War Mothers Have Board Meeting

The executive board of the state organization of American War Mothers met at the Salem chamber of commerce auditorium yesterday. Mrs. Florence Garver of Portland, state war mother president and in addition to the state officers a number of representatives from the chapters in Portland, Albany and Salem were present. Plans were discussed for the assumption of further patriotic activities on the part of the organization. A set of by-laws was adopted.

Members of the executive board are the following state officers: Mrs. Florence Garver, Portland, state war mother; Mrs. P. A. Elliott, vice war mother, Salem; Mrs. Emma S. Field, recording secretary, Portland; Mrs. C. Belle Duncan, treasurer; Mrs. C. Belle Ella Downey, auditor, Portland; Mrs. John Eubank, corresponding secretary, Portland; Mrs. Emilie Hendrichs, historian, Salem.

The directors are: Mrs. Etha Harder, Portland; Mrs. Bertha Dickson, Albany; Mrs. E. W. Prince, Albany; Mrs. Carrie Fowle, Salem; Mrs. H. L. Fenton, Dallas; Mrs. Mary Harper, Portland.

The chairmen of the local chapters are also members of the board of directors.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Fullerton of Jennings Lodge, Ore., was the scene of a pretty wedding at 4 o'clock Friday, September 25, when their only daughter, Naomi, became the bride of Arthur M. Buell of Salem. Rev. J. C. Spencer read the services in the presence of about 40 relatives and friends.

The bride wore a lovely dress of white crepe de chine. Her veil was held with a wreath of orange blossoms and her shower bouquet was of white asters.

Miss Esther King, a cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid and Nathan Buell, brother of the groom, was best man.

Mrs. Jessie Smith, pianist, and Scire Buell, violinist, played Mendelssohn's wedding march. The Fullerton home was decorated with many beautiful autumn flowers.

Luncheon was served following the ceremony, after which the young couple left for their new home, 1935 north Commercial street, Salem. Many beautiful and useful gifts were received.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Buell and a graduate of O. A. C., also a member of Tau Beta Pi, national honorary engineering fraternity. The bride also attended O. A. C.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Fullerton, Misses Josephine and Juliet Fullerton, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Butler, Fernia White of Albany, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Buell, Mrs. Jennie Jones, Nathan Buell, Mr. and Mrs. Arnel J. Smith and daughters, Estella and Marjorie, Dr. Estil Brunk, Misses Grace and Virginia Holt, all of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rosebraugh and sons Walter and Bernard of Aloah, Ore., Mr. and Mrs. L. V. King and son Alfred of Metzger, Ore., Mr. and Mrs. Selvo D. Buell and son Darrell, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Buell of Portland, Fred Peters of Metzger, Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Butler and daughter Frances, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Ancil T. Egan of Portland.

Mrs. Frank Snedecor left yesterday for Eugene where she will be joined by Mrs. Charles Gray for a week end on the upper McKenzie river. Mrs. Gray who was house mother at the Kappa Alpha Theta house at Corvallis last year, has assumed the position of house mother at the Alpha Xi Delta house on the University of Oregon campus for the coming year.

A delightful birthday surprise party was given at the G. E. Kniten home on Bellevue street on Sunday honoring the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Kniten. A host of beautiful flowers were arranged about the rooms. An elaborate dinner was served at noon with Mrs. John Teckenberg, Mrs. John Bouen, Mrs. Shellberg and Mrs. Patterson assisting the hostess. During the afternoon a number of lovely gifts were showered upon Mrs. Kniten. Music and conversation were enjoyed during the remainder of the day.

The guest group included Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Bowen of Silverton, Mr. and Mrs. John Cornforth, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Martin, Mr. and Mrs. John Teckenberg of Macleay, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hartley of Jefferson, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Howard and Mrs. Flora Howard of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. John Plank, Mr. and Mrs. John Fritz, Mrs. Otto Shellberg, Mrs. Fred Robertson, Miss Irene Hartley, Arthur and Rex Hartley, Delbert Patterson, Edith Patterson, Fred Rice and Harry Martin, Jr.

Of interest in the Brush college district is the Sunday school rally which will be held there on Sunday. The day will open with a meeting in the morning, a dinner will be served at noon and another meeting will be held in the afternoon.

Because the Moroni Olsen play-ers will present "Pygmalion" at the Helix theater on the same evening that their meeting is scheduled the Salem business and professional women will hold only a short meeting on Wednesday. During the supper hour business will be transacted and Dr. Mary Purvine will give the final report of the national convention in Maine in July. Musical numbers will also be given during the time in order that the meeting may adjourn before eight o'clock and members may have the opportunity of attending Shaw's comedy.

Shikara Is Favorite With Horse Show Fans

The third night horse show in the fair grounds stadium last night brought to the fore a number of fine animals who were not taken from their stables on the first two nights. McGregor Peor, owned by Mrs. Ellery W. Peor (Helen West) and several of the animals from Oswald West's stable as well as more of the Welch string were in exceptionally fine nettle last night.

Shikara, the fine five gaited horse owned by Mrs. C. Edward Greile of Portland, a favorite at the state fairs as well as the Pacific International horse shows, was the beautiful, perfectly behaved horse that never fails to win the gallery. Two blues were added to her list of trophies at the close of last night's show.

A crowd that filled practically every seat but left aisles free greeted the opening entries in the heavy harness single class. Twenty entries in the second class—the handy hunter jumping class—made this event the most popular of the show among horsemen. One fence, gate and two more fences, a three foot pig pen and last of all a four foot post and rail offered thrills aplenty for the spectators. Some of the highly strung animals were prone to attempt to jump at the gate, others refused to permit their riders to fasten the hook. The pig pen was the usual Waterloo for several.

