Wilson, U. S. N., which will be solemnized in the Reed college chapel at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The event will be attended by brother officers of Mr. Wilson, who will come to Portland for the occasion.

Miss Powell has selected as her maid of honor her sister, Miss Evangeline Powell. The best man will be Kenneth Waters of Salem. Miss Hilda Thorne, Miss Elva Mervy, Miss Marguerite Drake of Portland and Miss Marie Briggs of Salem will be bridesmaids.

The ceremony will be performed by Miss Powell's father, Rev. Charles H. Powell, now of Portland and formerly of Vancouver, Wash. Her brother, Edward Powell, will give away the bride.

After the wedding a reception will be held in Anna Mann cottage on the Reed campus. Mrs. Richard F. Scholz and Mrs. Herbert Thorne will cut loaves. Those assisting in serving will be the Misses Mara Cherkosov, Edna Lola Maxon, Frances Elwyn, Mary Jane Fitzpatrick, Dorothy Penock, Florence Fowler and Viollette Odekrick. Mrs. L. E. Griffin, Mrs. A. A. Knowlton, Mrs. J. C. Leady and Mrs. Frances E. Neer will assist about the rooms.

Miss Powell is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Charles H. Powell. She is a graduate of Reed college in the class of 1925. Mr. Wilson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wilson of Salem and a graduate of the United States naval academy at Annapolis. After their marriage the couple will make a wedding trip to the beach, to Canada and then to Long Beach, Cal., where they will make their home.—Oregonian.

Mrs. Fred Gibson entertained the members of the Valley View club at her home in Polk county on Thursday. Following a business session the afternoon was spent in games and music. Several new members joined the club at this meeting.

Members present were Mrs. W. E. Knowler, Mrs. L. D. Gibson, Mrs. W. H. Mann, Mrs. Sybil Roberts, Mrs. Chester Fisher, Mrs. Frank Wilson, Mrs. Bernam Southwick, Mrs. John Simmons, Mrs. Robert Adams, Mrs. E. Anderson, Mrs. Wm. Bouffleur, Mrs. W. W. McDowell, Mrs. Roy McDowell, Mrs. Ammond Grace, Mrs. Will Schwarz and the hostess.

Additional guests were Mrs. Kennedy, Mrs. Nora Wilson, Mrs. N. G. Wilson, Mrs. Phillip Patrick, Mrs. Paul Davis, Mrs. J. W. Delapp, Mrs. J. B. Ashby, Miss Lily Wilson, Miss Jewel Wilson and Miss Mary Walte.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Denton, Mrs. J. R. Pollock and Mrs. Charles Elgin visited Portland friends on Thursday.

Mrs. Frank X. Albrecht and Mrs. Edward Heenan are in charge of the rummage sale in St. Joseph's auditorium today. Further contributions of articles for the sale which is opened each Saturday should be left at the auditorium according to the announcements of the committee.

The gardens of Greece will be described in detail by Mrs. Alice H. Dodd at the October meeting of the Salem Garden club in the chamber of commerce auditorium on Tuesday evening. Those appearing on the program, in addition to Mrs. Dodd, will be E. N. Gillingham and R. J. Clary who is business manager of the Better Flower magazine edited by Jesse A. Currie. A quartet composed of H. F. Bitcham, G. N. Davis, E. A. Kenney and Dr. A. C. Bales, will give several numbers. Mr. Gillingham will give a blackboard plan of a perennial border and will explain how, when, where and what to plant.

Mrs. Carl Huber entertained informally Thursday afternoon honoring Mrs. C. W. Bass, who leaves soon to make her home in Bellingham, Wash.

Bowls of marigolds and nasturtiums in shades of yellow and orange were used about the living room and dining room. The same color scheme was carried through out the two course luncheon.

Covers were laid for the honor guest Mrs. C. W. Bass, Mrs. Ralph Sibern, Mrs. W. H. Hendrickson, Velma Hendrickson and the hostess, Mrs. Carl Huber.

Rev. and Mrs. T. C. Hoffman and their children arrived recently by motor from Harrisburg, Penn., and will take up work at the Castle Chapel of the United Brethren.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cattanauch who came to Salem last week from their home in Canyon City to attend the wedding of their niece, Miss Margaret Griffith, to Bert T. Ford, returning yesterday after a week's visit with relatives here and at the beach. They were house guests of Mrs. Frank Meredith.

Mrs. W. Al Jones and Miss Mahel Creighton will return tonight or tomorrow from a two weeks' stay at Joseph in Wallawa county, where they were attending to their ranch interests.

Miss Helen Smith left today for Roseburg where she will spend the week end at her home.

Among the visitors at Newport this week were Dr. and Mrs. J. N. Smith who are spending several days at their Newport summer home.

Senator and Mrs. Charles McNary left on Wednesday for southern California on the first part of their trip to Washington, D. C., where they will spend the winter. After several weeks in Los Angeles and Arizona they will go directly to Washington.

During their summer in Salem a number of affairs, both large and small, were given for the Senator and for Mrs. McNary here and in Portland.

The old time dance, which was held in St. Joseph's auditorium last night was a great success. The decorations were unique and becoming to the season, and the specialties in dancing and singing lent a pleasing note to the whole affair. Old time dances were interspersed with modern ones. This is one of the preparatory functions for the carnival and fair which is to take place in the auditorium on Nov. 22nd, 23rd and 24th. Other affairs to precede the carnival are a play, "Aunt Julia's Ear Ring," picture shows on Saturday and Sunday evenings and get together meetings of all kinds. A young people's society will be re-organized in the near future, and doubtless dances sponsored by this society will be of regular occurrence during the winter.

Mrs. Al Krause was hostess at an attractive affair yesterday when she entertained members of the Mid Week bridge club at combination with bridge colored candles. High honors of the afternoon went to Mrs. Victor MacKenzie with Mrs. Eugene Eckerlin Jr., winning the guest prize. During the tea hour Mrs. Lester Schlosberg assisted the hostess.

Guests of Mrs. Krause were Mrs. McKensie, Mrs. Eckerlin, Mrs. Schlosberg, Mrs. Lewis Lunsford, Mrs. C. L. Logan, Mrs. K. W. Heinlein, Mrs. Ed Vlesko and Mrs. W. A. Shaffer.

The ladies of the north section of the First Congregational church will entertain at a silver tea at the home of Mrs. S. S. East, 1320 Court street, on Monday afternoon.

Harold Socolefsky, sophomore at the University of Oregon has been selected as a second tenor for the men's glee club, according to word received here. Mr. Socolefsky took a prominent part in musical performances in the Salem high school, singing the leading tenor part in the operettas for two consecutive seasons. Last year he was a member of the popular Junior Rotary quartet.

Arle Anderson, Salem, high school '25, has made the glee club at OAC and will sing second bass in the OAC male quartet. Mr. Anderson was a member of the choruses and the male quartet from the Salem high school which won 60 many honors at the Interstate music tournament at Forest Grove last April.

Mrs. E. C. Peets of Portland will be the week end house guest of Mrs. L. R. LeFurgy and Mrs. Homer Smith. Mrs. Peets is president of the Portland MacDowell club and will be the honor guest at a reception following the club concert on Monday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Byrd will leave in the morning for their summer home at Newport. Dr. Byrd will return Monday morning but Mrs. Byrd plans to remain for several days.
