Wedding of Miss Golden Beautiful

One of Salem's loveliest brides was Miss Annabelle Golden who last night at six o'clock, in a simple service at the First Congregational church was married to Wayne E. Kain of Portland, Rev. W. C. Kautner officiated, and seventy five relatives and intimate friends of the two families were present.

Tall white cathedral candles furnished the only illumination in the chancel of the church. In the background were palms and tall baskets filled with long white chrysanthemums. White chrysanthemums and lacy green ferns were used about the church.

Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Miss Lela Nye. Before the ceremony Mrs. Edwin Armstrong sang, "I Love You Truly."

The bride wore a beautiful frock of orchid georgette over gold cloth. It was beaded with rhinestones and pearls and made with the long bodice and short, full circular skirt. The skirt was caught at one side with an artistic silver flower. She wore a few silver flowers in her hair, and carried a shower bouquet of orchids, bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Betty Stillwell of Portland, a Delta Delta Delta sorority sister of the bride, was her only attendant. She wore a lovely delicate green chiffon frock. It was made simply with godes in the skirt embroidered with beads. She carried opelia roses.

Walter Blasing served as best man for Mr. Kain. Three Sigma Chi fraternity brothers of the groom, Frank Rosebraugh, Roland Reinhart and Oral Hagedorn, were ushers.

An informal reception at the T. S. Golden home followed the ceremony. The living rooms were lovely with many baskets of yellow chrysanthemums. Yellow candles were used in tall silver holders. Receiving with the bridal party were Mrs. T. S. Golden, mother of the bride, and the groom's mother, Mrs. Laura Kain of Portland.

In the dining room where the serving table was arranged a color plan of white and green was used. White chrysanthemums and ferns were combined attractively. Presiding at the urns were Mrs. Breymann and Mrs. Howard Rex, a sister of the bride. Miss Christensen assisted about the rooms.

Among the out of town guests were Mrs. Laura Kain of Portland, Miss Lauris Kain and Corland Kain of Portland, sister and brother of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Elsborg of Everett, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. Marc Latham (Mrs. Mae Proctor) of Bakerfield, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Kain left last night for a short trip north. On their return they will be at home in their new home in Rose City Park in Portland. Mrs. Kain's going away dress was a lovely pansy colored satin backed crepe on which were appliqued leaves of tan and burnt orange. Her coat was a taupe with squirrel collar and cuffs and she wore a small clove fitting hat of a pansy shade embroidered in silver.

Mrs. Kain is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Golden, prominent pioneer Salem family, and she is popular in Salem's younger set. She attended Oregon Agricultural college for three years and is a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority. A number of pre-nuptial affairs have been given for Miss Golden both in Salem and in Portland, since the news of the wedding was first announced.

Mr. Kain is an O. A. C. graduate, a member of Sigma Chi fraternity, and spent three years in overseas service.

Mr. and Mrs. Mason Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Gillette and Miss Margaret Gillette and Mrs. J. A. Bishop were the guests in Portland over the week end of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Bishop. Miss Henrietta Bishop was the house guest of Miss Helen Lelsy of Portland.

Thursday Club Is Entertained

Unique and distinctly enjoyable was the ten o'clock breakfast this morning at the William McCall country home in Polk county when Mrs. McCall, Mrs. Charles Park and Mrs. M. M. Cusick entertained members of the Thursday club, one of Salem's oldest and most exclusive social clubs.

The affair was an "Armistice" breakfast with the patriotic motif used throughout.

Twelve guests were seated at one large round table in the center of the McCall dining room. Three smaller tables were arranged about the room with four guests at each. Lovely pink cloth from the orient with hand painted autumn leaves and in the center a large bowl of autumn flowers in shades of yellow and reds were used on the center table. Pink cloth painted with Chinese scenes in the shades of blues and browns was used on the smaller tables. Each was centered with a bowl of pink autumn flowers.

Tiny flags, New England scenes and other novelties were used for place cards. Mrs. Arthur Utley and Mrs. Corydon Blodgett assisted the hostesses.

Special guests were Mrs. Dan J. Fry Sr., Mrs. Paul Wallace and Mrs. George M. Brown. Members of the club in the group were Mrs. John Albert, Mrs. Henry J. Bean, Mrs. William Brown, Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Mrs. E. C. Cross, Mrs. M. M. Chapman, Mrs. Richard Cartwright, Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, Mrs. F. A. Elliott, Mrs. B. Fleming, Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, Mrs. W. E. Kirk, Mrs. B. C. Miles, Mrs. George Pearce, Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, Mrs. Frank Spencer, Mrs. A. N. Moores, Mrs. Henry Thielson and the hostesses.

