

From the Richest and Best Part of the State

NEWS FROM NEARBY VALLEY POINTS

By Capital Journal's Special Correspondents

GOLDEN WEDDING IS CELEBRATED

Silverton, Or., Oct. 3.—(Special.)—Mr. and Mrs. Sam Brown, assisted by their children and friends, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Wednesday.

The two children of Mr. and Mrs. Brown were present. These are Mrs. Charles Meyer and Mrs. John Tichant of Silverton.

Out of town guests were Mrs. J. C. Burdell, Mrs. James Clark, Mrs. Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Slattery of Long Beach, California.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Kerber have taken rooms in the Roy building. Mrs. Alan Harrington and Lawrence Smith have charge of the Santiam woolen mills booth at the state fair this week.

Rev. and Mrs. John A. Linn and children left Wednesday for Eugene, where Mr. Linn will attend the annual session of the Methodist church conference.

The Speer family held a reunion Sunday at the Highberger grove in Aumsville. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Speer and family of Stayton, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Speer of Alameda, Cal., Mr. and Mrs. Homer Speer and family of Tazewell, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Speer and family of Junction City, Mr. and Mrs. Price Speer of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Speer and family and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Speer of Aumsville, and Mr. and Mrs. Mel Oliver of San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Miesler and daughter, Margaret, are camping this week at the state fair. Mrs. Walter Leisy and children, who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stowell, have returned to Portland.

Professor and Mrs. White and son, Gordon, spent several days in Portland last week at the bedside of Mr. White's daughter, who is seriously ill.

Miss Ella Williams visited her sister, Miss Lois Williams in Portland last week. She also attended the sessions of the Rebekah assembly association.

Mrs. Mary Mack of North Santiam was a Stayton visitor Wednesday.

Worth Smith of Salem spent several days this week in Stayton. W. W. Elder, who has been quite ill or several days, is reported to be improving.

The partnership of Cladek & Tate has been dissolved. It was formed here today. For the past three years Cladek & Tate have operated a garage in Stayton and handled the local Ford agency. Marion Hunt of Pendleton has purchased Mr. Cladek's interest in the garage and the firm will hereafter be known as the Hunt & Tate garage. Henry Tate still retains his half interest in the partnership. The new firm will also handle the Ford agency. Mr. Cladek's plans are not known.

WEST SALEM West Salem, Oct. 3.—The entertainment given by the West Salem ladies aid for the benefit of the disabled ministers of the Methodist churches was quite a success both socially and financially even though a small attendance turned out because of the busy season. The ladies realized about twenty dollars from the function.

It may be of interest to the friends of Mrs. Kendall to hear of her marriage to Charles Burleigh. The ceremony took place at the home of her son, Ed Kendall of Seattle, Washington, on Saturday, September 26. Mr. and Mrs. Kendall are both retired ministers and will make their home on Fifth street in West Salem, where they will assist in the work of the Sunday school and church at the West Salem Methodist church where they will be warmly welcomed.

The ladies aid will meet at the church next Wednesday afternoon for the purpose of electing officers for the year. A good attendance is requested by the president, Mrs. William Andrews.

Mrs. Huston entertained as a fair visitor her daughter, Mrs. Burt.

Lester Snuck of Salem visited his mother, Mrs. Albert Frank, Sunday.

Fred Howley of Eugene spent several days this week in Stayton on business.

Will Humphreys is visiting his son, Floyd, and family near Monroe this week.

ness trip to Salem, Monday. Gus Trank, who is acting as salesman for a well known brand of logger boots, has added to his line a rug cleaner.

Dr. Thompson Salem optician, was in town Monday. It is reported that Late Potter, who suffered excruciating burns several weeks ago near Klamath Falls, has recovered sufficiently to attend school on crutches. The Potters were former residents of Stayton but are now living in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Jones and son, Harry, attended the state fair Thursday.

Alva Davies has gone to Hood River to pick apples. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Forrester are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Marion Hunt in Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Wourms and daughter, Marie, and Miss Helen French motored to Salem to attend the state fair Thursday.

