

PRIZE WINNING ANIMALS SHOWN IN GRAND PARADE

All prize-winning livestock at the state fair this year was paraded in the stadium at half past ten o'clock this morning.

Latest awards posted in the livestock section of the fair are as follows: Horses, Percherons—Junior champion mare, P. M. Finley of Junction City.

Goats, Angoras—Champion buck, R. W. Hogg, Salem; champion doe Hiddell & Son, of Monmouth.

Red Polls—Senior and grand champion bull, Z. A. Kessel & Son, Harlan, Oregon; junior champion bull, senior and grand champion female and junior champion female, F. H. Porter of Haley.

Jerseys—Senior and grand champion bull, B. C. Junor of Champion, Wash.; senior and grand champion female, Junor of Champion, Wash.; junior champion female, Junor of Champion, Wash.

Lincolns—Champion ram, William Hiddell & Son, Monmouth; champion ewe, Hiddell.

Corriedales—Champion ram, Phil Ips & Wleacarver, McMinnville; champion ewe, Corriedale Sheep company, Orland, Cal.

Harness Races Fast; 2 Heat Records Fall; Peace Flag Claimed

Fast time featured the harness races at Lone Oak track yesterday. When Johnny Morrissey did the mile in the first heat of the 2:20 pace in 2:29 1/2 it was announced by the judges as the fastest heat paced on the track during the week.

Probably for the first time on Lone Oak track, at least for the first time in many years, a racing animal was bought yesterday by the filling of a claim.

Championship ribbons will be given out at this show, and the free-for-all high jump will undoubtedly prove the most thrilling event of the entire week.

The program follows: Overture by Douglas County Concert Band.

High jump—Senior and grand champion, J. A. Scollard, Chehalis, Wash.; senior and grand champion female and junior champion female, Congdon & Battles.

High jump—Senior and grand champion, J. A. Scollard, Chehalis, Wash.; senior and grand champion female and junior champion female, Congdon & Battles.

High jump—Senior and grand champion, J. A. Scollard, Chehalis, Wash.; senior and grand champion female and junior champion female, Congdon & Battles.

The four-furlong run for 2-year-olds was won by Virginia Hedge-worth, with Donovan up, time 1:33.

The five-furlong run was taken by Roy Man, with Donovan up, in 1:05.

Summary of harness races: Free-for-all trot, three in five heats, purse $1000—Royanna Mae (Spencer) 1 2 1 2 1 1 Lila Dee (Williams) 5 3 2 1 3 2 William Gray (Keener) 3 4 3 3 4 Bill Schultz (Merrill) 4 5 4 4 The Exodus (Huber) 1 1 5 4

Time—2:10 1/2; 2:12 1/2; 2:15 1/2; 2:14 1/2; 2:14 1/2. 2:20 pace, every heat a race, purse $500—Johnny Morrissey (Wilbourn) 1 1 4 No Limit (Halley) 3 4 1 Amy Bond (Williamson) 2 2 3 Gale L. (Woodcock) 4 3 2 Dawn Dillard (Smith) 5 5 4

Time—2:09 1/2; 2:10 1/2; 2:09 1/2. Consolation pace, every hat a race, purse $250—Hal Paxton Jr. (Woodcock) 1 1 1 George H. Wilson (Williamson) 3 2 2

Time—2:10 1/2; 2:09 1/2; 2:09 1/2. Consolation pace, every hat a race, purse $250—Hal Paxton Jr. (Woodcock) 1 1 1 George H. Wilson (Williamson) 3 2 2

The election of officers of the campers' association of the state fair was postponed until today. The only business transacted at the meeting of the board last night was the election of Mrs. George Hoeye of Oregon City, as mother queen of the pioneers, and the passing of resolutions of respect for the twelve members of the association who were here last year, but have passed on since.

The annual campers' parade which preceded this meeting, was led by L. K. Cogswell in a small wagon drawn by a goat. At the head of the procession throughout the camp grounds were Mrs. Mathew Kirkwood, a pioneer of 1843 and Mrs. Melissa Glinger, a pioneer of 1844.

The campers halted at the administration building where Mrs. Weathered, as chairman of the board of directors of the campers' association, made a short talk and introduced Governor Pierce, who, on behalf of the state, paid a tribute to the Oregon pioneers and spoke of the campers as the backbone of the Oregon fair.

