

From the Richest and Best Part of the State

NEWS FROM NEARBY VALLEY POINTS

By Capital Journal's Special Correspondents

BIG COMMUNITY THANKSGIVING PARTY PLANNED

Mill City, Or., Nov. 21.—Everything is being placed in readiness for the big community Thanksgiving celebration here and to insure everyone having their fill of turkey, the Hammond Lumber company recently received one 900 pounds of turkey which will be cooked for the big feast. Plans are being made to feed over 500 people. The banquet room has been enlarged and a new exit made to the hall which will expedite the handling of the crowd. In the afternoon the movie "Peter Pan," will be shown free of charge. In the evening will be the home talent show, "Safety First," under the direction of Miss Virginia Mason, with the following people in the cast: Cecil Gardner, George Streff, George Adams, Calvin Elder, Mike Hacker, Mrs. Carl Kelly, Martha Mason, Virginia Mason, Mrs. Eva Raines and Mrs. William Beck. Following the show, a dance will be held with the Santiam Strollers and the Millsap orchestra furnishing the music. Another lunch will be served at midnight. This annual Thanksgiving frolic is a permanent institution here and looked forward to with much pleasure from year to year, and has received favorable comment from visitors from all over this country.

MILL CITY

Mill City, Or., Nov. 21.—Dan Cupid is again working overtime here, his latest victim being John Daves, who was recently married to Miss Anna Marie Schneidbauer of Portland. The "gang" got out their saws and other noisemaking paraphernalia and gave them the usual seaside Thursday evening. Mr. Daves is employed in the Hammond Lumber company butcher shop and the newlyweds will make their home in the Hill apartments. A new sidewalk is being laid in front of the Morgan property which will be a blessing to folks living on the south side of town, it having been in a dangerous condition for some time. Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Hill and Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Moore attended the Marlon County Bankers convention in Salem, Tuesday evening, which included a banquet at the Gray Belle and a theater party afterwards. John Shaw has moved to Salem to spend the winter. John will be greatly missed on the high school basketball team, where he played center. A representative of The Capital Journal was in the city Thursday arranging for carrier service for this city, which will be handled by Sherman Carter, thus giving to the Mill City subscribers service equal to that enjoyed by Salem residents, a live evening newspaper delivered at your door.

LIVESLEY

Livesley, Or., Nov. 21.—Fred W. Tinkle of Seaside was a guest Sunday at the home of Mrs. Alice Coolidge. Mrs. L. F. Clymer, Ed Clymer and Janice Higgins are to spend Thanksgiving at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Gillham in Roseburg. F. Laman and his mother of Rosedale were callers at the home of M. H. Bradbury, Sunday. John Cook of Plover, Or., visited last week with his sister, Mrs. J. A. Pearson. Mr. and Mrs. L. McDonald were guests of Mrs. Alice Coolidge, Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Otis Bradbury of Falls City spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Bradbury. G. S. Higgins is building a new garage. Mrs. N. P. Kugel of Salem served a delicious 1:30 o'clock luncheon to the G. T. club Thursday. A pleasant afternoon was spent. Those present were Mrs. Alice Coolidge, Mrs. H. B. Carpenter, Mrs. Flora Holley, Mrs. F. J. Laitson, Mrs. W. V. Johnson, Mrs. C. W. Schwab, Mrs. B. F. Townsend, Mrs. B. D. Fidler, Mrs. S. C. Davenport, Mrs. G. S. Higgins, Mrs. L. F. Clymer, Mrs. A. Baird and Mrs. Bud Statesman. Mrs. B. D. Fidler will entertain the club December 3.

UNION SERVICE IS PLANNED

Falls City, Or., Nov. 21.—Union Thanksgiving services will be held in the Methodist church Thursday evening, November 26, at 7:30 p. m. Rev. Earl B. Sloan, of the Church of Christ, will preach the sermon. It has been the custom for many years to hold the services in the morning, but so many mothers of families cannot leave the preparation of the Thanksgiving dinner that plans for an evening service will be tried this year.

OBSERVE GOOD BOOK WEEK

Silverton, Or., Nov. 21.—(Special)—While national "Good Book Week" was observed most places from November 8 to 13, at the Silverton high school it was observed this week. The English teachers had a very complete program arrangement for the week. Miss Clarissa Strayer of the English department had her freshmen students make posters of the various scenes in books. The sophomore students made up lists of books of romance, adventure and other classes. The posters and book lists were on exhibit during the week.

