Hallowe'en Affairs are Numerous

Love of the mysterious, the "weird and spooky", is a characteristic which all grown ups retain from their fairy tale days. Neither polish nor sophistication of years can obliterate the thrill of "spooks and goblins and hideous old witches at Hallowe'en parties. Hallowe'en, centuries ago called "All Hallows", is traditionally the time of meritment, and this week has seen a series of Hallowe'en parties given by young and old. Cornstalks and pumpkins have been transferred by the carloads from fields to living rooms and black cats have been manufactured by the dozens during the past week. It is generally accepted by hostesses that no time is more adapted to entertaining than this time and dinners, dances and card parties have kept this week crowded to the brim.

The Eastern Star social club danced in the armory on Thursday evening was one of the largest affairs of the early fall. A number of the city's leading bridge luncheon clubs and social clubs were entertained during the past week. Mrs. W. J. Dancy was hostess at the first meeting of the year of the Capital bridge luncheon club. Mrs. E. C. Small and Mrs. George J. Pearce were hostesses to the Leisure Hour club this week. Mrs. D. J. Fry, Mrs. Paul Hendricks and Mrs. Frederick Lamport each entertained their clubs. Mrs. Lewis Griffith and Mrs. Roy Mills were hostesses at one of the outstanding luncheons of the week and Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding and Mr. and Mrs. Bliss L. Darby entertained at a twelve table five hundred party. Several Hallowe'en affairs have been given very recently by the younger set and by the high school students. Promising to be one of the most interesting of the Hallowe'en parties of the year is the affair which will be given tonight by Mrs. J. C. Currie at the Hibbard farm, the Currie country place in the Waldo hills.

A number of luncheons, teas and dinners have been planned for the coming week for Miss Annabelle Golden whose marriage to Wayne E. Kain will take place at six o'clock on the evening of November 11 in the First Congregational church.

The music section of Salem Arts League met Wednesday night at the home of Professor and Mrs. G. Ebsen. A large number were present including members and visitors.

Mrs. Ebsen, who has charge of the section, opened the program stating that last year the section had been studying some of the leading old composers, but this year they would study the folk songs of the different countries. She then read a short paper on the essential characteristics of folk songs and introduced the speaker of the evening, Dr. J. O. Hall of Seattle, who had been asked to speak on Norwegian folk songs.

The speaker gave a description of the physical environment of the Norse people and showed how these great Titanic forces with which nature has endowed the country have cast a shadow of sadness and melancholy over the people, and that this accounted for the prevalence of minor strains in their music.

Their national music is admirable for its original force and ever varying moods. Their songs speak of heroic exploits in heathen ages, of the kings and warriors of the middle ages, of love deep and ardent that have few equals.

The most famous of the old mythical songs is the visionary legends, Draumkveði (Dream songs).

The speaker explained the "steve", which is unique for Norway, and he also gave an explanation of the original folk dances, "hallings" and spring dances.

Dr. Hall explained the influence of the Norse folk song upon the music of Ole Bull and Edward Grieg. Miss Evangeline Ora Hall played many selections illustrating the different kinds of Norwegian folk songs and she also rendered several of Grieg's selections which are composed on folk song motives.

Mrs. Fereshelan, accompanied by Mrs. Merie Smith, sang artistically and with great feeling several of the Norse folk songs.

At their next meeting they will study the folk songs of Sweden, Denmark and Finland.

One of the most delightful meetings of the entire year of the Past Matrons' association was held last night when members of the association were guests at a Hallowe'en party at the Godfrey home on north Liberty street. A world of little Eloise Wright met the guests at the door and ushered them to the living rooms decked with zinnias, cypripediums and marigolds combined with Jack o'lanterns, cornstalks, white, black cats and ghosts.

The home of Austin and Russell Gardner on Bellevue street was the scene on Friday of a jolly Hallowe'en party, with decorative Hallowe'en features used in keeping with the season. Games, music, cards and dancing were enjoyed during the evening. Those participating were Esther Woods, Marjorie Webb, Dorothy White, Kathryn Sheldon, Evelyn Amort, Clara Amort, Dorothy Tweedale, Georgia Spencer, Maurice Wood, Kenneth Webb, Stuart Bush, Victor Wolf, Frederick Wolf, Howard Thompson, Norris Kemp, David Kemp, Ray Kemp, Gretta Bailey, Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. and Mrs. Joseph Roque, Mrs. Ropelle, Mr. and Mrs. John Gardner and the hosts, Austin and Russell Gardner.

Sororities Entertain Alumnae

Homecoming when graduates and former students flock back to campus scene, is the time of particular jollity in the fraternity and sorority houses. Salem sorority girls have planned a number of affairs for the pleasure of their alumnae who are at their houses this week end for home coming festivities.