F. E. Lynn, president of the state fair board, paid a tribute to the old-time campers' association of which he and Mrs. Lynn have long been members. A. C. Masters of the fair board, was the next speaker. He thanked the members of the association for their unselfish support given the state fair and especially during his administration.

CLACKAMAS IS AWARDED FIRST JUDGING PRIZE

The result of the poultry judging contest in the industrial club division of the state fair is as follows: Clackamas county first, with Viola Lienhart, Winifred Lienhart and Waldo Livingston, members; Portland second, Arthur Glass, Clyde Hanforth and Herman Egger; Multnomah county third, with Marjorie Edwards, Alvin Skiller, third.

Each team was required to judge four classes of birds, the top award being $12.

Late poultry awards follow: S. C. Anacuan—First and second cock, first cocklet, R. T. Stingley, Junction City; second cock, first and second hen, first old pen, first and second young pen, F. C. Newby and B. E. Bundy of Vancouver, Wash.; first pullet, John Schuerch, Willamina.

Silver Spangite Hamburgs—First cock, second pullet, Mrs. Elsie Kadey, Lewis; second cock, first and second hen, C. B. Wheeler, Goshen; first cocklet, first pullet, first old hen, Fred A. Johnson, Tacoma, Wash.

Dark Cornish—First cock, first and second cocklet, first and second hen, first and second pullet, H. Weisenborn, Portland; first young pen, Mrs. Rita Barnes, Salem.

Buff Orpingtons—First cock, first cocklet, second pullet, Stearns & Jackson, Clackamas; second cocklet, first pullet, first young pen, Leonard F. Ingebrand, Portland; first hen, first old pen, F. E. Evans, Salem.

Salmon Faverolles—First cock, Eugene T. Prescott, Salem; first cocklet, Mrs. Carl Harritt, Salem; first hen, Mrs. M. E. Brooks, Salem; first and second pullet, M. D. Swabb, Jefferson.

The Chemawa Indian training school has made a most creditable display at the state fair this year, occupying as formerly the entire west section of the second floor of the Agricultural building.

The shops, domestic science, home economics and academic departments have all been represented. Mr. and Mrs. Ruthy Turney, directors of the orchestra and octets, have been staging concerts each afternoon, all attracting large crowds.

FAIR SIDELIGHTS

C. B. Menor of Philomath, a former Salem business man, is the recipient of numerous calls from old friends at his camp, No. 31, Moody way.

Mrs. Mathew Kirkwood, a pioneer of 1843 was on the grounds today. She resides near Wheatland.

Roseburg people at the fair camp are: J. H. Short, 45 Downing; C. W. Parker, 24 Loony; M. Brownback; E. A. Kruse, 51 Galloway; S. D. Evans, 8 Downing.

Hillsboro sends the following fair campers this year: William Schulerich, D. Burkhalter, John B. Stewart, John Milne, P. L. Beach, Robert Greer, F. J. Miller, Mr. Schulerich is superintendent of the Agricultural pavilion.

There were 5000 persons in the fair grounds tended city Thursday night.

Mrs. J. T. Beckwith and her daughter, Mrs. Simpson have had a series of entertainments at their cottage.

Twelve guests were entertained at the Phil Fischer cottage Thursday evening.

Jesus Steiwer and Mrs. Steiwer are recipients of dozens of calls at their camp. Mr. Steiwer says that never again will he miss a state fair. He has met friends whom he had not seen since beyond days.

The Huriburt cottage and the Huriburt camps have received calls from about 400 friends. Regrets are expressed at the passing of Mark Huriburt.

Among the tented city residents for a couple of days were William McKay and wife of Champeur, Mr. McKay was born there in 1849.

A. H. Lea of Portland, former secretary of the state fair board, is an interested visitor on the grounds today.

The population of the rat colony used by the experiment station to exemplify the value of vitamins in the diet was almost doubled overnight Thursday. Nine little rattlers, less than an inch long each and naked as the moon, were born normally in the family given normal diet with vitamins.