STAYTON NEWS

Stayton, Or., Nov. 21.—William Ryan motored to Salem, Monday night, to attend a business meeting of the American Legion. Mrs. J. T. Hunt, who has been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Henry Tate, for several days, returned to her home in Salem, Wednesday night. Mrs. Emma Russell of Salem was here Wednesday visiting friends. Fred M. Rowley of Eugene was a business visitor in Stayton, Wednesday. The association of Portland, representing the Oregon insurance rating bureau, was in Stayton, Thursday, on business. Mrs. Charles Brown, accompanied by her son, Giles, made a business trip to Portland, Friday. Charles Follen of Marshfield is here for several days visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Follen. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Smith of Astoria spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alva Smith. Among those who attended the meeting of the Marlon County Bankers' association in Salem, Tuesday night, were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mayo, Mr. and Mrs. George Bell and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bell. The association banquet at the Gray Belle was followed by a theater party at the Hellig. Mrs. C. Ward Davis left Tuesday night for Seattle, where she will visit her sister. Don Spear attended the homecoming festivities at the University of Oregon last week-end. Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Lulay, formerly of Salem, are now occupying the John Kerber house. Mrs. Archie Caspell has had as guests during the past week, her sister, Mrs. Fred Harold, and her sister's daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Doneen, all of Spokane, Wash. Mrs. Mildred Tangerman has opened a fancy goods shop in a portion of the electrical shop owned by Jess Hendershott. At the bi-monthly meeting of the Stayton Women's Community club, which was held Tuesday, November 17, plans were made for the next meeting which will fall on the first day of December. Mrs. R. D. Hoke is chairman of the entertainment committee and she announced that the meeting would be a McDowell day and that the program would be interspersed with McDowell music. Mrs. Anna Stayx, a pioneer woman of Stayton, was scheduled to address the club.

FALLS CITY NEWS

Falls City, Or., Nov. 21.—Mr. and Mrs. Chester Benefiel and small daughter of Banks, Or., are visiting with Mrs. Benefiel parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Watt. Elmer Deetz is at one of Cobb & Mitchell's camps, where he has a wood cutting contract. Mrs. Katherine Cleveland of Dallas is spending a few days in Falls City visiting friends. The Donohery Lumber company mill is running steadily, a good deal of the stock being cut is ties for the Southern Pacific company. W. A. Bancroft and R. D. Ferguson are away on a business trip to Hiet, Or. Mrs. A. H. Watters was in Astoria, Tuesday, visiting with friends. Albert Teal has moved his herd of milk goats in from his mountain ranch and will winter them at their barns on his place in the southern part of the city. There are 145 in the bunch, including this year's kids. Friends of John Cleary have received word that he is now in Chattanooga, Tenn., visiting with relatives and may decide to remain there. Thursday was the visiting day of the Southern Pacific officials when Trainmaster G. C. Morris, Chief Dispatcher C. A. Spencer and Special Agent Pete Kelly all made Falls City a business call on the same day. Mrs. R. S. Ferguson has returned from Kennett, Cal., where she has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. Violet Blouck. This was Mrs. Ferguson's first visit for many years and she greatly enjoyed her visit with relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Keller and Mrs. W. W. Ward were business visitors to Newberg, Tuesday. Herby Dunlap has returned to his home at Estacada and will spend a short time with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Dunlap. Mrs. A. A. Muck and Mrs. Roy Muck and small daughter were Dallas visitors the first of the week. The grade school was dismissed Friday morning on account of being unable to heat the building. A large water main had burst and the water was shut off until the pipe line was repaired. Hathaway Buell and Clyde Walker have gone to southern Oregon where they will visit with Ivan Buell and family, after which they will go to northern California where they will harvest Hathaway's potato crop. W. D. Bancroft has just received word that his youngest sister had died at her home at Doonance, Ohio.

FALLS CITY CLUB HOLDS MEETING

Falls City, Nov. 21.—The Falls City Commercial Club held its regular meeting at the city hall Wednesday evening with H. Morther Smith, president and Wm. Bohle, secretary. It was suggested that a committee be appointed to inform the Oregonian of a few corrections needed regarding their Sunday article about the Falls City Newport resort with a reference particularly as to the distance. The president appointed Mr. Bohle and Mr. Watt to attend to this matter and suggest that they express appreciation of the publicity given this most scenic drive. A mention was made of the next meeting of the Polk County Federated clubs to be held at Elkins Nov. 25th. A banquet was suggested for the near future for all club members who are in good standing and their wives and on motion of Mr. Watt and seconded by Mr. Muck all details were left to the entertainment committee. Permanent cards announcing meeting dates were decided upon and these will be placed in the store windows before each meeting night.

RICKREALL EPIDEMIC PROVES TO BE SMALLPOX

Rickreall, Nov. 21.—What was reported to be chicken pox has proven to be smallpox, and has caused the community some anxiety, but thus far is confined to one family. The health officer is being blamed for a careless diagnosis and no quarantine. SCOTTS MILLS Scotts Mills, Or., Nov. 21.—Mrs. William Allen returned home from Portland, Tuesday, where she spent a few days visiting her daughter, Altha, who is attending school at the Bible institute. H. A. Rieckers and family were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Gidley, Sunday. Laurence Smith let Tuesday for Eugene. He will work in a logging camp near that place. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Vallen made a business trip to Portland, Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Ben White and daughter, Dorothy, of Eugene spent Sunday here visiting Mr. White's mother, Anna R. White. Robert Shills and family of Falls City spent Sunday here visiting at the J. M. Shills' and G. W. Myers' homes. Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Smith and family motored to Molalla, Sunday, where they were dinner guests at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Parr. J. A. Merry, who has been ill the past week, is reported to be slowly improving.