Mrs. Ed Siegmund visited at the home of her son, Lawrence, Thursday.

Miss Cora Cooper attended the state fair Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mayo motored to Salem, Thursday.

Among the visitors at the state fair this week were Mr. and Mrs. Dick Knight and William Cornish. They attended the fair Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Kerber have taken rooms in the Roy building. Mrs. Alan Harrington and Lawrence Smith have charge of the Santiam woolen mills booth at the state fair this week.

Rev. and Mrs. John A. Linn and children left Wednesday for Eugene, where Mr. Linn will attend the annual session of the Methodist church conference.

The Speer family held a reunion Sunday at the Highberger grove in Aumsville. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Speer and family of Stayton, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Speer of Alameda, Cal., Mr. and Mrs. Homer Speer and family of Tazewell, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Speer and family of Junction City, Mr. and Mrs. Price Speer of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Speer and family and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Speer of Aumsville, and Mr. and Mrs. Mel Oliver of San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Miesler and daughter, Margaret, are camping this week at the state fair. Mrs. Walter Leisy and children, who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stowell, have returned to Portland.

Professor and Mrs. White and son, Gordon, spent several days in Portland last week at the bedside of Mr. White's daughter, who is seriously ill.

Miss Ella Williams visited her sister, Miss Lois Williams in Portland last week. She also attended the sessions of the Rebekah assembly association.

Mrs. Mary Mack of North Santiam was a Stayton visitor Wednesday.

Worth Smith of Salem spent several days this week in Stayton. W. W. Elder, who has been quite ill or several days, is reported to be improving.

The partnership of Cladek & Tate has been dissolved. It was formed here today. For the past three years Cladek & Tate have operated a garage in Stayton and handled the local Ford agency. Marion Hunt of Pendleton has purchased Mr. Cladek's interest in the garage and the firm will hereafter be known as the Hunt & Tate garage. Henry Tate still retains his half interest in the partnership. The new firm will also handle the Ford agency. Mr. Cladek's plans are not known.

WEST SALEM West Salem, Oct. 3.—The entertainment given by the West Salem ladies aid for the benefit of the disabled ministers of the Methodist churches was quite a success both socially and financially even though a small attendance turned out because of the busy season. The ladies realized about twenty dollars from the function.

It may be of interest to the friends of Mrs. Kendall to hear of her marriage to Charles Burleigh. The ceremony took place at the home of her son, Ed Kendall of Seattle, Washington, on Saturday, September 26. Mr. and Mrs. Kendall are both retired ministers and will make their home on Fifth street in West Salem, where they will assist in the work of the Sunday school and church at the West Salem Methodist church where they will be warmly welcomed.

The ladies aid will meet at the church next Wednesday afternoon for the purpose of electing officers for the year. A good attendance is requested by the president, Mrs. William Andrews.

Mrs. Huston entertained as a fair visitor her daughter, Mrs. Burt.

Lester Snuck of Salem visited his mother, Mrs. Albert Frank, Sunday.

holzer of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Carlin have moved from Front street to Corvallis. Mr. and Mrs. Ray of Kingwood avenue have returned from Pacific City and are on their way to the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Nicola of Dayton were guests at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. Edward Brock.

Mr. Weather spent several days last week hunting in southern Oregon.

Charles Mathis of Portland spent the first of the week with his sister, Mrs. Bales.

Mrs. Louise Kirby of Cottage Grove is visiting with her friend, Mrs. D. K. Englehorn and family this week.

Rev. L. F. Cannell wife and daughter, Gertrude, are attending the general Methodist conference at Eugene this week. They will stay until the conference adjourns on Monday. There will be Sunday school and services both morning and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodgers of Salem have purchased the Dunlap property on Johnson avenue and have moved to it.

The West Side cannery celebrated the opening of the fair by giving their employees a day off.

Mrs. Welt of Lebanon visited at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wallace during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Thomas of Hillsboro, visited at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Thomas and other relatives Thursday and Friday.

