DR. PHY WINS SUIT TO ESCAPE ALIMONY

Dr. W. T. Phy, appellant in a case in the supreme court growing out of the divorce of himself and his former wife, Winifred W. Phy, was again victorious Friday when the court handed down an opinion denying a motion for rehearing. Because Mrs. Phy remarried after the divorce Phy asked a modification of the lower court's order relative to alimony which was granted by the supreme court in an opinion several months ago, written by Justice Brown and reversing Judge J. W. Knowles of the lower court for Union county.

Three Vital Questions Every Advertiser Should Ask

Most advertisers today protect their appropriations by demanding complete information on circulation—with the three following questions answered in the affirmative the advertiser is absolutely sure of adequate returns.

- 1.—Does it reach the field desired?
- 2.—How much net paid circulation has the publication?
- 3.—Are the publishers' claims verified and corroborated by an Auditor's report from the Audit Bureau of Circulations?

We are proud to be in a position to qualify to every demand of the advertiser, as our records are regularly examined by the A. B. C.

Our last audit report is available and open for inspection and is full of facts that the advertiser should know in the placing of his appropriations.
