

PIONEER WOMAN OF POLK COUNTY STROKE VICTIM

Independence, Or., Nov. 25.—Mrs. Rachel Jane De Armond, resident of this vicinity since 1884, passed away at her home four miles north of Independence on the morning of November 20, following a short illness that began suddenly November 8. She was the wife of Robert C. De Armond, farmer, and was 66 years of age at the time of her death.

Mrs. De Armond arose early on the morning of Sunday, November 8, and was going about her morning duties when she was suddenly prostrated by a stroke of apoplexy. Following the stroke she rallied at times, but was never able to speak from the time she was first stricken. The family and a large number of friends were in constant attendance at her bedside.

Funeral services were held at Independence, Sunday afternoon, at 2 o'clock. The remains were buried in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Mrs. De Armond was born in Blunt county, Tenn., in 1859. She married Robert De Armond in 1884, both moving to Polk county, Oregon, immediately following their marriage. They spent the first four years of their married life on the Armstrong place near Saver, following which they moved to the Henck farm on the Luckie-mute river, where they lived for the next 13 years. Mr. De Armond in 1901 purchased the farm near Independence which has been their home for the past 25 years.

Mrs. De Armond was a member of the Presbyterian church since early childhood. In addition to her husband she is survived by one son, Roy, of Vale, Or.

"What Price Glory" Written By Two Veterans of War's Horrors

Louis O Macloon's presentation of the sensational Stallings-Anderson success "What Price Glory" comes to the Hellig theatre tonight.

"What Price Glory" was written by two men who served through the thickest of fighting during the great war. Their story is unlike any ever seen on the stage before. The characters, with two exceptions, are all soldiers. They are billeted just behind the firing line and they talk and act as soldiers do when facing death.

The play is a true story of soldier life during the war. There is not a dull moment. The audience is kept laughing from the time the curtain rises until the end of the play.

Macloon has given the play an excellent production and has peopled the cast with Emmett Corrigan in the stellar role of Capt. Flagg, Tom Chatterton as Sergeant Quirt, Inaborg Torrup as Charmaine, Ed Russell as Corporal Kipper, John De Weese as Corporal Lipsky, Stanley J. Smith as Lieutenant Moore and Charles Darrah as the Brigadier General Cokely.

PAINTERS QUIT SALEM CENTRAL LABOR COUNCIL

Declaring that the local painters' union will have nothing to do with the Central Trades and Labor council here until "suitable and decent conditions are effected," an official communication read before the council last night severed all connections between the union and the council. The message was from M. M. Dungan, secretary of the painter's union.

When suitable and decent conditions are effected," the letter reads in part, "or a favorable sentiment exists for such changes and adherence to trade union conditions, our moral and financial aid will be gladly and freely given."

The letter also inferred that under present conditions in the city the labor council permits men to work "for whom, when and where they please," and declared that the painter's "have no wish to be a part or factor in fastening the open shop conditions on the tradesmen of Salem."

H. A. Director of Portland, appearing before the council at last night's meeting, which was a semi-monthly affair, urged the establishment of classes for trade union members. Indications are that the proposition outlined by Director will be given a three months' trial. The classes will stress trade union principles and will take up public speaking and labor economics. Under the tentative plan as agreed to last night, local men would be assured to act as instructors.

STILL OPERATOR PLEADS GUILTY

Silverton, Or., Nov. 25.—(Special.)—W. E. Foster was fined $100 and given 30 days in the county jail at a trial yesterday when he pleaded guilty to having a still at his home at 509 Jersey street. Mr. Foster was tried before the justice of the peace at Silverton. Claude Crasey, a brother-in-law of Mr. Foster's, who was arrested at the raid, was released because of lack of evidence that he was connected with the still. Mr. Crasey just arrived at Silverton from Salem last Sunday.

The raid was made Monday night by a party of three men, headed by Webb Hawkins, night police and constable. The other two men were W. Gains, chief of police, and M. K. Barnett. Two hundred and fifty gallons of mash, seven pints of moonshine and one quart of first run was reported taken in the raid. The still was said to be a ten gallon capacity copper build over two oil burners and it was located in an upstairs bathroom of the Foster home.

"Anglo-Saxophone" is a word coined in Europe to describe the speech of Americans who know but one language and who raise their voices to foreign waltzes, as if noise would increase their intelligibility.

 CONTRACTORS AND BUILDERS

Planning a Home?

First of all, tell your Architect or Building Contractor that you want "Check" Seal Electrical Wiring

The "Check" Seal is our trade mark which identifies electrical contractors who do modern electrical wiring, install convenient connections for electrical appliances and who use standard wiring devices.

This is the kind of workmanship you want in your new home. To insure your future comfort, insist that the wiring be done by a "Check" Seal contractor. Remember, also, that the "Check" Seal identifies electrical retailers who sell only quality merchandise. Buy electrical appliances and equipment where you see the "Check" Seal.

SHIP 800,000 SALMON EGGS

Mill City, Or., Nov. 25.—Another shipment of 800,000 chinook salmon eggs went forward from the Breitenbush racks Monday under the care of LeRoy Ledgerwood, manager of the Mehama hatchery. Three hundred thousand of the eggs go to the Bonneville hatchery and the balance to the Deschutes hatchery. There remains at least one more large shipment of eggs to come forward.

Does old Kid Pipe get you below the belt?
(Is your pipe O.K.—or are you K.Oed?)

Any experienced pipe-handler 'll tell you that half the battle in mastering the manly art of pipe smoking is fighting shy of the old "hay-maker". . . . And there's no sense taking a terrible licking when you can side-step all that foul pipe-play by breaking in on Granger... Fact, after a couple of rounds with this smooth-going Rough Cut it's no longer necessary to handle any pipe with gloves on.

There's nothing else like Wellman's 1870 Method
 An "old fashioned" method, yes, but slow as it is, and costly, too—we have found no other process that brings tobacco to the same full, rich "rounded-out" mellowness. And remember—in Granger only!
