

SALEM HI TO PLAY WEST LINN HERE FRIDAY

Tomorrow afternoon the Salem high school will have their first real game of the season when it meets the West Linn eleven on Sweetland field. The West Linn team is reputed to have a fast, snappy aggregation and the locals will have to work hard to get a win over them. The general dope gives the red and black team a good margin, however.

Huntington has been blessed with any amount of material this season and the team will be even better than the one last year, it is thought. Heenan will be missed, of course, but not as much as at first thought. Bob Drager showed up fine in the game with the alumni last Saturday. He is able to manage the team in great shape and shows promise of making good yardage on returning punts. Heenan's strong point. New material has proven to be of excellent calibre and the locals are pointing their guns at the strong Corvallis high school team which has won the Willamette valley championship for the last three years.