The dinky little box organ that together with the cardboard hobby-hors represents the futility of poor farm management, as part of the experiment station exhibit, does its work to a nicety. It was picked up in a San Francisco pawn shop by H. D. Scudder, professor of farm management, and by some fortune, good or bad as the matter is viewed, synchronizes perfectly with the gallop of the disreputable looking steed.

Town home gardeners as well as farmers make notes of the way to grow four garden crops a year on the same bit of land. One group recommended in the station exhibit is early cabbage as a starter, then head lettuce, next late cauliflower, and finally fall spinach.

The taking of cedar oils right out of dry-as-dust sawdust excites a good many questions from visitors at the fair. Numerous specimens of the oils as taken by chemical students from the college right before the eyes of the observers are displayed. The purpose of the investigations is to save valuable oils from waste products, establish new industries in Oregon, and provide a larger supply of cedar chest material for protection of clothing from moths. Ways are being sought to force the cedar oils into non-cedar woods and thus make it easier to get cedar chests and other articles for moth protection.

Thomas Winn of Lane county who first place in the dairy herd record keeping project in industrial club work at the state fair this year. Second honors went to Everett Wright of Tillamook; third to Ramie Peterson of the fairgrounds. In the home beautification class, Jimmie Rees of Wasco county took first; Marjorie Liles of Lane, second, and Adena Caldwell of Klamath, third. First prize in these two projects is a free trip to the O. A. C. summer school next year.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cronise of Albany have been here attending the state fair. They remained over to take in the horse show last night. Mr. Cronise, managing editor of the Albany Democrat, is a former Salem boy, well-known here.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Fields of Orland have been in Salem this week attending the fair. They were among Portland friends represented at the horse show last night.

Mrs. S. G. Werschul and her two children, of Milwaukie, are here for a visit to the fair. Mrs. Werschul, formerly a entrant in the Salem horse show, but not participating this season, was persuaded by her friends, to ride in several events Friday night.

Mrs. Mary Humphrey, Miss Lucy Humphrey and Ogden Hall of Portland are here for the last of the state fair, being entertained at the Tozier camp, by Mrs. Edith Tozier Weathered.

E. T. Wilkins of Eugene is in camp at 40 Wilkins Avenue. This avenue was named in honor of Mr. Wilkins' grandfather, E. T. Wilkins.

Auto Clubs Meet. Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 3.—(A. P.)—Delegates from automobile clubs in Washington, Oregon and California, as well as British Columbia were here today for the first international conference of the coast automobile organizations.

POULTRY EXPERT VISITS AT FAIR

Judge Harry H. Collier of Tacoma, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. George H. Wilson of Portland, came to Salem yesterday to take in the state fair and incidentally renew acquaintance with Edward Shearer, long-time superintendent in the poultry department.

Judge Collier is a nationally-known poultry authority, the Western director of the American Poultry Association, America's leading poultry organization. Yesterday afternoon he called a meeting of members of the association who were on the fairgrounds, preliminary plans being outlined at this session for the National Convention of the association, which will be held in August in Portland. Another meeting, larger and more definite in purpose, will take place in Portland at the time of the Pacific International Livestock show, according to Judge Collier. He states that there are 250 members in Oregon.

Judge Collier and Mr. Shearer met at a poultry show in North Yakima, Wash., twenty-five years ago, and have remained good friends ever since. "We are real-true," Judge Collier explained.

Yesterday the final awards were given out in the poultry department. The champion bird of the show was found to belong to C. D. Nickelson of Hood River. It was a white Leghorn cockerel. The best bird in the Mediterranean class, first place, also was owned by Nickelson, F. A. Johnson of Tacoma, took second on a White Leghorn cock. First and second place was taken by W. H. Critser of Mulino, for light Brahma hen, best bird Asiatic class, Stearns & Jackson of Clackamas, too first of a Buff Orpington cockerel; H. Weisenborn of Portland, second on dark Cornish hen. First place on best bird, American class, was won by Bert Santor, Hood River, on White Plymouth Rock hen; second place went to Jacobson's Poultry Yards of Tacoma, on dark barred Rock cock. For the best five males, one variety, Fred A. Johnson of Tacoma, took first on white leghorns, Christopher & Young of Newberg, second on S. C. Rhode Island Reds.

Mrs. J. E. McClintock and Mrs. Vera McClintock of Roseburg, came in this morning with the Roseburg special, aggregation and will be here for several days.

