INDIANS BATTLE COLUMBIA TO TIE IN FAST GAME 6-6

Chemawa, Or., Nov. 9.—The Chemawa Indians and the Columbia university of Portland battled four periods to a 6 to 6 tie on the Columbia gridiron Saturday afternoon.

Near the end of the first quarter Columbia got its offensive going. Starting from its own 40-yard mark, Columbia on successive line bucks and end runs, in which LeDoux and Martin featured, placed the ball on the Indians one-yard line. Leute, on a quarter-back sneak, squirmed over for the first score of the game. The try for the extra point failed.

With the opening of the second period the Indians started out with another heave to Platteau. Thompson hit the line for six and followed with another four-yard gain. With the time about up, Atkins threw a beautiful pass to DePoe, who went over the line for the last score of the game. Fleury kicked the goal but the extra point was disallowed by Brandenberg, head linesman, because of tripping on the part of the Redskins backfield.

The second half was a punting duel until the last five minutes. The Clidwellers, in a final attempt, started throwing passes in all directions. Twice they were in a position to attempt a field goal but elected to try for a touchdown. Each of their passes were grounded over the front line. Jackson, Columbia half, who has been out of the game three weeks due to an injured leg, brought the fans to their feet with a 39-yard end run in the last few minutes of play. Hagon, Leute, Martin and LeDoux were the shining stars for the Columbia team. Pratrovich, DeFon and Thomas along with the backfield starred for the Chemawa team. Chemawa has not lost a game so far this season and are hoping to keep their present stride.

RIVER STEAMER FROM PORTLAND FINALLY DOCKS

The river steamer Northwestern was being unloaded at the home dock at the foot of Court street here this morning for the first time since early summer.

The steamer tied up at its dock here at midnight Saturday night, after having left Portland for Salem on October 3. The boat was to have docked here late Friday but its crew, having become accustomed to inactivity while the steamer was beached, went on a strike when it came time to bring it up the river. Another crew, employed Saturday, brought the Northwestern through to its dock here. The boat still carries some 20 tons of freight. The remainder of the Salem Navigation company's business and all business in which time was an important element, has been carried by truck since early summer.

The Northwestern will be given a few needed minor repairs, re-docked with fuel and taken back down the river within a few days. It was stated this morning by Captain Cruise, who has charge of the steamer. The outside boards in the boat's stern wheel have become badly worn by continuous contact with gravel on the river bottom and its raiders have become broken and bent. A brace at the end of the wheel has been torn out by a hauler against which the boat swung.

The present plan of the company is to maintain the boat on a slow schedule with light loads until the river rises sufficiently to permit heavier and faster business. The river at Salem dropped 2 of a foot during the week-end, reaching a level of 3.2 feet below normal at 7 o'clock this morning.

Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep them fit. 15c and 30c.

Mrs. Carrier Squier of Hubbard, springs for medicinal or domestic purposes and for a lily pond in Marion county.

Dudley G. Henry of Salem, water from an unnamed ditch or seepage course for a duck pond in Polk county.

PLANT FIGURES ON NEXT SMOKER THANKSGIVING

Harry Plant, matchmaker, is as yet undecided when he will schedule his next boxing show at the armory, but is planning on putting on a card on Thanksgiving evening. Several attractions are billed at the armory, including the corn show which will make it almost impossible to stage a bout before that time. If Plant decides to put on a card before then it would have to be some time this week which he thinks would follow 100 soon after the last one.

Dick Sims of Portland, who has just returned from Australia, where he won a couple of fights, the only two in which he engaged on the big island, sent through The Capital Journal a challenge to Phil Hayes of Salem for a bout on Thanksgiving night. Sims is desirous of putting the bou on in the Salem armory.

Plant is considering this challenge and is at present in the notion to match the two boys for the night. Hayes is quite popular with the Salem fans and would add new life to the boxing game in Salem, not having been in the ring here for some time. Hayes fought the main event with Ace Botes of Marshfield at London, Friday evening, which he won easily by taking all ten rounds.

Plant was at first considering matching George Ingersoll of Astoria with Frankie Lewis for that date but Ingersoll received a beating at Tacoma last week and Plant is a little dubious about staging him at this time.

A delegation of Independence Masons motored to Dallas, Friday evening, where Dr. Dunsmore presented to the Dallas lodge the replica of the trowel used by George Washington in laying the cornerstone of the capitol building. Woodburn, Or., Nov. 7.—A wedding ceremony of interest to many Woodburn people was performed at Salem, Wednesday, when Miss Zella Branam, daughter of Mrs. Emma Branam, was married to Merle Arthur Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Upon their return they will reside in the Branam cottage. Mr. Nelson will continue his work at his father's store and his bride resumes her position at Moore & Beer's drug store.

Earnest Humphrey, a 10-year-old pupil at the Belle Prael school, was run down by a Ford sedan bearing a Washington license. He is reported as doing nicely at a Salem hospital.

Pity the Weak Skinny Children

Nature's greatest health builder and strength giver is Cod Liver Oil—it's full of vitamins of the first class—everyone knows that.

But pity the poor children—how can they take the nasty, nauseating stuff that invariably upsets their small, delicate stomachs?

Most of them can't and now—thank goodness—some of them have to.

For now Cod Liver Oil comes in tasteless sugar coated tablets, that are an easy for the kids to take as candy and they sure do build up the youngsters in double quick time.

So mothers, if any one of your loved ones is frail and peaked or isn't feeling right just ask J. C. Perry, Central Pharmacy, D. J. Perry or any druggist for a box of Perry's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets—50 tablets—50 cents.

INDEPENDENCE NEWS

Independence, Or., Nov. 9.—On Wednesday 75 students of the Independence schools were given the toxaria anti-toxin treatment, as a preventative for diphtheria. Two weeks ago the Schick test was given to those pupils who had the consent of parents in the matter. This test tells whether or not one is immune to diphtheria and for those who are found susceptible to the disease, the toxik anti-toxin is given, thus making the person immune to the dread diphtheria in case of an epidemic.

SEASICK FISH SAID LATEST

New York.—Fish, when traveling in tanks on steamship, get seasick just like humans, but go a step further and often bring fellow tank passengers to the verge of death by the poisons they emit.

Authority for this statement is Louis Mowbray, widely known fish collector, who is credited with having transported more fish across the ocean than any other person.
