Unique Affair Given On River

Decidedly "different" was the Halloween dance on Friday evening at which Jack Spang was host to more than fifty of the younger set. The affair was given at an old steamer landing, five miles down the river and directly across from Spang's landing. Huge cornstalks, masses of autumn leaves, and countless pumpkins, black witches and cats and white ghosts were arranged about the big old building. About the walls were placed piles of straw above which numbers were hung. Each couple, when entering the place was given a number which was numbered. During intermissions couples were asked to seat themselves on the bases numbered to correspond with the number on their programs. All wore "hard times" costumes.

Various contests such as the apple eating, pin matching and other stunts furnished much hilarity during the evening. The feature was the singing of the Royal Troubadours song and the Blue Lady with radio accompaniment by Kenneth Allen, Edward Burnside and Collas Masters. In response to a wire the numbers were broadcasted particularly from KGW for the pleasure of the party at the landing.

In the group were the Misses Florence Busch, Fay Wolf, Virginia Bonnell, Frederica Carlsson, Evelyn Kartzar, Hazel Hurley, Hazel George, Hazel Murphy, Margaret Van Fleet, Kathryn Cook, Lucille Anderson, Opal Hill, Jennie May Hoppe, Doris Henley, Velma Simpkins, Helen Hillport, Margaret Karst, Jane Campbell, Florence Karst, Howard Kuriz, Wm. Verlich, Kenneth Allen, Merrill Ash, Garlen Simpson, Paul Elmer, John Evans, Paul Girod, Donald Blake, Jack Harrison, Deryl Myers, Collas Masters, Edward Burnside, Loren Dalrymple, Jim Busch, James Wynne, Grier, Kenneth Rich, Cecil Edwards, Rose Harris, James Campbell, Raymond Bonesteel and the host, Jack Spang.

Miss Lita Waters was hostess at one of the most interesting of children's Halloween parties of the season when she entertained her kindergarten class in her home which was decorated with autumn leaves, jack o'lanterns, witches, bats and black cats.

Little Jimmie Diaz, wearing a clown costume led the grand march about the tables where various Halloween scenes had been arranged. Games and stories amused the guests during the afternoon. At the tea hour the hostess was assisted by Clarketta Atkin, Marjorie Waters and Jack Powers. Earl Kennell who wore a brownie costume, passed favors.

Members of the kindergarten and additional guests were Clarketta Atkin, Vera Beecher, Lyle Brown, Cameron Batts, Jimmie Diaz, Loren Hicks, Earl Kennell, June Kennell, Barbara Kuriz, Valory Karr, Glen Prime, Glen Klams, Marjorie Waters, Jack Powers, Patsy Livesley, Patsy Lee, Mary Lee, Patsy Patsy, Marjorie Price, Barbara Vesko, Hume Downs, Eileen Lester and Harlene Atkin.

Among the delightful Halloween parties given by members of the younger set was Halloween dance on Saturday evening at the country home of Mr. and C. D. Querry at which Miss Julia Querry and Miss Othal Bevens were hostesses.

Fortune tellers, witches and ghosts were hidden in the fir trees, autumn leaves and cornstalks that completely transformed the living rooms of the evening home. Patrons for the evening were Mrs. W. E. Bevens and Mrs. C. D. Querry.

The guest group included the Misses Geneva Sundin, Frances Sande, Edna Jugel, Florine Hrubetz, Dorothy Bell, Rosalind Rogere, Josephine Maulding, Hope Crowthers, Velma Simpkins, Rose Huston, Hazel Martin, Marie Dederich, Dorothy Meyer and Paul Girod, Johnny George, Carl Noeke, Robert Ashby, Harold Olinger, Robert Kitchen, Delbert Schwabauer, Carl Newton, Hugo Seamster, Coleman Rogers, Kenneth Allen, Paul Phillips, Joe Davis and Flore Querry.

One of the most enjoyable Halloween parties of the past week was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hazeltine in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Breedlove on Friday evening. Games and dancing were enjoyed.

Former Salem Girl Married

A wedding which was solemnized in St. Mark's Episcopal church in Portland on Friday afternoon that is of particular interest in Salem was that of Miss Lillian Slater to Chester Wrucke. Miss Slater is the daughter of Judge and Mrs. W. T. Slater who until about ten years ago made their home in Salem. Both Mrs. Wrucke and her sister, Lola Slater, were well known in Salem. Miss Lola Slater was one of the most prominent musicians of Salem during the time that the family lived here. Their father was associate justice of the state supreme court.

Rev. J. A. Court Simmonds performed the marriage service in the new St. Mark's church. Archie Wright played the wedding march and before the service Miss Gladys Hurley sang "O Perfect Love." Miss Lola Slater was her sister's only attendant and Fred Hazeltine was best man. The ushers were Donald Long and James W. Crawford.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father wore a lovely gown of white satin with hooded full skirt embroidered in crystal beads lined with silver. Her full length tulle veil was fastened with a coronet of old lace. Her shower bouquet was of Ophelia roses and bouvardia. Miss Lola Slater wore heavily beaded orchid corsage and a picture hat. She carried orchid and yellow chrysanthemum buds and asters.

An informal reception at the Slater home in Mirimar place followed the ceremony. Mrs. A. M. Crawford presided at the serving table with Miss Mary Armstrong, Mrs. J. Howard Poole and Miss Dorothy Vinton assisting. Mrs. Eugene Slater assisted in the living room.