The value of the paper chase experience was clearly evidenced in Lil Webb's behavior in this event. This horse owned and ridden by Miss Dorothy McBride, easily won the first place in this event. Lil Webb is a favorite in the Portland Hunt club paper chases and strange fences and gates are favorite hazards. A McCreave horse, Bally Boggen, with Gerald Smith up, won second in this event, and Mrs. Stanley C. E. Smith's well known Jim Noble was third.

The driving competition between the six in hand heavy draft teams, an annual affair at the horse shows, is one of the most highly contested events of fair week among the owners of heavy horses. Last night was the first night of the three trial competition and the drivers and their horses will show their skill again tonight and tomorrow night when the two hundred dollar, one fifty, hundred dollar, and lower awards will be made. A Portland Damascus team received the favorable vote of the judges last night.

Ponies made their first scheduled appearance of the week in the ring last night also. Marlon McDougall, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nat McDougall of Portland, entered her mount, Berkeley Beauty, a beautiful silky black pony, in two events and won blues in both. The only competition offered the Beauty in the combination pony event was a very small Shetland driven by Laurence Welsh. Under a saddle Berkeley Beauty showed up equal well and in this event won over both Welsh and McCreave mounts.

Another event which made last night's show outstanding was the hunting pairs ridden over four jumps. Performance, manners, team work and style of going only counted. Among the eight entries in this class the McCreave pair won first, second and fourth place. Kentucky Bob and Topsy Sinclair, two horses owned by J. H. Held of Portland, were the only other entries able to place. Each of the McCreave pairs were ridden by Miss Madeline McCreave and Gerald Smith and the effect of the training given them by J. McCreave, owner of the string, and the father of Miss McCreave, was clearly seen in this event.

One of the most spectacular entries appeared in the heavy harness horse, pair, when Marie Seaton and Lady Malcom entered the ring drawing the beautiful old phaeton formerly owned by the Lewises of Portland. Seated in the carriage was little Miss Jean West, the daughter of ex-Governor and Mrs. Oswald West, and her big white dog. The coachman, James Dryden, complete to high hat and stockie, put the pair through their paces. In this event the horses counted seventy five per cent and the appointments

Mr. Hawley To Address Daughters

Because of the opportunity which has presented to Chemecka chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, to have Congressman W. C. Hawley address the chapter meeting tomorrow, the program announced early in the week has been postponed until later. Representative Hawley will address the chapter on the subject of international relations. Several phases of the subject, rarely considered or stressed, will be taken up by the speaker.

The meeting will be held tomorrow beginning at two thirty at the home of Mrs. Russell Catlin and Mrs. Frank Spears on the corner of Chemecka and Thirteenth streets. In addition to the address by Mr. Hawley the program will consist of a short talk on national songs by Mrs. Mollie Hill Styles.

Hostesses of the afternoon will be Mrs. Catlin, Mrs. Spears, Miss Minnie Morris, Mrs. J. W. Harbison and Mrs. C. B. McCullough.

Thirty two students attended the opening lecture in the class in design and color study under Prof. N. B. Zane of the University of Oregon extension faculty, in the public library auditorium last night. Registration for the class must be completed with Dr. Mary C. Rowland or Miss Vivian Harwood on or before next Thursday evening, the next class meeting, announced Professor Zane last night.

The first hour of the opening lecture was devoted to a study color harmony with various designs illustrated. The lecturer explained the two kinds of color blindness—physical and psychical—and drew a color wheel. The two kinds of color study—paints and pigments and study of lights were described by Professor Zane with the addition that his class work will be devoted largely to a study of paints and pigments.

During the second hour Professor Zane gave a number of illustrations of practical design showing on the screen designs from Rockwood pottery. Class members will bring pencils and sketching paper to the meeting in the library next Thursday evening.

Mrs. W. E. Anderson had as her guest yesterday Miss Jo Wunderl who will leave shortly for Chicago and New York city. Miss Wunderl plans to be gone two months. She will return by way of Florida, New Orleans and southern California.

Mrs. C. P. Bishop had as her house guest for the greater part of fair week Mrs. W. B. McConaid of Portland.

Mrs. Cordelia Hager has as her house guests this week Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Weber of Eagle Creek, Washington, and Mrs. John Blessinger, Miss Myrtle Blessinger and Miss Maude Wright, all of Dayton, Washington.

DEATH ENDS TARPIN'S VIGIL WITH SICK WIFE

Hollywood, Cal., Oct. 2.—(A. P.)—Ben Turpin's long vigil at the bedside of his invalid wife was at an end today. The motion picture comedian abandoned his work at the studio when Carrie Lemieux Turpin became seriously ill last December and the call of the camera was unheeded month after month as he cared for the woman who would accept no other ministrations but his. Yesterday death ended her suffering.

The Turpins were married in Chicago about 18 years ago and Mrs. Turpin worked with her husband on the legitimate stage and later in pictures. They were brought to Hollywood ten years ago by Charlie Chaplin.

SETH RIGGS ESTATE VALUED AT $120,000
Portland, Oct. 2.—Seth Riggs, member of a well-known Oregon family, who died September 23, left an estate valued at $120,000.

according to petition for probate of the will filed yesterday with Circuit Judge Taxwell of the probate division of the circuit court. Petition was filed by Webb C. Lewis, nephew, and Cecil L. Riggs, nephew, who were named executors of the estate.

A holographic will dated February 1, 1922, and a codicil dated March 13, 1924, disposed of about half of the entire estate among relatives.

The codicil invalidated a bequest of $5, made to Pierce Riggs, a brother, because of Pierce Riggs' death. Pierce Riggs left a large estate of his own, his will having been contested by his widow, who has also since died, leaving decision on the will contest still in the supreme court.
