Fair Week Quiet In Society

Traditional in Salem society is the suspension of all formal entertaining during state fair week. It simply isn't done. Salem matrons postpone their plans for afternoons of bridge, for dinners and dances and devote all their time to the informal entertaining for their friends who have come from all parts of the state to attend the state fair. Salem homes are thrown open to fair visitors but there is practically nothing of a formal nature.

Each year the night horse shows are the mecca of some of the most prominent families of the state and many familiar faces have been in the boxes again this year.

The list of box holders at the horse shows grows from year to year. A number of Salem matrons are planning delightful box parties during the past week. The shows on Wednesday and Thursday, Salem and Portland days, proving particularly popular. Adding to the local interest are the many prominent Portland men and women who have entered horses in this year's show. The Natl. McDougal, ex-Governor and Mrs. Oswald West, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hehl, Mrs. C. Edward Grelle, Mrs. Stanley C. E. Smith, Miss Dorothy McBride, Mrs. Elery W. Stone (Helen West), Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Turner, Mrs. H. R. Everding, are all well known members of the Portland Hunt club who are showing their favorite mounts here this week.

Horse shows continue to be the outstanding social events of the fall in the state capital and each year more and more prominent families are added to the list of devotees.

"Pygmalion" Coming Wednesday

With the state fair almost a matter of history interest centers largely upon the production on Wednesday evening of the famous week of Bernard Shaw's coming comedy "Pygmalion" by the Moroni Olsen players. The play is coming to Salem largely through the efforts of a number of prominent people who are interested in seeing that the best in English and American drama be brought to local audiences. With the successful support of "Pygmalion" the Olsen players will present "The Ship," the well known play by St. John Ervine on December 9 and "Friend Hannah," Paul Kester's English success, on March 1.

The plot of "Pygmalion" is well known among all lovers of Shaw. He takes the old fable of Pygmalion and his statue and makes it into life. Liza Doolittle, the cockney flower girl, is trained by a scientific scholar into a brilliant and beautiful society woman. Enter the love element. Only Liza would give the whimsical, yet piercing, and understanding presentation that it deserves. "Pygmalion" is called the play of merit plus many facts and much philosophy.

Mrs. E. M. Halden and her sons Robert and Walter, have come from their home in Blaylock in eastern Oregon, to make their home in Salem during the coming winter. Mrs. Halden (Beulah Myers) is the sister of Frank G. and Oliver Myers and has many friends in Salem who are welcoming her return. Mr. Halden will join her here at various times during the winter. Mrs. Halden came to Salem mainly in order that Robert who is twelve and Walter who is ten, might attend school here.

A number of affairs have been given very recently in Mrs. Halden's honor. Thursday night Mrs. Walter Spaulding was hostess at a box party at the horse show. In addition to Mrs. Halden Mrs. Spaulding's guests were Mrs. Carl Webb, Mrs. Frank Myers and little Leone Spaulding.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Spaulding and small daughter, Leone, left today for Newkwin where they will be week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Spaulding of Newberg.

Silver Tea Loan Fund October 16

Salem Woman's club will again assume its share of one of the outstanding philanthropic works of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs financial assistance to worthwhile girls in Oregon in accordance to plans made by officers of the club. On Friday, October 16, the club will sponsor a silver tea in the Woman's club-house on north Cottage street, for the benefit of the scholarship loan fund maintained by the federation.

Last year the Salem club sent $77.13 to the general fund. This year it is hoped to double that amount.

Mrs. Elmo S. White is chairman of the committee arranging for the tea. Her assistants are the following committee members: Mrs. E. T. Barnes, Miss Nina McNary, Mrs. Morton E. Peck, Mrs. F. G. Bowersox, Mrs. H. H. Olinger and Mrs. Ray Harriman. The invitation to the tea is extended not only to club members but to all Salem matrons and matids who are interested in assisting girls who without pecuniary aid would be unable to complete their college work.

Particularly appropriate at this time is the program announced for the next meeting of the club. On next Saturday, October 10, tea that a week before the tea will be given. Miss Jessie McGregor of Portland, formerly chairman of the federation scholarship loan board, will speak to the Salem club on the subject of "Our Girls." Miss McGregor has been a fervent worker in building up the loan fund and it is largely through her efforts that the fund has reached its present size. She will speak informally of personal cases in which the federation fund has assisted girls at crucial periods. Recently Miss McGregor resigned the chairmanship of the board and Mrs. Walter Hembree was appointed to take her place.

The Salem club is giving the tea earlier in the fall than is usually done in order that the money may be available at once for loans to deserving girls.

Mrs. E. M. Williamson was hostess at luncheon on Tuesday complimenting Mrs. J. H. Hoppes of Portland. Red Jinnah and sisters centered the table with covers for Mrs. Hoppes, Mrs. Ray Smith of Dallas, Mrs. Otto N. Hoppes, Mrs. Harold Harpole, Mrs. Paul Pinks and the hostess, Mrs. Williamson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Heller and Mrs. A. C. Stepp of Portland, were guests of Mrs. Ethel Ritter on Thursday.

