Mrs. Jones Visits Chapters

Mrs. Seymour Jones, state regent of the Daughters of the American Revolution, returned last night from eastern Oregon where she officially visited chapters of the organization.

On Friday Mrs. Jones was the honor guest at a luncheon at the Lithia Springs hotel at Ashland. Additional honor guests at the luncheon were Mrs. A. M. Harshberger, formerly state regent of California, who was visiting in Klamath Falls, and I. D. Visting, president of the state chamber of commerce. A group of members of the Klamath Falls chapter motored over to Ashland to meet Mrs. Jones at the luncheon and at the business meeting of the Ashland chapter which was held in the afternoon.

The Medford chapter entertained Mrs. Jones on Saturday. Mr. Jones motored down to southern Oregon with Mrs. Jones.

Today is the last day of the carnival which is being held in St. Joseph's auditorium. Sunday the chicken noodle dinner was most generously patronized.

The "Mystic High Jinks" created quite a sensation when the actors gave a parade through the auditorium with Mrs. J. G. Schmidt leading the parade driving a chariot drawn by two prancing steeds.

Tonight Charles Archer of the Archer Implement Co., will be manager of the "Mystic High Jinks." Mr. Archer needs no introduction to Salem audiences as he is widely known among the Roanoke, Elk and other prominent organizations as a versatile as well as a highly principled public speaker.

A splendid program will be given by local talent tonight. The "Inferno" is in full blast with Karl Barr as manager. Mr. Barr is a recent graduate of Notre Dame university and realizes what the young man of the day appreciates in the line of high class sport. Dinner will be served again Tuesday evening from 5 to 7 o'clock.

An attractive wedding was solemnized Saturday at noon at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. A. J. Wenger, when Miss Alice Ward and Alvin Marr were united with a ring ceremony by Rev. J. J. Evans. "Love You Truly" was sung and Mendelssohn's wedding march was played.

The bride wore a beautiful hand made rose wood color satin back crepe dress. She carried a shower bouquet of white rosebuds.

Miss Eola Ward, the bride's only attendant, wore an attractive frock of blue satin crepe. The best man was the groom's cousin Clyde Johnson. Only relatives of the young couple were present.

A number of pre-nuptial affairs have been given this week honoring the bride both in Salem and in Brooks. After the wedding dinner the young couple left for Toledo where they plan to make their home.

A group of members of the Salem Woman's club, under the direction of the institutions department of the club motored to the state tuberculosis institution one afternoon last week at the invitation of Mrs. Lura Cass Franch in charge of the educational work. Mrs. F. M. Erickson, Mrs. E. E. Elliott, Mrs. S. M. Endicott and Mrs. Ray Farmer motored out in one group and Mrs. Farmer told a group of stories at the hospital during the afternoon. Mrs. N. C. Kafoury and Miss Mary Kafoury motored out with another group and Miss Kafoury told stories.

The fifth of the Chronicles of America, films produced by the Yale university Press, and shown in Salem under the auspices of the better films committee of the local American association of University Women will be shown at the Oregon theater next Saturday morning at ten thirty.

The picture is "The Frontier Woman" and is a drama of the old southwest in three reels. "Welcome Home" will be shown in connection with the Yale film. The showing will be made at this time for the special convenience of children although it is said by critics to be equally as interesting to grown ups.

Women have not yet contributed much to the national political life, but will learn to do so as their citizenship training is developed, asserted Mrs. Casper Whitney of New York, vice president of the National League of Women Voters, in a talk to members of the Oregon branch of the league at a reception given in her honor yesterday at the University club.

"We are not going to keep the institutions of democracy unless we have an intelligent electorate, and this is what we want to get the women of the league to see. We want to give women a feeling of responsibility as citizens, and the training and education they need," she declared.

"I do not believe women have contributed much to the political life of the country; it is ridiculous to think that in the five years of national women's suffrage they could do so, especially when women had never been trained to think along the lines of government. But woman's responsibility just now is great, because we have an enthusiasm in this matter of politics that the men lack. We have the valor of ignorance, because we have not had man's opportunity to learn. Now the league is making an effort to teach the A. B. C's of citizenship."

