite national park where they spent the summer. They will leave shortly for a year's tour of the world on one of the Dollar Steamship company liners.

Members of the W. R. C. will be hostesses at a dinner at the fair grounds next Thursday in honor of the local G. A. R. members. In addition to the Grand Army men the W. R. C. has extended an invitation to Sons of Veterans, the auxiliary of the Sons of Veterans, and to the Daughters of Veterans.

The women of St. Joseph parish will continue their rummage sale in the auditorium at the corner of Winter and Chemeketa streets tomorrow. Mrs. J. G. Nason and Mrs. S. J. Gentskow will be in charge of the sale.

Word has been received here from Mrs. William Burghardt, Jr. of an interesting two weeks' visit in London. Mrs. Burghardt has been studying music in Paris and recently enjoyed a short vacation in the English capital. Her letters tell of eight seeing trips with Mrs. Jay C. Allen (Ruth Austin) and with Miss Marion Pickens of Oregon City.

Mrs. Burghardt has returned to Paris for several more weeks when she will start her trip home. She will reach here about Thanksgiving time.

Mrs. Breyman Boise has returned from California where she was called a fortnight ago by the serious illness of her father, Ralph Jones. Mr. Jones' condition has improved considerably.

Mrs. Frank Snedecor, Mrs. George Rodgers and Miss Margaret Rodgers spent yesterday in Portland.

Mrs. Harry M. Hawkins will have as her house guests over the week end her sister, Mrs. W. Robert McMurray of Portland, and her nephew, W. Robert McMurray, Jr.

Miss Dorothy Livesley will arrive this evening from Portland to spend the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Livesley. Miss Livesley is a senior at St. Helen's hall.

A social meeting of the U. S. Grant circle, No. 5 of the Ladies of the G. A. R. will be held tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mary Nelson at 234 Court street.

A cooked food sale will be held tomorrow in the S. P. offices on north Liberty street by the women of the Scandinavian M. E. church.

Mrs. C. A. Houston has as her guest for a fortnight, Sadie Warner Vinder of Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Albert and Miss Mary Jane Albert are spending the day in Portland. Over the week end Mr. and Mrs. Albert will be hosts at a house party at their summer home at Mehama. Their guests will include Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Krause of Portland, Mrs. J. C. Griffith and John Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Jorgenson and daughters, Grace and Sally, of Portland; Mrs. Dalrymple, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Sigel and daughter, Susanne, Miss Erma Reynolds, all of Portland; Miss Mary Jane and Miss Josephine Albert and Ael Eff.

Dr. and Mrs. George H. Alden are among those planning to hear Billy Sunday in Portland tonight.

Cupid's Target

Miss Edna G. Francis, as "Miss Houston," failed to catch the judges' eyes in the national beauty pageant, but she looked just about the prettiest of all to Jules T. Tischendorf, a fellow townsman. She has started home as his bride.

Silverton, Sept. 25.—A pretty home wedding was solemnized Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Lamb when their daughter, Gladys Idell, became the bride of Charles Hedger.

The wedding took place at six o'clock in the living room of the Lamb apartment in the Silver Falls apartments. The rooms were decorated in salmon colored gladioli and autumn leaves. The bride was unattended and wore her going away suit. Mrs. E. T. Cone played the wedding march and Rev. S. Hall read the ceremony.

Following the wedding a dinner was served at which Mrs. C. Burns of Lebanon assisted. Only immediate relatives were present. Mr. and Mrs. Hedger left immediately after the wedding for a trip to California. They expect to be gone about two weeks at the close of which they will return to Silverton to make their home. Mr. Hedger is in the employment of the Silver Falls Timber company as engineer.

Colonel and Mrs. E. Hofer and their house guests, Mrs. Anna H. Hofer and Miss Dorothy Hofer of Pasadena, California, motored to Portland yesterday, where Miss Hofer took a train to Seattle where she will enter the University of Washington as a sophomore. Mrs. Anna Hofer and Colonel and Mrs. Hofer returned to Salem last night, and Mrs. Hofer will remain here a week or ten days longer before returning to her home in California.

Miss Frances Virginia Melton will return tonight from Seattle where she was called early in the week by the death of an intimate friend, Mrs. Lawrence. Miss Melton and Mrs. Lawrence had planned to spend the winter together here in Salem.

Mrs. John J. Roberts spent several days this week in Eugene with her daughter, Miss Helen Beverley Roberts, who entered the University of Oregon as a freshman this week.

In an effort to improve the quality of journalism among club women who serve their organizations as press chairmen, the department of press and publicity of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs is offering a prize of $10 in cash for the best advance news story of a club event written in a newspaper, contest to close December 1 and the winner to be announced in the January issue of the Federation News.

The story must contain at least 300 words and not more than 500. It must be about some club work soon to take place in the city or community from which the contestant enters, and proof of its publication must be furnished in the form of a clipping to which must be attached name and date of newspaper, name and address of author, these to be approved by the club of which the writer is a member.

First eliminations will be made by members of the department and professional newspaper people will serve as final judges. The press chairman of each of the 165 clubs in the state federation are urged to participate in this contest, which will prove beneficial both to them and to their organization.

All contributions should be mailed promptly to Mrs. Gertrude P. Corbett, vice chairman of the department, care of the Portland Telegram, Portland, Oregon.—Oregon Journal.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Sr. returned yesterday from a short stay at their summer home at Neekowin.

Among the Salem girls who are entering the University of Oregon for the first time this year is Miss Lucille Pettysjohn. She left for Eugene early in the week.

LORD CECIL FOR DISARMAMENT

Geneva, Sept. 25.—(AP)—Lord Cecil in a brilliant and moving address before the league of nations assembly today supported the resolution calling for the preparation of a general disarmament conference and the consideration of some system of conciliation and arbitration.

The characterization in the draft resolution of aggressive warfare as an international crime," he said, merited special attention from the entire world. He reaffirmed