There were 5000 persons in the fair grounds tended city Thursday night.

Mrs. J. T. Beckwith and her daughter, Mrs. Simpson have had a series of entertainments at their cottage.

Twelve guests were entertained at the Phil Fischer cottage Thursday evening.

Jesus Steiwer and Mrs. Steiwer are recipients of dozens of calls at their camp. Mr. Steiwer says that never again will he miss a state fair. He has met friends whom he had not seen since beyond days.

The Huriburt cottage and the Huriburt camps have received calls from about 400 friends. Regrets are expressed at the passing of Mark Huriburt.

Among the tented city residents for a couple of days were William McKay and wife of Champeur, Mr. McKay was born there in 1849.

A. H. Lea of Portland, former secretary of the state fair board, is an interested visitor on the grounds today.

The population of the rat colony used by the experiment station to exemplify the value of vitamins in the diet was almost doubled overnight Thursday. Nine little rattlers, less than an inch long each and naked as the moon, were born normally in the family given normal diet with vitamins.

The dinky little box organ that together with the cardboard hobby-hors represents the futility of poor farm management, as part of the experiment station exhibit, does its work to a nicety. It was picked up in a San Francisco pawn shop by H. D. Scudder, professor of farm management, and by some fortune, good or bad as the matter is viewed, synchronizes perfectly with the gallop of the disreputable looking steed.

Town home gardeners as well as farmers make notes of the way to grow four garden crops a year on the same bit of land. One group recommended in the station exhibit is early cabbage as a starter, then head lettuce, next late cauliflower, and finally fall spinach.

The taking of cedar oils right out of dry-as-dust sawdust excites a good many questions from visitors at the fair. Numerous specimens of the oils as taken by chemical students from the college right before the eyes of the observers are displayed. The purpose of the investigations is to save valuable oils from waste products, establish new industries in Oregon, and provide a larger supply of cedar chest material for protection of clothing from moths. Ways are being sought to force the cedar oils into non-cedar woods and thus make it easier to get cedar chests and other articles for moth protection.

HORSE SHOW TO CLOSE TONIGHT

The most interesting event of the week at the state fair horse show will be pulled off tonight. This will be the final event in the driving competition, in which $200 is to be competed for as a first prize. The two previous events were on Thursday and Friday nights. The following five teams are competing: D. F. Burge of Albany; Robert C. McCroskey, Garfield, Wash.; H. W. Merritt, Rosalia, Wash.; The Damascus Creamery company of Portland, and the Smith Dairy of Aberdeen, Wash.

Championship ribbons will be given out at this show, and the free-for-all high jump will undoubtedly prove the most thrilling event of the entire week. High lights in this event will be the entries of McCleave, Welsh Brothers, Nat McDougal, Mrs. J. H. Held and Miss Ethel McElhenny.

The program follows: Overture by Douglas County Concert Band.

Six-in-hand (driving competition) Champion Three Gaited Champion Hunters Champion Heavy Harness Novice Saddle Champion Five Gaited Ladies' Cup Ladies' and Gentlemen's Pairs—3 gaited Garment race Free-for-all high jump

A. Deesler, Silverton, champion ewe, Eldon Fox, Silverton.

Dorsets—Champion ram and champion ewe, E. A. Gamble, Chilliwack, B. C.

Goats—Pure bred Toggenburg—Champion buck, R. B. Stingley, Junction City; champion doe, Albert Teal, Falls City.

CAMPERS DELAY ELECTION DAY

The election of officers of the campers' association of the state fair was postponed until today. The only business transacted at the meeting of the board last night was the election of Mrs. George Hoeye of Oregon City, as mother queen of the pioneers, and the passing of resolutions of respect for the twelve members of the association who were here last year, but have passed on since.

The annual campers' parade which preceded this meeting, was led by L. K. Cogswell in a small wagon drawn by a goat. At the head of the procession throughout the camp grounds were Mrs. Mathew Kirkwood, a pioneer of 1843 and Mrs. Melissa Glinger, a pioneer of 1844.

The campers halted at the administration building where Mrs. Weathered, as chairman of the board of directors of the campers' association, made a short talk and introduced Governor Pierce, who, on behalf of the state, paid a tribute to the Oregon pioneers and spoke of the campers as the backbone of the Oregon fair.