RICKREALL SCHOOL HAS 103 ENROLLED

Rickreall, Or., Nov. 21.—The school enrollment has increased until 103 is the present registration, speaking well for the normal system. FATHERS, SONS BANQUET Mill City, Or., Nov. 21.—An enthusiastic father and son meeting and banquet was held at the Hammond hotel Thursday evening under the auspices of Mill City Lodge No. 180, A. F. & A. M., the third annual affair of the kind. Rev. C. Stanley Knott acted as toastmaster. F. R. Olin, worshipful master of the Masons, gave the address of welcome which was answered by Frank Smith on behalf of the boys. Dr. D. V. Poling of Albany was the principal speaker of the evening, driving home a great lesson for the boys and their dads. He also directed the community singing. Short talks were also made by other Masons present. No casualties were reported, but some of the boys looked as though another hit would have put them under the table. HAS SHOULDER DISLOCATED Falls City, Or., Nov. 21.—E. A. Campbell had his shoulder dislocated last week while employed near Valsley by the Cobb & Mitchell company. He is under the care of Dr. C. F. Horn, who says it will be two months before he can use his arm.

RICKREALL NEWS

Rickreall, Nov. 21.—Mrs. Mendenhall and children have arrived here to make their home for some time at Derry, where Mr. Mendenhall is depot agent in the absence of Mr. Brown, the regular agent. Mr. Brown is still at the hospital in San Francisco and will remain there for a longer time than at first anticipated. May Riley, a nurse from the State hospital at Salem, spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. C. Goodell. Miss Sue Bonner and Miss Mary Donaldson were pleasure seekers in Salem Wednesday evening, seeing "Helen's Boys." Mrs. Rose and daughter have moved in from the farm and are occupying the house on the old school house site. Mrs. Margaret Sporteman spent the past week in Portland visiting relatives and friends. The three critic teachers are spending the week-end at Silverton, Miss Bimmo and Miss Donaldson being guests of Miss Bonner at her home there. Mr. Boardman, an old gentleman living in the Independence hospital and was buried Wednesday. High school delegates from here to the high school conference at Eugene in the near future have been elected. William Bleh, president of the Student Body and Beulah Burch, secretary, are to attend for two days. Oak Grove callers here this week were Mr. and Mrs. Duncan and children. Mr. Anderson and family have moved into the Conlee property, to be near school for their small son, Cecil. Mr. Sewall has sold his farm and moved stock and household goods to a ranch near Klamath Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Meade of Eola were recent visitors here. Mrs. Tom Burch accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Harry Demsey to Salem on a shopping trip, after which she returned to Newberg, Tuesday. WOMAN'S CLUB LAYS PLANS Mill City, Or., Nov. 21.—The Mill City Women's club met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. E. C. Gordon, having in answer to roll call "Short Cuts and Labor Savers." The program consisted of a talk by Mrs. C. M. Cline on "Interior Decoration for Moderate Incomes and Good Taste in the Home," and a talk on "Good Management in the Home," by Mrs. W. W. Mason. Plans were also made for the clubs Christmas party to be held at the home of Mrs. C. Stanley Knott, December 17. Plans were also made for the club to handle the drive for Red Cross membership, also the sale of Christmas seal stamps. The club is also sponsoring the health center meeting which is to be held in the Odd Fellows hall November 30.

FALLS CITY CLUB HOLDS MEETING

Falls City, Or., Nov. 21.—The Falls City Commercial Club held its regular meeting at the city hall Wednesday evening with H. Morther Smith, president and Wm. Bohle, secretary. It was suggested that a committee be appointed to inform the Oregonian of a few corrections needed regarding their Sunday article about the Falls City Newport resort with a reference particularly as to the distance. The president appointed Mr. Bohle and Mr. Watt to attend to this matter and suggest that they express appreciation of the publicity given this most scenic drive. A mention was made of the next meeting of the Polk County Federated clubs to be held at Elkins Nov. 25th. A banquet was suggested for the near future for all club members who are in good standing and their wives and on motion of Mr. Watt and seconded by Mr. Muck all details were left to the entertainment committee. Permanent cards announcing meeting dates were decided upon and these will be placed in the store windows before each meeting night.

FALLS CITY CLUB HOLDS MEETING

Falls City, Nov. 21.—The Falls City Commercial Club held its regular meeting at the city hall Wednesday evening with H. Morther Smith, president and Wm. Bohle, secretary. It was suggested that a committee be appointed to inform the Oregonian of a few corrections needed regarding their Sunday article about the Falls City Newport resort with a reference particularly as to the distance. The president appointed Mr. Bohle and Mr. Watt to attend to this matter and suggest that they express appreciation of the publicity given this most scenic drive. A mention was made of the next meeting of the Polk County Federated clubs to be held at Elkins Nov. 25th. A banquet was suggested for the near future for all club members who are in good standing and their wives and on motion of Mr. Watt and seconded by Mr. Muck all details were left to the entertainment committee. Permanent cards announcing meeting dates were decided upon and these will be placed in the store windows before each meeting night.

