Mrs. Louis Lachmund Is Hostess

Outstanding among the affairs of the week is the attractive luncheon at which Mrs. Louis Lachmund was hostess in her home on Court street today. Bowls and baskets of lovely marigolds and orange zinnias were arranged about the rooms and in the center of the long luncheon table in the dining room.

A color plan of orange and black was carried out on the luncheon table. Orange candles were used in crystal holders.

Beautiful novelty coverings in shades of orange marked covers for Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Jr., Mrs. David Eyre, Mrs. George Dorcas, Mrs. Frederick Lampert, Mrs. O. C. Locke, Mrs. Henry Meyers, Mrs. John McNary, Mrs. George Rodgers, Mrs. William Walton, Mrs. T. A. Lively, Mrs. T. C. Smith Jr., Mrs. J. J. Roberts and Mrs. S. W. Thompson.

Bridge was enjoyed for several hours during the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Shaw entertained members of the B. E. club in their home on Wednesday evening. Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jenson. Autumn leaves and dahlias were arranged attractively about the living rooms. High card honors were won by Mrs. F. E. Turner and Claude Townsend. Consolation awards went to Mrs. Ed Keene and Mr. Jenson.

During the evening Mrs. S. C. Kightlinger and Miss Lavette Keene assisted Mrs. Shaw.

Members of the club in the guest group were Mr. and Mrs. Claude Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Fandrich, Dr. and Mrs. O. L. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Olmsted, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Keene, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Kightlinger and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Turner.

Golden Hour club members motored to Dallas yesterday where they were guests at luncheon and during the afternoon of a former club member, Mrs. W. L. Pemberton. A jack o'lantern centerpiece and Halloween favors on the luncheon table added to the table's attractiveness.

Covers were laid for Mrs. Mason Bishop, Mrs. Ray Pemberton, Mrs. Lloyd Springer, Mrs. Fred Ellis, Mrs. Albert Stewart, Mrs. Buell, Mrs. V. C. Van Slyke, Mrs. Homer Ingrey, Mrs. Herbert Winkler, Mrs. A. C. Sample, Mrs. B. M. Hendricks and the hostess, Mrs. Pemberton.

The next meeting of the club will be held in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Winkler.

Miss Margaret Owens of Washington, D. C., a representative of the national league of women voters and secretary of a union of organizations interested in various national movements, met in the chamber of commerce auditorium yesterday with a representative group of Salem women from the leading clubs, societies and fraternal organizations of the city in an open forum discussion of the child labor movement.

Accompanying Miss Owens was Miss Hester Hollingshead, regional director of the national league of women voters. Miss Owens outlined the benefits of the amendment and attempted to get the general sentiment of the local women on the subject.

Last night Miss Owens and Miss Hollingshead left for Corvallis where they are holding a similar meeting today.

Miss Lucille Wilson of Palo Alto, Cal., the daughter of Arthur Wilson who is well known by the older residents of Salem, has returned from a week spent in Springfield at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Wilson, and is again the house guest of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Wilson. Miss Wilson will leave shortly for Portland where she will spend a week of ten days at the home of Mrs. S. P. Garrigue, after which she will again return to Salem to remain for an indefinite visit.

The men's Bible class of the First Presbyterian church entertained wives of members and special friends at dinner and a social hour in the church parlors on Wednesday evening. The program included songs by the male quartet, a reading by Miss Helen Davis and a short address by Rev. W. S. Thornlike on "Christlike Christians."

Mrs. Kugel Entertains At Bridge

Mrs. Karl Kugel was hostess at two attractive affairs in her country home in Polk county yesterday. In the afternoon thirty two matrons and maids were guests at eight tables of bridge with high honors being won by Mrs. P. A. Elker and Mrs. William McGilchrist Jr. In the evening an equal number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Kugel enjoyed several hours of bridge in their home. First prizes were awarded to Mrs. Al Steiner and M. P. Adams.

Clever and attractive Halloween decorations were combined with orange and yellow flowers about the living rooms of the Kugel home. A color plan of orange and black was used.

In the afternoon Mrs. Kugel was assisted by Mrs. Walter Spaulding and Mrs. F. G. Bowersox. In the evening Mrs. W. C. Franklin assisted the hostess.

Members of the Salem Daughters of the Nile club will entertain their husbands at a five hundred party on Monday evening of next week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Buchner, according to the plans formulated at an all day meeting of the club at the Masonic Temple on Wednesday. The day was spent in sewing on dresses for the children in the Shrine hospital in Portland. Mrs. David Wright was named vice president of the club during a short business meeting. Mrs. John R. Sites is president and Mrs. George Duneford is secretary treasurer.

