Miss Dick Honored at Bridge Tea

Complimenting Miss Pauline Dick of Portland, who was married to James Ward Lively on October 17 will be one of the outstanding events of the month in Portland society. Mrs. Frederick Deckbach and Mrs. Richard Slater were hostesses at a bridge tea in the Deckbach home today. Five tables of bridge players were guests for the afternoon with a number of additional matrons and maids coming in at the tea hour.

Masses of zinnias and bright colored asters were arranged effectively about the living rooms. In the dining room Michaelmas daisies and dahlias were used predominantly. A color plan of mauve and green was carried out on the tea table with mauve candles used in silver candleabra. Mrs. Russell Catlin presided at the urns with Mrs. E. C. Cross cutting tea. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Willis J. Roughton, Mrs. Frank Spears and Mrs. Gue Hixon.

The guest group included Miss Dick, Mrs. G. L. Dick, Miss Frances Dick, Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. E. C. Cross, Mrs. Milton Meyer, Mrs. Frank Spears, Mrs. Frits Slade, Mrs. Allan Carson, Mrs. Dan Fry, Jr., Mrs. Curtis Cross, Mrs. Harry Hawkins, Miss Mable Robertson, Mrs. F. A. Elliott, Mrs. J. C. Connelley, Mrs. E. W. Craven of Dallas, Mrs. Hugh Starr of Los Angeles, Mrs. Homer Egan, Mrs. F. G. Deckbach, Mrs. C. J. Bright, Mrs. Dorothy Patterson, Miss Prudence Patterson, Mrs. Lewis Griffith, Mrs. Claude Stensloff, Mrs. G. F. Chambers, Miss Mary Jane Albert, Miss Maxine Buren, Mrs. Orris Fry, Mrs. Gus Hixon, Mrs. Breyman Holan, Mrs. P. D. Quisenberry, Miss Helen Corey, Miss Josephine Baumgartner, Miss Florence Cartwright, Mrs. Willis J. Roughton, Miss Frances Hodges and Miss Margaret Griffith.

Mrs. E. E. Fisher, representing the Salem Women's club, Mrs. J. A. Cronan and Mrs. W. H. Byrd, prominent Salem health workers will attend the health meeting in Portland tomorrow directed by officers of the state tuberculosis association. Representatives from all parts of the state will be present. Marion county will be represented by women from Silverton, Mt. Angel and Woodburn. Speakers at the morning and afternoon sessions will be Dwight Anderson, representing the national tuberculosis association, Mrs. Saldie Orr Dunbar, president of the Oregon State Federation of Women's clubs, and Rowan Wheelton. Mr. Anderson's talk will be entitled, "National Health Divisions from Your Penicillin and Mine." Mrs. Dunbar will cover the subject from the standpoint of state and local divisions, and Mr. Wheelton will speak on publicity. A number of other topics will be taken up during the day.

Mrs. Amney Geener Davidson had as her guest last week her brother, Dr. Jamison Geener of Arlington. Dr. Geener is a member of a pioneer Salem family and was graduated from the medical college at Willamette university more than fifty years ago. During his visit here Mrs. Davidson and Dr. Geener motored with their nephew, Sam Rumlitt, to the old Geener homestead to visit their brother, Ben Geener. The old homestead was taken up by their parents in 1845 and has been in the family ever since.

Members of Barbara Fritschle sewing club which is made up of members of Barbara Fritschle tent No. 2, Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War, will motor to Silverton tomorrow afternoon where they will be the guests of Mrs. Minnie Fishwood. Those wishing to go are asked to meet at the west side of the supreme court building at 12:45.

The Eveready birthday club will meet on Friday at the home of Mrs. Clara Thorpe Adams, 255 east Washington street. Honor guests will be Mrs. Lizzie W. Smith and Mrs. Julia Strand. This will be an all day meeting with a pot luck lunch served at noon.

The Salem McDowell club will hold its first rehearsal of the new year on Friday evening, beginning at seven thirty, in Kimball college. The first club concert will be given on October 26.

Study classes in Oregon history opened yesterday in the Salem Woman's club under the direction of the educational committee of the club with an enthusiastic group of club members attending. The classes will meet regularly on alternating Mondays beginning at two o'clock.