BASKETBALL TO START AT RICKREALL SCHOOL

Rickreall, Nov. 21.—Two ball games are scheduled for next Wednesday night, to be played here against Falls City teams. The girls teams will play at 7 o'clock and the boys' game starts at 8 o'clock. Of the forest birds are furred. JEFFERSON Jefferson, Or., Nov. 21.—Jefferson people who attended the missionary conference at the First Evangelical church in Salem the middle of the week were Mrs. Ed Helms and Bernice, Laverne and Llewellyn Holmes, Maxine Childs, Grace and Ethel Clampe, Irene Bruce and Roy E. G. Erskine. Ed Smith, J. T. Jones and Raymond Jones attended the funeral of T. J. Butler in Albany the first of the week. S. R. Tandy attended the real estate dealers' luncheon at the Marion hotel in Salem, Thursday. Mrs. Frank Weld and Mrs. Halderman were Albany visitors Wednesday. Mrs. E. A. Parker and daughter of Walla Walla, Wash., are visiting her sister, Mrs. J. A. Randolph. Grace Libby is home from Salem, where she has been spending some time. Mrs. C. S. Emery and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bowers went to Kings Valley, Friday, to visit relatives. It was Mr. Bowers' birthday and they were invited there to celebrate the occasion. Mrs. John Callahan was operated on in Portland, Thursday, and is reported to be getting along nicely. Dr. and Mrs. J. O. Van Winkle and Ed Smith went to Bay City, Thursday evening, returning home Friday. Mrs. Peabody has been spending a few days in Salem. Mrs. Lucinda Matthews of Lebanon and Mrs. Fred Fortmiller of Albany visited Mr. and Mrs. George Vall, Thursday afternoon. Mrs. W. L. Cobb, Lila and Rex Cobb, were Albany visitors Wednesday. Veri Case and family moved to Silverton the first of the week. The grade teachers and the high school students held a warming party for Miss Hickey, English teacher in the high school, and Miss Verna Cooley, primary teacher, at the home of Mrs. H. C. Shields. Gifts of many varieties were given them. Some of them being regular "screams." About 18 were present. The high school girls' basketball team played a practice game with the Seio team Friday evening at Seio.

RICKREALL NEWS

Rickreall, Nov. 21.—Mrs. Mendenhall and children have arrived here to make their home for some time at Derry, where Mr. Mendenhall is depot agent in the absence of Mr. Brown, the regular agent. Mr. Brown is still at the hospital in San Francisco and will remain there for a longer time than at first anticipated. May Riley, a nurse from the State hospital at Salem, spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. C. Goodell. Miss Sue Bonner and Miss Mary Donaldson were pleasure seekers in Salem Wednesday evening, seeing "Helen's Boys." Mrs. Rose and daughter have moved in from the farm and are occupying the house on the old school house site. Mrs. Margaret Sporteman spent the past week in Portland visiting relatives and friends. The three critic teachers are spending the week-end at Silverton, Miss Bimmo and Miss Donaldson being guests of Miss Bonner at her home there. Mr. Boardman, an old gentleman living in the Independence hospital and was buried Wednesday. High school delegates from here to the high school conference at Eugene in the near future have been elected. William Bleh, president of the Student Body and Beulah Burch, secretary, are to attend for two days. Oak Grove callers here this week were Mr. and Mrs. Duncan and children. Mr. Anderson and family have moved into the Conlee property, to be near school for their small son, Cecil. Mr. Sewall has sold his farm and moved stock and household goods to a ranch near Klamath Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Meade of Eola were recent visitors here. Mrs. Tom Burch accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Harry Demsey to Salem on a shopping trip, after which she returned to Newberg, Tuesday. WOMAN'S CLUB LAYS PLANS Mill City, Or., Nov. 21.—The Mill City Women's club met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. E. C. Gordon, having in answer to roll call "Short Cuts and Labor Savers." The program consisted of a talk by Mrs. C. M. Cline on "Interior Decoration for Moderate Incomes and Good Taste in the Home," and a talk on "Good Management in the Home," by Mrs. W. W. Mason. Plans were also made for the clubs Christmas party to be held at the home of Mrs. C. Stanley Knott, December 17. Plans were also made for the club to handle the drive for Red Cross membership, also the sale of Christmas seal stamps. The club is also sponsoring the health center meeting which is to be held in the Odd Fellows hall November 30.

