Miss Lord To Complete Globe Tour

Miss Elizabeth Lord who left Salem a year ago and who has been visiting her brother, Montague Lord, in the Philippines and touring the Orient since that time, will complete the tour of the world before returning home. In a letter received by one of her Salem friends recently Miss Lord wrote that she had booked reservations on a Dollar round the world boat which will leave Manila on February 19th. This boat will go west with long stops in India, Egypt and Europe. Miss Lord plans to return here in the early summer.

Last month Miss Lord and Mr. Lord took the President Jackson from Manila to Singapore where they spent a vacation of several weeks. They planned to return to Cebu, on one of the southern islands in the Philippine group where Miss Lord will spend the winter. During the early fall Miss Lord and Mrs. Lillian Seaton and Miss Lillian Auld, both of Eugene, Oregon, lived in an apartment at Vahalla, at the edge of Manila. They were the inspiration of much entertaining during their stay in Manila. Mrs. Seaton and Miss Auld complimented Miss Lord at an elaborate tea at the Polo club shortly before she left Manila to join her brother at Cebu. Letters received from Miss Lord during that time gave interesting reports of a one hundred and fifty mile motor trip to the Tarsanjam gorge, a spot seldom visited by tourists and of incomparable beauty.

Mrs. Frank Spears and small daughter were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. David M. Graham of Eugene over the week end. Additional guests at the Graham home were Dr. and Mrs. Ralph M. Matson.

Among the affairs given in Eugene last week in honor of Mrs. Frank Snedcor who was the house guest of Mrs. Charles A. Gray was the bridge tea on Friday afternoon at which Mrs. Charles A. Hardy of Eugene was hostess. Mrs. Snedcor returned to Salem on Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Breyman Boles.

The third of a series of departmental institutes which the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs is holding this year in Portland, will take place Saturday, November 21, in Central library and will be in charge of the fine arts department. In the absence of the chairman, Mrs. James E. Brockway, who is spending the winter in New York, the division chairmen are assuming the responsibility of the conduct of the institute and have worked out a program that promises both interest and profit to all who attend.

Mrs. Hugh H. Herdman, chairman of the division of literature, will present Miss Cornelia Marvin of Salem, state librarian; Miss Anne M. Muller, Portland librarian, who will discuss books for both adult and children's reading; and Mrs. Dora Smith, who was the moving spirit in the Rose Festival pageant. "Rosalia" will speak on pageantry.

Mrs. William Kraselg of Oregon City, chairman of the division of music, will present experts in the best music for children and in music for community gatherings. Mrs. E. P. Moseman of La Grande, chairman of art, will bring with her her notable exhibit of picture libraries, which she initiated in this state last year and which have become a big factor in the art life of many of the smaller communities. Reproductions of the work of both the old and contemporary artists having been mounted with sketches of the artist and the picture painted on the back and these are distributed from public libraries like books with the result that interest in and understanding of art has been greatly stimulated among both old and young.

Luncheon will be served at noon at the Portland Telegram auditorium. Mrs. C. E. Runyon, chairman of the ways and means department of the Portland Woman's club, is chairman of this feature. Luncheon will be 50 cents a plate and reservations may be made by writing or calling Mrs. Runyon, No. 297 East 24th street, East 2124, or Mrs. Victor Brandt, Tabor 0114.

This institute is open to all women, whether or not they are members of federated clubs.—Portland Journal.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars ladies' auxiliary will meet tomorrow afternoon beginning at two o'clock at the home of Mrs. B. F. Hamble, 395 north Nineteenth street.

A regular social meeting of the Salem business and professional women's club will be held tomorrow evening, beginning at eight o'clock in the chamber of commerce auditorium. A group of club members under Mrs. W. S. Haley's direction will present the play, "Mrs. Forrester's Crusade."

A special meeting of the Woman's Benefit association will be held in McCormack hall on Thursday evening beginning at eight o'clock.

