

From the Richest and Best Part of the State

REV. HALL TO CONTINUE WORK AT SILVERTON

Silverton, Or., Oct. 10.—(Special.)—The Rev. E. Hall, who has been pastor at the Methodist Episcopal church at Silverton for the past four years, accepted a call to Tillamook at the recent state conference of Methodist churches held at Eugene. The Rev. and Mrs. Hall packed all of their household goods, even to the kitchen utensils. Now they are unpacking again, for they will not leave Silverton and go to Tillamook.

When Silverton saw that the Rev. and Mrs. Hall were really ready to leave, Silverton got busy. The official board of the local Methodist church, backed by a number of Silverton business men, called a special meeting. Rev. Mr. Hall was asked to reconsider. The Rev. Mr. Hall reconsidered. Those in authority were reached by telephone and within a short time agreeable arrangements were made whereby Rev. Mr. Hall will remain at Silverton. Mr. Morrow of Dundee, who was to have replaced Rev. Mr. Hall at Silverton, will go to Tillamook.

SILVERTON

Silverton, Or., Oct. 10.—(Special.)—A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Friday morning at their home six miles east of Silverton. J. E. Hosmer returned Thursday evening from official business at Kelso, Wash. Elwin Munson returned Thursday from Aberdeen, S. Dak., where he has been looking after property interests.

The American Legion Auxiliary is making plans for a big annual ball to be given on Halloween night. Mrs. Claire Jarvis was appointed chairman of the committee in charge of the dance. John B. Woodward of Silverton and Mrs. Minnie M. Graves of Billings, Montana, were married at Vancouver, Wash., in the early part of this week. Mr. Woodward owns a grocery store at North Side addition. Mr. and Mrs. Woodward were welcomed upon their return to Silverton, by a large group of friends.

Delegates from Silverton attending the East Willamette Association of Congregational churches at Corvallis this week were Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Jude, Mrs. Watt, Mrs. J. Nordgaard, Mrs. L. R. Linn, Miss Nellie Linn, Mrs. Conner and Francis Leitch. The Interurban Telephone company of Silverton of which Percy Brown is manager, has completed the installation of a great deal of new cable to replace the old open wire formerly used. On North Second street 1500 feet has been placed on Coolidge street 800 feet, and on East Oak street 600 feet has been installed. Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Larson entertained with a pleasant little dinner party at their home east of Silverton Friday evening. The occasion was Mrs. Larson's birthday. Miss Virginia Smith who has been spending the past few weeks with sisters living in California has returned to her home at Silverton. Roy Gibson and Chester Davis who have been at Silverton for the past ten weeks will leave next week for their home in Milwaukee, Wis. They will return through California. Gibbons has been with the Pacific Transfer Company and Mr. Davis with L. E. Inman plumbing company while at Silverton. Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Wells and daughter, Evelyn, have moved to Salem to make their home. Mr. Wells has employment there. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Raven have moved from the Redland home on Grant street to the home of Mrs. H. M. Simms on Coolidge street. Mrs. Simms is attending the State Normal this winter. Mrs. Iver Gunderson is reported as being very ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. E. Jorgensen. Erwin Lucke and his sister, Miss Cora Lucke of Fargo, N. D., are visiting at the home of the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Lindseth. Mr. Lucke, who is an electrical engineer, will remain at Silverton if he finds anything suitable in his line of work. Silverton business men report that Silverton was a busy place Friday and that they expect it will be as busy if not more so today. Yesterday and today are the monthly bargain days at Silverton. Besides being Bargain Day today is also Pay Day which usually brings a great many mill workers into the business section of Silverton.

NEWS FROM NEARBY VALLEY POINTS

By Capital Journal's Special Correspondents

WEST SALEM

West Salem, Or., Oct. 10.—Rev. F. L. Cannell, wife and little daughter, Gertrude, have returned from Eugene, where they attended the recent Methodist conference. Rev. Mr. Cannell has been assigned to the West Salem and Summit churches for another year and the members and workers in the church welcome him and his family back. The West Salem church on Sunday school are looking with pleasure toward a very active and spiritual year. With four ministers and other workers who are interested in the Sunday school and other activities of the church, Rev. Wiley Weathers occupied the pulpit both morning and evening, and delivered some very spiritual and helpful messages during the pastor's absence.

