The local employment bureau is operated at the Salem Y. M. C. A. building by the Y. M. C. A. cooperating with the United States employment service.

CHAMBER PLANS TO LAUNCH DRIVE FOR MEMBERS

At the Monday noon luncheon of the chamber of commerce, which will be a luncheon complimentary to members engaged in the drive, a big membership drive will be launched by the chamber with from 250 to 300 new members as the objective. The teams on the drive will work Monday afternoon and Tuesday morning and the drive will be over.

Workers will be divided into three divisions, one of these under Edward Schunke, another under Fred D. Thielson and another under Ross C. Miles. Each of the division heads will have 15 captains under him, and each captain is to select three or four workers to make up his individual team. Prospects will be assigned to the teams and when a team has gone out and worked over its prospects its efforts will be through.

At the luncheon Monday, which is for workers only, each division head and his workers will have a separate table. At this luncheon the entire plan will be gone over, talking points discussed and the entire plan of campaign mapped out so that when the drive starts it will be with a whirlwind impetus and a strong finish is looked for.

Workers on the various teams will be as follows:

Miles-Brown, Crawford, Reynolds, Sherwin, Giese, Lillquist, Paulus, Sisson, Phillips, Schibber, Anderson, Bates, Nelson, Williamson, Lunsford.

Thielson-Bell, Burns, Molloy, Eiker, Gregory, Hamilton, Kafooy, Lynch, McGilchrist, Neer, Orr, Smith, Staley, Vehrus, Barnes Schunke—Boardman Shanks, King, Chadwick, Farrar, Glesson, Kennel, Laws, McAfee, Gregg, Myers, Patton, Jarman, Rankin, Rupert.

Private Family Services Held For Aleandra

ber of royalty died that the clang of the bell in St. Paul's awakens the sleeping bell.

Numerous social functions arranged for last night were cancelled. The theaters did not receive the news in time to close their doors, but in them, and in the motion picture houses which gave their program, funeral marches were played.

Social Life Stilled

No date has yet been announced for the funeral of Aleandra, nor when her body will be taken to Windsor to lie in the royal vault in St. George's chapel beside that of Edward VII. It is expected, however, that the funeral will be held for two weeks.

All deaths in the royal family affect closely the arrangements of society and often influence public events. A number of features in which members of the royal family had announced their intention to participate and many benefits and festivals have been cancelled. A period of mourning will be observed by those connected with the court and by a large number of persons outside that circle.

Budd Fisher informing him of the honor that is impending for his creation. When the action is taken word of congratulation will be sent by wire, together with a demand that Muti in the future be given better treatment at the hands of Jeff, his distinctive companion. To make life more livable for tall men is the avowed purpose of tall men's organization.

Although the charter closed last night, the local Longfellows have announced that they are still after more members, belief being held that a number of Salemites not yet in the club are eligible for membership. The Salem month is the 5th to be organized in Oregon.

Registration of motor vehicles in Oregon for the month of October totalled 4,959 or an increase of 1,981 over those of the corresponding month of 1924 and 1,112 over October of 1923. The total registrations for the ten months of 1925 for the entire state was 77,970, an increase of 5,159 over the corresponding period of 1,339 over the entire year's registrations for 1924.

Dublin, Ireland.—An increase in the number of deserted babies prompted the union commissioners to order that finger prints be taken of babies under three months of age who are discharged from the maternity hospital of Pelletstown. The action was inspired by a letter from Miss Duggan, a woman barrister, who pointed out that such a scheme would facilitate the police in discovering the mother or foster mother of a deserted child.

Funerals

The remains of the late Wilbert Walker who died at a local hospital Nov. 20th will be forwarded to Springfield, Or., for funeral services and interment. Arrangements are in charge of the Salem mortuary.

authority to pay for the issuance of any illegal search warrant or for any other costs growing out of the issuance thereof.

"I find that very often men are arrested upon a charge of no support of their wives, after the wife and husband have been divorced and the pre-arranged has granted the wife alimony. The proper procedure in that case is to bring the matter before the circuit court, it having authority to compel the man to pay the alimony without extra cost to the tax payers. When a man and his wife are divorced they are certainly no longer husband and wife and therefore the justice's court has no authority to issue a warrant in a case of that kind.

Practice Old One

"In justice to the official claim the various amounts to the payment of which I object, it is only fair to state that he has only followed precedent hoary with age; that they are not established by him. However, an illegal claim can never ripen into a legal one by lapse of time nor wrongful precedent become a guide for future rules. The measure of your authority to pay any claim is the law, and he who makes a claim must be able to show that under the law he is entitled to payment of the amount claimed. No presumptions can be indulged in favor of the claim. On the contrary every doubt as to the validity of the claim presented to you must be resolved against it.

"In protesting against the payment of the bills as heretofore outlined, I want it distinctly understood that I am addressing this letter to you solely in my capacity as a private citizen."

connection with the prison break of last August 12.

Immediately after the gun-smugling incident, Fallen was sent to the bull pen. Some time prior to last Sunday he became obstreperous in the bull pen and was put on bread and water in the dungeon. He is said to have tried to tantalize guards by yelling and otherwise misbehaving. From the location of the dungeon in the bull pen it is believed Fallen himself might have started the clamor by the convicts last Sunday night.

Among other things charged to Fallen is that he sent word to Deputy Warden Lillie that he was going to cut him up if he got the chance. Fallen is under sentence for robbery committed in Multnomah county.

The trouble Sunday night started shortly after the lights had been turned off in the cells at 9 o'clock.

A report that one of the guards was knocked down by a convict was denied by Deputy Warden Lillie.

IF YOU WERE A CITY COUNCILMAN?

as a councilman to bring industries to Salem to employ our citizens. I would not turn up my nose and turn down manufacturing industries, or be antagonistic to those who already have simply because some citizens smell sulphur in the air (might better get used to it) or gets a cinder in his eye.

I would be in favor of repairing and keeping in use as long as possible the present bridges in the city, but as it became necessary to rebuild I would favor concrete bridges. I would favor new bridges at the present time on North Church street over North Mill creek and I would insist on a bridge straight with the street with a walk on either side. I would favor moving the street light that at the present time is located in the middle of the block north of this bridge, to the bridge, so it would be a help in crossing the bridge instead of a hind as it is at present to a motorist who is driving north.

I would stand for better street lighting in the residential district. I believe in zoning of the city. I do not think it is fair to property holders in outlying districts where property is cheap, to compel them to walk to the expense of cement walks where streets have never been graded and are nothing but mud holes, at least till the street has been graded a wooden walk should be good enough, if the property holder desires a wooden walk. I have decided views on many other things of interest to the citizens of Salem, but cannot express them here and confine myself to an article of 300 words, but I assure you I would treat all matters coming up before the council during my term of office in just the same fair way as the matters I have discussed, always striving for the best interests of the city, with no favorites.

Number Thirty-nine

Conrad Editor.—If I were a councilman in Salem I would inquire into the parking situation. Just why so much parking space in the parking district should be set aside for the private use of certain favored firms is puzzling many Salem folk.

For instance, why the yellow curbing on Ferry street for a distance of 50 feet alongside Dan Burns and W. E. Burns (who cares if he is the same man?) or in front of the Greek fruit stand on High street or the peanut stand next to the Elks temple or in front of a motorcycle shop on Commercial street? Do motorcycles have a vested right on our street? I would inquire into Colonel Hiler's undisturbed right to protect the space in front of his house on South Commercial street with no parking.

The privilege of setting of parking areas should be guarded carefully by the police department. Suppose each business house should do as some have done, where would the good people of Salem park their cars downtown? Who owns the United States anyway?
