ated with bronze and gold chrysanthemums. Mrs. Dunford was assisted during the tea hour by Mrs. David Wright. Mrs. Wright also made the presentation of a leather brief case to Mrs. Averill, the gift of the Salem club.

Following the dinner at which Mrs. John R. Sites was hostess in her home on Court street, Mrs. Averill and Mrs. Cellars were honor guests at the reception given by the local De Molay order in the Masonic temple. They left this morning for Corvallis where they will inspect the Corvallis club.

Miss Selma Hilmer left Wednesday for Wenatchee, Wash. As a graduate nurse she has accepted a position in the Deaconess hospital of the Methodist Episcopal church of Wenatchee. A farewell surprise was given her by the Center street Methodist church members.

Prof. and Mrs. T. S. Roberts motored to Portland last night to attend the concert given by Alfred Hollins, famous English blind organist and composer who will give a concert in the First Methodist church here tonight. Following the concert they were special guests at a reception given by Lucien E. Becker in honor of Mr. Hollins.

Prof. and Mrs. Roberts were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Bamford.

The Leslie "Can Do's", a class of young married people of the Leslie Methodist church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne E. Greenwood, 1285 south Liberty street on Wednesday evening. Games were enjoyed for several hours after which a buffet luncheon was served. The class meets regularly on the second Wednesday of each month.

Mrs. Fred Perrin (Effie Savage) and daughters have returned to Salem for the school year after spending the summer at Pedee and at the coast.

Miss Molly Samuels has returned from a three months' visit in Los Angeles.

Mrs. W. L. Brounstein and daughter Zelma of Portland, are spending several days with Mrs.

D. Samuel. Mrs. Brounstein was formerly a Salem resident.

Miss Ruth Moore spent several days recently visiting Portland friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Albert were the guests of Mrs. O. E. Krauss, Mrs. Albert's sister, in Portland on Armistice day.

The Spring Valley missionary society will hold a cooked food sale in Nelmeyer's drug store on north Commercial street all day tomorrow.

On Tuesday evening members of the Jolly Sixteen club were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Davies at an evening of five hundred Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Ackerman, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Winchcomb, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Townsend and Miss Lavelle Keene.

High card scores were won by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hansen, and the consolation awards went to Mrs. F. Dennis and C. H. Busey. Miss Lavelle Keene assisted Mrs. Davies.

Busey and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Davies. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Busey will entertain the club at their next meeting.

Salem musicians and music lovers are anticipating with pleasure the concert which will be given in the First Methodist church tonight by Alfred Hollins, blind composer and organist. His appearance here, his first in Salem, is sponsored by Prof. T. S. Roberts. Hollins, a native of England, is known on three continents as an organist and composer of the first rank and to secure him for a concert here is considered a singular privilege.

When very young Hollins studied at the Royal normal college of the blind at Norwood, he was organist of St. John's church Redhill at 19, later he was a pupil of Dr. C. J. Hopkins and of the great Hans Von Bulow. He has played before practically all of the crowned heads of Europe and has made two tours of America, three tours of South Africa and tours to New Zealand and Australia. He dedicated the huge organ at Johannesburg in South Africa and gave recitals on the famous organ at Sydney Town Hall. In 1922 he received the honorary degree of doctor of music from Edinburgh university. His compositions are favorite in the repertoire of leading organists. Hollins is spending two months of this fall in a tour of the United States.

Mrs. Thomas Fitzpatrick and Mrs. Goodenough will be in charge of the rummage sale which will be held in St. Joseph's auditorium on the corner of Chemeketa and Winter streets tomorrow.

"Cousin Julia's Earrings" is the name of the comedy drama which will be presented by the young people of St. Joseph's parish in the parish auditorium on Chemeketa and Winter streets tonight.

Members of the Salem branch of the American association of university women are turning their attention to two important events of the coming week. On Friday evening, November 20 the local branch will sponsor a concert by Paul Petri and Lillian Jeffries Petri in the First Methodist church beginning at eight fifteen. On the following day the annual scholarship loan fund tea will be given at Willamette Lodge, the home of Mrs. Claudius Thayer on north Capitol street. A committee headed by Mrs. George Allen is in charge of the concert next Friday evening and the social committee of the Salem branch, of which Mrs. W. D. Clarke is chairman, and the scholarship loan committee, Mrs. E. C. Richards, chairman, will take charge of the tea.

Officers and leading members of the Salem association have expressed themselves as feeling particularly fortunate in receiving the assistance of Mr. and Mrs. Petri and Mrs. Thayer in their student aid work.