M. A. Thonson has moved from Johnson avenue to the Smith property on Fifth street.

Mrs. Weather and children visited at the home of her sister, Mrs. Webb of Tillamook last week.

Pearl Moore visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hunt the first of the week.

Mrs. Davis and her son Eugene moved from their property on Fifth street to Corvallis where the latter will be an instructor in the high school there. Mr. and Mrs. Kendall have moved to the property vacated by them.

Eva Arnold visited her aunt, Mrs. Walter Means and attended the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan F. Brown are receiving congratulations on the arrival on September 24 of a seven pound girl to be named Doris Elizabeth. Both mother and daughter are getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bohlte of Portland were fair guests at the home of Mrs. E. Best of Franklin avenue.

Robert Cannell is spending the week at the home of Mr. Hamer of Eola.

Mr. Mayes spent a week with his old friends, Mr. and Mrs. Richardson.

Mrs. Bosanko called on Mrs. Ferguson of Salem recently.

RIKREALL Rikreall, Or., Oct. 3.—The unpaved stretch in Holmes' Gap is now in good condition for winter travel. Will Hill has completed the work of putting on 200 yards of gravel there. At present he is hauling the gravel for the shoulders between the gap and Amity, and later will do the same work from Brunk's corner to Dallas.

Hugh Bell is finishing his work here in order to enter the Willamette university as a senior.

The rain this week has made travelling on the new coast highways unprofitable and nearly impossible. Ike Dempsey and sons went to Mecla today to bring home the camping outfit and trucks, after which they will begin preparations for their new job near Lone, in Morrow county.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Price and family are leaving today for a fishing trip. During their absence Mrs. Harry Dempsey will be substitute mail carrier on Mr. Price's mail route.

trip to Pacific City. Robert Lee is one of the principal fishermen to go.

Curtis Davis has returned from Pacific City and has secured employment with Will Hill, driving truck.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Vaughn and family will drive up from Portland to Sheridan, where they are to be joined by Mr. and Mrs. Will Hill and children and all will continue on to Pacific City to participate in a week-end outing.

Blaine Southwick and Guy Roy entered their saddle horses at the state fair. Mr. Southwick won a first prize.

A. V. Oliver and family of Oak Grove have moved to Rickreall for the winter.

Mrs. D. T. Hedges of Portland, accompanied her son, Ed Hodge, and family home from the state fair and remained over for a short visit.

Butler of Independence called to see Tom Burch, whose condition remains unimproved. Guy Ray will leave Monday for Prineville to take part in the wild west events in connection with the interstate fair.

FALLS CITY Falls City, Or., Oct. 3.—Mrs. Anna Swinney left for Medford, Friday, where she will make her future home.

Mrs. August Ellis and daughters, Helen and Bernice of Dallas visited with friends in Falls City, Friday afternoon.

Mrs. A. G. Adams and small son and daughter are in Rickreall visiting for a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Dempsey. Mr. and Mrs. Dempsey leave in a short time for Hoppper, Or., where Mr. Dempsey will build roads for Morrow county.

Miss Mable Feal went to Valest Friday afternoon, where she has a class in music.

Mrs. Frank Hippock left Thursday for Los Angeles, Cal., where she will spend the winter with her son, Dr. Frank Hippock.

Mrs. F. G. Brown and children of Klamath Falls are here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Dodd. Mrs. Brown will be remembered as Cecil Dodd.

Mr. and Mrs. Randall Buell were up from Dallas, Thursday evening, visiting with relatives and friends.

The Standard Oil company is installing a new gasoline pump at the Riverside Park store for E. C. Richardson and he will sell the Crown gasoline. The station will open for business October 15.

Oliver Baker and family are moving to Silverton, where Mr. Baker has employment.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Stuprow and three children of Vernonia are visiting Mrs. Stuprow's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Worthington.

At the chicken pie supper given by the ladies of the Methodist church Thursday evening, the sum of $50.50 was realized.

