Senator and Mrs. McNary Honor Guests

As a compliment to Senator and Mrs. Charles L. McNary, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Livezey will entertain at dinner in their home on Lincoln hill tonight.

Covers will be laid for Senator and Mrs. McNary, Mr. and Mrs. John McNary, Dr. and Mrs. J. Shelby Saurman, Mr. and Mrs. Romeo Goulet, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts, Colonel W. B. Bartrum, Miss Dorothy Livezey and Mr. and Mrs. Livezey.

An interesting meeting of the Past Matrons' association was held last night at the home of Mrs. James Godfrey on north Liberty street with Mrs. Lena Cherrington, Mrs. Ira Darby and Mrs. David Wright serving as hostesses.

Following the regular business meeting the three special guests—Mrs. Jessie Folle of the Garfield, Washington chapter, Mrs. Lucille Sweeney of Naam chapter from Dallas, and Mrs. Jones, matron of the Gervais chapter—told of their experiences while serving as matrons. Equally interesting were the experiences related by a number of the members of the chapter who were matrons in other chapters. Mrs. Cordelia Cupper told of the chapter at Monument, Oregon, many years ago. Mrs. Alice Coolidge related her pioneer chapter experiences in Iowa, and Mrs. Eleanor Steiner, who was the matron of the first chapter organized in Canada, also gave a short talk. Interesting details of the early days of Chadwick chapter were also recounted.

Those present last night were Mrs. Ida M. Babcock, Mrs. Emma Murphy Brown, Mrs. Lena Cherrington, Mrs. Alice Coolidge, Mrs. Cordelia Cupper, Mrs. Ira Darby, Mrs. Marion Derby, Mrs. Ida Godfrey, Mrs. Hazel Gilllette, Mrs. Monnie Hauser, Mrs. Mary Johnson, Mrs. Minnie Moeller, Mrs. Marie McCall, Mrs. Ida Niles, Mrs. Elizabeth Shaffer, Mrs. Estella Smith, Mrs. Lotta Smith, Mrs. Eleanor Steiner, Mrs. Josephine Vase and Mrs. Faye Wright.

Mrs. J. F. Juzar arrived on Wednesday from White Salmon, Washington, and is the guest of her son and daughter in law, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Juzar. Mrs. Juzar's sister, Mrs. Roy Brainard of North Bend, is also a guest at the Juzar home. Both came to be with Mr. and Mrs. Juzar during the very serious illness of their daughter, Blanche Louise.

Members of the W. R. C. have asked the Sons of Veterans, the auxiliary to the Sons of Veterans, and the Daughters of Veterans to join them in a dinner which will be given at the fair grounds on Thursday of next week for the Grand Army men. All are asked to bring well filled baskets.

Mrs. Louise Limbaugh and Mrs. Coenbergh attended sessions of the sovereign grand lodge in Portland last week. Mrs. Limbaugh had the pleasure of meeting ex-grand alder, L. J. Eaton of St. Joseph, Missouri, formerly a neighbor and old friend. Mr. Eaton was grand master of Missouri at the same time that Mrs. Limbaugh was noble grand of her Rebekah lodge, Ideal No. 405, of Missouri.

Mrs. R. C. Kresel has returned from London where she spent two weeks visiting relatives and old friends. This was the first time in twenty eight years that Mrs. Kresel has returned to London where she spent her girlhood days.

Miss Kathryn Gunnell has returned from Pendleton where she has been taking publicity pictures for the Round-up during the past month.

Merlyn J. Gunnell, grandson of Mrs. M. E. Gunnell, and five year old trick rider, who had planned to make his initial appearance at the night horse show during fair week, will be unable to appear because of an accident ten days ago. The boy was working out on the Pendleton track just before the Round-up when he slipped from a wet saddle and fractured his shoulder and broke his right arm.

Mrs. John J. Roberts is spending the day in Portland with her daughter, Miss Mildred Roberts who is a freeman at St. Helen's hall. Mrs. Roberts returned yesterday from Eugene where she spent several days with her older daughter, Helen Beverly, who entered the University of Oregon for the first time this year.

Mrs. T. A. Livezey motored to Portland yesterday to meet her daughter, Dorothy, who is an upperclassman at St. Helen's hall. Miss Livezey returned with Mrs. Livezey last night and will spend the week end here.

Miss Elizabeth Putnam will leave on Monday evening for Seattle. On Tuesday she will sail for New York by way of the Panama canal and Cuba, with short stops at San Francisco, Los Angeles, Balboa and Havana. Miss Putnam plans to spend the winter in New York.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine is a Combined Treatment, both local and internal, and has been successful in the treatment of Catarrh for over forty years. Sold by all druggists.

Flies Over Hedge Like a Bird

Pretty Peggy Potter put Mannar through his paces at the sixteenth annual Smithtown, L. I., Horse Show, and her mount never faltered at the big hedges.

