Calendar Of Week Well Filled

Formal teas, bridge luncheons and bridal showers, public teas, club luncheons and public receptions, have completely filled Salem social calendars during the past week. Each day has been brimful of delightful activities and if plans materialize as the coming week will be equally as full.

Much of the entertaining in Salem society evolves about the many bridge and social clubs. Many of them have existed for years and are select and exclusive. Their meetings are always delightful affairs. In addition to a number of leading bridge luncheon clubs which held their first scheduled meetings after the summer vacation during the past week the Pricilla and Thursday clubs met for the first time on Wednesday and Thursday. Mrs. Curtis Cross, Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Jr., and Mrs. Allan Carson were club hostesses for the first fall meetings of their clubs.

Mrs. S. M. Endicott and Mrs. Arthur H. Moore entertained several hundred prominent Salem matrons at a formal tea in the Endicott home on Thursday. Assisting the hostesses during the afternoon were Mrs. George H. Alden, Mrs. H. B. Goodin of Portland, Mrs. L. H. McMahon, Mrs. S. S. East, who presided at the tea table during the afternoon and Mrs. Harry J. Wiedmer, Mrs. W. W. Moore, Mrs. Roy Burton, Mrs. A. M. Dalrymple, Mrs. H. S. Poisal, Mrs. J. H. Ackerman, Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, Mrs. Ellie Carl Charlton, Miss Helen Moore, Miss Ruth Moore, Miss Constance Kattner and Miss Genevieve Endicott.

Miss Margaret Griffith and Miss Mary Jane Albert, two popular Salem girls who are bride-elect and members of old and prominent Salem families, have been extensively entertained during the past week. Miss Josephine Baumgartner and Miss Dorothy Patterson entertained for them on Wednesday. Miss Maxine Buren was hostess at a bridal shower for them on Thursday, and Mrs. Paul Wallace is complimenting Miss Albert at a small luncheon today.

One of the most successful gatherings of leading club women ever held in Salem was a luncheon meeting at the Gray Belle on Wednesday the first fall meet of the Salem branch of the national league of women. Mrs. Charles Carver, Jr., and Mrs. Richard Scholz of Portland and Mrs. Charles McNary were the speakers of the day.

Yesterday all Salem women were interested in the scholarship loan tea sponsored by the woman's club and today the meeting of the Salem branch of the American Association of University Women occupies first place on the calendar.

The music section of the Salem Arts league will be directed this year by Mrs. Gudrun Ebsen and meet on two Wednesday evenings of each month at Mrs. Ebsen's home. Officers of the league feel that they are particularly fortunate in securing Mrs. Ebsen to lead the section as she has studied both music and philosophy in the university at Jena and in other European universities. After coming to this country Mrs. Ebsen was a prominent social worker. She spent some time in Cuba in charge of agencies whose purpose is to save girls from the white slave trade.

The section will devote the major part of its study during the coming winter to the study of folk songs of the various nations. The folk songs of Scandinavia will be studied in October, of Russia in November, of Ireland in December, Scottish folk music will be taken up in January, French folk songs in February, and the music of Czechoslovakia will be studied in March. In April the section will study German folk music, Italian folk music will be taken up in May, and negro spirituals will form the subject for June study.

Study sections in Oregon history, current events, and literature, sponsored by the Salem Woman's club will meet in the club house on Monday afternoon beginning at two o'clock. The Oregon history class will open promptly at two o'clock, the literature section at 2:45 and the class in current events will open a forty five minute period at 3:30. Prof. S. B. McLaughlin of Willamette university, will be the permanent leader of the current event section.

On Friday of next week the psychology section, under Dr. Charles Sherman, will hold its second class meeting. A fifth section will open Friday following the psychology class when Mrs. E. E. Fisher will direct a civic section. The "Know Your Town" series of studies sent out by the national league of women voters will be taken up by this section.

Loan Fund Aided By Silver Tea

More than sixty five dollars will be added to the Oregon federation scholarship loan fund as the result of the silver tea which the Salem Woman's club gave yesterday in the clubhouse. Several hundred society and clubwomen called during the afternoon and more than fifty matrons prominent in club work assisted in the affair.

The clubhouse was never more beautiful than yesterday. In the hallway was placed a huge basket of deep red salvia. The assembly room was attractive with many davenport and divane, floor lamps, bridge lamps and oriental rugs forming a background for the many baskets of marigolds and white maple. An attractive touch was added by a huge hanging basket in one end of the long room which was filled with red and white roses. Mrs. Morton E. Peck and her committee arranged the decorations for the assembly room. Mrs. F. G. Bowersox was in charge of the dining room. A color plan of yellow was carried out on the tea table.

Mrs. Wm. Forsyce Fargo, club president, announced that the Salem Wicker furniture company, who lent baskets for the occasion, is making a large basket which will be donated to the club for the benefit of the scholarship loan fund. The basket will be placed shortly in one corner of the clubhouse and any club member who wishes to purchase the basket is asked to quietly put her name and the amount she is willing to pay on a slip of paper and drop it in the basket. Later the slips will be examined and the basket will go to the person willing to pay the largest amount. The proceeds will be added to the scholarship loan fund.

A concert which will arouse the interest of the music loving public will be given Wednesday evening, November 4th, at the First Presbyterian church, under the auspices of the young married people's class.

Ruth Agnew, soprano, whose voice has been heard over the radio from KGW at Portland will sing two groups of songs, and possibly a concerted number with piano, organ and violin. Other artists who will participate are