Alexander (Dick) Gage and Miss Lulu O'Brien were united in marriage at the home of H. A. Bowman, September 29. Only a few of their friends were present.

SIDNEY-TALBOT Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hampton and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Bowman returned Wednesday evening from the Tyler country where they have been hunting deer for the last ten days. Mr. and Mrs. Bowman are visiting at the Hampton home from Los Angeles.

A number of Sidney people have attended the state fair so far this week. Among those driving in Tuesday and Wednesday were, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Meier, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Blinston, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Tharp, Mr. and Mrs. C. O.

Whiteman, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Scott and Mrs. Anne Miller. Eugene Finlay, who has been showing foxes, at the fair, from his farm here, was taken very ill Tuesday with what was believed to be ptomaine poisoning. Mr. Finlay was rushed to one of the Salem hospitals and is reported to be recovering rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dickson who have been spending the week with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Meier, returned to their home at Sherwood, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McKinney and son James of Salem, were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Scott.

Rev. W. E. Freeman was the guest of her mother, Mrs. L. M. Harding, in Corvallis over the week end. Mrs. Freeman will teach the Looney school again this year and begin her duties Monday.

Mrs. Charles Meier, Mrs. C. F. Meier and Mrs. Anne Miller of Baker, Oregon, motored to Lyons Saturday, and spent the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Petty-John.

Mrs. D. E. Blinston and daughter Helen, were shopping in Albany Friday.

Talbot school opened Monday with a fair attendance. Mrs. Frank Kieper is the teacher again this year. This is Mrs. Kieper's third term at Talbot.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Myers returned Sunday from a trip through Washington. While away they were guests of Mr. Myers' brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Cade, at their home in Sumner.

Mr. and Mrs. Myers also visited the fair at Puyallup for one day. Charles Meier and C. F. Meier were business visitors in Salem, Saturday.

Mrs. J. O. Farr and Mrs. R. H. Farr were joint hostesses Thursday when they entertained members of the Ankeny Welfare club at their home. A short business meeting was followed by an interesting program. A special musical number by Mrs. J. O. Farr was very pleasing. The club will begin the study of early Italian art, the first meeting in November. Last year Oregon history was studied; this was finished early in June and it was decided to have a vacation from study during the summer. Club members present Thursday were, Mrs. G. H. Tharp, Mrs. C. O. Whiteman, Mrs. G. H. Marlatt, Mrs. E. J. Freeman, Mrs. C. F. Meier, Mrs. Louise Ralle and the hostesses, Mrs. J. O. and Mrs. R. H. Farr.

E. B. Cochran spent Tuesday in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Finlay returned Monday evening from an extended trip through Washington. Mr. Finlay made the trip in the interest of the Greco Fox Farms of which he is owner.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dickson were transacting business in Corvallis Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Meier were in Salem Tuesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Tingstad and daughter, Helen, attended the fair in Salem Wednesday.

Jacob Gilmore delivered a truck load of hops to a Salem packing plant Tuesday for C. F. Meier.

Fall farming has begun in this section. The recent rains have made it possible for the farmers to plow and many are busy getting in the early hay.

SILVERTON Silverton, Or., Oct. 3.—(Special.)—W. F. Neptane and Clyde Kendall, both formerly of Silverton, are back again. Both have been gone for sometime. They have now taken over the management of the Valley Meat Market at Silverton.

The Mizpah circle will hold the first meeting of the season on Wednesday, October 7, at the home of Mrs. J. E. Lytle on Bethany road. Miss Ida Tweaton, resident health nurse will be present and explain the health work in the community.

The American Legion auxiliary of Silverton will hold a meeting Monday night at the G. A. R. hall.

The Rev. and Mrs. George Henriksen and daughter, Miss Dora Henriksen, have returned to Silverton from a week spent at Chiloqu, Wash.

The Silverton Choral Society will begin its meetings again Monday evening at the Christian church. The choosing of a director will be discussed at this meeting. The Choral society has been giving Christmas and Easter programs each year for a period of three years. It is the intention of the society to give programs again this winter. Mrs. M. G. Gunderson is president of the society.