Thirty alumnae members of Beta Chi sorority were honor guests at a reunion dinner at the chapter house last night. Hallowe'en favors were used on the long dining table and the freshman girls who served were attractive Hallowe'en frocks. After the foot ball game this afternoon a tea will be given in the Beta Chi house in honor of the graduates.

Mrs. Alice H. Dodd and Mrs. E. C. Richards will preside at the tea table. A musical program will be given by Miss Margaret Arnold, soprano, Miss Helen Richardson and Miss Viola Carrier, pianists.

Alumnae members of Delta Phi sorority were honor guests at an attractive luncheon at the Marion hotel at noon today given by the active chapter members. Covers were laid for forty five fifteen of whom were honor guests. The girls were seated at four tables. A large basket of chrysanthemums centered each table.

Formal initiation will be held at the Alpha Phi sorority house this afternoon beginning at five o'clock to be followed by a banquet at the Spa honoring the initiates and the alumnae members of the chapter who are honor guests in Salem this week end. Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney will be an additional honor guest.

Prof. T. S. Roberts, well known Salem organist, announced yesterday that he is sponsoring the appearance of Alfred Hollins, England's famous blind organist and composer, in Salem on November 13. The news has been received with the greatest interest in Salem musical circles because of the wide prominence and reputed ability of Mr. Hollins, who is affectionately called "Alfred the Great" in England and Australia. He will play in the First Methodist church.

Mr. Hollins is returning to America for a two months' concert tour. Recently he has been in Australia. His compositions are known in four continents and one or more of his works are included on almost every organist's concert program.

A group of veterans and daughters of veterans were guests of Comrade and Mrs. Frank Rollo yesterday. The affair was given in honor of Comrade Rollo who is now in his eighty fourth year. Instrumental music and songs were enjoyed during the afternoon. In the group were Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Stearns, Mrs. Rebo Smith, Mrs. Blanche Davis, Mrs. Mabel Lockwood, Mrs. Adair, Comrade Earl Race, Comrade Herr, Mrs. Carrie E. Bartholomew and Miss Gladys Bartholomew.

Salem members of the Northwest Poetry society who motored to Portland last night to attend the regular meeting held in the green room at the Portland hotel were Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Paulus, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clifford, Mrs. W. E. Rues, Mrs. Gertrude Robinson Ross and Colonel E. Hofer.

Colonel Hofer gave the main address of the evening on the subject of "The Poetry of the Future." Mrs. Fargo also gave several of her verses during the program.

Milwaukee, Wisconsin. "I was in a badly run-down condition and I would get weak spells and terrible headaches. I felt so badly last year that I could not do any housecleaning. The minute I would lift or stoop it seemed as if I was going to fall to pieces. I told a neighbor who felt the same way and she said that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was surely the right thing for me. I took four bottles then and in the fall of the year I took three. I had been treated by a doctor but he gave me an iron tonic and that did not help me. It seemed that the tonic did not have in it what the Vegetable Compound did. That gave me the strength and ambition I needed and I have gained in weight. This year before I started to clean house I got four bottles of the Vegetable Compound and am taking it right along. I tell all my friends about it and how much good it does me. They can notice it because I have gained in weight. I weigh 118 now and do all my work myself again."

Masquerade At Currie Home Tonite

Promising to eclipse other Hallowe'en affairs of the year is the masquerade dance tonight at which Mrs. J. C. Currie will be hostess at the Currie country place in the Waldo hills. The big farm house has been transformed with cornstalks, autumn leaves and dozens of pumpkins, into an ideal setting for the guests who will come clad in fancy dress costumes.

Bridge Club Members Are Guests

Games and etats have been planned by the hostess to entertain the group during intermissions between dances. During the evening Mrs. Currie will be assisted by the Misses Gladys Paul, Mizpah Palmerton, Julia Currie and Clara Heater.

Attractive Luncheon Wednesday

Mrs. Lewis Griffith and Mrs. Roy Mills were hostesses at one of the most attractive bridge luncheons of the month when they entertained in the Griffith home on Wednesday.

Hallowe'en favors on the lunch table, combined with orange marigolds and orange candles, marked covers for Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, Mrs. Frank Myers, Mrs. Carl Webb, Mrs. E. M. Page, Mrs. Paul Wallace, Mrs. Karl Kugel, Mrs. Sam Butler, Mrs. L. S. Geer, Mrs. Tom H. Galloway, Mrs. Donald Young, Mrs. H. A. Cornoyer, Mrs. Leo Page, Mrs. Harry Belt, Mrs. Phil Newmyer, Mrs. Paul Johnson, Miss Zoe Stockton, Miss Margaret Rodgers and Miss Helen Jones of Portland.

Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding assisted the hostesses. High bridge honors of the afternoon were won by Mrs. L. S. Geer. The consolation award went to Mrs. Harry Belt.

Fred Toon's Jr., baritone, and popular in Oregon City musical circles, will sing at the Chemeketa street Evangelical church tomorrow evening at eight o'clock.

Mrs. Harold McIntire (Dorothy Willson) will leave today for San Diego to join her husband who is stationed at the aviation school of the United States navy. Mrs. McIntire has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Willson, of Salem Heights. They will make their home in San Diego.

Seventy five of the high school girls were hostesses at a Hallowe'en carnival dance at Crystal Gardens last week end. Elaborate Hallowe'en decorations were used about the large dancing room and many caps, balloons and toy whistles distributed during the evening added to the festivity.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Byrd and Mrs. Martha Byrd are spending today and tomorrow in Portland where they are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Don Byrd. Tomorrow Mrs. Don Byrd will entertain at a birthday dinner honoring Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Byrd whose birth days occur today and tomorrow.

NOW DOES ALL HER WORK

Has No Backache, No Bad Feelings Because Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Drove Her Illness Away

Mrs. Fred Peterson very delightfully entertained for the merry-makers club on Thursday afternoon in her new home on north 24th street. During the meeting Mrs. Christopher Butte was elected president and Mrs. Irving Persons secretary. The rooms were prettily decorated with chrysanthemums. A clever Hallowe'en motif was carried out in the luncheon. Those participating were Mrs. Roy Smith, Mrs. Laurence Buch, Mrs. William Butte, Mrs. Joe Botts, Mrs. Chester Moffitt, Mrs. Irving Persons, Mrs. George Fellers, Mrs. Christopher Butte and the hostess, Mrs. Peterson. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Roy Smith on Nov. 12.

Bridge Club Members Are Guests

Mrs. Frederick Lamport entertained members of her bridge club at an attractive luncheon yesterday in the Lamport home in Ben Lomand park. Bridge was enjoyed for several hours during the afternoon. Special guests were Mrs. George Dorcas and Mrs. John J. Roberts.

Attractive Luncheon Wednesday

Members of the G. A. R. and their wives were the guests of Sons of Veterans and their auxiliary at the armory on Tuesday evening. After a short business meeting the evening's program was opened by Rev. Lyle with a talk on the history of the nation. Other members of the G. A. R. followed with short talks.

An account of her recent trip east was given by Mrs. Norman Terwilliger. Other program numbers were selections by the Sons quartet, a reading by Miss Mary Kightlinger and solos by R. D. Barton, baritone, with Mrs. Pheeden accompanying.

Hallowe'en decorations were used about the rooms and a luncheon was served in the dining room. Dr. Poynd was in charge of the program with Mrs. Lizzie Smith of the auxiliary, assisting.

An announcement was made that on November 14 an all day bazaar and cooked food sale will be held in the Southern Pacific offices on north Liberty street. Louie King will be in charge of the cooked food sale and Florence Shipp will direct the bazaar.

Miss Virginia Neef and Miss Dorothy Tweedale returned last night from a three week stay at Newport. They were guests at the beach of Miss Jennie Calvert who plans to spend the entire winter there. Mr. Neef who is in charge of construction work on the Roosevelt highway near Newport motored back with his daughter and Miss Tweedale.

Mrs. Etta Bradford has received word from her son and daughter in law, Mr. and Mrs. Don Bradford of Los Angeles, of a new baby daughter whom they have named Velma Irene. The baby arrived October 25. Mrs. Bradford was Miss Ava Vinacke of La Grande. Mr. Bradford is a graduate of Salem high school and later attended the University of Oregon. He has many friends in Salem.

A Secret And sunny shampoo
By Edna Wallace Hopper

I have glorious hair, as millions of women know. Its glint is like a halo, on the stage or on the street.

I don't know how I get it. I only know that it comes to me through what they call a Fruity Shampoo.

Very wonderful men professed it for me, but they never would give me the formula. They say that one ingredient gives that matchless glint, but they never would tell me what it is.

But they make it for me to supply you, just as they make it for me. It is the greatest shampoo in existence. I say that after trying scores of them, and searching the world for the best.

I want you to try it. I want you to see the luster that it adds to hair. I would not take a fortune for what it has done for mine.

If I cannot tell you the secret of its wizard like results. They have never been told to me. But those results will amaze and delight you. Ask any toilet counter for Edna Wallace Hopper's Fruity Shampoo, and you'll get exactly what I use. The price is 69 cents. And your dealer will return your money if you think that any other shampoo comes within a mile of this. For your own sake, see what it does.