The National League of Women Voters has been accused of being a bolshevik organization, underwritten from Russia, Mrs. Whitney declared, simply because it endeavors to get people to think. "The reactionaries know that the moment people begin to think the reactionaries are lost," the speaker asserted.

Mrs. Whitney, accompanied by Miss Hooper M. Hollinshead, regional secretary of the league, who has been spending some months in Portland, will go to Salem today, where they will address the Salem league, of which Mrs. J. A. Churchill is president, at a luncheon. Mrs. Whitney will return to Portland tomorrow and will leave tomorrow night for Boise, Idaho, where she will visit the Boise branch of the league.

Mrs. Charles Carver Jr., president of the Oregon branch, had charge of the reception yesterday, aided by a large committee in receiving guests. Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. W. B. Ayer, Mrs. C. B. Simmons, Mrs. J. A. Churchill of Salem and Dr. Mary Howells of Corvallis.—Oregonian.

Music was enjoyed during the evening.

Round-Up Club Is Entertained

A delightful meeting of the Round-up club was held yesterday when Mrs. C. K. Spaulding entertained the group in her home on Court street. Lovely baskets of marriage were arranged about the rooms.

Special guests were Mrs. F. G. Bowersox and Mrs. J. L. Stockton. High bridge honors were won by Mrs. J. T. Whittig.

Members of the club are Mrs. Joseph Albert, Mrs. J. C. Griffith, Mrs. J. T. Whittig, Mrs. R. E. Downing, Mrs. Ed Hartley, Mrs. John Scott, Mrs. S. P. Kimball, Mrs. John Albert, Mrs. E. Cooke Patton, Mrs. C. H. Robertson, Mrs. Leta Westcott, Mrs. T. B. Kay and the hostess, Mrs. Spaulding.

Rev. J. J. Evans performed the ceremony in the parsonage of the First Christian church on Friday evening which united in marriage LeRoy Edgar Maddy and Bernice Bunce. Only relatives were present. Mr. and Mrs. Maddy will make their home in Salem.

Mrs. J. A. Churchill, Mrs. Rex Sanford and Mrs. E. E. Fisher motored down from here yesterday to attend the reception given for Mrs. Whitney.

Mrs. Lillian McElroy Hunt organist at the Whiteside theater at Corvallis and formerly a popular organist here and Byron J. Taylor were married Sunday at noon at an informal but interesting wedding ceremony in the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. N. Bell in Corvallis. They returned to Corvallis today and Mrs. Taylor will appear at the theater organ tonight. The couple will make their home in Corvallis.

Flapjack and flavor! No other pancake flour can hope to give you Flapjack's flavor because no other flour is blended the Flapjack way. To begin with, we use no cornmeal or other heavy ingredient. The leavening is top-quality. Even the salt used is as fine-textured as the flour itself.

That's why Flapjacks, properly made, are always light and tender, never soggy or hard-to-digest. Flapjack heads straight for your hot cake appetite in a big-flavor way!

You must say "QUICK QUAKER"

To get true Scotch flavor—famous Quaker Oats flavor—in quick cooking oats

THE difference in breakfast oats is flavor. Oats, originally a Scotch dish, must have Scotch flavor.

Quick Quaker has the toasty Scotch flavor that's so wonderful... famous Quaker Oats flavor.

No other brand has it. None successfully imitates it. It's due to exclusive Quaker milling of the finest, plumpest oats. Milling methods which took some 50 years to perfect.

Makes all the difference in the world. Quaker Oats spoils folks for ordinary brands of oats. Cooks in 3 to 5 minutes. No kitchen muss busy mornings.

Due to Quaker milling methods, it supplies, too, the "roughage" you need to make laxatives seldom necessary.

Look for the picture of a Quaker on the oats you get.

Mrs. Taylor, with the Whiteside theater as organist a number of years, is one of the well known musicians of the Willamette valley. She formerly made her home in Salem, though she is a descendant of the McElroy family, pioneers of Benton county. Mr. Taylor, too, is connected with one of Corvallis' and Benton county's (Continued on Page Six)
