Mrs. Meyers Hostess to Bridge Club

Mrs. Henry Meyers was hostess at an attractive affair in her home yesterday when she entertained members of the Bridge Luncheon club, the first one in Salem. Additional guests were Mrs. Louis Lachmund, Mrs. Frank Suedecor and Mrs. Fritz Blade.

A mass of copper and white chrysanthemums in a large basket centered the luncheon table with covers laid for Mrs. Lachmund, Mrs. Suedecor, Mrs. Blade, Mrs. T. C. Smith Jr., Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mrs. J. Shelley Saurman, Mrs. George Rodgers, Mrs. O. C. Locke, Mrs. John McNary, Mrs. David W. Eyre, Mrs. Frederick Lampert and the hostess, Mrs. Meyers.

During the afternoon club officers reported to the group the success of the rummage sale held recently for the benefit of the Salem hospital. More than $200 was cleared from the sale. One hundred and fifty dollars will be turned over immediately to the hospital for the purchase of laboratory equipment. The club recently completed paying for the lights at the stone gates at the entrance to the hospital and for the iron gates at the main doorway.

Music lovers of Salem enjoyed a genuine treat last evening in the recital by Elgia Wittwer Dawley, mezzo soprano, at the First Christian church under the sponsorship of the church choir.

The program the musician offered was not of the popular type; on the contrary it was literally brimming with the most difficult music from the standpoint of auditor and performer and the audience liked every bit of it. Responses to Mrs. Dawley's richly colored voice were enthusiastic showing an appreciation of the able manner in which she handles it.

The aria from Jeanne d'Arc was given with perfect understanding and fine dramatic effect. Beauty of tone and flexibility were well marked in the air from Joshua by Handel. In fact, each group was an artistic success.

Many things beside a charming voice are included in the reasons for the success of Mrs. Dawley's program. Her diction, either in English, French or German, is a joy. She has also a pleasing stage personality.

The singer was ably accompanied by Mrs. Helen Bagley Parker, whose support was both sympathetic and inspirational.

Salem art league officers and Miss Cornelia Marvin have extended a special invitation to all those interested to visit the class in modern thought which Miss Marvin teaches every second Friday evening in the educational room in the public library. The class will meet tonight beginning at seven thirty.

The class will be held for the entire year and is beginning now with a study of Greek culture—Greek ideals, art, literature—and a study of the civilization of Crete and Egypt. Each succeeding race or country which contributed to modern civilization will be studied for the purpose of forming a proper understanding and background of "modern thought." The classes are open to any who wish to join.

Honoring Frank Jirak on his birthday anniversary Mrs. Jirak was hostess at an attractive dinner in their home on Wednesday evening. Marigolds centered the table with covers laid for Mr. Jirak, Mrs. Doris, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Carper, Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Cutler, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dickenson, Mr. and Mrs. L. Mishler, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mohr, Mr. and Mrs. Harry McWhorter, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Carson, Mr. and Mrs. George Alderlin, Mr. and Mrs. Virginia McGahn and the hostess, Mrs. Jirak.

Games and cards were enjoyed during the evening.

A bridge and five hundred tea will be given in the Masonic Temple next Tuesday afternoon by the social afternoon club of Chadwick chapter, Order of the Eastern Star. A special invitation has been extended to members and friends. Playing will commence at two o'clock. Reservations for tables should be phoned to Mrs. A. L. Wallace.

A Glimpse Into the Long Ago

KING EDWARD & QUEEN ALEXANDRA

Queen Alexandra of Great Britain celebrates her eighty-first birthday November 30. Here she is in bridal costume with the late King Edward

Mrs. W. H. Burghardt Jr., who has been studying music abroad and touring on the continent and in England, will leave Paris next Monday on the first lap of her long trip home, according to word received by Mr. Burghardt.

Upon her arrival in New York Mrs. Burghardt will spend several days visiting friends there. She will also visit in Boston and Philadelphia for several days and will return to Oregon by way of the southern route making stops in San Francisco and Los Angeles. She plans to be in Salem by the middle of December.

Barbara Fritchie tent No. 2, Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War, will hold a cooked food sale tomorrow in Stewart's repair shop at 347 Court street.

Early in December the Salem Woman's club will be hostesses at a benefit bridge tea for the clubhouse fund, according to plans being made by the officers. Mrs. Homer Goulet will be general chairman in charge of the affair. It is planned to have thirty five or more tables.