November "Showers" Planned

An apron shower the first of a series of showers, will be held in St. Joseph's auditorium on Chemeketa and Winter streets on Wednesday, November 4, beginning at 2:30. These showers have proven very popular in the past few years socially as well as being instrumental in providing an abundant supply for the booths of the annual bazaar. Mrs. U. S. Page is chairman of the apron booth and will be ably assisted by Mrs. Ray Hartman, Mrs. J. H. Willett and Mrs. P. D. Quisenberry.

At the shower St. Monica's Altar society will hold their regular business meeting. The following officers who were elected at the September meeting will assume their offices for the first time: president, Mrs. Joseph Bach; 1st vice president, Mrs. Harry Brinks; 2nd vice president, Mrs. M. Shields; recording secretary, Mrs. Roy Brommer; financial secretary, Mrs. M. Lane; treasurer, Mrs. J. Sulig; managing committee, Mrs. M. Redding, Mrs. F. Jaekoski, Mrs. T. M. Barr. Refreshments will be served with Mrs. U. S. Page, Mrs. Ray Hartman, Mrs. J. H. Willett and Mrs. P. D. Quisenberry in charge.

The second shower will be a fancy work shower and will be held at the home of Mrs. J. E. Heenan, 352 north Summer on Thursday November 12th. Mrs. Frank Jaekoski is chairman of the fancy work booth. The third shower will be a post office and fish pond shower and will be at the home of Mrs. Albert O'Brien, 410 north Capitol on Wednesday, November 18th. Mrs. M. Lane is chairman of the post office and fish pond booth.

The soliciting committee for the bazaar is headed by Mrs. M. Shields. The captains of the different committees who are calling on the parishioners are Mrs. S. J. Gentskow, Mrs. Chae, O'Brien, Mrs. Joseph Lebold, Mrs. U. S. Page, Mrs. C. H. Ringwald, Mrs. E. P. Kilian, Mrs. Joe, Demogalia and Mrs. Frank Saalfeld.

One of the most varied, as well as one of the most finished concert programs of the year was given in the First Congregational church last night when Miss Lena Belle Tartar, contralto soloist, assisted by three of her advanced pupils, Melba Davenport, Jewell Gardner and Mary McCrone Hughes, and by a young pianist, Claudia Lewis, the pupil of Miss Elma Weller, appeared before several hundred of their friends.

Miss Tartar needs no introduction to Salem audiences. Her deep rich voice which she handles always with skilled judgment, makes her singing a constant joy. The opening group in last night's concert consisted of three Schubert and two Brahms numbers by Miss Tartar, which showed her remarkable range, her excellent control, and the clarity of her tones.

Miss Davenport followed with two numbers rendered in an excellent mezzo soprano. A lovely soprano, Miss Jewell Gardner, gave two numbers, and Mrs. Hughes, well known for her work in high school musical affairs, followed with Tosti's "Serenade" and Densmore's "Barcarolle."

"The highest resale value" still further enhanced by tremendously reduced prices

The used-car columns of your daily newspaper tell the story. You will find there but few Willys-Knights for sale. And such are, command, always, an almost incredible premium. When a car goes to the graveyard for automobiles, it goes there for one major reason, one only - gears, transmission, differential, wheels, frame, usually are in reasonably good condition. It is the engine that sends a car "across the river." It is the engine that makes or breaks a car . . .

confidence. The used-car trader will tell you he can scarcely give away other cars after they have been run but 25,000 or 30,000 miles! . . .

The patented Knight sleeve-valve motor

—that is the leading reason for the phenomenally long life, and, consequently, the gratifyingly greater resale-rating of the Willys-Knight . . .

So—when you buy your Willys-Knight, particularly at these SUBSTANTIALLY REDUCED PRICES, you are not merely buying an automobile. You are making an investment in sustained motor-car satisfaction. And the dividends that investment brings to you—in service, in freedom from expense and annoyance, in pride of ownership—are matched only by its strength as a gilt-edged security, its high cash redemption value if, in any emergency, you are obliged to dispose of your car.

The Willys-Knight engine never wears out

—unlike any other motor-mechanism in existence, it does not deteriorate. It actually improves with use . . . After 50,000 miles, on up to 100,000 and over, it is a smoother and quieter, more powerful and more completely efficient engine than it was on the day you bought it! . . .

Used-car experts (than whom there are no keener judges of car-values) consider a Willys-Knight at 50,000 or 60,000 miles a first-class selling proposition. Can the same be said of any other car in, or under, or considerably
