Miss Buren Hostess At Shower

Among the most attractive pre-nuptial affairs given in honor of Miss Margaret Griffith and Miss Mary Jane Albert was the joint bridal shower given for them yesterday by Miss Maxine Buren, who was hostess in the Buren home on Court street. Since the announcements of the two weddings were made in the late summer the two brides-elect have been extensively feted.

Zinnias and asters were used about the living rooms and bridge was enjoyed for several hours during the afternoon. High honors were won by Mrs. Lewis Griffith. At the tea hour a number of beautiful gifts were showered upon the honor guests. Miss Josephine and Miss Lenta Baumgartner assisted Miss Buren. The guest group included Miss Margaret Griffith, Miss Mary Jane Albert, Mrs. Donald Young, Mrs. Frederick Deckbach, Miss Lenta Baumgartner, Miss Josephine Baumgartner, Mrs. Joseph H. Albert, Mrs. L. F. Griffith, Miss Lucille Ross, Mrs. Richard Slater, Miss Dorothy Pearce, Mrs. Lewis Griffith, Miss Florence Cartwright, Miss Margaret Rodgers, Miss Dorothy Patterson, Miss Eva Roberts, Miss Isabelle Crossan, Mrs. Warren P. Powers.

Members of the Ecceles club were the guests on Wednesday evening of Miss Melba Robinson for a social and business meeting. The group included the Misses Alleen Rafferty, Jessie Miles, Nina Marshall, Inez Wood, Helen Walcher, Winona Carter, Esther Erickson, Ola Volkel, Hazel Morris, Elva Fisher, Marcella Caspell, Flora Turnbull, Vivian Whittier, Golda Wheeler, Mrs. Birdine Perlick, Mrs. Blanche Schwelning and the hostess, Melba Robinson.

The club was organized by a group of business girls and meets at luncheon once a month.

Mrs. Ralph Allen was elected president of the Sweet Briar club at a business meeting held at the home of Mrs. C. C. Chaffee on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Corydon Blodgett was named secretary treasurer.

Following the business meeting Mrs. Chaffee was hostess to the group at tea. Mrs. James Imiah assisted. Roses and dahlias were used on the tea table and about the rooms. Mrs. Sarah Patrick was a special guest.

The guests included the following club members: Mrs. Lou Grote, Mrs. Ed Pratt, Mrs. William McCall, Mrs. Ralph Allen, Mrs. W. C. Franklin, Mrs. Karl Kugel, Mrs. James Imiah, Mrs. Glenn Adams, Miss Nellie Taylor and Mrs. E. O. Moll. On October 21 the club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. James Imiah.

Mrs. William S. Mott was a charming hostess on Wednesday when she entertained members of the Priscilla club in her home on Commercial street. The living rooms were most attractive with dahlias, cosmos, zinnias and marigolds. During the tea hour Mrs. W. B. Mott assisted the hostess. Mrs. Dan Fry, Sr., and Mrs. S. S. East presided at the urns.

Special guests of the afternoon were Mrs. W. R. King of Portland, Mrs. Kittle Graver, Mrs. C. P. Bishop and Mrs. Will B. Mott.

The affair was planned as a special compliment to Mrs. A. L. Brown who will leave at the close of this week for St. Louis where she will be the guest during the coming winter of her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Matthews.

Members of the club are Mrs. Fred Steuseloff, Mrs. Dan Fry, Sr., Mrs. W. S. Mott, Mrs. Ida Babcock, Mrs. Lou Wain, Mrs. J. B. Craig, Mrs. S. S. East, Mrs. Carl Webb, Mrs. C. M. Eppley and Mrs. A. L. Brown.

Miss Adella Pritchard, formerly national president of the business and professional women's clubs, will address the Salem club on "What our federation stands for in the business woman's life" at the club meeting in the chamber of commerce auditorium next Wednesday evening. In addition to Miss Pritchard an honor guest at the meeting will be Miss Louise Hacker, state president, who will also address the club.

Thursday Club Is Entertained

The Thursday club, prominent in Salem social circles, was delightfully entertained yesterday when Mrs. Henry J. Bean, Mrs. Alice H. Dodd and Mrs. F. W. Spencer were hostesses in the Bean home. This was the first meeting of the club after the summer recess.