RICKREALL NEWS

Rickreall, Nov. 21.—Mrs. Mendenhall and children have arrived here to make their home for some time at Derry, where Mr. Mendenhall is depot agent in the absence of Mr. Brown, the regular agent. Mr. Brown is still at the hospital in San Francisco and will remain there for a longer time than at first anticipated. May Riley, a nurse from the State hospital at Salem, spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. C. Goodell. Miss Sue Bonner and Miss Mary Donaldson were pleasure seekers in Salem Wednesday evening, seeing "Helen's Boys." Mrs. Rose and daughter have moved in from the farm and are occupying the house on the old school house site. Mrs. Margaret Sporteman spent the past week in Portland visiting relatives and friends. The three critic teachers are spending the week-end at Silverton, Miss Bimmo and Miss Donaldson being guests of Miss Bonner at her home there. Mr. Boardman, an old gentleman living in the Independence hospital and was buried Wednesday. High school delegates from here to the high school conference at Eugene in the near future have been elected. William Bleh, president of the Student Body and Beulah Burch, secretary, are to attend for two days. Oak Grove callers here this week were Mr. and Mrs. Duncan and children. Mr. Anderson and family have moved into the Conlee property, to be near school for their small son, Cecil. Mr. Sewall has sold his farm and moved stock and household goods to a ranch near Klamath Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Meade of Eola were recent visitors here. Mrs. Tom Burch accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Harry Demsey to Salem on a shopping trip, after which she returned to Newberg, Tuesday. WOMAN'S CLUB LAYS PLANS Mill City, Or., Nov. 21.—The Mill City Women's club met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. E. C. Gordon, having in answer to roll call "Short Cuts and Labor Savers." The program consisted of a talk by Mrs. C. M. Cline on "Interior Decoration for Moderate Incomes and Good Taste in the Home," and a talk on "Good Management in the Home," by Mrs. W. W. Mason. Plans were also made for the clubs Christmas party to be held at the home of Mrs. C. Stanley Knott, December 17. Plans were also made for the club to handle the drive for Red Cross membership, also the sale of Christmas seal stamps. The club is also sponsoring the health center meeting which is to be held in the Odd Fellows hall November 30.

RICKREALL NEWS

Rickreall, Nov. 21.—Mrs. Mendenhall and children have arrived here to make their home for some time at Derry, where Mr. Mendenhall is depot agent in the absence of Mr. Brown, the regular agent. Mr. Brown is still at the hospital in San Francisco and will remain there for a longer time than at first anticipated. May Riley, a nurse from the State hospital at Salem, spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. C. Goodell. Miss Sue Bonner and Miss Mary Donaldson were pleasure seekers in Salem Wednesday evening, seeing "Helen's Boys." Mrs. Rose and daughter have moved in from the farm and are occupying the house on the old school house site. Mrs. Margaret Sporteman spent the past week in Portland visiting relatives and friends. The three critic teachers are spending the week-end at Silverton, Miss Bimmo and Miss Donaldson being guests of Miss Bonner at her home there. Mr. Boardman, an old gentleman living in the Independence hospital and was buried Wednesday. High school delegates from here to the high school conference at Eugene in the near future have been elected. William Bleh, president of the Student Body and Beulah Burch, secretary, are to attend for two days. Oak Grove callers here this week were Mr. and Mrs. Duncan and children. Mr. Anderson and family have moved into the Conlee property, to be near school for their small son, Cecil. Mr. Sewall has sold his farm and moved stock and household goods to a ranch near Klamath Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Meade of Eola were recent visitors here. Mrs. Tom Burch accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Harry Demsey to Salem on a shopping trip, after which she returned to Newberg, Tuesday. WOMAN'S CLUB LAYS PLANS Mill City, Or., Nov. 21.—The Mill City Women's club met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. E. C. Gordon, having in answer to roll call "Short Cuts and Labor Savers." The program consisted of a talk by Mrs. C. M. Cline on "Interior Decoration for Moderate Incomes and Good Taste in the Home," and a talk on "Good Management in the Home," by Mrs. W. W. Mason. Plans were also made for the clubs Christmas party to be held at the home of Mrs. C. Stanley Knott, December 17. Plans were also made for the club to handle the drive for Red Cross membership, also the sale of Christmas seal stamps. The club is also sponsoring the health center meeting which is to be held in the Odd Fellows hall November 30.

RICKREALL NEWS

Rickreall, Nov. 21.—Mrs. Mendenhall and children have arrived here to make their home for some time at Derry, where Mr. Mendenhall is depot agent in the absence of Mr. Brown, the regular agent. Mr. Brown is still at the hospital in San Francisco and will remain there for a longer time than at first anticipated. May Riley, a nurse from the State hospital at Salem, spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. C. Goodell. Miss Sue Bonner and Miss Mary Donaldson were pleasure seekers in Salem Wednesday evening, seeing "Helen's Boys." Mrs. Rose and daughter have moved in from the farm and are occupying the house on the old school house site. Mrs. Margaret Sporteman spent the past week in Portland visiting relatives and friends. The three critic teachers are spending the week-end at Silverton, Miss Bimmo and Miss Donaldson being guests of Miss Bonner at her home there. Mr. Boardman, an old gentleman living in the Independence hospital and was buried Wednesday. High school delegates from here to the high school conference at Eugene in the near future have been elected. William Bleh, president of the Student Body and Beulah Burch, secretary, are to attend for two days. Oak Grove callers here this week were Mr. and Mrs. Duncan and children. Mr. Anderson and family have moved into the Conlee property, to be near school for their small son, Cecil. Mr. Sewall has sold his farm and moved stock and household goods to a ranch near Klamath Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Meade of Eola were recent visitors here. Mrs. Tom Burch accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Harry Demsey to Salem on a shopping trip, after which she returned to Newberg, Tuesday. WOMAN'S CLUB LAYS PLANS Mill City, Or., Nov. 21.—The Mill City Women's club met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. E. C. Gordon, having in answer to roll call "Short Cuts and Labor Savers." The program consisted of a talk by Mrs. C. M. Cline on "Interior Decoration for Moderate Incomes and Good Taste in the Home," and a talk on "Good Management in the Home," by Mrs. W. W. Mason. Plans were also made for the clubs Christmas party to be held at the home of Mrs. C. Stanley Knott, December 17. Plans were also made for the club to handle the drive for Red Cross membership, also the sale of Christmas seal stamps. The club is also sponsoring the health center meeting which is to be held in the Odd Fellows hall November 30.