Members and guests of Rebelah lodge enjoyed a covered dish supper and program in the lodge rooms on Monday evening. Program numbers included a piano solo by Lucene Brietke, numbers by an instrumental trio which included Mr. Burns, Mr. Allen and Mr. Barstons, a reading by Mrs. Taylor, vocal solo by Mr. Myers, vocal solo by Nellie Dolbey, reading by Mrs. L. G. Curtis, vocal solo by Esther Dieffenbach with E. C. Dietfenbach reading the violin obligato, playing by Jean McReynolds and vocal solo by Elele Simeral.

A group of the younger Salem musicians will give a program at the boys' training school tomorrow evening under the sponsorship of the institutions committee of the Salem Woman's club. The little group known as the Society Serenaders, includes Miss Maxine Glover, Aldon Adolph, Merlin Duncan, William Sippel, Virgil Moorhead and Clayton Yaegeer.

Each 15 cent package contains directions so simple any woman can tint soft, delicate shades of eye rich, permanent colors in lingerie, silks, ribbons, skirts, waists, dresses, coats, stockings, sweaters, draperies, coverings.

Buy Diamond Dyes—no other kind—and tell your druggist whether the material you wish to color is wool or silk, or whether it is linen, cotton or mixed goods.—Adv.

More than fifty members of the foreign missionary society of the First Methodist church attended the meeting at the home of Mrs. A. A. Lee on State street on Tuesday afternoon. Because Wednesday, the regular meeting day, was Armistice day the group met on Tuesday. During the lesson hour Mrs. G. W. Hickman took up the first chapter in the new study book, "Prayers and Missions." A musical program was also given during the afternoon.

On the tea committee for the afternoon were Mrs. George Emory, Mrs. P. C. DeLong, Mrs. E. J. Swafford, Mrs. N. S. Savage, Mrs. Lavendar and Mrs. Lloyd Lee.

Elgia Wittwer Dawley, noted New York mezzo soprano, will appear in concert Thursday, November 19, at the First Christian church. Mrs. Dawley has done a great amount of concertizing and is well known in the field of music as an artist of unusual ability. Her concert is being presented by Miss Vivian G. Whieker, musical director of the First Christian church.

Cards have been received in Salem and in Portland for the tea at which Mrs. William Brown and her sister, Mrs. R. F. Prael of Portland, will be hostesses on the afternoon of November 29 at the home of Mrs. Prael in Cumberland road in Portland.

Betrothal of Miss Slade Announced

The announcement of the engagement of Miss Katherine Slade of Salem to Kenneth Bailey of Los Angeles, Cal. which was made at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house on the University of Oregon campus on Saturday evening is received with the greatest interest here as Miss Slade is a popular member of Salem's younger set. She is the sister of Mrs. John J. Roberts and E. F. Slade.

In addition to taking work in the university Miss Slade is head of the appointment bureau at the university. She is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma and is well known on the campus.

Mr. Bailey is an upperclassman in the university, a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity and lineaman on the Oregon football eleven.

The news of the betrothal was told in a unique and beautiful manner at a dinner at the Kappa house on Saturday evening. Covers were laid for forty at one large round table, the center of which was transformed into the semblance of the sea—the sea of matrimony—with the pirate love ship afloat in the center. Shimmering green glazed paper covered with a white shimmery paper over the entire table gave a remarkably "sea" like effect and in the center the beautiful pirate ship, dark blue at the base and shading gradually to a light blue at the top with a touch of pink, carried out the colors of the two betrothals—the betrothed—dark blue and a lighter blue, the colors of Kappa Kappa Gamma, and the Beta Theta Pi colors of light blue and pink. Tiny pirate ships, exact replicas of the large ship in the center of the table, were placed at each cover. Each small ship stool in a tiny dark blue puddle. The names of the engaged pair were hidden beneath the little ships.

Following the dinner hour an informal reception was held at the Kappa house with Mr. Bailey's fraternity brothers the guests.

The date of the wedding has not been set.

More than fifty members of the foreign missionary society of the First Methodist church attended the meeting at the home of Mrs. A. A. Lee on State street on Tuesday afternoon.