National Officer Coming

Members of the American Association of University Women in Oregon are anticipating a visit early in November of the national educational secretary, Miss Lela Hayden Meek of Washington, D. C. Plans for her entertainment were made last week when the officers of the state organization of the A. A. U. W. met in Corvallis.

It is expected that Miss Meek will be in Portland on November 7. She will be in Spokane on the fifth, in Tacoma on the sixth and will spend the next day in Portland. A reception for her will be given in conjunction with a regular meeting of the Portland association. All branches in the state will send delegates and a general invitation will be extended to all members of the association in Oregon.

Mrs. A. M. Cooper of Portland, regional director, will lead round table discussions on local problems and Miss Meek will discuss informally the manner in which her work can be of service to the branches and the definite way in which branches in all parts of the country may cooperate with the work of the educational secretary.

Those interested in kindergarten work will be glad to learn that Mrs. Raleigh St. James of Portland, will organize classes during state fair week at the state parent teacher's booth. Mrs. St. James is an experienced kindergarten worker and the organization feels fortunate in securing her services.

The day nursery at the parent teacher's booth will be presided over by Mrs. Josephine Butte. Mrs. George Wendroth is in charge of the state fair work and the registration booth. Hostesses for the week will be Mrs. Freeman, Mrs. B. E. Cooper, Mrs. A. M. Chapman, Mrs. Willie Caldwell and Mrs. Rose Oglesby.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wendroth and daughter, Cecil, have returned from a two weeks' hunting trip. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Fisher at Astoria. Additional guests of the Fishers during that time were Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Cooper, Mrs. Josephine Butte, Taylor Cooper, John B. Giesy, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Roth, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Standish of Holly, and Floyd Perkins of Portland.

Mrs. Mary Entwree, department president of the Daughters of Veterans, returned recently from an inspection visit to the tents at Grants Pass, Medford and The Dalles. She will visit the Oregon City tent on October 7.

Cuticura Heals Eczema In Rash All Over Baby's Body

"Eczema broke out in a rash all over my baby's face, scalp and body. It itched and burned badly and when he scratched it caused eruptions. I had to pin his hands down to keep him from scratching. His face was disfigured, and his clothing aggravated the breaking out. He was cross and fretful and would lie awake nights and keep me awake."

"I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample. It helped him so I purchased more and after using three cakes of Soap and two boxes of Ointment he was healed." (Signed) Mrs. John Hintze, 1614 W. Lombard St., Davenport, Iowa.

Clear the pores of impurities by daily use of Cuticura Soap, with touches of Cuticura Ointment as needed to soothe and heal. Cuticura is fragrant and refreshing.

Members of the Jolly Dozen sewing club were delightfully entertained yesterday when Mrs. Chester Moffitt was hostess in her home on south Church. Sewing and music were the diversion of the afternoon. Several piano solos were given by Mrs. Marcell Richmond, Mrs. Leo Huddleston was a special guest.

At luncheon covers were laid for Mrs. Huddleston, Mrs. F. C. Peterson, Mrs. Joe Botte, Mrs. Roy Smith, Mrs. Chris Butte, Mrs. William Butte, Mrs. Laurence Boeh, Mrs. Marcell Richmond, Mrs. L. A. Person and the hostess, Mrs. Moffitt.

Mrs. I. A. Person will entertain the club at her home at 165 west Wilson street on October 9.

Club Women Plan Study Courses

Oregon history, literature, current events, and possibly psychology, will be studied under able teachers and in a regular series of courses by the club women of Salem during the coming winter, according to plans formulated by the educational committee of the Salem Woman's club. Mrs. George H. Alden is chairman of the educational committee and the members are Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. Richard Cartwright, Mrs. Lewis D. Griffith, Mrs. Harwood Hall and Mrs. Curtis Cross.

Classes will meet one afternoon each two weeks and it is planned that all will meet on the same afternoon following each other so that those interested may take all the courses offered.

In the opinion of the Woman's club members, the classes will be particularly valuable because of the special ability of the teachers. Prof. Gailke of Willamette university, will teach the course in Oregon history. Prof. Gailke is one of the most popular lecturers on the campus and has written a book on the state's history. Rev. Martin Pereshethian, pastor of the Unitarian church, will direct the class in literature study. The period or type of literature to be taken up will be decided by the class and the teacher.

Leaders of the current events and psychology classes will be announced later.

WEAK, RUN-DOWN NERVOUS, DIZZY

Mrs. Lee Suffered From All These Troubles, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her Well

Terre Haute, Indiana.—"I was weak and run-down and in such a nervous condition that I could hardly do any work. I was tired all the time and dizzy, had no appetite and could not sleep. I tried different medicines for a year but they did not help me. Then my husband saw the ad. for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and he bought it for me. I began to feel better in a few days and after taking it for a few weeks I was completely restored to health. I had practically no suffering when my baby boy was born and he is very strong and healthy. I know that the Vegetable Compound is the best medicine a woman can take before and after child birth for health and strength. I would be willing to answer letters from women asking about the Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. Wm. J. Lee, Route 2, Box 648, Terre Haute, Indiana.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a dependable medicine for all these troubles.

