

MOST BEAUTIES REALLY DUMB IS EXPERT'S CLAIM

Seattle, Oct. 1—(A. P.)—Beautiful but dumb. That the indictment hurled against many of America's prettiest by a man who has had a lot of experience.

Armand T. Nicholas, director general of the Atlantic City beauty pageant for four years set forth his views of women while at a hotel here last night. "The old saying of 'beautiful but dumb' is true," he said. "You can quote me to that effect if you wish. Most of the pretty girls I have met have heads empty as their faces are beautiful."

Scanty clothes, bobbed hair, cosmetics and wild parties play too important a part of the makeup of the girl of today, Nicholas declared. Bobbed hair will go out, he predicted.

"Girls have their hair bobbed because they're too lazy to take care of it or merely because they want to be in the swim."

Nicholas professed to see a return to pre-tapper days in sight.

"I think the limit has been reached," he predicted. "That the sweet, modest girl of old days is coming back. Bobbed hair is going out, its only a passing fad. Modesty in dress will return without sacrifice of comfort."

BEARCATS WEAK FOR AGGIE FRAY

It will be a team weakened by the loss of several regulars, and further weakened by the shifting of a number of players from their former positions, that represents Willamette university against O. A. C. at Corvallis tomorrow afternoon. Swelling, of last year's team, is not in condition to play as yet and "will be unable to make the trip anyway," Coach Rathbun stated yesterday. Mudra, heavy lineman, who was "got" during the first few minutes of play in the Washington game, has been advised by the school physician not remain out of Saturday's game, Rathbun says. His ligaments, which were torn out of place, have not knitted completely as yet, according to Rathbun.

Winslow, who caught the coach's eye by his playing at end last Saturday, will probably be shifted to quarterback, changing places with Reidel, who piloted the team against Washington. Hartley, who has played tackle for two years, will probably be put in either at tackle or at end. C. Zeller, rathbun states, may be played at end, or he "may try out Herman," a recent addition to the squad, for a few minutes.

Stolzels, who played tackle for three years, and has been brought back to fill a vacant position at full back, will be continued in the backfield, the two half back positions being filled by T. Zeller and Collingsworth, with the possibility that Mumford, a new man, may work in part of the time.

Huston, regular of three years experience, will be back in his old position at center. Tackle and guard positions will be filled from among Rhodes Mori, Evans, Bateson, Woodworth and Burvill.

D. A. R. CONDUCTS USEFUL BOOTH

Members of Chemeketa chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution have been conducting headquarters in the Educational building at the fair this week, we're coming out-to-town members and furnishing a place for rest and relaxation to local women. Mrs. Seymour Jones, state regent, has been in the booth most of the week, serving as official hostess Thursday. Very nearly all of the 19 chapters of the state have been represented by visitors in the booth during the various days.

An attractive setting is made through the employment of fir brought as a background, upon which is displayed the insignia of the organization and patriotic pictures. Hostesses named for the week follow: Monday—Miss Ruth Tullison, Miss Esther Morris and Mrs. Russell Catlin; Tuesday—Mrs. W. E. Hansen and Miss Lillian Applegate; Wednesday—Mrs. LaMoine Clark, Mrs. A. A. Underhill and Mrs. John Plank; Thursday—Mrs. Seymour Jones, Mrs. Homer Goulet and Mrs. Russell Catlin; Friday—Mrs. Russell Catlin and Miss Pearl Applegate; Saturday—Miss Ola Clark.