An all day meeting of the Salem Daughters of the Nile club will be held in the Masonic Temple tomorrow. Hostesses will be Mrs. Claire A. Vibbert and Mrs. G. L. Newton. The time will be spent in sewing for the children's Shrine hospital in Portland.

VERY PAINFUL LARGE PIMPLES
Lasted 7 Months. Face a Sight. Cuticura Heals.
"I was troubled with blackheads which after a while would fester and form pimples. Some of the pimples were large and very painful. My face was a sight, and I was very much embarrassed. The trouble lasted about seven months. I tried every remedy I heard of but all in vain. I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample. The results were so satisfactory that I purchased a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment and in about a month I was completely healed." (Signed) Miss Sarah L. Metzger, Box 52, Gresham, Ore., Feb. 14, 1925.
Use Cuticura to clear your skin. Read the directions on the box. Sold by all druggists. Cuticura Shaving Stick 25c.

Mansfield Dancers In Concert

"Rhythmic visualization" is an expression replete with significance for every man, woman and child, who attended the dance concert given by the Portia Mansfield dancers in the Hellig theater last night. It means unrepeatable grace, beauty and color combined in the interpretation of famous musical compositions. The dancers gave their second concert in Salem under the auspices of the Civic Music club last night and they were as well received last night as in early spring when they appeared here for the first time. Their program was practically the same with many gorgeous new costumes and new backgrounds. Virginia Mansfield, Jeanne Fuller, Alice Mickey and Erma Chase were outstanding stars in both concerts. Harold Ames, the only man among the fifteen dancers, and who made his debut in Salem last night, is remarkable in his combination of strength and beauty. His Indian dance was one of the outstanding solo dances of the evening.

The program opened with a pastorate adapted to a musical suite by Frederick Knight Logan. Phyllis, Endymion, Diana and Pan danced joy, chaos and ecstasy in a beautiful and perfectly intelligible manner. The Episode Du Carnaval in which quaint characters of French romance became beautiful actualities, the Chanson Arabe with the pirate ship master, the galley slave, and the ehip guards forming the background in the mad Dervish dance by the dancing girl who has been captured, the scene from an Etruscan screen exhibiting the beauty of acrobatic dancing, Schubert's unfinished symphony, a study in lines to Tschakowsky's andante and the final hymn of joy were outstanding ensemble numbers. numbers were the picnic day in Holland, the Neapolitan folk dance, the delightful waltz fantasy, the quaint quaker maid dancing her joy and abandon, Harold Ames' Indian dance, the Spanish dance and the romantic anglers dancing to Percy Grainger's "Country Gardens."
More than a bit of pleasure of the evening was due to the violin accompaniment by Grace Hastings and the work of the pianist, Hazel Wheeler. Miss Hastings appeared in two solo groups and completely won her audience with her technique and her interpretations.
Members of the Classical club of Willamette university were guests at the home of Prof. and Mrs. W. E. Kirk on Saturday evening. During the program hour Miss Ila Comstock, president of the club, was in charge. Three piano solos were given by Miss Eugenia Savage. Miss Wanda Elliott read a paper on "Roman Homilies," Miss Louise Oberon read her paper on "Roman Education," and Miss Margaret Wright read a ghost story from Piliay the Younger. Other program numbers included a song, "Interger Vitae," by the Latin chorus, a paper on "Marriage Customs" by Miss Theresa Schottkofer, a violin solo by Miss Claudine Gerth, and a discussion on the Philosophy of Plato by Miss Mildred Wrenn.
Later in the evening Miss Comstock, Miss Mary Retter and Miss Grace Linn assisted Mrs. Kirk in serving refreshments. Bronze and red chrysanthemums were arranged in attractive baskets about the rooms of the Kirk home.

Dr. and Mrs. Wilson H. Darby were hosts at an attractive five hundred party in their home Saturday evening. Lovely roses and gold chrysanthemums were used about the rooms. High card bonnet were won by Mrs. Charles Wiper and W. I. Needham. Mrs. Needham assisted the hostess. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Needham, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Buelck, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wiper, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Stiff, Mr. and Mrs. Homer H. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. William McGilchrist Jr., Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Cooley, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Perry and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Corneyer.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dann and Miss Eva Miles spent the week end in Newberg with friends.