The Ladies Aid of the local church met on Wednesday afternoon to hold their regular meeting, and so it was the first meeting of the conference year officers were elected for the ensuing year. All the old officers were put in for another year, with the exception of the president, Mrs. William Andrews, who upon resigning after a faithful and very active leadership for almost two years, Miss Lotie McDaniels was unanimously elected to this office. All the members of the society feel they have chosen a wide-awake and capable leader and will do all in their power to help her and make the society a means of help in the church, both in a financial and social way, as it has proven to be in the past.

The regular monthly Sunday school board meeting met at the church on Thursday evening after the mid-week prayer meeting. Quite a few members were present. Officers and teachers were elected for the year. All the old officers were retained and one new officer was elected as assistant superintendent. Miss McDaniels was given this office. Two new teachers were elected, Mrs. Charles Adams for the intermediate girls and Mrs. Charles Burleigh for the junior boys class. The scholars are being drilled for rally day and each member of the Sunday school is urged to look for a large attendance on that day. The city council met on Monday evening and some very important business was discussed. A city treasurer was elected to serve in the place of Walter Means. Ralph Nelson was given this position.

What might have resulted in a very serious accident happened on Saturday evening on the highway between West Salem and Kola, near the log dump, when Edward Hamer and another car had a collision. Mr. Hamer's lights went out very suddenly and before he was aware of it the cars collided. The car Mr. Hamer was driving was so completely wrecked that it cannot be repaired, but otherwise no serious injuries were sustained by the occupants of the machines. Mr. Shields is very seriously ill at his home here. He has a nurse attending him. Hugo Carlson and daughter, Josephine, have returned to their home near Marshfield, after visiting at the homes of Mrs. Bell and Robert Dunn. Mr. and Mrs. Seborn and children, Mrs. Harbor and Mrs. Sarah Sutton motored to near Mill City, Sunday. Mrs. Sutton remained for a few days to visit her daughter, Mrs. Brown.

The West Side cannery has finished packing pears after about two months of steady work. Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Cox and daughter, Ruby, of Portland were week-end guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. Fred Laughoff. "School days, school days, dear old golden rule days." The public school opened here with a good attendance. Two new instructors to fill the vacancy of those resigning have been engaged. The teachers and scholars are anticipating a successful and happy year. Mrs. R. A. Hunt is visiting her son, Will Squires, near Portland. Little Betty Maxine Krou of Portland visited at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ross, and her great grandparents, Mrs. Adams, during the week. Mrs. J. Best visited her nephew, John Buhle and wife of Portland, during the past week. Mrs. Bright of Salem is staying at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wood, and is very seriously ill. Mrs. Lulu Clark and children motored to Dundee, Sunday, to see her daughter, Gladys, Gladys Howe Dundee but loves West Salem better. Dorothy Robertson has returned home after visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Kuney of Aumsville. Lillian Boatright is the guest of her father, M. H. Boatright of Franklin avenue, this week.

LIVESLEY

Livesley, Oct. 10.—M. L. Salchenberg purchased a Chevrolet touring car this week. Mr. and Mrs. P. Cleveland of Salem visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Bradbury Wednesday. School started Monday with Miss Frank of Stayton as principal and Mrs. Roy Grotte as primary teacher. There are about forty-five pupils enrolled. Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Fidler moved to Salem last Tuesday for the winter. Miss Freddie Bradburg is staying with her sister Mrs. Ed Tanner in Salem. Miss Lorena Zietke is attending the Monmouth normal this winter. Mrs. J. W. Eldridge of Hatoon, New Mexico, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs.