RICKREALL NEWS

Rickreall, Nov. 21.—Mrs. Mendenhall and children have arrived here to make their home for some time at Derry, where Mr. Mendenhall is depot agent in the absence of Mr. Brown, the regular agent. Mr. Brown is still at the hospital in San Francisco and will remain there for a longer time than at first anticipated. May Riley, a nurse from the State hospital at Salem, spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. C. Goodell. Miss Sue Bonner and Miss Mary Donaldson were pleasure seekers in Salem Wednesday evening, seeing "Helen's Boys." Mrs. Rose and daughter have moved in from the farm and are occupying the house on the old school house site. Mrs. Margaret Sporteman spent the past week in Portland visiting relatives and friends. The three critic teachers are spending the week-end at Silverton, Miss Bimmo and Miss Donaldson being guests of Miss Bonner at her home there. Mr. Boardman, an old gentleman living in the Independence hospital and was buried Wednesday. High school delegates from here to the high school conference at Eugene in the near future have been elected. William Bleh, president of the Student Body and Beulah Burch, secretary, are to attend for two days. Oak Grove callers here this week were Mr. and Mrs. Duncan and children. Mr. Anderson and family have moved into the Conlee property, to be near school for their small son, Cecil. Mr. Sewall has sold his farm and moved stock and household goods to a ranch near Klamath Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Meade of Eola were recent visitors here. Mrs. Tom Burch accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Harry Demsey to Salem on a shopping trip, after which she returned to Newberg, Tuesday. WOMAN'S CLUB LAYS PLANS Mill City, Or., Nov. 21.—The Mill City Women's club met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. E. C. Gordon, having in answer to roll call "Short Cuts and Labor Savers." The program consisted of a talk by Mrs. C. M. Cline on "Interior Decoration for Moderate Incomes and Good Taste in the Home," and a talk on "Good Management in the Home," by Mrs. W. W. Mason. Plans were also made for the clubs Christmas party to be held at the home of Mrs. C. Stanley Knott, December 17. Plans were also made for the club to handle the drive for Red Cross membership, also the sale of Christmas seal stamps. The club is also sponsoring the health center meeting which is to be held in the Odd Fellows hall November 30.

RICKREALL NEWS

Rickreall, Nov. 21.—Mrs. Mendenhall and children have arrived here to make their home for some time at Derry, where Mr. Mendenhall is depot agent in the absence of Mr. Brown, the regular agent. Mr. Brown is still at the hospital in San Francisco and will remain there for a longer time than at first anticipated. May Riley, a nurse from the State hospital at Salem, spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. C. Goodell. Miss Sue Bonner and Miss Mary Donaldson were pleasure seekers in Salem Wednesday evening, seeing "Helen's Boys." Mrs. Rose and daughter have moved in from the farm and are occupying the house on the old school house site. Mrs. Margaret Sporteman spent the past week in Portland visiting relatives and friends. The three critic teachers are spending the week-end at Silverton, Miss Bimmo and Miss Donaldson being guests of Miss Bonner at her home there. Mr. Boardman, an old gentleman living in the Independence hospital and was buried Wednesday. High school delegates from here to the high school conference at Eugene in the near future have been elected. William Bleh, president of the Student Body and Beulah Burch, secretary, are to attend for two days. Oak Grove callers here this week were Mr. and Mrs. Duncan and children. Mr. Anderson and family have moved into the Conlee property, to be near school for their small son, Cecil. Mr. Sewall has sold his farm and moved stock and household goods to a ranch near Klamath Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Meade of Eola were recent visitors here. Mrs. Tom Burch accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Harry Demsey to Salem on a shopping trip, after which she returned to Newberg, Tuesday. WOMAN'S CLUB LAYS PLANS Mill City, Or., Nov. 21.—The Mill City Women's club met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. E. C. Gordon, having in answer to roll call "Short Cuts and Labor Savers." The program consisted of a talk by Mrs. C. M. Cline on "Interior Decoration for Moderate Incomes and Good Taste in the Home," and a talk on "Good Management in the Home," by Mrs. W. W. Mason. Plans were also made for the clubs Christmas party to be held at the home of Mrs. C. Stanley Knott, December 17. Plans were also made for the club to handle the drive for Red Cross membership, also the sale of Christmas seal stamps. The club is also sponsoring the health center meeting which is to be held in the Odd Fellows hall November 30.

