Brilliant Affairs Mark Week

Certainly the week which closes tonight has been one of unusual social interest. Out of town guests have been feted extensively, many bridge clubs have held their first fall meetings, several hundred women from four states who are prominent in missionary society work are guests within the city, one of Portland's most prominent brides elect has been the inspiration of a large bridge tea. The outstanding social affair of the week, however, was an event of Wednesday afternoon when several hundred Salem matrons and maids were guests of Mrs. T. A. Livesley in the beautiful new Livesley home on Lincoln hill, probably the largest and most beautiful home in Salem.

Assisting Mrs. Livesley in receiving her guests and in the serving in the dining room were more than a score of the most prominent matrons of the city. This was the first large affair given at the new home and resolved itself almost into a "house warming," the hostess allowing the guests to wander at random through the beautiful rooms and gardens.

On Tuesday the Frederick Deebach home was the scene of a most attractive affair when Mrs. Deebach and Mrs. Richard Slater entertained at a bridge tea complimenting Miss Pauline Dick of Portland, whose wedding to James Ward Livesley will take place within the fortnight. Before moving to Portland several years ago the C. L. Dick family were extremely well known in Salem and friendships formed during their residence here have continued. The opportunity to honor Miss Dick was welcomed by her many Salem friends.

In university circles the informal reception given on Tuesday by Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney, wife of George H. Alden and Mrs. Frank M. Erickson, wife of the former dean and wife of the professor who is the new dean, was easily the leading event of the week. Later in the week interest has been focused largely upon entertainment for the members of the foreign missionary societies of the Methodist Episcopal church in Montana, Idaho, Washington and Oregon, who are guests here during the time that the Columbia branch is in session.

At the meeting of the W. C. T. U. on Tuesday afternoon an interesting program on the subject of prison reform was led by Mrs. E. Oliver. A number of papers were read and discussed. Delegates to the state convention were named as follows: Mrs. Louisa Krape, Mrs. Catherine Landaker and Mrs. Remington; alternates, Mrs. Jennison, Mrs. Cooper and Mrs. Law.

Members of the Salem teachers' association entertained at an attractive tea in the Parrish Junior high school on Thursday afternoon honoring the new members of the association this year.

Miss Mary Jane Albert whose marriage to Axel Eoff will be an event of October 24, was honored at a delightful kitchen shower yesterday when Miss Margaret Rodgers entertained for her at tea in the Rodgers home on Court street. Twelve of the younger girls were guests.

Mrs. E. M. Huiden (Beulah Myers) who with her two sons came recently from their home in eastern Oregon to spend the winter in Salem, was complimented at an attractive affair on Thursday when Mrs. Frank G. Myers entertained at luncheon and bridge in her home. Eleven of Mrs. Huiden's old time friends were additional guests.

Monday night's young women's Bible class, Mrs. C. A. Park leader, will meet in the library Monday evening beginning at seven o'clock. This will be the first meeting of the class after the summer recess.

Miss Jessie McGregor of Portland, member of the state scholarship loan board of the Oregon federation of women's clubs, who is the principal speaker at the meeting of the Salem club this afternoon, was honored informally at luncheon at the Gray Belle this noon when Mrs. Elmo S. White, Mrs. Wm. Forsythe Parso, Mrs. W. E. Kirk and Mrs. Ray Hartman entertained for her.

The stated communication of Willamette Shrine No. 2, Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, will be held on Tuesday evening in the Masonic Temple, Corvallis.

Several hundred cards have been sent out for the tea on Thursday afternoon at which Mrs. Arthur Moore and Mrs. S. M. Endicott will be hostesses in the Endicott home. The hours will be from two thirty to six o'clock.

Dr. and Mrs. J. N. Smith spent several days this week at their summer home at Newport.

A social meeting will follow the regular business meeting of the American Legion auxiliary in McCornack hall on Monday evening. At this time the local auxiliary will dedicate the standard. Mrs. John J. Rottle, past president, will be in charge.

Mrs. F. E. Needham entertained a group of her friends at dinner in her home on Thursday evening. Halloween favors and novelties were used throughout.

League of Voters Meets Wednesday

The Highland study club met yesterday at the home of Mrs. W. M. McCarroll. No subject was taken up for the study as the afternoon following the business meeting was spent socially. Mrs. C. M. Oglesby was re-elected president of the club and Mrs. McCarroll remained secretary. Mrs. Al Edwards was elected a member of the club.

