A. A. U. W. Meeting Saturday

The regular October meeting of the Salem branch of the American Association of University Women will be an afternoon and tea meeting at the Woman's clubhouse on north Cottage street beginning at two thirty on Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. A. Merwin, president of the Portland branch of university women and several Portland matrons who are chairmen of committees of their branch will be honor guests at this meeting and during the program hour will tell of their plans for the coming year and the accomplishments of their branch since its organization. Music is also being arranged for the afternoon. All members of the association and those eligible to membership are asked to attend the meeting. Tea will follow the business meeting and program.

Announcement has been made by officers of the local branch that the literature section will hold its first meeting on the third Wednesday evening of the month at the home of Mrs. E. C. Richards on Center street. Prof. Horace Williston of Willamette university, will again serve as section leader. The French section will also open its sections very shortly.

Silverton, Oct. 13.—Miss Gladys Severson, whose wedding to Clarence Sebo will be an event of the month, was the inspiration of a delightful shower party given at the Severson home on Church street Saturday evening, when a number of friends surprised Miss Severson. She was the recipient of a great many beautiful gifts. Lunch was served at the close of the evening.

Besides the honor guest, Miss Severson, others present were Miss Cora Stevenson, Mrs. S. Lindseth, Miss Cora Lucke, Miss Anna Bouge, Miss Selma Storall, Mrs. Harold Sater, Mrs. Anton Dahl, Mrs. Harvig Dahl, Mrs. Jaesper Dullum, Miss Emma Johnson, Miss Selma Jorgenson, Miss Hannah Olsen, Miss Clara Bjontgard, Mrs. Gordon McCall, Miss Oscar Lee, Miss Ann Sebo, Miss Esther Tove, Mrs. Carl Lee, Mrs. Oscar Johnson, Mrs. O. Ellertson, Mrs. K. Naas, Mrs. Casper Towe, Miss Alma Halvorsen, Miss Clarence Berland.

The wedding will be a quiet home affair and the young couple will make their home on the Sebo farm in the Waldo hills. Mr. Sebo is a graduate of the Oregon Agricultural college.

Miss Margaret Gehrke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Gehrke, was married to Thomas F. Fay of Portland, at a simple ceremony at the Gehrke home on Sunday afternoon. Rev. G. Koehler, pastor of the Lutheran church, read the service. Twenty five guests were bidden to the ceremony.

Autumn leaves and bright colored dahlias were arranged about the rooms of the Gehrke home for the occasion. Before the ceremony Herman Tasto sang "I Love You Truly."

The bride was lovely in white satin trimmed with real lace. Her veil was caught with orange blossoms and she carried a snowy bouquet of white carnations. Little Luther Koehler served as ring bearer.

Mrs. Fay, a talented girl, has been employed in the estate house. She is one of the few women in the country with the ranking of a certified public accountant. Mr. Fay is with the Bush Lane Piano company in Portland where they will make their home.

Mrs. Harry N. Crain was hostess at luncheon and bridge in her home today honoring Mrs. N. J. Crain of Portland, who is her house guest this week.

The group included Mrs. N. J. Crain, Mrs. George Arhuckle, Mrs. James Nicholson, Mrs. C. B. McCullough, Mrs. H. R. Worth, Mrs. Marie Heckerana, Mrs. Ralph Cooley and the hostess, Mrs. Crain.

The W. H. M. S. of the Leslie Methodist church will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Bertelson, 110 Lefelle street.

Monday Bridge Club Opens Year

The first meeting of the year of the Monday bridge luncheon club was a delightful affair of yesterday when Mrs. Curtis Cross was hostess in her home on Lincoln hill at luncheon and cards. Lovely lavender dahlias centered the luncheon table with covers laid for Mrs. Hugh Starr of Los Angeles, Mrs. J. Shelley Saurman, and Mrs. Allan Carson, special guests, and the following club members, Mrs. Harry Hawkins, Mrs. Fritz Slade, Mrs. T. A. Roberts, Mrs. Connel Dyer, Mrs. Prince Byrd, Mrs. Arthur Rahn, Mrs. Ercel Kay, Mrs. R. M. Hofer, Mrs. Frank Spears, Mrs. Keith Powell of Woodburn, Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Jr., and the hostess, Mrs. Cross.

