Wedding Yesterday Beautiful

One of the loveliest of the early winter weddings was an event yesterday when at three o'clock in the afternoon, Miss Lucille Cutsforth was married to J. Howard Hooster in the Cutsforth home on the highway twelve miles north of Salem. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cutsforth and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Hooster. More than sixty relatives and friends of the young couple attended the ceremony which was performed by Rev. Achor, pastor of the Presbyterian church in Woodburn.

At one end of the living room of the Cutsforth home was erected a bower of ferns and chrysanthemums before which the bridal party assembled. Tall baskets of white chrysanthemums stood at either side. Blooms of the same variety were used about the rooms.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Fern Wadsworth of Gervais, sang "I Love You Truly." Mrs. H. D. Mars of Jefferson, played Mendelssohn's wedding march.

The bride wore a beautiful handmade French model of nebes of roses flat crepe. It was made simply with a long bodice and the only trimming was gorgeous embroidery on the over skirt. She carried a shower bouquet of pink and white rosebuds. She was given away in marriage by her father, J. C. Cutsforth.

Miss Mae Hall, the bride's only attendant, wore an attractive frock of blond satin backed crepe with a georgette over dress. Her flowers were pink chrysanthemums and white carnations.

Everett Hooster served as best man for his brother.

An informal reception followed the ceremony. The bride cut the wedding cake. Her bouquet was caught by Miss Verna Koppinger.

Assisting in the serving in the dining room were Miss Vera Jewett, Miss Helen Corey, Mrs. Cecile Bowden, Miss Verna Koppinger, Miss Dorothy Ellis and Miss Cecile Collins.

Mr. and Mrs. Hooster left last night for a two weeks visit in the Puget Sound district. On their return they will make their home on Mr. Hooster's ranch between Woodburn and St. Paul.

A number of pre-nuptial affairs were given in Salem for Mrs. Hooster who for the past few years has been employed in the public service commission office in the state house.

Piety Hill Club Plans Active Year

Reorganization of the Piety Hill club after a summer of inactivity was effected on Friday afternoon when the club—one of Salem's oldest and most exclusive social clubs with a particularly interesting record of service during war time—met at the home of Mrs. E. W. Kay on Lincoln hill. Hostesses were Mrs. E. W. Kay, Mrs. T. B. Kay and Mrs. Charles H. Robertson. Last year the club assisted the children's farm home at Corvallis. A series of charitable activities were planned for the coming year.

The living rooms of the Kay home were decked with lovely gold chrysanthemums and cosmos. Mrs. W. H. Cuelick was a special guest.

Mrs. E. T. Barnes was chosen president of the club and Mrs. C. H. Robertson was secretary. At the December meeting Mrs. E. T. Barnes, Mrs. W. E. Kirk and Mrs. W. P. Fowle will be hostesses in the Barnes home.

Members of the club are Mrs. T. B. Kay, Mrs. John H. Albert, Mrs. John H. Scott, Mrs. W. P. Fowle, Mrs. E. Hartley, Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, Mrs. W. H. Thielson, Mrs. E. T. Barnes, Mrs. Russell Catlin, Mrs. A. I. Lewis, Mrs. E. W. Kay, Mrs. Charles H. Robertson, Mrs. J. T. Whittig, Mrs. F. W. Spencer, Mrs. William Brown, Mrs. R. P. Boise, Mrs. E. C. Crose, Mrs. W. E. Kirk, Mrs. E. C. Patton and Mrs. S. P. Kimball.

A general review of past lessons in the league of women voters lesson series was held during a meeting of the Highland study club at the home of Mrs. George Wenderoth on Water street on Friday afternoon beginning at two thirty.

During the social hour Mrs. C. M. Oglesby gave a reading and Mrs. B. F. Cooper and Mrs. George Wenderoth sang.

The guest group included Mrs. John Gantenbein, Mrs. Wayne Barham, Mrs. Jack Stapleton, Mrs. Emma Edwards, Mrs. Cecil Swope, Mrs. E. C. Evans, Mrs. William McCarroll, Mrs. George Hoyt, Mrs. C. M. Oglesby, Mrs. George Wenderoth, Mrs. Joe Gutter, Mrs. B. F. Cooper, Mrs. O. C. Oglesby and the hostess, Mrs. Wenderoth.

Next week the club will meet at the home of Mrs. B. F. Cooper on Water street. Mrs. O. C. Oglesby and Mrs. Emma Edwards will assist. The study subject will be industry and workers.

On Tuesday November 17, the Catholic Daughters of America will hold their regular business meeting followed by a social hour of music, games and refreshments. Mrs. S. J. Don't believe your teeth are 'naturally' dull. Just accept this 10-day test. See how dazzling white teeth and healthy gums come when film coats go.

HERE is a simple test that proves the truth of the recent dental statement that dull "off-color" teeth can be lightened amazingly, given dazzling whiteness.

In a few days you can work a great change in the color of your teeth. Can give them clear and charming gleam.

There is a new way in tooth and gum care. A way that removes the filmy film that clouds your teeth. A film that absorbs discolorations and keeps teeth dingy-looking.

Just run your tongue across your teeth. And you will feel that it is the great enemy of and teeth and healthy gums.

The marriage of Miss Jessie M. Mason and Herbert A. Miller took place Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents before an assemblage of relatives and friends. The bridal party entered to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Miss Maude Herren and took their places before an improvised altar which was banked with yellow and white chrysanthemums and ferns. The impressive service was read by Rev. Henry Gross of the Evangelical Lutheran church. The rooms were decorated in yellow and white.

The bride wore a brown beaded georgette frock and carried yellow roses. Mrs. Francis Mason of Portland, sister in law of the bride, attended her as matron of honor. Her gown was of brown silk. Wm. O'Neil acted as best man. After the ceremony Miss Hazel Huchler and Mrs. Francis Mason assisted in serving refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller left for a wedding trip and upon their return will be at home in their new home on north 16th street.

Guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Francis Mason of Portland, Earl G. Mason of Corvallis and Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Miller of Portland.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Mason and the groom is the son of Mrs. John Johnson. Both Mr. and Mrs. Miller are employees of the Portland Electric Power company of this city.

A special business meeting of the U. S. Grant circle of the Ladies of the G. A. R. will be held at the armory on Wednesday. Old-time methods failed in successfully fighting film. So ugly teeth were common. You must remove it. Ordinary brushing won't do it satisfactorily. Under it are the clear, whiter teeth you envy in others.

Now modern science has perfected an effective film combatant, called Pepsodent. It acts to curdle film, then removes it. It firms and protects gums! beautifies teeth quickly and correctly.