The Salem club includes Mrs. John R. Sites, Mrs. Walter F. Buchner, Mrs. David Wright, Mrs. George Duneford, Mrs. George Carter, Mrs. Ray Condit of Aumville, Mrs. P. A. Elker, Mrs. Fred Ellis, Mrs. Paul Hauser, Mrs. C. J. Green, Mrs. James Smith, Mrs. E. H. Kennedy, Mrs. V. E. Kahan, Mrs. T. S. Mesch, Mrs. William McGilchrist Jr., Mrs. Glenn Niles, Mrs. G. L. Newton, Mrs. O. A. Olson, Mrs. Claire A. Vibbert, Mrs. Charles Wiper, Mrs. Fred Williams and Mrs. John Sweeney.

Members of DeMolay will assist the Eastern Star social club in selling tickets for the annual dance which the social club will give in the armory next Thursday evening.

Mrs. Kitty Graver, Mrs. M. M. Chapman and Miss Oda Chapman have returned from Newkwin where they spent a week at the Fry summer home.

Plans for an apron bazaar which they will hold on November 7 are being rapidly made by the local War Mothers. The aid of all War Mothers in the county, including those not affiliated with regular organization, is being solicited for this bazaar. Mrs. J. F. Humphreys, secretary of the local group, will give information regarding the affair.

An article in the November issue of Everybody's magazine which describes the struggles and accomplishments of the three women who are creators of the world's most famous dolls is of particular interest in Salem as Grace Stacey Putnam, creator of the famous Bye-Lo doll, is one of the three mentioned. The article contains an interview with Mrs. Putnam and mentions in several places her daughter, Miss Bruce Putnam, a well known Salem musician, who is in New York studying at the present time. Mrs. Putnam left Salem last spring and joined her mother in a trip abroad.

In the group of Salem people who motored to Silverton on Monday night to attend a meeting of Marion Circle, Neighbors of Woodcraft, were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Blackerby, Mrs. C. B. Shaw, Mrs. F. E. Turner and Mrs. Hattie Smiley, Mrs. Blackerby and Mrs. Turner are grand officers of the lodge. Mrs. Shaw is presiding officer of Salem circle, and Mrs. Smiley is auditor of the circle at Corvallis although she is making her home in Salem this winter.

Among the Salem matrons who received cards to the formal tea in Eugene yesterday at which the members of Alpha Xi Delta sorority honored their house mother, Mrs. Charles Gray, were Mrs. Frank Snedecor, Mrs. Breyman Bole, Mrs. R. P. Bole, Mrs. Henry Meyers, Mrs. Paul Wallace, Mrs. George Rodgers, Mrs. Louis Lachmund, Mrs. John H. McNary, Mrs. Frederick Lampert, M. J. H. Lauterman and Miss Margaret Cosper. The affair was given in Alumni hall on the University of Oregon campus. At this time the sorority formally presented their new house mother to the faculty and other organizations on the campus. Mrs. Frank Snedecor, Mrs. Breyman Bole and Mrs. R. P. Bole motored down early in the morning and spent the entire day in Eugene.

Mrs. Kitty Graver, Mrs. M. M. Chapman and Miss Oda Chapman have returned from Newkwin where they spent a week at the Fry summer home.

ITALIANS OFF TO SETTLE DEBTS

Rome, Oct. 23.—(A. P.)—Members of the Italian war debt commission departed today for Washington, where they will attempt to negotiate a settlement of what Italy owes the United States.

Many officials and friends expressed wishes for a satisfactory result of the parley as the mission's special train left for Naples. All members of the cabinet made the mission farewell except Premier Mussolini, but he had a long conference last night with Count Volpi, head of the mission. Wishes for a permanent settlement and not a temporary arrangement have been expressed by Count Volpi.

"Kellogg's ALL-BRAN has entirely relieved me of constipation," writes grateful father

The ravages of constipation can be promptly stopped. Here is signed evidence.

Mr. Hunt's case is typical of thousands of others who have found habit-forming pills and drugs of no avail in seeking permanent relief from constipation. Read this interesting letter:

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN has entirely relieved me of constipation. Before I started using ALL-BRAN I was a regular guy in taking pills—always getting something to bring relief. Now I never touch them. I fully recommend it to anyone to relieve constipation as you advertise on the package. My daughter also eats ALL-BRAN and I can see her health improve.