S. G. Davenport went to Portland Friday to visit with her sister, Mrs. A. Senler and also her son Gordon Greenstreet before returning to New Mexico. Martin Anna spent the week end with friends at Tualatin. Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bender of Myrtle Point, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Carpenter, Sunday. W. C. Pettyjohn is doing some repair work at the school house this week. Rev. R. McElvenna who was living in the back of the church has been assigned to the church at Jefferson and moved up there Tuesday. Miss Alice Zietke has recently accepted a position as private secretary of Judge O. P. Coshov. Rev. and Mrs. E. Ranton and children spent Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Carpenter. Mr. and Mrs. Phil Gilham, Mrs. Geo. Gilham and Miss Luella Brown all of Roseburg spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Higgins, and attended the state fair Saturday. A. Burden and family moved into the Dennis house this week. Mr. A. Townsend and family worked back to their home at Finzer. Mrs. A. Coullidge was the first to entertain the G. T. club after the summer vacation. A pleasant afternoon was spent after a delicious luncheon served at 1:30 o'clock. Those present were Mrs. W. V. Johnson, Mrs. B. D. Fidler, Mrs. G. S. Higgins, Mrs. J. P. Bressler, Mrs. J. A. Pearson, Mrs. J. P. Holley, Mrs. G. P. Sharkey, Mrs. B. Slutesman, Mrs. P. J. Lalman, Mrs. N. P. Kugel, Mrs. H. B. Carpenter, Mrs. S. C. Davenport, Mrs. C. W. Schwab and Mrs. J. W. Eldridge. Mrs. H. B. Carpenter will entertain the G. T. club with a one o'clock luncheon October 22. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Zetke moved back to their home west of Kola. Mr. and Mrs. Zetke and son spent Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Davenport.

LIBERTY

Liberty, Oct. 10.—The south division of the Presbyterian aid society will meet at the home of Mrs. A. P. Marcus next Wednesday afternoon, October 14. The Marcus home is just across the road from Dr. Crutcher. All women of the neighborhood are invited to contribute one piece of more of needlework for the bazaar and fair to be held at Liberty early in November. B. V. Ohmart has resumed work at the state house. Mrs. Emily Adair of Salem was a dinner guest at the Dallas home last Sunday. Dinner guests at the Henry Gilbert home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Allen, Miss Marjorie Hensen and Miss Rita Grimes from Corvallis. Miss Hansen and Miss Grimes are missionaries home on leave of absence from Korea. The Women's club will meet at the hall Thursday afternoon, October 15. Bruce Cunningham has charge of the program, and the refreshment committee is Mrs. Fred Scott, Mrs. William Gosel, Mrs. James Wood and Mrs. Russell Wright. Please bring needle and thread and help finish the quilt. Everybody welcome. Miss Covell, health nurse, was a welcome visitor at school last Wednesday. She gave an instructive health talk to the pupils in the intermediate and primary pupils. Other visitors of the week were Mrs. B. Cunningham, Mrs. Peter Pearson, Mrs. Ed Westenhous and Mrs. Ralph Gibson. The latter attended the special Friday morning program, which was given by Sabina Schmidt of the ninth grade and Janette Deah of the eighth grade. An autumn social will be given soon under the auspices of the Sunday school. J. H. Dasch, who has been working at Toledo, has returned home, and is employed at Hunt brothers cannery in Salem. The Dasch family will soon move from the Chest nut place, but we hope they will not leave our community. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schuler, who have been visiting at the Bruce Fox home, left recently for their home in Middleton, Idaho. Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Hoag were Portland visitors Saturday. Mrs. H. A. Wright returned home Thursday from Portland where she has been visiting. Homer P. Cleveland and Edward H. Hamel are serving on the jury at the Murray trial. W. H. Neuen, who was injured by a fall last week is recovering nicely, and will be able to resume his work perhaps next week. Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Cleveland plan to go to California about the first of November. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Norton from Washington are visiting at the home of Ed Westenhous and P. L. Pearson. Mr. H. O. Ray has returned home from southern Oregon, where he has been deer hunting. Messrs Oscar and Albert Nelson from Illinois are visiting James Wolfe and family. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Neugebald of Portland were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Browning.

