Supper Party After Dance

One of the most delightful affairs of the month was the attractive supper party which Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Geer, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Webb and Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Galloway were hosts last night following the formal dance in Derby hall given by the Monday night dancing club. The affair was given in the Rose room of the Spa.

The guests and their hosts were seated at two long tables. Centering each table was a beautiful electric fountain with water playing over blue lights. The effect was most charming. Around the base of each fountain was arranged a mass of greenery.

In the group were Dr. and Mrs. G. C. Bellinger, Dr. and Mrs. Phil Newmyer, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Burton, Dr. and Mrs. George H. Vehr, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Paul V. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. Henry V. Compton, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Spaulding, Dr. and Mrs. Wilson H. Darby, Mr. and Mrs. Helen L. Darby, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Brophy, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Will Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Max Page, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Page, Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Bates, Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Hill Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Geer, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Galloway and Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Webb.

Nydia Queen To Be Salem Club Guest

Mrs. Frank Averill, queen of Nydia temple, Daughters of the Nile, and Mrs. Frank Sellers, rector of Nydia temple, will be the guests of the Salem club on Thursday when Mrs. Averill will make her annual inspection. A luncheon will be given for the honor guests at the Gray Belle at one thirty and will be followed by a business meeting at the home of Mrs. George Dunsford, secretary of the Salem club, in the afternoon.

Mrs. John R. Sites, president of the Salem club, will entertain Mrs. Averill and Mrs. Sellers at dinner in her home on Court street in the evening. Later they will be special guests at the DeMolay reception in the Masonic temple.

After visiting the Salem club Mrs. Averill and Mrs. Sellers will visit clubs at Corvallis, Albany, Eugene and Roseburg.

New Club Division Group Meets

The executive council of the Oregon federation of business and professional women's clubs and the executive council and members of the Portland club will attend a banquet in Vancouver, Wash., Tuesday at 6:30 p. m. in the Young Women's Christian association dining room, Seventh and Main streets, when the Vancouver business and professional women's club will be organized.

Miss Jessie Gordon, in the office of the state highway commission, is very active in the formation of the new club, having called together 25 representative business women in Vancouver who will be charter members of the new organization, which plans to join the Washington state federation and affiliate with the national federation of business and professional women's clubs.

Miss Bertha McCarthy, membership chairman of the Oregon federation; Miss Louise M. Hackert, state president, and Miss Adella Prichard, past national president, will help with the organization work.

The close proximity of the Portland and Vancouver clubs will lend to their cooperation and exchange of friendly social visits. —Oregon Journal.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Keefer was the scene of a pleasant affair on Saturday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Roy McDowell entertained their friends at five hundred.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Sommers, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Knover, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Schwarz, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Smart, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Landau, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Keefer and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Roy McDowell.

High score was won by Will Schwarz.

The ladies aid society of the Christ Lutheran church will meet on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. E. Barrick with Mrs. Will Bristake assistant hostess. The meeting will open at two o'clock.

Mrs. Frances Cornell of Jefferson is spending this week with her daughter, Mrs. George Griffith.

Members of the Salem Branch of the American Association of University Women Played an Important Part in the State Meeting

More than a hundred members of the Astoria chapter, Order of the Sisters Star, motored to Woodburn last night where they were guests of the Evergreen chapter members at their meeting, a program and a supper following. Gervais chapter members were also guests of the Woodburn group last night.

After a brief meeting the chapter adjourned and gave a program of music and readings to the pleasure of their guests. Later the group was taken to the banquet room for supper.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Allison and their son Donald, will be pleased to know that after several years residence in Eugene they have returned to Salem to make their home. Before going to Eugene Mr. Allison was employed in the secretary of state's office for over twenty years, and the past five years has held the position of auditing clerk in the business office of University of Oregon. He will go into business here in Salem and Donald will enter W. U. as a sophomore. They are domiciled in their recently purchased home at 1825 Trade street.

Illiteracy problems will be discussed during the program hour at the meeting of the Salem Women's club on Saturday afternoon. The committee on education, of which Mrs. George H. Alden is chairman, will be in charge of the program. Other members of the committee are Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. Richard Cartwright, Mrs. Lewis D. Griffith, Mrs. Harwood Hall and Mrs. Curtis Cross.

