Mrs. Dancy Hostess to Bridge Club

The Capital bridge luncheon club organized twenty three years ago with practically the same membership as today, met yesterday for the first time in the new club year, with Mrs. W. H. Dancy the hostess.

Members of the club are Mrs. E. L. Baker, Mrs. George G. Brown, Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner, Mrs. Frank W. Durbin, Mrs. W. H. Dancy, Mrs. L. F. Griffith, Mrs. O. C. Locke, Mrs. Milton L. Meyers, Mrs. Frank Meredith, Mrs. H. K. Olinger, Mrs. George Rodgers, Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner and Mrs. W. Carlton Smith.

Special guests of Mrs. Dancy yesterday were Mrs. W. Al Jones and Miss Mabel Crelighton. A huge brown basket filled with fruit at the base of which were placed zinnias and chrysanthemums formed an attractive centerpiece on the luncheon table in the Dancy home. In the living room cosmos, zinnias and chrysanthemums were combined attractively.

High bridge honors were won yesterday by Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, Mrs. Frank W. Durbin will be next club hostess.

The technique of story telling and method of getting a story across to the audience were outlined with illustrations by Lola Belle Bellinger before members of the Salem Arts League at a regular section meeting in the educational room of the library last night. Meetings of the section are held regularly on the second and fourth Wednesdays of the month.

Last night Mrs. Bellinger stressed particularly the telling of stories to children, and the necessity of visualizing a story perfectly and of developing individual personality in its telling. Two stories were told at the close of the hour to illustrate her point. Mrs. S. H. Van Trump told "Little Pink Rose" and Mrs. Bellinger gave an Uncle Remus story. At the next meeting of the section on November 11 a complete review of the work taken up so far will be given for the benefit of those wishing to enter the class at this time.

Mrs. George Trotter was elected president of the Book and Thimble club at a recent meeting held at the home of Mrs. E. W. Pattison on Kingswood Heights road. Other officers chosen were Mrs. Ella K. St. Pierre, vice president; Mrs. Fred Kubin, secretary; Mrs. Mary Beaver, treasurer, and Mrs. E. W. Pattison, Mrs. M. Gehlhar and Mrs. G. Trotter, members of the visiting committee. Following the business session Mrs. Fred Kubin gave a "summary review of past year's club activities."

The club decided to give a series of miscellaneous programs during the year covering the subjects of current events, surveys of lives of great people and other events of interest.

The living rooms of the Pattison home were decked with vases and bowls of roses, chrysanthemums and dahlias for the occasion. During the hour Mrs. Max Gehlhar acted the hostess. Members present were Mrs. Mary Beaver, Mrs. Ella St. Pierre, Mrs. M. Gehlhar, Mrs. L. F. Brown, Mrs. Ed Summers, Mrs. Fred Kubin, Mrs. George Trotter, Mrs. Frank Kunkel and the hostess, Mrs. Pattison.

The next meeting of the club will be on November 5 with Mrs. Fred W. Kubin, Mrs. Ella St. Pierre and Mrs. Mary Beaver will take charge of the program.

On Monday afternoon Miss Margaret Rodgers entertained informally in her home at the first of a series of teas which she is planning as a compliment to Mrs. Edward O'Neill who came to Salem only recently to make her home. Mr. O'Neill is manager of the new paper converting mill which is under construction here. A small group of prominent Salem matrons were guests of Miss Rodgers to meet Mrs. O'Neill on Monday.

Mrs. W. L. Zimmerman and daughter, Miss Dorothy Zimmerman, of Grants Pass are spending this week with Salem relatives and friends. The Zimmermans made their home in Salem until 1917 and have many friends here.

Miss Rosalie Buren had as her house guest recently Miss Hilmi Hellerstedt of Astoria.

Sweet Briar Club Plans Active Year

The sixth annual missionary convention of the local Free Methodist church begins Thursday evening and will continue over Sunday, closing with the service Sunday evening. Six returned missionaries from the foreign field will be present and will speak three times daily. Services will be at 10 a. m. and at 2:30 and 7:30 p. m. Among the speakers are Rev. Breaking Out of Blisters

On Face. Sore Eruptions Formed. Cuticura Heals.

"My trouble began with a breaking out of pimples and blisters on my face. The irritation caused me to scratch and sore eruptions formed. At times I had to stay in bed from school on account of the breaking out, and I could not sleep at night on account of the itching and burning."

"I tried different remedies without relief. I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and they helped me. I continued the treatment and now I am completely healed."

(Signed) Maurice Bushey, 6425 Russell St., Detroit, Mich.

Daily use of Cuticura Soap, assisted by Cuticura Ointment, will keep the skin healthy.

Soap Use Ointment 25 and 50c. Tubular Box, Sold Everywhere. Sample each, Free. "Cuticura Laboratories, Dept. B, Malden, Mass." "Cuticura Shaving Stick 25c."