F. E. Lynn, president of the state fair board, paid a tribute to the old-time campers' association of which he and Mrs. Lynn have long been members. A. C. Masters of the fair board, was the next speaker. He thanked the members of the association for their unselfish support given the state fair and especially during his administration.

INDIAN SCHOOL DISPLAY FINE

The Chemawa Indian training school has made a most creditable display at the state fair this year, occupying as formerly the entire west section of the second floor of the Agricultural building.

The shops, domestic science, home economics and academic departments have all been represented. Mr. and Mrs. Ruthy Turney, directors of the orchestra and octets, have been staging concerts each afternoon, all attracting large crowds.

The Chemawa Indian training school has made a most creditable display at the state fair this year, occupying as formerly the entire west section of the second floor of the Agricultural building.

The shops, domestic science, home economics and academic departments have all been represented. Mr. and Mrs. Ruthy Turney, directors of the orchestra and octets, have been staging concerts each afternoon, all attracting large crowds.

Advertisement for Lillian Gish in 'Romola' and Dorothy Gish in 'Henry King'. Includes showtimes (Mat. 35c, 10c; Eve. 50c, 10c) and venue 'HELIC'. Text: 'STARTS TODAY...For a Four Day Run It's the Picture You Should Not Miss'. 'The World is Talking about it—MAGNIFICENTLY beautiful. A stirring tale of love, piracy, treachery and revolution! Impressive with the intrigues of an age when Romance lived truly. Glorious with the glory of ancient Florence. A story of lust for power, of romance and revenge!' 'To see it is to see the Screen's Greatest. with DOROTHY GISH in 'HENRY KING' PRODUCTION from the novel by GEORGE ELIOT. DOROTHY GISH. Screenplay by Metro-Goldwyn.' 'Special Music by Robert Clark, Jr. Popular Organist. Continuous Show Sunday 2-11. For Your Convenience Always The Hellig Courtesy Ushers at Attendance.'

Advertisement for Atwater Kent Radio. Features an image of a man playing a radio. Text: 'ATWATER KENT RADIO. Brings you every crack of the bat—every roar of the crowd! On WWJ tonight! The Atwater Kent Radio Artists are on the air tonight—and every Thursday night—at 9 o'clock Eastern Standard Time. We think so much of this grand program of good music that it is broadcast over all these stations: WEAP...New York, WJAZ...Providence, WEEI...Boston, WFL...Philadelphia, WCCO...Minneapolis-St. Paul, WOC...Davenport. Hear it tonight and you will agree that no other program goes on the air at any hour of the week.' 'Strike two—that makes two and two—and the crowd's going crazy—listen to 'em—trying to rattle the pitcher—but he's cool—he winds up—it's a fast one—he hit it—oh, what a smash!—Listen to that yelling—it's a three-bagger to deep left field...' 'Your seat at the World Series game is waiting for you. It's right in the press box where you see everything that happens. And it's a big, deep, comfortable chair, your favorite chair in your own living room. For you can be the center of a miracle; you can be in two places at once. All you need is a radio... Have you got one? If not, don't delay another day. There's something happening every minute, something much too good to miss. But don't buy just a radio. Get one that is scientifically built, one that is built for all-around service—for tone and volume, distance and selectivity—one you can depend on when you want it. In short, an Atwater Kent.' 'Model 20 Compact—Price, $85. Model 20—Price, $85. Model 10 (with out tube) $85. Model L Radio Spyders Model H.'