Members present yesterday were Mrs. Jack Stapleton, Mrs. Cross of Portland, Mrs. B. E. Cooper, Mrs. George Wenderoth, Mrs. W. M. McCarroll, Mrs. C. C. McCarroll, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. McClaune, Mrs. Gilbert, Mrs. C. M. Oglesby, Mrs. O. C. Oglesby.

Arts League Meeting On Tuesday

A general meeting and reception of the Salem Arts League, to which all interested will be welcome, will be given in the Woman's clubhouse on north Cottage street on Thursday evening. Mrs. J. M. Clifford is general chairman and the program has been arranged by Otto Paulus, art director of the league.

Hostesses during the evening will be Mrs. Clifford, Mrs. J. C. Nelson, Mrs. W. E. Kirk, Mrs. W. F. Fargo, Mrs. C. J. Lisle, Mrs. C. A. Kells and Mrs. Blanche M. Jones.

Mrs. Byron S. Brunk will be in charge of the serving table. Mrs. J. F. Lau will be in charge in the dining room and kitchen and assisting her will be Mrs. Gustav Ehsen and Mrs. T. S. Roberts. Assistance in serving will be Mrs. Doane, Mrs. Robert Paulus, Mrs. Ora McIntyre, Mrs. H. T. Love, Mrs. Lola Belle Bellinger, Miss Marie Roberts, Miss Hazel Price, and Mrs. Gertrude Robison Ross.

Dr. Mary C. Rowland and Mrs. Seymour Jones will preside at the urns.

On Monday evening of the week a small group met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Foster, 1045 north 5th street, to celebrate the 20th anniversary of their wedding. A ceremony of recognition of the 20th anniversary was read by their pastor, Dr. E. H. Shankle, and a graphic sketch of their twenty years great joy delighted those present. A copy of the minutes of the young people's society of the First Baptist church twenty years ago was read containing the announcement of the wedding and the introduction of the newly weds, by H. S. Gile who was then president. The report was read by Mrs. Elma MacAllister, who was secretary at that time.

The evening was spent in social games and refreshments. Mr. and Mrs. Foster were married at Milford, Michigan, October 4th, 1905. They came out to Oregon over the Canadian Pacific, arriving in Portland the last day of the world's fair. From there they came to Salem and have lived here since. They are well known and prominent in church and social circles.

Club women from all parts of the county will meet in Hubbard next Friday for the fall meeting of the Marion county federation of women's clubs. Dean A. B. Milam, head of the home economics department at O. A. C. will be the main speaker of the morning session. In the afternoon, Miss Cornelia Marvin, state librarian, will deliver the main address.

Each affiliated club is entitled to five official delegates to the sessions are open to all women in the county. Entertainment facilities for next week's meeting will be furnished by the Hubbard club.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford F. Farmer were the guests in Portland for the greater part of the week of Mrs. Farmer's brother in law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Haack.

SICK WOMEN ATTENTION!

Read this Remarkable Testimony Regarding Results from Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Norfolk, Virginia. — "If you only knew how many women and girls have taken your medicine by hearing my testimony, it would seem wonderful to you. Every day and every chance I have I advise some one to try it. It was in June, 1904, when I had given up ever getting well, that I wrote to you. My husband went to the drug-store and brought the Vegetable Compound home to me. In a few days I began to improve and I have often taken it since. I am now passing through the Change of Life and still stick by it and am enjoying wonderful health. When I first started with your medicine I was a mere shadow. My health seemed to be gone. The last doctor I had said he would give me no more local treatments unless I went to the hospital and was operated on. That was when I gave the doctors up. Now I am a healthy robust woman. I wish I could tell the world what a wonderful medicine Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is." — Mrs. J. A. Jones, 317 Colley Avenue, Norfolk, Virginia.

Pottery from Czechoslovakia, from Japan, from Brittany and from Spain; brasa from India; novelties from Damascus; etchings from England and from France — reproductions of oil paintings that can hardly be told from the original canvases—all these and many more treasures from all corners of the globe will be exhibited in the Gilbert studio this afternoon and evening when Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Gilbert will be hosts at their annual opening.

Assembling them in receiving will be Prof. and Mrs. N. B. Zane of Eugene, Mrs. Ralph Charlton, Mrs. B. O. Shuckling, Mrs. John Lau, Miss Dorothea Steucloff, Miss Vivian Hargrove and Miss Hazel Paden.