For sale by druggists everywhere.

Mrs. Young Honors Miss Griffith

Mrs. Donald C. Young was a charming hostess at noon today when she entertained at luncheon complimenting Miss Margaret Griffith whose marriage will be an event of October 17.

A large bowl of lavender asters centered the twelve cover luncheon table. Lavender candles were used in crystal holders. Adding to the attractiveness of the table were the favors of dainty hand painted handkerchiefs in tiny little hat boxes—suggestive of the bride's going away.

In addition to Miss Griffith, the honor guest, Mrs. Young's guests were Mrs. Homer Egan, Mrs. L. F. Griffith, Mrs. Lewis William Butte, Mrs. Laurence Boeh, Mrs. Marcell Richmond, Mrs. L. A. Person and the hostess, Mrs. Moffitt.

Mrs. Asahel Bush has as her guest for a fortnight Miss Della Hale of Marysville, California. Last week end Mr. and Mrs. Bush were hosts at a house party at their Agate Beach home honoring Miss Hale. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Slade, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Johnson of Toledo and H. Thompson.

Wedding At High Noon Today

Beautiful in its simplicity was the wedding of Miss Audrey V. Pomeroy and Charles Goodwin which was solemnized at high noon today in the First Christian church. Rev. J. J. Evans read the service.

Only relatives of the bride and groom were bidden to the ceremony. The bride was charming in a frock of bottle green silk trimmed with squirrel which has been dyed a lovely champagne color. Her corsage was of Cecil Brunner roses. There were no attendants.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin left for California where they will spend several weeks. They will be at home later in the Fishers apartment on south Commercial street.

Mrs. Goodwin is the daughter of Mrs. Charles T. Pomeroy. A number of attractive pre-nuptial affairs were given in her honor since the announcement of the engagement which was made at a breakfast at the Marion hotel in June. Both Mr. and Goodwin are popular in the younger set and the news of their marriage is received with wide interest.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Brownell arrived yesterday from Los Angeles and will be the guests for a week or ten days of Mr. and Mrs. David Wright. Mrs. Brownell is Mrs. Wright's mother and they are enroute from California where they have been living for two years to their home in eastern Oregon.

Mrs. Roche will sing "There are They" from Gail's Holy City. Mrs. Roche is soloist at the Congregational church in Portland, Maine. She studied in Paris for

Try Mine

My powders, used by movie stars

By Edna Wallace Hopper

I am a stage star and a movie star. All my friends are stars. I know these public beauties as few do.

We are extravagant. Supreme beauty means so much to us that nothing else can matter. I long paid for powders $5 per box, to secure the very best.

Now, by grace of the makers, I supply these powders at very modest price. The very super-powders for which I paid their price. All toilet counters now supply them at 50c and $1, under the name of Edna Wallace Hopper.

There are two types, but of the superlative grade. One is a cold cream powder which clings and stays. I always use that. But many prefer a light fluffy powder. So I supply both styles. Both come in four shades—white, flesh, peach and brunette.

Let me bring you a new conception of fine powder. Send the coupon for sample with my beauty book. You will be delighted. Learn what we fastidious people use. Clip coupon now.

MILLER'S
Good Goods

Salem's Leading Department Store

Hillsboro
Sheridan
Monmouth
Verona

ORGANIZED TO PROMOTE GOOD QUALITY

The proof of the pudding--

Most chain stores operating upon the "price appeal" policy have very little if no STANDARDATIONALLY KNOWN merchandise to offer. The reason is obvious. A reputable manufacturer will not jeopardize his good will for the sake of furnishing a price appeal store with merchandise of doubtful character.

Compare such a store with Miller's. Here one will find an excellent assortment of the world's finest lines among which are such well known names:

HOLEPROOF	CLOTHCRAFT	GOSSARD
MUNSWINGWEAR	CHENEY	ROYAL SOCIETY
PERRIN	MALLINSON	NEMO
GORDON	BOTANY	VANTA
CONDE	EVERFAST	NASHUA
PRINTZ	VANITY FAIR	GRIFFON
REDFERN	KAYSER	KRIFFENDORF
BRIGHTON	BRADLEY	JANTZEN
SKINNERS	BEACON	KENWOOD
KAYNEE	KANT-FADE	CANNON

A good store and good merchandise invariably make for themselves a place in the people's favor. Quality is always the one thing that will win greatest measure of success. Price alone bears little relation to value; less perhaps to satisfaction, which leads us to say that if more people took greater interest in quality of the merchandise they buy and in the character of the store and its service they would be benefited.

Miller's enjoy the privilege of having NATIONALLY ADVERTISED lines throughout their stores and if you are not acquainted with these leaders we invite you to come in some day and make their acquaintance.