GERVAIS

The Hermosa club met at the home of Mrs. W. E. Nutting on Thursday afternoon with the following present, Madamew Koppinger, Stevens, Harper, C. W. Cutsforth, Henning, Brown, Cannard, Wadsworth, Manning, DeJardin, F. T. Cutsforth and Nutting. The afternoon was spent pleasantly chatting and sewing after which a delightful luncheon was served by the hostess assisted by her sister, Mrs. F. T. Cutsforth. G. T. Wadsworth was an overnight visitor in Portland Thursday. C. W. Cutsforth and family spent Wednesday evening at Zeno Schwab's home in Aurora. Guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Allsup the past week were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hugel and children of Cascade Locks, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Parker of Fairfield. Miss Amy Harding was a Salem visitor on Wednesday. Mrs. E. W. Snyder entertained with a dinner party of Salem people on Wednesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Fick who will depart on Saturday for Kalamazoo, Michigan by auto, her guests were Mrs. D. E. Blackburn and daughters, Lavana and Velma, Mrs. Clara Carson, Mrs. Sylvia Smith, Mildred Carson, Hens Davidson, Howard Price and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Fick. Mrs. Helen Hiller who is cashier at the Gervais state bank has ordered one of the new Ford coupes and expects to have it delivered within the month. G. J. Moisan accompanied by Mrs. T. Stevens and Mrs. F. X. Moisan of Brooks motored to Portland Friday to visit Mrs. Moisan who is at St. Vincent's hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schwab had business at the capital Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hoover motored to Salem Wednesday afternoon. Joe Roudan just returned from a short stay visiting friends and relatives in The Dalles and Dufur and report a very enjoyable trip and fine weather. Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Nutting and Mrs. F. T. Cutsforth were Salem shoppers on Wednesday afternoon. James Clark had business in Portland Tuesday. Mrs. Mark Skiddell of Astoria who has been visiting with J. S. Harper and family the last few days returned home. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Ted Jelders on September 29, a baby girl. Jos. Schalte made a business trip to Salem Wednesday. Postmaster Sigmund is making his semi-annual inspection of the rural routes. Miss Marie Mangold is acting as postmaster. Frank and Ester, Miss Anna Tauler were Portland visitors Wednesday. Henry and George Covey of Kalapell, Montana, are visiting with their sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Cutsforth. Miss Helen Brower of Brooks spent Wednesday with Miss Florence Rowley.

FALLS CITY

Falls City, Or., Oct. 10.—Mrs. Julia Miller has just received word of the death of her brother, William Ashford, who died at his home in Castle Rock, Wash., October 1, after a lingering illness. Mr. Ashford lived for many years in McMinnville valley and was past 70 years of age. Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Dempsey of Hinkley visited over Thursday night with his sister, Mrs. A. G. Adams, and family. Rev. A. H. Walters left Thursday for Hillsboro, where he will attend the quarterly meeting of the Free Methodist churches. Mrs. Claud Allen of Toledo is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clark this week. Mrs. F. H. Jobes left Friday evening for Klamath Falls, where she will spend the next 10 days visiting with her husband. E. P. Brown, the local Ford agent, made a trip to Portland, Thursday, after a new roadster for Arch Montgomery. The Art club met recently at the home of Mrs. David Grant. The rooms were very beautiful with huge bouquets of fall flowers. As the club had had a vacation of three months many plans were made for the coming winter and after a most enjoyable afternoon, the hostess served definite refreshments. All members, with the exception of three, were present. The domestic science class of the high school was hostess to the ladies of the town at a team in the home of their instructor, Mrs. Fred J. Patton, from 3:30 to 5 p. m.

L. T. Dick and L. M. Hum

CHINESE MEDICINE CO. 420 and 426 State St. Has wonderful Chinese remedies with cure any human ailment including headache, backache, stomach, kidney trouble, male and female. If ill consult us at once. Delay is dangerous. Established 15 years in Salem, Oregon. Phone 283

GOOD WOOD PROMPT DELIVERY

Specials On Wood 3 large loads 16-inch Mill Block $15.00 4 ft. large second growth Fir, per cord $6.50 4 ft. Oak, per cord $8.00 4 ft. Ash, per cord $7.50 4 ft. Maple, per cord $7.00

FRED E. WELLS Phone 1542 280 S. Church Street

Thursday. The receiving line consisted of Mrs. Fred Patton, Miss Dorothy Ostrander, Natalie Munyon, Marcia Muldren, Ruby Zewer and Irene Page presided over the tea urn. They were assisted by Juanita Hawk, Alpha Jones, Irene Hubbard and Freda Munyon. The Good Will club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. W. Black's, with most of the members present. One feature of the meeting was a handkerchief shower for Mrs. Allie Burbank, honoring her 84th birthday. At 4 o'clock the hostess served a most delicious luncheon. Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. A. G. Adams.