RICKREALL NEWS

Rickreall, Nov. 21.—Mrs. Mendenhall and children have arrived here to make their home for some time at Derry, where Mr. Mendenhall is depot agent in the absence of Mr. Brown, the regular agent. Mr. Brown is still at the hospital in San Francisco and will remain there for a longer time than at first anticipated. May Riley, a nurse from the State hospital at Salem, spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. C. Goodell. Miss Sue Bonner and Miss Mary Donaldson were pleasure seekers in Salem Wednesday evening, seeing "Helen's Boys." Mrs. Rose and daughter have moved in from the farm and are occupying the house on the old school house site. Mrs. Margaret Sporteman spent the past week in Portland visiting relatives and friends. The three critic teachers are spending the week-end at Silverton, Miss Bimmo and Miss Donaldson being guests of Miss Bonner at her home there. Mr. Boardman, an old gentleman living in the Independence hospital and was buried Wednesday. High school delegates from here to the high school conference at Eugene in the near future have been elected. William Bleh, president of the Student Body and Beulah Burch, secretary, are to attend for two days. Oak Grove callers here this week were Mr. and Mrs. Duncan and children. Mr. Anderson and family have moved into the Conlee property, to be near school for their small son, Cecil. Mr. Sewall has sold his farm and moved stock and household goods to a ranch near Klamath Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Meade of Eola were recent visitors here. Mrs. Tom Burch accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Harry Demsey to Salem on a shopping trip, after which she returned to Newberg, Tuesday. WOMAN'S CLUB LAYS PLANS Mill City, Or., Nov. 21.—The Mill City Women's club met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. E. C. Gordon, having in answer to roll call "Short Cuts and Labor Savers." The program consisted of a talk by Mrs. C. M. Cline on "Interior Decoration for Moderate Incomes and Good Taste in the Home," and a talk on "Good Management in the Home," by Mrs. W. W. Mason. Plans were also made for the clubs Christmas party to be held at the home of Mrs. C. Stanley Knott, December 17. Plans were also made for the club to handle the drive for Red Cross membership, also the sale of Christmas seal stamps. The club is also sponsoring the health center meeting which is to be held in the Odd Fellows hall November 30.

RICKREALL NEWS

Rickreall, Nov. 21.—Mrs. Mendenhall and children have arrived here to make their home for some time at Derry, where Mr. Mendenhall is depot agent in the absence of Mr. Brown, the regular agent. Mr. Brown is still at the hospital in San Francisco and will remain there for a longer time than at first anticipated. May Riley, a nurse from the State hospital at Salem, spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. C. Goodell. Miss Sue Bonner and Miss Mary Donaldson were pleasure seekers in Salem Wednesday evening, seeing "Helen's Boys." Mrs. Rose and daughter have moved in from the farm and are occupying the house on the old school house site. Mrs. Margaret Sporteman spent the past week in Portland visiting relatives and friends. The three critic teachers are spending the week-end at Silverton, Miss Bimmo and Miss Donaldson being guests of Miss Bonner at her home there. Mr. Boardman, an old gentleman living in the Independence hospital and was buried Wednesday. High school delegates from here to the high school conference at Eugene in the near future have been elected. William Bleh, president of the Student Body and Beulah Burch, secretary, are to attend for two days. Oak Grove callers here this week were Mr. and Mrs. Duncan and children. Mr. Anderson and family have moved into the Conlee property, to be near school for their small son, Cecil. Mr. Sewall has sold his farm and moved stock and household goods to a ranch near Klamath Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Meade of Eola were recent visitors here. Mrs. Tom Burch accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Harry Demsey to Salem on a shopping trip, after which she returned to Newberg, Tuesday. WOMAN'S CLUB LAYS PLANS Mill City, Or., Nov. 21.—The Mill City Women's club met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. E. C. Gordon, having in answer to roll call "Short Cuts and Labor Savers." The program consisted of a talk by Mrs. C. M. Cline on "Interior Decoration for Moderate Incomes and Good Taste in the Home," and a talk on "Good Management in the Home," by Mrs. W. W. Mason. Plans were also made for the clubs Christmas party to be held at the home of Mrs. C. Stanley Knott, December 17. Plans were also made for the club to handle the drive for Red Cross membership, also the sale of Christmas seal stamps. The club is also sponsoring the health center meeting which is to be held in the Odd Fellows hall November 30.