Members of the Salem Branch of the American Association of University Women Played an Important Part in the State Meeting

Members of the Salem branch of the American association of university women played an important part in the state meeting held in Corvallis on Saturday. At this time Mrs. George H. Alden, president of the Salem branch, was appointed by Miss Mozelle Hair of Eugene, state president, on the history textbook survey with Mrs. Louis T. Merwin of Portland. Mrs. R. A. Klein was named chairman of the committee on education to succeed Mrs. Norman Coleman of Portland, who resigned.

Nearly a score of Salem A. A. U. W. members motored to Corvallis on Saturday morning to attend the meeting. At this time Miss Edith Carter, Kuncy, instructor in modern languages at Oregon Agricultural college was chosen as the delegate from Oregon to attend the international convention of university women at Amsterdam, Holland, next summer. This will be the first time that a delegate has been sent from Oregon. During the morning session standing committees reported.

Round table discussions were held following the luncheon hour. An address by Dean Henry D. Sheldon of the University of Oregon school of education completed the program. Dr. Lois Hayden Meek of Washington, D. C., national education secretary, explained and classified study material available to the A. A. U. W. members. Traveling libraries, publications, and outlines of study material are furnished thru a $27,000 donation made to the education department of the association by the Rockefeller foundation. She explained the aims and purposes of the educational program of the national association.

Two new branches, one at McMinnville and one at Klamath Falls, have been added to the Oregon division according to the announcement made at Saturday's session by Dean Kate W. Jameson, chairman of the state membership committee. All of the Oregon branches, with the exception of Hood River, reported during the round table discussions. Branches are located at Portland, Salem, Eugene, Corvallis, Hood River, McMinnville and Klamath Falls.

The association gives scholarships in foreign universities and brings women from other countries to study in universities in the United States.

Those motoring over from Salem for the all day session were Mrs. George H. Alden, Mrs. Roy A. Klein, Mrs. Wm. Fordyce Fargo, Mrs. F. G. Franklin, Mrs. C. A. Downs, Mrs. L. O. Clement, Mrs. George Hug, W. D. Clarke, Miss Leila Johnson, Dr. Winslow, Miss McKay, Miss Amelia Feary, Miss Pippy and Miss Leora Carver.

The A. A. U. W. French class will meet this evening at the home of Prof. and Mrs. Laurence Woodworth.

Say "No"

if asked to "try" a substitute for Quaker. That is, if you want real Quaker flavor... that famous Scotch flavor... in breakfast oats

THERE is only ONE way to get the true Scotch flavor in oats which distinguishes Quaker flavor... and that is by getting the Quaker brand.

Oats was originally a Scotch dish. It must have true Scotch flavor to be at its best.

Remember this, for your own sake, when tempted to "try" some ordinary brand.

That flavor is milled in. Nobody as yet has successfully imitated it. Grown-ups and children who ordinarily don't take to oats, respond to this unique flavor. And flavor, as you know, is the all-important point in food.

Milled under exclusive Quaker methods applied to the finest, plumpest grains. Quick Quaker is the world's fastest cooked breakfast dish.

Takes 3 to 5 minutes. That's faster than plain toast.

Due to Quaker milling methods, it supplies, too, the "roughage" you need to make laxatives seldom necessary.

Look for the picture of the Quaker on the label. See that it is there before you buy breakfast oats.

MacMillan Chooses "A Well-Balanced Diet Built Around Meats"

Nothing developed on the trip to cause me to revise my idea about foods; which is that a well-balanced diet built around meats yields the best health results.

On the way north we had fresh domestic meat from the supply taken aboard when we sailed. After we reached the North we relied upon the wild life of the region, using seal, walrus, caribou, muskox, Arctic hare, and many kinds of wild ducks.

Every day we had fresh meat with plenty of fat at least one meal and usually oftener when supplies were plentiful, and every one came through the four months in excellent condition; in fact, most of the members of the party gained weight.

While we often hear it claimed that eating too much meat is unfavorable to health, it is a fact that such ailments as gout, hardening of the arteries, and other disorders attributed to an excess of meat eating are quite unknown to the Eskimos who eat nothing but meat.

In my own experience I have never known anyone to attempt to live in the Arctic on a vegetarian diet. On the other hand, every Arctic explorer nowadays relies upon the native fresh meats as a sure preventive of scurvy, a much dreaded nutritional disorder which was prevalent in earlier Arctic experience times before we learned a lesson in diet from the Eskimo.