Music Teachers Choose Head

The opening meeting of the year of the Salem branch of the state music teachers' association was held last night at the home of Miss Margaret Fisher. Miss Elizabeth Levy was elected president of the branch for the coming year. Other officers named are Miss Margaret Fisher, vice president; Mrs. Henry Lee, secretary, and Frank Churchill, treasurer.

The course of study adopted by the group for the coming year is the same one used by the national federation of musical clubs. Last night Miss Dorothy Pearce gave an interesting review of "music week" in Boston. Miss Pearce returned late this summer from an eight months' visit in Boston and New York.

Members of the branch present last night were Prof. and Mrs. T. S. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Churchill, Miss Frances Virginia Melton, Miss Beatrice Shelton, Miss Elma Weller, Mrs. Henry Lee, Mrs. Bertha Junk Darby, Miss Elizabeth Levy, Miss Alice Chandler, Mrs. Walter Denton, Miss Lena Belle Tartar, Miss Dorothy Pearce, Mrs. Mollie Hill Styles and the hostess, Miss Margaret Fisher.

Salem women interested in matters of civic and political importance are planning to attend the luncheon at the Gray Belle tomorrow when the Salem branch of the National League of Women Voters will hold the first meeting of the new club year. Two Portland matrons, Mrs. Charles Carver, Jr., and Mrs. Richard Scholz, leaders of the league in this state, will be the honor guests at the luncheon.

A no hostess meeting of chapter AB of the P. E. O. sisterhood was held last night in the studio of Miss Lena Belle Tartar. During the program hour Miss Grace Osburn read Joaquin Miller's poem on "Columbus." Mrs. E. C. Richards will entertain the chapter in her home on October 26.

Roberts, Mrs. Connel Dyer, Mrs. Prince Byrd, Mrs. Arthur Rahn, Mrs. Ercel Kay, Mrs. R. M. Hofer, Mrs. Frank Spears, Mrs. Keith Powell of Woodburn, Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Jr., and the hostess, Mrs. Cross.

Fall flowers in shades of gold and red were used about the living room. The guest prize for high bridge honors were won by Mrs. Saurman.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. East were greatly pleased one evening last week when their daughter, Mrs. H. J. Juniper (Caroline East) called them by long distance telephone from her home in Caruthersville, Missouri, which is on the Mississippi river a hundred miles north of Memphis, Tennessee. They were able to hear their daughter's voice clearly and distinctly and greatly enjoyed their little visit with her. Mrs. Juniper has not been home since her marriage more than two years ago although Mr. and Mrs. East visited her last year.

On Thursday afternoon of last week Mrs. T. P. Cutler entertained in compliment to Mrs. E. A. Frick, who with Mr. Frick left for their old home in Michigan Saturday.

Lovely bowls of marigolds were placed about the rooms and centering the tea table at which tea was served during the afternoon. Music and fancy work formed the afternoon's diversion. The guests included Mrs. E. A. Frick, Mrs. Nina Mitchell of New York, Mrs. Helen Dickenson, Mrs. Frank Jirak, Mrs. George Alderin, Mrs. R. F. Peters, Mrs. Lew Wheeler, Mrs. H. W. Carson, Mrs. H. C. McWhorter, Mrs. D. L. Blackburn, Mrs. Virgil McGahn, Mrs. Amos Carper and Mrs. T. P. Cutler.

Mrs. Charles McNary, wife of the senior Oregon senator, and an active worker in the national league of women voters in Massachusetts, will be an honor guest at the opening meeting of the Salem branch at the Gray Belle at one o'clock tomorrow. At this time Mrs. McNary will answer any and all questions about the league.

Miss Lucille DeWitte of Portland, spent Saturday and Sunday with her mother, Mrs. A. K. DeWitte.

Even Change Always

In addition to the many other advantages of a Checking Account at the United States National, there is one which is most conducive to the saving of money. You always have even change, thus avoiding carrying the change from a piece of currency in your pocket—and you know how quickly this money melts away. If you have a Savings Account here it is also advisable to maintain a Checking Account in order that the former can be built up.