RICKREALL NEWS

Rickreall, Nov. 21.—Mrs. Mendenhall and children have arrived here to make their home for some time at Derry, where Mr. Mendenhall is depot agent in the absence of Mr. Brown, the regular agent. Mr. Brown is still at the hospital in San Francisco and will remain there for a longer time than at first anticipated. May Riley, a nurse from the State hospital at Salem, spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. C. Goodell. Miss Sue Bonner and Miss Mary Donaldson were pleasure seekers in Salem Wednesday evening, seeing "Helen's Boys." Mrs. Rose and daughter have moved in from the farm and are occupying the house on the old school house site. Mrs. Margaret Sporteman spent the past week in Portland visiting relatives and friends. The three critic teachers are spending the week-end at Silverton, Miss Bimmo and Miss Donaldson being guests of Miss Bonner at her home there. Mr. Boardman, an old gentleman living in the Independence hospital and was buried Wednesday. High school delegates from here to the high school conference at Eugene in the near future have been elected. William Bleh, president of the Student Body and Beulah Burch, secretary, are to attend for two days. Oak Grove callers here this week were Mr. and Mrs. Duncan and children. Mr. Anderson and family have moved into the Conlee property, to be near school for their small son, Cecil. Mr. Sewall has sold his farm and moved stock and household goods to a ranch near Klamath Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Meade of Eola were recent visitors here. Mrs. Tom Burch accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Harry Demsey to Salem on a shopping trip, after which she returned to Newberg, Tuesday. WOMAN'S CLUB LAYS PLANS Mill City, Or., Nov. 21.—The Mill City Women's club met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. E. C. Gordon, having in answer to roll call "Short Cuts and Labor Savers." The program consisted of a talk by Mrs. C. M. Cline on "Interior Decoration for Moderate Incomes and Good Taste in the Home," and a talk on "Good Management in the Home," by Mrs. W. W. Mason. Plans were also made for the clubs Christmas party to be held at the home of Mrs. C. Stanley Knott, December 17. Plans were also made for the club to handle the drive for Red Cross membership, also the sale of Christmas seal stamps. The club is also sponsoring the health center meeting which is to be held in the Odd Fellows hall November 30.

RICKREALL NEWS

Rickreall, Nov. 21.—Mrs. Mendenhall and children have arrived here to make their home for some time at Derry, where Mr. Mendenhall is depot agent in the absence of Mr. Brown, the regular agent. Mr. Brown is still at the hospital in San Francisco and will remain there for a longer time than at first anticipated. May Riley, a nurse from the State hospital at Salem, spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. C. Goodell. Miss Sue Bonner and Miss Mary Donaldson were pleasure seekers in Salem Wednesday evening, seeing "Helen's Boys." Mrs. Rose and daughter have moved in from the farm and are occupying the house on the old school house site. Mrs. Margaret Sporteman spent the past week in Portland visiting relatives and friends. The three critic teachers are spending the week-end at Silverton, Miss Bimmo and Miss Donaldson being guests of Miss Bonner at her home there. Mr. Boardman, an old gentleman living in the Independence hospital and was buried Wednesday. High school delegates from here to the high school conference at Eugene in the near future have been elected. William Bleh, president of the Student Body and Beulah Burch, secretary, are to attend for two days. Oak Grove callers here this week were Mr. and Mrs. Duncan and children. Mr. Anderson and family have moved into the Conlee property, to be near school for their small son, Cecil. Mr. Sewall has sold his farm and moved stock and household goods to a ranch near Klamath Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Meade of Eola were recent visitors here. Mrs. Tom Burch accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Harry Demsey to Salem on a shopping trip, after which she returned to Newberg, Tuesday. WOMAN'S CLUB LAYS PLANS Mill City, Or., Nov. 21.—The Mill City Women's club met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. E. C. Gordon, having in answer to roll call "Short Cuts and Labor Savers." The program consisted of a talk by Mrs. C. M. Cline on "Interior Decoration for Moderate Incomes and Good Taste in the Home," and a talk on "Good Management in the Home," by Mrs. W. W. Mason. Plans were also made for the clubs Christmas party to be held at the home of Mrs. C. Stanley Knott, December 17. Plans were also made for the club to handle the drive for Red Cross membership, also the sale of Christmas seal stamps. The club is also sponsoring the health center meeting which is to be held in the Odd Fellows hall November 30.

RICKREALL NEWS

Rickreall, Nov. 21.—Mrs. Mendenhall and children have arrived here to make their home for some time at Derry, where Mr. Mendenhall is depot agent in the absence of Mr. Brown, the regular agent. Mr. Brown is still at the hospital in San Francisco and will remain there for a longer time than at first anticipated. May Riley, a nurse from the State hospital at Salem, spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. C. Goodell. Miss Sue Bonner and Miss Mary Donaldson were pleasure seekers in Salem Wednesday evening, seeing "Helen's Boys." Mrs. Rose and daughter have moved in from the farm and are occupying the house on the old school house site. Mrs. Margaret Sporteman spent the past week in Portland visiting relatives and friends. The three critic teachers are spending the week-end at Silverton, Miss Bimmo and Miss Donaldson being guests of Miss Bonner at her home there. Mr. Boardman, an old gentleman living in the Independence hospital and was buried Wednesday. High school delegates from here to the high school conference at Eugene in the near future have been elected. William Bleh, president of the Student Body and Beulah Burch, secretary, are to attend for two days. Oak Grove callers here this week were Mr. and Mrs. Duncan and children. Mr. Anderson and family have moved into the Conlee property, to be near school for their small son, Cecil. Mr. Sewall has sold his farm and moved stock and household goods to a ranch near Klamath Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Meade of Eola were recent visitors here. Mrs. Tom Burch accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Harry Demsey to Salem on a shopping trip, after which she returned to Newberg, Tuesday. WOMAN'S CLUB LAYS PLANS Mill City, Or., Nov. 21.—The Mill City Women's club met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. E. C. Gordon, having in answer to roll call "Short Cuts and Labor Savers." The program consisted of a talk by Mrs. C. M. Cline on "Interior Decoration for Moderate Incomes and Good Taste in the Home," and a talk on "Good Management in the Home