

From the Richest and Best Part of the State

NEWS FROM NEARBY VALLEY POINTS

By Capital Journal's Special Correspondents

CHURCH BENEFIT MUSICALS HELD

Falls City, Nov. 26.—The musical given in the Methodist church Monday evening benefiting the M. E. ladies aid society was a great success and a well arranged program was thoroughly enjoyed. A silver offering was taken at conclusion of the program which amounted to eight dollars.

The following program was rendered:

Piano solo, Miss Frances Hatch.

Duet, Virginia Adams and Lucia Mack.

Reading, Rosa Howe.

Instrumental music, Miss Narallo Mumjou, Messers Aurland, Howe, Edger.

Piano reading, Georgia Loftus.

Solo, Prof. L. A. Barnhart.

Reading, Mrs. Minna Hoppe.

Dialogue, Viola Lane and Ellen Speerster.

Duet, Dr. R. K. Howe and Albert Morgan.

Trombone solo, Mrs. Austin Ricketts.

Violin solo, Sol Edger.

Vocal trio, Messrs R. K. Howe, A. Morgan and L. A. Barnhart.

FRUITLAND

Fruitland, Or., Nov. 26.—Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Cade and son, Hale, were guests at a delightful birthday party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Smith of Sidney last Sunday. The day was a combination celebration marking an anniversary of two persons—Mr. Smith and Miss Wallis Richards of Buena Vista. There was a number of friends present, Mr. and Mrs. Corbett, Mrs. Henry Richards and family of Buena Vista. The afternoon was spent playing games and rowing on the river.

Mrs. A. H. Hammer is contemplating a week-end visit to Newport, where Mr. Hammer is spending an extended vacation.

Miss Ruth Laitin of this district is to be married soon.

The store at Fruitland was entered last Saturday night and a number of things taken by thieves. Word was received here that a daughter has been born to Mr. and Mrs. Roger Lambert, who reside in this section and now live in eastern Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Smith were Salem and Fruitland business visitors last Tuesday.

It was announced on November 15 that there would be preaching the Fruitland Evangelical church next Sunday, the 29th, by Rev. Mr. Stover.

Arthur Cordier purchased around 1500 Marshall strawberry plants Tuesday from Mr. Cade.

The Cades are setting three acres to Etterberg 121 plants this fall.

SIDNEY-TALBOT

Sidney, Or., Nov. 26.—George Ralls, who has been confined in the Albany hospital for the last two weeks with an injured foot, was brought to his home here Wednesday. He is getting along very nicely but will not be able to walk for several weeks.

Mrs. Claude Johnson, Mrs. D. F. Sayles and Mrs. D. Jacobson were shopping in Albany, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Turnidge announce the birth of a son at their home near Lacombe on November 5. He has been named Gordon Everett.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson and daughter, Meredith, of Albany spent the week-end visiting at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hampton.

Mrs. H. W. Cooley and Mrs. Lee Cooley attended the sewing class in Jefferson, Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Calavan had as their guests one day last week, Mrs. Calavan's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Savage of Silverton.

Charles Meier was a Salem visitor Saturday.

Mrs. Thomas Newt of Rosedale was a business visitor at the George Itall home one day last week.

Mrs. Lee Cooley returned Sunday from Cottage Grove, where she has been visiting relatives and friends for the last two weeks. Mr. Cooley motored to Cottage Grove, Sunday morning, and came back with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Myers spent Sunday in Silverton as guests at the home of Mrs. Myers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Edson.

Herman Kieper and Miss Rose Kieper drove to Salem, Monday, and spent the day at the home of their brother, William Kieper.

Mrs. J. M. Calavan was the delegate from Talbot district to the health demonstration council held in Salem, Saturday afternoon. The delegates chosen in the Sidney district were unable to attend.