Chadwick chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, will hold a stated communication in the Masonic Temple this evening. Much business of importance to the chapter will be discussed according to the matron, Mrs. Rose Babcock.
Mrs. Paul V. Johnson and Mrs. Sam Butler were hostesses at a six table bridge party in the Johnson home on Monday afternoon. High bridge honors were won by Mrs. Harry J. Wiedmer and Mrs. E. M. Law.
The living rooms of the Johnson home were decked with attractive baskets of holly for the occasion.
The fishpond and postoffice shower, the last of a series of three showers, which was to be held at the home of Mrs. Albert O'Brien on north Capitol street, has been changed to meet in St. Joseph's auditorium tomorrow afternoon at two thirty because of illness in the O'Brien family. The first two showers, apron and fancy work showers, were generously patronized, according to the committee in charge. These showers are being held to collect supplies for the booths of the pre-

Thanksgiving carnival which will be held in St. Joseph's auditorium November 23, 24 and 25. Tomorrow afternoon articles will be made for the fishpond. The committee in charge will serve a luncheon.
An all day meeting of the aid society of the Women's Relief Corps will be held Thursday at the fair grounds with a covered dish dinner at noon. The society will meet each Thursday until the third week in December. On December 18 and 19 the society will hold a new and second hand ready to wear clothing sale and bazaar. All members will work on articles for this sale until that time.
To honor Mrs. Seymour Jones of Salem, state regent, and Miss Anne Lange of The Dalles, national vice president general, members of Lewis and Clark chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, entertained at a large banquet at the Osburn hotel last evening, covers being laid for more than sixty members and guests. The affair was the annual banquet of the local chapter. A special feature of the evening was the presenting of past regent pins to past regents of Lewis and Clark chapter, by Mrs. Jones the state regent. They were presented to Mrs. May L. Fink of Palo Alto, Mrs. Bruce L. Bogart, Miss Amy Dunn, Mrs. Henry W. Davis, Mrs. J. E. Hudson, Mrs. E. E. DeCon, Miss Amy Dunn made the speech of acceptance.

Music for the occasion was given by Miss Evelyn Bristow, vocalist, and by Martha and Doris Helen Patterson on the violin and harp.
Toasts were made by Miss Lange speaking of the national affairs, and by Mrs. A. S. Myers, on new members.
In the afternoon the chapter met at the home of Mrs. Bruce L. Bogart for a regular business meeting with Mrs. Jones and Miss Lange present for the afternoon. At this meeting Mrs. Bogart displayed a revolutionary coat of homespun and a green coat worn by a bugler in revolutionary times. The coats belong to Mr. Turpening, they having belonged to his great great grandfather.
Lewis and Clark chapter was installed in 1914 and now has a membership of more than sixty.—Eugene Guard.

"Shoulders that droop and feet that drag"
THERE are men and women who seem to be eternally tired. They go about things in a listless sort of way. They try, but they can't seem to make the grade. Perhaps they do not realize that it is constipation which is sapping their energy.
There is a sure relief from this disease. It is Kellogg's ALL-BRAN.
Kellogg's ALL-BRAN goes completely through the system without changing its fiber. It sweeps the intestine clean, purifies it, absorbs and carries moisture through it, urges it to act exactly as nature intended. Unlike habit-forming pills and drugs, it is never necessary to increase the amount of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN which you first find effective.
Let Kellogg's ALL-BRAN regain your health and keep you feeling fit. Eat two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal. If eaten regularly, it is guaranteed to bring permanent relief or your grocer returns the purchase price. Eat your two tablespoonfuls with milk or cream, sprinkle it over other cereals, cook it with hot cereals, put it in soups and try it in the recipes given on every package.
Be sure you get Kellogg's ALL-BRAN—for only ALL-BRAN brings sure results. All grocers sell it. Leading hotels and restaurants serve it.