Advertisement for 'Closing Out Auction Sale! Tuesday, Oct. 6th 10:00 a.m.' Located 5 Miles North and One-Half Mile East of Pacific Highway on Chemawa and Silverton Road, consisting of 1 Horse—7 Cows—225 Chickens. Mare, 10 years old, weight 1000 lbs.; Jersey cow, age 6 years, freshened Sept. 5, gives 4 gallons; Guernsey and Durham cow, 3 years old, to freshen Oct. 16; Jersey cow, 3 years old, to freshen November 6; 3 Jersey and Guernsey cows to freshen in February and March; large Guernsey, age 8 years, to freshen in January—6-gallon cow; 2 calves, 1 month old; calf, 4 months old; 225 Hanson Strain White Leghorn pullets and cockerels. Hay, Tractor, Farm Machinery, Threshing Machine. 10 tons oat and vetch hay, baled; 10-20 Titan tractor, used only one year; 20-6 J. I. Case threshing, good condition; 7-ft. Tandem tractor disc; John Deere 2 bottom 14-inch plow; garden cultivator; 10-inch grinder; trailer; Warehouse grain cleaner; 1500-lb capacity scale; DeLaval cream separator; stand of bees and bee supplies; 2 cream cans; set carpenter tools, blacksmith tools, including forgo, anvil, press drill, bits, pipe vise, baktruck pipe dies, blacksmith dies; garden tools; 3 log chains; 150 feet 1/2-inch cable, 2 snatch blocks; whiffletrees; neck yokes; dry belts and other belts; heater; Hoosier cabinet; dining table, rocker; Congoleum rug 9x12; 5 1/2 cords 16-inch old fir dry wood, and other wood; library table; stand table; milk pails; 600 grain sacks; crockery and many other miscellaneous articles. Lunch Served on Grounds. TERMS: All sums of $20 and under, cash; over that amount, 6 months' time will be given to parties furnishing notes bearing interest at 8%, approved by the First National Bank of Salem, who will clerk the sale. LOUIS KOBOV, Owner. Phone 104F12. F. N. WOODRY, Auctioneer, Salem, Ore.

Advertisement for 'Closing Out Auction Sale! Wednesday, Oct. 7th 10:00 a.m.' Farm—Farm Stock—Machinery—Hay—Grain—Furniture and Everything. Located one mile east of Marion on the Marion and Stayton Road, consisting of 106 acre improved farm, black loam soil with some gravel in it, well drained, fenced, fair house and barn and other out-buildings, family orchard, good water, close to school and church. To be sold on the following terms: Purchaser assumes personal loan of $1,500 at 6%; also makes cash payment of $500, cash on day of sale, $2,500 on approval of abstract, balance of purchase price to suit purchaser. If farm is not sold it will be rented on day of sale for a cash rental. Personal Property as Follows: 1 Team, age 7 years, weight 2500 lbs.; 1 team, age 12 years, weight 2800 lbs.; 2 high grade Jersey cows, fresh; 2 high grade Jersey cows, 1 year old; 1 O. I. C. brood sow, weight 200 lbs.; 1 shoat, weighing 80 lbs.; 1 7-foot McCormick blinder; 1 McCormick mower; 1 McCormick hay rake; 2 3/4-inch Hain wagons, good; hay racks and wagon box; 1 6-foot disc harrow; 1 8-foot disc harrow; 1 Hoosier Double Disc drill; 1 hand food cutter; 1 Western Flanning mill; 1 new Wade drag saw; 2 14-inch walking plows; 1 new platform scales; 1 potato digger; 1 14-inch Deering plow; 1 3-section lever harrow; 1 2-section lever harrow; 1 new set heavy team harness; 2 sets plow harness; 2 grindstones; 1 Anchor Holt cream separator; 15 sacks spring wheat; 90 sacks white oats; 8 sacks vetch seed; 40 sacks grey oats; 10 tons clover hay in barn; 15 tons vetch and oat hay in barn; 60 mixed chickens; hay fork and 150 feet of rope; furniture, fruit jars; washing machine; tools, etc. Free Lunch and Coffee at Noon. TERMS: All sums of $20 and under, cash; over that amount six months' time will be given to parties furnishing approved bankable notes bearing interest at 8% per annum on notes accepted by the First National Bank of Stayton who will be clerk of sale. NOTICE—The above farm will be for rent on day of sale if farm is not sold. HERMAN HANSEL, Owner. F. N. WOODRY, Auctioneer, Stayton, Oregon. Salem's Leading Auctioneer. Phone 51. PUBLIC NOTICE: See F. N. Woodry, Salem's leading auctioneer for the past 16 years about your farm and city sales. Not connected in business with any other Woodry. "Don't be deceived." F. N. WOODRY, Expert Livestock, Merchandise, Real Estate and General Sales Farm Sales. Auctioneer and Appraiser. Residence and Store 1610 N. Summer St., Salem, Oregon. Phone 511.