

STOCK MARKET IN TUMULT; COLLAPSE FOLLOWS RISE

STOCK PRICES SWEEP UPWARD IN WILD SPURT

New York, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Stock prices collapsed 2 to 10 points with startling suddenness after a 24 opening rally of 1 to 7 points in today's market with total sales calculated by the Associated Press at 3,482,000 shares, the highest half-holiday session since August 18, 1906, when the volume reached the record-breaking total of 1,500,000. Other private estimates placed the total day's business as high as 1,730,000 shares, or at the rate of over 4,000,000 shares for a full five hour session.

New York, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Riotous speculation broke forth in today's stock market, quoted values being carried up 1 to 7 points in the first frenzied outburst, pouring from all sections of the country, burst upon the floor of the New York stock exchange today and swept prices upward in one of the wildest sessions witnessed in recent years. The deluge reached its maximum intensity in the motor stocks which were whirled upward 1 to 7 points on sales running into the hundreds of thousands of shares. Total transactions of all stock in the first hour probably ran over 700,000 shares, with the official ticker at least eight minutes behind the market.

EGGS TOUCH NEW TOP PRICE AND BUTTER IS FIRM

Portland, Oct. 17.—Local country men announced an advance of two cents in the price of prints effective Monday. The new quotation will be 57 cents on prints and 58 cents for cartons. No change was made in the buying price of butterfat but country bids are now up to 55 cents f. o. b. shippers' track.

Portland, Oct. 17.—Unusual strength was shown in the egg market during the past week. In both fresh and storage stocks. The market has gradually worked upward closing today at 54 cents on fresh extras, new top for this season. A week ago extras closed at 51 cents, showing an actual gain on the top grades of three cents for the week.

Prices closed today at 49 cents, an advance of 2 cents overnight and a gain of 4 cents over a week ago. Pullets lost a cent in the closing session of the exchange but still show a gain of three cents over a week ago. Current receipts closed at 42 cents, a gain of 2 cents since last Saturday.

Strength in the local market is contributed to the export of storage stocks to England as well as the general upward trend in outside markets. Fresh arrivals have been only moderate this week and buyers are advertising in the country for additional supplies.

Butter quotations were unchanged on the local dairy board for the day but the market is firm. Cubes averaged 1 to 1 1/2 cents higher than a week ago on the exchange.

Country dressed meats have displayed a sluggish tone along the street during the past week, closing easier in both hogs and veal. Buyers were not very keen at any time and only bargains or extra fancy animals would interest them. Choice light veal closed slow at 15 cents and choice light hogs at 15 cents.

An easier tone in live poultry was also shown during the week. Receipts were sufficient for all requirements and the demand was only nominal and hardly noticeable at times.

35 TO 37 CENTS IS NEW WOOL PRICE

Portland, Oct. 17.—The tone of the wool market is better than it was last week, which is encouraging to the growers who are still holding their spring clips here. There are a few inquiries on the market with buyers indicating 25 to 37 cents for good Oregon wool, but this does not agree with the views of shippers, who are hoping for prices of 40 cents or better. Recent sales in Utah at 42 to 44 cents have naturally had a strengthening influence on sellers as reflecting the improvement in the foreign and eastern markets. Dealers believe that next month will see a selling movement by growers who have borrowed on their clips.

The condition of the Boston market yesterday was reported in the daily bulletin as follows: "Actual transactions on the wool market include a fair amount of fine wools. Demand, however, still centers on medium stocks, choice fine combing territory wools are selling up to $1.30 clean. French combing has moved at fully $1.25 and half-blood is up to $1.20. Australian 64s and 70s super wool have sold at $1.07 and $1.10, clean, in bond."

Seattle, Wash.—The Holland-American freighter Remdyk, which grounded in the fog off Bentinck Island is in no danger of foundering, it was reported in radio messages received here. The vessel has six feet of water in her forward hold.

MORTGAGES ON ORCHARD TRACT ARE FORECLOSED

In a decree by Judge Kelly in circuit court two mortgages amounting to $23,000 against the Eden Orchards company and the Sunnybrook Prune & Walnut corporation are foreclosed, the mortgages being secured by 101 acres of land south of the city.

Under the decree when the lands are sold the proceeds in the first and second place are to go to cover costs and disbursements; in the third and fourth place to take care of tax liens, in the fifth place to cover a mortgage for $14,000 held by Ada E. Jory, plaintiff in the case, and in the sixth place to cover a $210 mortgage also held by her. In the seventh place the money is to be used to cover a mortgage for $9000 held by the United States National bank and lastly, if there is any balance, it is to go to the defendants.

While the matter was argued in court there was no dispute about the mortgages, the only question being who was to be reimbursed in regard to payment of taxes.