Professor Robert Gatlke opened the class in Oregon history on the seminar plan. An extensive bibliography was furnished the class members. Mrs. George H. Alden opened the current evening class in the form of an open forum. In absence of the regular class leader, Rev. Martin Feresethian who has been called east, Mrs. J. C. Nelson assumed charge of the literature section.

LARGE PIMPLES LASTED YEARS
On Face and Neck. Hard and Red. Cuticura Heals.

"I was bothered very much with pimples breaking out on my face and neck. They were large, hard and red and festered. The pimples were very annoying as well as unsightly as they itched all the time, and my face was disfigured. The trouble lasted for years.

"I tried many different preparations for the skin with unsatisfactory results. I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and after using two cakes of Cuticura Soap and several boxes of Cuticura Ointment I was healed." (Signed) Mrs. Earl Weygandt, Box 23, Whites, Wash., Apr. 7, 1925.

Use Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum for daily toilet purposes.

See Dr. Chalmers at the Talcum Soap Store, 1000 Broadway, New York City. Address: Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. M-10, Malden, Mass.

Comedy At Heilig Tomorrow

Each winter a few good road shows under the customary commercial management come to Salem. Last winter Channing Pollock's "The Fool," well known Broadway success, "The Cat and Canary," and several others that have been well received throughout the entire country, stopped here for one night. However Salem has always been woefully amiss in supporting good drama. Theater managers say Salem audiences will not support good plays. A test of this statement will be made tomorrow evening when "Pygmalion" will be presented at the Heilig theater.

Engagement Announced At Dinner

The announcement of the engagement of Miss Elsie Boynton to Floyd Volke was made at the dinner hour last night when Miss Boynton entertained members of the T. H. D. club and several additional guests. The wedding will take place in November.

Baskets of pink and white asters were used on the dining table. In the center was a huge white cake banked with ferns and flowers. Pink candles were used in crystal holders. Tiny cards at each cover carried the news of the engagement.

In the group were Miss Ruth Walker, Miss Edna Worden, Miss Doris Bowden, Miss Pauline Patterson, Miss Frances Plov, Miss Bertha Miller, Miss Irene Boje, Miss Marlowe Miller, Miss Reta Clegg, Miss Hattie Brown, Miss Ola Volke, Mrs. Cal Patton and Miss Boynton.

Garden Club Plans Year's Program

The Salem Garden club, formerly known as the Salem Floral society has arranged for talks by prominent gardeners and flower lovers of the vicinity for each of the months during the coming year, according to information contained in a small year's program which is just off the press.

Meetings are held regularly on the fourth Tuesday of each month. On October 27 Mrs. Alice H. Dodd will speak on the gardens of Greece and discussions will be held on the arranging of a perennial border and the fall planting of bulbs. In November Miss Mirpah Blair will speak on Egyptian gardens and a chrysanthemum show will be held at the same time. Italian gardens will be described by Miss Edith Hazzard at the December meeting and the auxiliary subject will be Christmas greens and decorating.

Ernest Euler will speak on Swiss rock gardens at the January meeting and a list will be given of the plants furnished for local rock gardens. The gardens of France will be the subject of Mrs. W. H. Burghardt, who will return in November from a year's study abroad. At the February meeting, English gardens will be enlarged upon by W. C. Dibble at the March meeting when the planting of annuals will also be discussed. Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson will speak on Japanese gardens at the next meeting and Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Van Trump will take up early and modern American gardens at the May meeting. A tulip exhibit will be held in connection with the April meeting and an iris exhibit will be given in May. The annual flower show will be sponsored in June and garden at home days and garden teas will be given throughout the summer.

Professor Robert Gatlke opened the class in Oregon history on the seminar plan. An extensive bibliography was furnished the class members. Mrs. George H. Alden opened the current evening class in the form of an open forum. In absence of the regular class leader, Rev. Martin Feresethian who has been called east, Mrs. J. C. Shipley's ard prize play for 1922, "You and I," written by Phillip Barry, Shaw's "Candida" and others.