A. A. U. W. Silver Tea Tomorrow

Outstanding among the events of the month in club and social circles will be the silver tea at which members of the Salem branch of the American association of university women will be hostesses tomorrow afternoon, from two thirty to five thirty in the Willamette lodge, the home of Mrs. Claudius Thayer on north Capitol street. The tea is being given for the benefit of the scholarship fund.

During the afternoon an orchestra will play and several vocal duets will be given between orchestra members.

Presiding at the tea table during the first hour will be Mrs. William Brown and Mrs. George Pearce. Later Mrs. C. P. Bishop and Mrs. J. H. Lauterman will dispense hospitality.

Assisting in the serving will be Miss Mildred Christensen, Miss Frances Hrubetz, Miss Caroline Hrubetz, Miss Hazel Paden, Miss Dorothy Nicholson, Miss Mary Eyre, Miss Ethel McGilchrist, Miss Louise Townsend and Miss Lella Johnson.

Tonight the local branch is sponsoring a concert in the First Presbyterian church by Lillian Jeffrey Petri and Paul Petri. This concert is also being given for the benefit of the student loan fund.

Mrs. Willis S. Moore was hostess on Wednesday afternoon at a thoroughly delightful meeting of the Leisure Hour club. Marigolds and white and yellow chrysanthemums were arranged about the living rooms and during the tea hour Mrs. Elizabeth Lamb assisted Mrs. Moore.

Special guests of the afternoon were Mrs. Joseph H. Albert, Mrs. J. C. Griffith and Mrs. J. B. Hoeford.

Members of the club this year are Mrs. John Albert, Mrs. John Scott, Mrs. Willis Moore, Mrs. George Pearce, Mrs. E. C. Small, Mrs. W. H. Steusloff, Mrs. Charles Weller, Mrs. H. J. Clements, Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, Mrs. Elizabeth Lamb, Mrs. Charles Park, Mrs. Milton Meyers, Mrs. D. J. Fry Sr., Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. George G. Brown, Mrs. M. M. Chapman, Mrs. Lot L. Pearce, Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Mrs. Fred Steusloff, Mrs. Kitty Gray and Miss Oda Chapman.

On December 5 the club will be entertained by Mrs. Charles Park and Mrs. Alice H. Dodd.

A cooked food sale will be held all day tomorrow in the Southern Pacific offices on north Liberty street by the Willing Workers class of the First Presbyterian church.

It is interesting to know that on Monday afternoon preceding their dance concert at the Heilig theater in the evening, the Portia Mansfield dancers spent several hours practicing in the studio of Miss Helen Rodolf, Russian ballet dancer, in the Klatt building on Ferry street. Late in the afternoon they were guests of Mrs. Fred Thielsen at tea in the Thiel-seu country home. The dancers expressed themselves as being surprised to find such complete equipment in a studio in a city the size of Salem.

At the concert in the evening Miss Rodolf was hostess at a line party with her pupils the guests. Following the concert Miss Rodolf was hostess to the group at a supper party at the Gray Belle.

On Tuesday morning Miss Rodolf motored to Corvallis with several of the dancers. They filled a three day engagement; there this week.

Chapter AB of the P. E. O. sisterhood will be the guests of Miss May Rauch in the apartments of Dr. Mary E. Rowland on Court street on Monday evening. During the program hour Mrs. W. E. Kirk will give a paper on Shakespearean drama and Miss Lena Belle Tartar will sing a number of Shakespearean songs.

The first of a series of salvage sales which will be held in the woman's clubhouse under the auspices of the Salem Woman's club and for the benefit of their charity fund will be opened on Saturday at ten o'clock in the morning. In charge during the day will be Mrs. W. E. Anderson, Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, Mrs. Seymour Jones and Miss Mattie Beatty.

Mrs. Louis Lachmund spent several days in Portland this week.

Mrs. J. E. Law was hostess yesterday at a sixteen cover luncheon followed by an afternoon of bridge. Marigolds and chrysanthemums in shades of yellow and bronze were used on the luncheon table and about the rooms.

High honors at bridge were won by Mrs. Phil Newmyer.

"Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is the only thing that relieved me of constipation"

Beware of the dangerous diseases which are constipation's toll.

Constipation is dreaded, not only for its insidious self, but for the serious diseases which may be traced to it. Mr. Palludon tells us the helpful story of his relief:

Doing hard work while constipated brought on piles, from which I suffered for two years. I tried almost every remedy without success. Finally I tried Kellogg's ALL-BRAN and it has made me fit again. It is the only thing that helped me and I want everybody to know about it.