Lovely bowls and baskets of zinnias and Michaelmas daisies were arranged about the rooms of the Bean home. Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Sr., was an additional guest. During the tea hour Mrs. Dodd presided at the urns. Salem matrons who are members of the club are Mrs. John Albert, Mrs. Henry Bean, Mrs. William Brown, Mrs. A. N. Bush, Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Mrs. E. C. Cross, Mrs. M. M. Chapman, Mrs. Richard Cartwright, Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. M. Cusick, Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, Mrs. S. B. Dyer, Mrs. E. A. Elliott, Mrs. R. B. Fleming, Mrs. William Fleming, Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, Mrs. W. E. Kirk, Mrs. B. C. McKee, Mrs. William McCall, Mrs. George Pearce, Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, Mrs. Frank Spencer, Mrs. A. N. Moore and Mrs. Henry Thielen.

The October meeting of the Salem branch of the American Association of University Women will be held at the Woman's club-house on north Cottage street tomorrow afternoon beginning at two thirty in the afternoon. Following the short business meeting will be a reception and tea honoring Mrs. L. T. Merwin, president of the Portland branch, and a group of Portland matrons who head standing committees of the Portland branch. The honor guests will outline the accomplishments of their organization and plans that have made for activities during the coming year.

Mrs. W. D. Clarke, head of the social committee, is in charge of the arrangements. Mrs. Martin Pereshetian, chairman of the music committee, has arranged for musical numbers.

At the meeting Mrs. George Allison will announce her plans for the concert by Paul Petri which the association will sponsor on November 20. Plans for the scholarship loan tea on November 21 will also be divulged at this time.

Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney and Mrs. Clarence W. Green of Albany will preside at the urns during the tea hour.

Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd Mott were the guests recently of Dr. Mott's mother, Mrs. William S. Mott. Dr. Mott has set sail for the Philippines and Mrs. Mott will leave on Sunday for Honolulu. Dr. Mott is a physician on board one of the government boats. Before enlisting in the government service the doctor practiced near Yakima, Washington.

Miss Lucille Cuteforth whose marriage to Howard Rooster will be an event of November, was honored at a lovely shower last night when Mrs. William Howden entertained for her in her home in the Court apartments.

Mrs. D.J. Fry Entertains Bridge Club

One of Salem's oldest and most exclusive bridge luncheon clubs opened its activities for the year yesterday when Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Jr., entertained the Thursday bridge luncheon club at luncheon and cards.

Autumn leaves and bright fall flowers formed a lovely centerpiece on the table arranged in the Chinese room at the Gray Belle where luncheon was served at one o'clock. Later Mrs. Fry entertained at bridge in her home.

Members of the club are Mrs. T. C. Smith, Jr., Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mrs. J. Shelley Saurman, Mrs. George Rodgers, Mrs. O. C. Locke, Mrs. William Walton, Mrs. John McNary, Mrs. David Eyr, Mrs. Frederick Lampert, Mrs. Henry Meyers and the hostess, Mrs. Fry.

Silverton, Oct. 16.—A pretty home wedding was solemnized Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock when Miss Gladys Severson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Severson, was married to Clarence Sebo, the son of O. K. Sebo. The Rev. S. Lindseth of St. John's church, read the ring ceremony.

The Severson home on Church street was beautifully decorated for the occasion, a profusion of roses, asters, carnations and sweet peas being used in shades of pink and white. The bride, gowned in a tan going away costume came in on the arm of her father while Miss Sylvia Naa played the wedding march. She was met at the improvised altar between the living rooms, by Mr. Sebo. They were unattended.

Following the ceremony a luncheon was served at which Mrs. D. Ingebreton presided. Immediately after the luncheon Mr. and Mrs. Sebo left for a week's wedding trip after which they will be at home on the Sebo farm in the Waldo hills.

Mr. Sebo is a graduate of the Oregon Agricultural college, where he was a member of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity.

The Winning Workers' class of the First Christian church will sponsor a cooked food sale at the Southern Pacific offices on north Liberty street tomorrow. Mrs. Simpson, Mrs. Lee and Mrs. Riley will be in charge.