Charles Webb left Friday for Riddle, Oregon, to spend a week in fishing and hunting.

Helen Johnson and Helen Jenson who have been spending the summer at Salem have returned to their Silverton homes. While at Salem the girls were employed in checking in a cannery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Beckett, who have been visiting with Mrs. Beckett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Halvor Julson, and her sister, Mrs. Arthur Dahl, have returned to their home at Butte, Montana. Mrs. John Booth of Parkdale, Oregon, is a guest at the Henry Schroder home.

Alfred Jensen, Miss Alice Jensen, Mrs. Marie Bunes, Miss Vivian Bunes, Miss Viola Rivness, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Rivness, Hermon Quall were Salem shoppers Thursday.

The Silverton Appeal issued a splendid industrial number with its weekly edition this week. The edition contains a short history of a large number of Silverton enterprises.

Eating soap caused some severe suffering for the little nine-month-old son, Lawrence, of Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Doerr. The baby had crept into the bath room and eaten a small piece of soap before his mother discovered him.

Eastman Brca. presented the playground at the Silverton school with a chute. A vote of thanks was extended to the Eastman firm at the meeting of the parent-teacher association Thursday afternoon.

Calvin Geer, aged 88, a Silverton pioneer, is visiting at Silverton this week. Mr. Geer has been at Burns during the summer. He spent some time at Silverton last spring attending the Geer reunion held here at that time. Mr. Geer will leave in a short time for Yuma, Arizona, to spend the winter with his daughter. He says he will be back next June to attend the Geer reunion again, at which time he is slated for a talk on "From the Cabin in Illinois to the Cabin in Oregon."

Silverton, Or., Oct. 2.—(Special.)—Lawrence Larson and Louis Meyer returned from Woods, Or., Wednesday night. Mr. Larson and Mr. Meyer report that they caught plenty of fish and plenty of rain.

Mrs. Helen Wrightman and Mrs. Frank Carpenter will attend the Pythian Sister convention at Eugene to be held there the 12, 13 and 14 of October. Mrs. Wrightman goes as grand senior and Mrs. Carpenter as a delegate from Home Temple No. 21.

Miss Anna Heas of Medford arrived at Silverton, Thursday, to take up her work in Silverton schools as teacher. Miss Heas has taken rooms at the home of Mrs. Helen Wrightman.

Word has been received from Eugene that the following Silverton boys have been pledged to fraternities: John Currie, Sigma Chi; Dwight Kircher, Phi Kappa Phi; Edward Syring, Kappa Delta Phi; Ronald Hubbs, Alpha Tau Omega.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Van Cleave have returned to Silverton from a hunting trip in the southern part of the state. They report splendid success. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fitzgerald, who left with the Van Cleaves, have not yet returned but will remain for a longer hunt.

Miss Cora Satern left Thursday morning for the home of her brother, Oscar Satern, near Mt. Angel, where she will spend a few days. Her mother, Mrs. O. Satern, who has been at the home of her son for the past few weeks, returned to her Silverton home Thursday morning.

NOTICE AUCTION SALE OF FURNITURE Next Wednesday, Oct. 7, commencing at 1 p. m. sharp, at 1293 Center Street

Comprising of the complete contents of a nine room house. This is an extra fine offering of high class Furniture. Watch Monday's papers for particulars. Don't forget!

H. F. WOODRY & SON, Auctioneers and Appraisers, Store 271 N. Commercial St. Phone 75 or 1843-W

An Ideal Radio for the Home BACKED BY THE GUARANTEE OF AN ORGANIZATION OF KNOWN RESPONSIBILITY

Western Air Patrol "Radio as you want it" TONE—Volume—Selectivity—Simplicity—Beauty—the quality you want most in a radio set are in the "Western Air Patrol"—a five-tube Tuned Radio Frequency set, built especially for the Western Auto Supply Company by one of the largest and most reliable manufacturers of radio parts in the country.