Tonight Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert will be hosts at dinner at the Spa honoring their assistants.

Loan Fund Tea On Friday

Of special interest during the coming week both in social and in club circles will be the silver tea at which the Salem Woman's club will entertain for the benefit of the scholarship loan fund maintained by the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs. The tea will be an event of Friday from two thirty to five o'clock in the Woman's clubhouse on north Cottage street.

The major work of the Oregon federation is rendering financial aid to girls who are struggling to complete their college courses. More than seventy girls were enabled to graduate from colleges within the state during the past year because of the fund maintained by the woman's clubs. In all more than four hundred girls have benefited. According to the officials in charge the loans are repaid almost a hundred per cent. Practically the only ones lost are caused by death.

Mrs. Elmo S. White, who is chairman of the scholarship loan committee of the Salem club, will be general chairman in charge of the tea on Friday. Mrs. Morton E. Peck will be in charge of the decorations. Her assistants will be Mrs. Gustav Ehsen, Mrs. Erwin Smith, Mrs. H. M. Chadwick, Mrs. W. W. Rosebraugh, Mrs. Lester Barr and Mrs. Merrill Ohlberg.

Hostesses during the early part of the afternoon will be Mrs. E. M. Page, Mrs. H. V. Compton, Mrs. Phil Newmyer, Mrs. Homer Smith, Mrs. Ray Hartman, Mrs. J. T. Whittig and Mrs. Lura Cass French. Later in the afternoon Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. E. Cook Patton, Mrs. LaMole R. Clark, Mrs. N. C. Kafoury, Miss Frances Richards, Mrs. D. J. Fry, Mrs. G. E. Schuneman, Mrs. Russell Callahan and Mrs. Ivan Martin will act as hostesses.

Mrs. F. G. Bowersox is chairman of the tea committee. Her assistants will be Mrs. S. P. Kimball, Mrs. Ray L. Farmer, Mrs. E. E. Ling, Mrs. W. G. Allen, Mrs. A. N. Moore, Mrs. John L. Hand, Mrs. J. H. McNary, Mrs. Frank

Miss B. F. Tobin Tells How Cuticura Healed Pimples

"For six or seven months I was tormented with a troublesome irritation of the skin, especially on my face, and a few large pimples broke out, mostly on my chin. The pimples used to swell up to a large, red lump, which itched and was painful. I was embarrassed as my face betrays the pain, looked and felt out of proportion.

"I tried different remedies with no marked change. I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and in three or four days I could see improvement. I continued the treatment and in three weeks I was completely healed." (Signed) Miss Bernice F. Tobin, 930 Sanbury Ave., Los Angeles, Calif., Apr. 13, 1925.

Make Cuticura Soap and Ointment your every-day toilet preparations and have a clear, sweet skin, soft, smooth hands and a healthy scalp with good hair.

My Sex Needs this help above all. Facial cleanliness.

Thousands of women ask me how I made myself a famous beauty, and how I kept my youthful bloom to my grand old age.

There are many reasons. One of the greatest was taught me by Lucie Lantheim, a famous Parisian beauty.

She never used soap on her face, nor have I since I met her. She used no cleanser based on animal or vegetable fats.

She gave me a formula which all the greatest beauty experts now employ. It cleans the skin to the depths. It removes all the grime, dirt and oil which interfere with beauty. But it does not assimilate with the skin. Not a drop can be absorbed. It simply leaves the skin entirely clean.

That is the first step to skin beauty. A clean skin, without blemishes, blackheads or marks. I know no other way to get it, nor do you.

Now I have arranged so that all girls and women may enjoy this luxury. I call it my Facial Youth. All toilet counters now supply it, exactly the same as Lucie Lantheim furnished it to me.

A great laboratory now prepares it for me. I wish you would try it — any woman who wants to look her best. You cannot do it, I am sure, without my Facial Youth. Please clip this coupon now.

League of Voters Meets Wednesday

The Salem branch of the National League of Women Voters will open the year's program with a one o'clock luncheon meeting at the Gray Belle on Wednesday, October 14. The Salem league will be fortunate in having as their guests at the opening meeting Mrs. Charles Carver, Jr., of Portland, president of the state league of women voters, and Mrs. Richard Scholtz, wife of the late president of Reed college, and well known in club and social circles throughout the state.
