SALEM HI ELEVEN TO BE LIGHT BUT FAST, IS BELIEF

The Salem high school football team is rounding into shape and they expect to have one of the fastest teams they have had in years when they open their season next Saturday with the alumni. The high school will meet the West Linn eleven on October 9. Frank Patterson, stellar athlete for the red and black teams two years ago has gone to Corvallis to get some of the old grads for the game Saturday and he is in hopes of having some fast material lined up to beat the locals.

Six lettermen are turning out for practice each night and Hollis Huntington, coach is looking for a very good season on the gridiron. The lettermen back are A. Lyons and Temple, ends; J. Drager, tackle, B. Drager, quarter; Kelly, half and captain, and Noeske, half. Clark Jackson, who thought he would be unable to be back will return as soon as the fair is over and expects to be out in a suit for practice by Monday. His return will add considerable strength to the locals.

Huntington has wealths of guard material, however. He has so many good men that he will not be sure who will be sent in until just before the game. H. Lyons has been showing well at guard as well as at center. Lang a three year letterman from Davenport, Washington, high school, is said to be fast. He tips the scales at 170. Murphy, a three year letterman from Stayton who weighs 210 pounds who bids fair to make his position.

Huntington has claimed that all 30 of his candidates are good and he sees no reason why the locals should not stop the winning streak of Corvallis and take the Willamette valley honors. The game Saturday is expected to be hard fought and the red and black eleven will have all they can do to emerge victors. The game will show whether the locals have a chance for honors of the valley.

DUCK SEASON IS OPENED TODAY

The duck season opened half an hour before sunrise this morning and several parties of nimrods left town last night or this morning where the migrants are expected to be feeding. Darden Averill has cautioned all hunters to exercise care in shooting on the Sauvies Island preserves. Every time a wood duck is killed it will cost the slayer, if convicted, a fine of $25.

The warden and his deputies have made the rounds of the different places in the last few days and has declared that the wild quackers are plentiful, especially on Sauvies island. Wild geese are also said to be plentiful. The law permits the killing of 25 ducks in a single day or eight geese but not more than 25 of both. If a hunter kills eight geese he is only allowed 17 ducks.

The wood ducks have been protected in Oregon for only the last few years, but they have increased so rapidly that where there were probably only a dozen or so on Sauvies island half a decade ago there are thousands today. The season will end in January.

TWO OUTFIELDS ARE BOTH STRONG

New York, Oct. 1—(By Associated Press)—Two mighty outfields, strong in every department of base ball will clash when Washington and Pittsburgh meet in the first game of the world's series next Wednesday. A competition of slugging honors impends between the heaviest hitters of the rival squads, Leon (Goosey) Goslin, Washington's home run hero of the 1924 series, and Hazen (Kiki) Cuyler, young Pirate outfielder.

The Goose hit .344 last fall and was always dangerous. He has been a bit erratic this year, trailing his outfield mate Sam Rice, in the league percentage column but Goslin has the familiar Washington habit of being at his best in the pinch.

Cuyler combines with Max Carey and Clyde Barnhart to form an outer array which seems superior to the Washington trio of Goslin, Rice and Earl McNeely or Joe Harris, if the comparison of season averages is taken as conclusive.

The Pirates for instance have an edge on speed. Carey has forty-two base steals to his credit against 35 for Cuyler. Barnhart has pilfered nine to give Pittsburgh a total of 88.

Washington's outfielders have stolen 64, with Goslin and Rice sharing first honors with 27 apiece.

OREGON LINEUP FOR CLUB GAME ANNOUNCED

Smith cut the Gordian knot caused by the battle Anderson and Harrison have been having for the signal calling berth by shifting the latter to right half. In this way he takes advantage of both Anderson's generalship and running ability and Harrison's punting. The squad lacked a consistent kicker last year. Neither is a large man but both should fit in well with such fellows as Wetzel and Jones. Wetzel was the individual star of last year's freshman team, and Harrison played quarterback on the yearling outfit of 1923.

Los Angeles, Cal.—Louis N. Monones, Mexican minister of industry commerce and labor, was welcomed by members of the Mexican colony and city officials upon his arrival from Washington, Sunday.

Washington—A prohibition agent has been fired because he spent considerable time and money pursuing a woman motorist in New Orleans to find a pint flask one third full.