STAYTON

Stayton, Or., Oct. 10.—Mrs. John Kerber, who has been seriously ill since Monday from a heart attack, passed away Thursday night in the school gymnasium. Mr. and Mrs. T. E. McCroskey visited at the home of their son, V. Lyle McCroskey, Thursday afternoon. Students of the Stayton high school entertained the freshmen class with a reception Friday night in the school gymnasium. The reception was under the direction of the Girl Reserve and the Hi-Y boys. A feature of the evening's entertainment was the children's costumes worn by members of the freshmen class. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cladek returned Sunday from a trip of several weeks which included the greater part of Idaho. Mr. Cladek's parents, who live in Portland, accompanied them. E. E. Brodie of Oregon City was a Stayton visitor Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Walters entertained members and friends of the Methodist church Wednesday night in the basement of their new home. More than sixty people were seated when the supper was served at 7 o'clock. The entertainment was in the nature of a house warming and a farewell party to the Rev. Mr. Linn, pastor of the Methodist church. The parent-teacher association will hold the first meeting for the year Monday night, October 11, in the Stayton high school. W. A. Weddie will act as president during the year. He succeeded C. E. Barrows, who has been president for the past three years. Mr. Barrows moved to Florida during the latter part of September. W. F. Klecker, manager of the Stayton branch of the Director stores, returned Tuesday from a three weeks' trip to the Britten-bush hot springs. Miss Thelma Branch, a student at Stayton high school, did not attend school for several days this week because of illness. Mrs. J. M. Ringo of Salem attended the Baptist convention Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. William Boedigholmer are the proud parents of a baby boy born Tuesday. Ed Rogers of Connel, Wash., is visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. Ben Gehlen. Mrs. Van Alts of Goldendale, Wash., and Mrs. Jack Chapman der blue satin-crepe with an arm bouquet of pink roses and delphiniums. The groom was attended by Fred C. Hottinger, brother of the bride. Following the ceremony at the church an excellent wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents, to about 150 guests. In the evening a wedding dance was given at the C. F. hall in Sublimity by the young couple. Mr. and Mrs. Ditter were both born in Sublimity and have lived there the greater part of their lives. Mr. Ditter is associated with his father in the Ditter store and Mrs. Ditter has taught school for several years in Marion county. After a honeymoon trip to different parts of Washington, the young people will be at home to their many friends at Sublimity.

Three Killed in Crash

Portland, Or., Oct. 9.—(A. P.)—J. R. Grathwohl, 36, farmer; Alla Grathwohl, 19, his wife, and Betty Grathwohl, their 2-year-old daughter, were killed instantly late yesterday in a crash between a Troutdale interurban street car and an automobile on the Arata road, near Arata station. The three members of the family were riding in the automobile which was driven by Grathwohl.

B. P. O. E. Dining Room Dinner 60c

For the Elks, their families and friends 5 to 8 p. m. daily

JOURNAL WANT ADS PAY

Comfortable—Able—Beautiful

Drive With Safety and Economy

Jewett De Luxe Sedan Now $1680

Jewett's manufacturing genius has produced a De Luxe Sedan of new beauty—new roominess—new ability on the road.

And it's a De Luxe Sedan. Built to Jewett standards of quality construction—smart appearance—quality interior finish.

We recently added length for greater comfort—smoother riding.

It's a low-slung beauty! Finished in the fashionable two-tone effect with bright permanent lacquer. And a smart double belt moulding—rear to radiator.

Drive it! Come in or just phone and we'll come out. (512)

Always Making Them Finer Harry M. Jewett

TRUMM MOTOR CO. 349 N. Commercial St., Salem, Oregon

PAIGE JEWETT

Smith & Watkins Snappy Service PHONE 44

A GRAHAM BROTHERS Truck Chassis for $995!

This exceptional new price of the 1-ton chassis is the result of economies of mass production—economies passed directly on to the buyer.

Graham Brothers now produce in larger quantities than any other exclusive manufacturer of motor trucks.

1-Ton Chassis, $1,180; 1 1/2-Ton Chassis, $1,365, Delivered

BONESTEEL MOTOR CO. 474 S. Commercial St. Phone 423

GRAHAM BROTHERS TRUCKS SOLD BY DODGE BROTHERS DEALERS EVERYWHERE

EIKER'S GUARANTEED USED FORDS PRICED RIGHT THE BLUE FRONT Liberty and Ferry

Phone 121

Batteries We carry a complete Line of Philco Batteries at Prices you can afford to pay. Also "A" and "B" Radio Batteries

Authorized Electrical Service —On—Nineteen Different Makes of Cars Bring your work to us. We Guarantee Satisfaction

E. H. BURRELL Battery and Electrical Service 236 North High Street Phone 263