MT. ANGEL Mt. Angel, Oct. 3.—Mrs. Henry Sandfield entertained the local court of the C. D. O. A. in her home early in the week. Five hundred was the diversion of the evening with Elizabeth Unger winning head prize. The door prize went to Mrs. R. Welton and Mrs. J. W. Ebner was given the consolation award.

George May and his grand-daughter, Miss Adeline Kraus left yesterday by motor for Harrison, Idaho, where they will visit Dr. and Mrs. Carl J. May.

Mrs. Clement Schweitzer died Thursday evening in her home after a long illness. Funeral services were held from St. Mary's church this morning at eight o'clock. Surviving are one son, Frank, and a daughter, Mrs. John Schaefer.

Mrs. Frank Meid, Mrs. Thomas McGee and Mrs. Jos. J. Keller entertained in the Keber home one afternoon this week in honor of Mrs. Joe Bernat. High score at cards was won by Mrs. Clement Van Perro and second went to Mrs. W. W. Wampach. The consolation award went to Mrs. R. O. Appleby.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wessel and John Nuzol left this week for their home in Green Creek, Idaho after visiting friends here for about two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Bourbonnais have a new son. They now have two daughters and two sons.

The first football game of the season on the Mt. Angel college gridiron is being played this afternoon with Corvallis high school.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine will do what we claim for it—rid your system of Catarrh or Deadness caused by Catarrh.

Sold by druggists for over 40 years E. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio

JOURNAL WANT ADS PAY

Point by Point a Better Car

The New Paige Landau Sedan has no equal near $2395

Compare the new Paige Landau Sedan point by point with its nearest competitors in the luxurious, big car field.

Paige leads in the following physical qualities—the qualities that make a fine car: piston displacement, weight, wheel-base, length of rear springs, size of tires, exterior finish (two-tone), upholstery (moirai velour), equipment and—the final deciding factor—price! Paige Landau Sedan sells for hundreds less.

Considering horsepower, fashionable appearance, roominess, interior finish and riding quality—it will cost you much more to buy the equal of Paige Landau Sedan. Why pay it?

Always Making Them Finer Harry M. Jewett

TRUMM MOTOR CO. 349 N. Commercial St., Salem, Oregon

Western Air Patrol "Radio as you want it"

TONE—Volume—Selectivity—Simplicity—Beauty—the quality you want most in a radio set are in the "Western Air Patrol"—a five-tube Tuned Radio Frequency set, built especially for the Western Auto Supply Company by one of the largest and most reliable manufacturers of radio parts in the country.

All that the Western Auto Supply Company has in resources—all that it has in reputation for responsibility and leadership—the good will of hundreds of thousands of motorists all over the West, stand back of this ideal Radio Set.

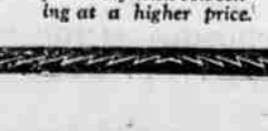

The following standard equipment is included in the WESTERN AIR PATROL. The highest usual price of $110 installed in your home ready to attach to your aerial.

- (1) Genuine mahogany or solid walnut cabinet of graceful lines. (2) Efficient loud speaker cabinets to match. (3) Five genuine Cunningham tubes. (4) Two 45-volt "Heavy Duty" Franco Radio "B" Batteries. (5) Wizard rubber case storage battery. (6) One hundred feet 7-strand aerial wire. (7) Twenty feet silk-covered lead-in wire. (8) Twenty feet rubber covered ground wire. (9) Jones Cable for "A" and "B" Battery connections. ("Simply plug in and the connections are made.") (10) Three porcelain insulators. (11) Radio Lightning Arrester.

$110.00 COMPLETE Convenient Terms

This set should not be confused with the discontinued models sometimes offered at SPECIAL prices. "Western Air Patrol" is a new model, and compares favorably with sets selling at a higher price.

More than 125 Stores in the West—Western Auto Supply Co. Salem Store, Court and High Streets

EIKER'S GUARANTEED USED FORDS PRICED RIGHT THE BLUE FRONT Liberty and Ferry Phone 121