This year the players are opening with "Pygmalion" which never fails to win gales of laughter from audiences. The story of a little London flower girl, her discovery by an eminent scholar and his transformation of the cockney child into a polished and sophisticated society woman and hundreds of amusing incidents accompanying the transformation make up the plot of the play which is one of Shaw's funniest and best. Surely nothing about it suggests objectionable improvement yet it satisfies those who wish merely to be amused and those who demand drama of distinction.

One of the first of the bridge luncheon clubs to commence its year's program is the Friday bridge luncheon club which will meet on Friday of this week at the home of Mrs. Elmer Daue. Members of the club are Mrs. U. Scott Page, Mrs. Elmer Daue, Mrs. F. G. Delano, Mrs. Earl Fisher, Mrs. P. E. Fullerton, Mrs. Lee on W. Gleason, Mrs. E. A. Kurik, Mrs. O. A. Olson, Mrs. Claire Vibbert, Mrs. Harley White, Mrs. David Wright and Mrs. A. A. Gueffroy.

Mrs. John Bertelson will be hostess tomorrow in her home at 110 Lefelle street to members of the Leslie ladies aid society.

True Story

Fifty Thousand Dollars for TRUE STORIES

Your Own Story May Be Your Fortune!

THE publishers of True Story Magazine are going to pay Fifty Thousand Dollars to three hundred and eleven men and women in amounts ranging from $5,000 to $100 in exchange for true stories. Why not be among them?

Nearly every man and woman has lived at least one story, which has more power for good, than any fiction story ever written.

It is stories of this kind that True Story is ever in search of—true stories of the human heart, stories of struggles against tremendous odds, of success won through sacrifice, stories of endless devotion, of hate that sears the soul, of men ruined through women's wives, of other men made great through woman's love.

It is because True Story publishes stories like these that each month nearly two million five hundred thousand people buy it.

Why We Are Making This Unusual Offer

We are now receiving ample stories at regular space rates, but if it is possible to raise the quality of True Story it is our desire to do so.

Therefore we are making this unprecedented offer of $50,000 for three hundred and eleven stories.

Every person has an equal opportunity in this contest. Remember, the story is the thing that counts—not literary skill. If it contains the human quality we seek it will receive preference over tales more skilfully written.

The November True Story is now on the newsstands. In it there are twenty-two examples of the kind of story most acceptable. While it is not necessary for you to either buy or read True Story in order to enter the contest, a first hand knowledge of the magazine should help you in preparing your story.

Stories may be sent in at any time from now until May 31st, 1926. In submitting manuscripts please carefully observe the rules which appear elsewhere on this page.

Read in November True Story

What Money Cannot Buy, When Beauty Betrays, His Hour of Faith, Depths of Endurance, Her Tangled Life, Should a Woman Tell? The Woman Who Knew, Ashes of the Past, Would you Forgive Him? His Fatal Mistake, The Road of Indiscretion, The Lesson I Learned, The Widow in White, Blind Love, If He Hadn't Missed Her, One Sow—Another Reaps.

Also 5 other equally thrilling stories.

Rules Governing True Story Contest

All stories must be written in the first person.

Typewritten manuscripts are preferred, though manuscripts written in pen and ink will be accepted. Proofed manuscripts will not be read.

Write on one side of the paper only and do not use blue ink or correction fluid.

Write your full name and address in upper left hand corner of first page of your manuscript. Number the pages.

Address your manuscript to the True Story Contest Editor, 1525 Broadway, New York City. Unless so indicated no manuscript will be entered in the contest.

Enclose with it a self-addressed stamped envelope.

Every effort will be made to return unavailable manuscripts, but we do not hold ourselves responsible for such returns, and we advise all contestants to retain a copy of manuscripts submitted.

Upon receipt of each manuscript, an acknowledgment will be mailed to the sender.

Awards will be made for the best stories submitted. Stories will be judged from the viewpoint of human experience and interest regardless of literary merit.

The decision of the judges on all manuscripts will be final, there being no appeal from their decision.

The contest is open to everyone except employees of Macfadden Publications and members of their families.

The contest will close at midnight, May 31st, 1926.

Only manuscripts received on or before midnight of May 31st, 1926 will be admitted in the contest.

Any story considered acceptable by the judges for immediate publication will be paid for at our regular rates and this in no way will affect the judges or their decision.
