Dorothy Gould Puzzles Society

GLORIA GOULD BISHOP, HUSBAND & BABY

Dorothy Gould Bishop, daughter of the late George J. Gould, of New York, has the smart set mystified. She has sailed secretly for France, and gossips say she will seek a divorce. Her husband has gone to the Maine woods.

Warren Cooley was honored at a delightful reception last Thursday, his eightieth birthday anniversary, given at the home of his daughter, Mrs. D. B. Simpson, on Mill street.

Baskets of fall flowers and autumn leaves were arranged about the rooms of the Simpson home for the occasion. During the early part of the evening Mr. Cooley told of his boyhood days. Mrs. Cooley, his wife, then told of their courtship fifty seven years ago. Members of the guest group made comments on Mr. Cooley's religious relationships, his integrity, and his faithfulness as a husband, father, grandfather and great grandfather. Parlor games were enjoyed later in the evening.

In the group were Mr. and Mrs. Warren Cooley, Mrs. Cora Cooley and daughters Rose and Betty Rose, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Powers, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Powers, Jr., and son, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Cooley, Mrs. Perkins, Ellis Cooley, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cooley and daughter, Vera Cooley, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Simpson and sons, Garold and Garland, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Denham.

Rev. and Mrs. T. Acheson, Gilbert Wren, new junior pastor, and Leroy Walker, formerly junior pastor, were honored at a reception at Jason Lee church last night, when members of the Salem O. A. C. club will be hosts in their honor. All former students and parents of former and present students will be welcomed to the affair. Honor guests will be Deans Kate Jamieson and U. G. Dubach, Miss Florence Erant, Miss Florence Blasier, Mrs. Gertrude McElfresh and Mr. and Mrs. Bud Kearne.

Ronald Craven, Salem tenor, will sing during the evening and musical numbers will be furnished by instrumental trio from the high school. A group of the younger girls who will greet the guests at the door and serve will include Mary and Mable Copper, Eloise and Eleanor Wright, Mildred Weeks, Lucille Cummings and Ruth Sammons.

Wilford Doherty will arrive tomorrow from his home in Tacoma to join Mrs. Doherty and their children, Lillian Patricia and George Franklin, who have been the guests for the past two months of Mrs. Doherty's mother, Mrs. Charles F. Elgin, and of relative in Albany and in Portland. They will return to Tacoma at the end of the week.

Seven members of the O. A. C. faculty group will be honored at a reception at the Salem Woman's clubhouse on north Cottage street tonight when members of the Salem O. A. House guests of Dean and Mrs. Frank M. Erickson early in the week were Mr. and Mrs. Allen McDuffie of Pasadena.

$731,600 STOLEN GEMS RETURNED

New York, Oct. 14.—(A. P.)—Expectation that an arrest would follow the mysterious return of Jewels valued at $731,600 stolen from the hotel bedroom of Mrs. James P. Donahue, daughter of the late F. W. Woolworth, was entertained by police officials today.

The thieves found it impossible to dispose of the jewels because of their great value, said an anonymous letter received by a detective agency last night, and volunteered to return them if promised immunity and given a reward of $75,000 which had been offered. Police refused to treat with the thieves, but yesterday a private detective employed by the company which insured the gems walked into police headquarters with the jewels wrapped in brown paper.

Only one item was missing, a beaded bag worth $400. The jewels returned included two pearl necklaces, one valued at $450,000 and the other at $250,000, a diamond ring worth $30,000, two rings worth $200 each and a gold watch case worth $200, and an imitation emerald ring, described as of trifling value.