WOMEN BORN 1873 TO 1881

Now Is the Critical Time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will Help You Safely Through

Convoy, Ohio. "During the Change of Life I was weak and run-down and could hardly do my work. By reading your advertisements I found out about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it has straightened me right out and made me feel like a new woman. By the time I had taken eight bottles I was well and could do my housework on the farm without trouble. I recommended it to my daughter-in-law after her second baby was born and it did her a wonderful lot of good. I told her to try it and if it didn't help her I would pay for it, and before she had taken one bottle she said to me, 'You won't have to pay for it! It is helping me wonderfully!' It has taken three bottles of it. You can use my testimonial if you wish."—Mrs. ELSTIS ACKERMAN, Convoy, Ohio.

Consider carefully Mrs. Ackerman's letter. Her experience ought to help you. She tells of the trials of middle age and the wonderful results she obtained from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Fourth Horse Show Last Night

Superb acting lifts a poor play from obscurity. Several fine horse shows from dragging. Such was the case last night in the fair grounds arena when the fourth horse show of the week was given before an audience that filled the big stadium.

Lack of competition in a number of the events resulted in a lagging of interest and half the crowd departed before the feature event of the evening—the Grafton broad jump. However, the popularity of a number of mounts that have been showing up well in the ring this week and their continued good behavior while being put through their paces and over the jumps sustained interest among the real horse lovers in the audience till the close of the show when Van Buren, a McCleave entry, was declared the winner in the Grafton broad jump.

Proceeding the show, and adding a needed touch of color to the evening's entertainment, the Umpqua Chiefs, the Coos Bay Pirates and the Bandon Beachmen, in gaudy regalia, gave several pageants in the big arena. The Bandon Beachmen depicted hundreds of starfish in the boxes. The Umpqua Chiefs gave a number of dances. They were given the cup for the best stunt put on by a hospitality club and the Bandon men received the cup for bringing the greatest number of the longest distance. The annual campers' parade through the fair grounds ended as usual last night with a tour of the stadium.

The horse show itself opened with Miss Marion McDougall showing Berkeley Beauty, her black pony, before a small gig. Her behavior would probably have won the blue ribbon under competition which it did not face last night. As the only entry the blue was of course given to the Beauty. Harmony Mathias and Molina were also the only entries in the tandem class. They are from the Oswald West stables and were driven last night by Harry Kerron.

An event which last year created much excitement was the riding by amateur for the gentleman's cup, horsemanly only being considered. Last year there were half a dozen entries and keen competition with the cup finally being awarded to Herbert Stearns, a twelve year old Salem boy. This year Herbert and a Portland youth, Bert Corbey, were the only entrants. The Portland boy, riding Topsy Sinclair, was given the cup.

The Grafton broad jump did not provide the thrills last night that were given last year when Frosty Morning, a slim gray roan from California, outdistanced by far any of the other entries who attempted to clear the "hat boxes." Van Buren, a McCleave horse, was the only entry that cleared when the last row of boxes was added.

The list of winners last night in the classes where competition was offered is as follows: Ladies' hunters: Daley Dean, Mrs. Stanley C. E. Smith owner.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rothchild of Portland, were house guests of Albert Egan for several days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Knapp of Portland were the guests this week of Mrs. Knapp's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Dalrymple.

Mrs. William Brown has as her guest over the week end her sister, Mrs. W. H. Eldridge of Portland.

No Gray Hair No falling hair, no dandruff By Edna Wallace Hopper

Mine is a grandmother's age, but my hair is a glory. I have never had falling hair or dandruff, and never a touch of gray. My hair is thick and luxuriant, finer far than 40 years ago. Yet as a girl it was scant.

That is because I searched the world for the best hair help men know. And I have kept up to date. Every new hair help has been brought to me. No woman in the world has spent what I have to attain luxuriant hair.

Now I have combined those I know in a product called Hair Youth. It contains many ingredients, concentrated. I apply it with an eyedropper, directly to the scalp.

There it combats the hardened oil and dandruff which stiffle hair roots. It tones and stimulates the scalp. It keeps the scalp healthy and clean.

That is all you can do. The scalp is like a garden. It must be cleaned, it must be cultivated. Then hair will thrive as flowers thrive in a well kept garden.

Here is the best men know, all combined in a single tonic. You apply it in a minute. And you know you are doing all that science can do for the hair.

My hair shows one result. So I know that a every woman, every man, can obtain from Hair Youth benefits nothing else can bring.

Edna Wallace Hopper's Hair Youth is now supplied by all toilet counters at 50c and $1 with eyedropper. But I will gladly send you a sample if you will mail this coupon. Do that to learn how the greatest treatment in existence can benefit your hair.
