GREEK DRIVE ON BULGARIA CONTINUES

Bulgars Mobilizing To Resist Further Advance League To Act On Monday.

(By Associated Press.) Notwithstanding intervention by the league of nations, the Greco-Bulgarian crisis seemed to be growing more acute today with new troop movements reported on both sides.

The Greeks, following their advance to Petrich, in the Struma valley, are reported to be moving against the Rupan pass, which they claim has been used by Bulgarians as the route for incursions into Greek territory.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Oct. 24.—(AP)—Bulgaria is sending troops into the "war area" and has decided to make a stand as far as her limited military strength permits.

CLEAR DAY FOR OREGON GAME

Portland, Or., Oct. 24.—(A. P.)—A clear day greeted the assembled cohorts of the University of Oregon and University of California football teams, which met at Multnomah field this afternoon in one of the most important games of the Pacific coast intercollegiate conference season.

It was the first conference game of the year for California, and the second for Oregon.

The University of Oregon team and hundreds of students arrived last night from Eugene, and put on a noise parade through the streets that will long be remembered. They then held a monster rally at Multnomah club, at which many prominent alumni spoke.

GOOD EVENING WORDS and MUSIC

A PARABLE FOR POETS When Percy was a fellow youth, He set his hand to verse, His object (I must tell the truth) Being to fill his purse.

The editors were grim and gruff When Percy came to call; They did not want his sort of stuff.

With board and lodging furnished free, And clothes provided, too, He turned again to poetry, As felons often do.

White Elected To Head Marion County Y. M. C. A.

O. E. White of Dayton was last night elected head of the Marion County Y. M. C. A. at the annual county convention, held in the First Christian church here.

Vienna, Oct. 24.—(AP)—Diplomats through Belgrade say Bulgaria is mobilizing. Reports received in the Jugo-Slavian capital from the border state that forty comitadja bands (irregulars) are enroute to Meinik to reinforce the army.

ROTTEN EGGS WIN ELECTION

Glasgow, Oct. 21.—Some 20,000 eggs of uncertain age were substituted for rhetoric in the final campaigning in connection with the annual polling today to elect the lord rector of Glasgow university.

Austen Chamberlain, the foreign secretary, was the victor in the contest of ballots, being elected over G. K. Chesterton and Sidney Webb, first president and Sidney Webb, first president of the board of trade, but the statey buildings of this ancient seat of learning suffered heavily in the battle of decayed missiles which accompanied the election.

HOME RULE THRU PARENTS YOUTH'S NEED

Coolidge Praises Work of "Y" But Censures Parents For Neglect of Offspring.

"It is not enough that there would be action in the pulpits—there must be action in the pews. It will not be sufficient to have exalted preaching by the clergy unless there is exalted living by the laity.

Those who reprove the American people and their government "for an alleged failure" to assist other peoples "who are making the loudest complaints" on this score, Mr. Coolidge said, probably never took the trouble "to ascertain what we have done and what we are doing."

Washington, Oct. 24.—(A. P.)—The present day need of the American youth is "more home control through parental action."

Describing the home as the "cornerstone of the nation," the president declared that control of the nation's youth from this source is preferable "to attempt in some way" the constantly increasing "the government's responsibility for the rearing of children."

Inheritance Taxes To Be Cut and Eliminated In Next Six Years

Washington, Oct. 24.—(A. P.)—Proposals for immediate reductions in the federal inheritance tax with repeal at the end of six years were endorsed today by a number of governors.

Washington, Oct. 24.—(A. P.)—A reduction of $2 per one thousand and 5-cent cigars, $3 on the two for 15-cent cigars and $4.50 on the 15-cent grade was proposed. Collections from tobacco levies next year are estimated by the treasury at $360,000,000 producing the greatest revenue producer among the federal levies for

Sheriff Drives 400 Miles With Captives Chained Over Auto

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 24.—Deputy Sheriff Robert Gibson of this county (King) arrived here today with two men he captured single handed at Drano, Ore., 400 miles south of Seattle. He brought them by himself, handcuffed across the hood of an automobile he seized with them and which they are accused of stealing.

Burglaries totalling $10,000 in the Pacific northwest are laid to the men, Gibson performed his feat to avoid extradition and delay.

Great Future For Linen Industry Seen In Valley

By W. B. BARTRAM The immediate development of the flax and linen industry in the Willamette Valley has been under consideration here and other places in the state during the past seven months. We have at last arrived at a definite stage where the industry is assured. The spinning and weaving corporation has now been actually organized and the Board of Directors appointed.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE IN MANY COUNTY SCHOOLS

County Superintendent Fulkerson, who has just returned from a visit to Mills at Gates and Mill City, finds at Mill City a new domestic science department is being installed in the high school, tables being made on the ground from lumber from the mills, the tables being exceptionally fine and easy to have an individual table.

At Gates the school has installed a new water system, with separate shower baths for boys and girls in connection with the big gymnasium which was put in last year. Transportation is furnished to pupils to the Gates school this year the system having been widened out as far as Eudora.

The pony express race, advertising a film production, started from Salem at 9:13 o'clock this morning, and the riders expected to reach their destination in Portland about 2:30 o'clock in this afternoon.

CASE GOES TO JURY AT 12:19 AFTER PLEAS

Prosecutor Demands the Death Penalty and Defense Attorney Pleads For Leniency.

The trial of Ellsworth Kelley and James Wilroy, convicts charged with Tom Murray with the murder of Guard John Holman in the prison break of August 12, went to the jury at 12:14 o'clock today, following a morning of arguments by the opposing attorneys.

Prosecutor Asks Death Sentence of the Jury. "It lies with you ladies and gentlemen of the jury," Carson declared, "whether the sanction of the law is to be placed upon the commission of such a crime as we have proved these defendants guilty. If you are remiss in your duty you will be saying to these defendants and all the other convicts confined in the Oregon state penitentiary that they can commit just such a crime as took the life of John Sweeney and suffer no punishment other than to be returned to the prison from which they escaped."

All Equally Guilty The prosecutor attacked the plea of the defense that neither Wilroy