S. A. Penne of Jefferson called on George Ralls, Sunday morning.

C. A. Myers and Fred Jorgensen were business visitors in Salem, Saturday.

Frank Kieper was called to Salem, Saturday, by the serious illness of his brother, William Kieper. Mr. Kieper is suffering from a severe attack of pneumonia at his home there.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Freeman had as their guests last week, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Freeman of Bruce, who were married November 9. Mrs. Bruce was formerly Miss Nettie McClure.

G. H. Marlaht was among the members of the Jefferson Masonic lodge who attended the community gathering in Albany, Tuesday night, when the Albany lodge was host to members of Harriburg, Seio, Shedd, Mills City, Lebanon and Jefferson lodges.

Miss Verna Cooley of Jefferson and Mrs. Cora Rose of Salem were guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Cooley, over the week-end.

Miss Grace Harding and Miss Jeanette Brown of Corvallis spent Friday and Saturday with Miss Harding's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Freeman. Miss Harding and Miss Brown are teachers in the Corvallis schools.

H. W. Cooley and sons sold their turkeys last week to a Salem firm.

Mr. and Mrs. William Finlay had as their guests Sunday, their daughter, Mrs. Minnie Worthington. Also Mr. and Mrs. James Worthington and Virgil Worthington, all of Portland.

Mrs. E. J. Freeman and her guests, Miss Harding and Miss Brown, were shopping in Salem, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Pettyjohn o-Lyons spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Pettyjohn's sister, Mrs. G. H. Marlaht.

Mrs. C. F. Meier made a business trip to Salem, Thursday.

Mrs. Albert Cole was confined to her bed for several days last week with a severe cold.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Blinston were transacting business in Jefferson, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Tingelstad spent Sunday in Silverton.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Eades of The Dalles were visiting friends in this section Monday afternoon. Mr. Eades made his home in Jefferson a number of years ago but now lives in The Dalles, where he owns a drug store.

C. F. Meier was engaged for two days last week in hauling feed from the mill at Buena Vista.

Mr. and Mrs. Rella Phillips, who were married last week in Dallas, are spending a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Osborn. Mrs. Phillips was Miss Thyra Cochran.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Doty, who have been in Kelso, Wash., for the last two weeks where Mrs. Doty's brother, Edward Lynes, is very ill, were home for a few days last week. They were accompanied here by Mrs. Doty's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lynes. Mr. and Mrs. Doty and Mrs. Lynes returned to Kelso, Saturday. Mr. Lynes remained here with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Doty and M. E. Doty spent Wednesday in Salem.

Frank Trombley, who has been confined to his home with a severely sprained ankle, is improving slowly, but is still unable to walk without the aid of crutches.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Sharp entertained Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lynes and Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Doty at dinner at their home Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Freeman and Mrs. Freeman's mother, Mrs. L. M. Harding of Corvallis, will leave Wednesday evening for Kelso to spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. William Freeman and Miss Dorothy Freeman, who are spending the winter there.

FALLS CITY

Falls City, Or., Nov. 26.—Mr. and Mrs. Ennis Frink were up from Newberg the first of the week visiting with their mother, Mrs. J. C. Frink.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ellis, Mrs. Harry Davis and Mrs. J. D. Russell were business callers to Dallas, Monday.

W. H. Daughtry was a visitor to Falls City, Saturday and Sunday, looking after his mill interests.

Mrs. Elmer Barnhart and children are visiting with relatives in Salem this week.

Mrs. D. Tallor was a business visitor to Dallas last Monday.

Miss Mabel Teal went to Valdez, Friday, where she has a large class taking lessons on the pianoforte.

The two cases of scarlet fever in the home of G. W. Hodgdon were in a mild form and the boys have fully recovered. As so much time has elapsed since the first case was quarantined, it is believed there is no danger of an epidemic.

Mrs. J. D. Moyer entertained her Sunday school class, the Bluebirds, at her home Saturday afternoon. The class elected their new officers as follows: President, Lucile Mack, secretary, Virginia Adams. After spending a pleasant afternoon in making plans and playing, games the hostess served dainty refreshment.

Carl and LeRoy Allen have arrived here from Versonia and will spend the winter with their grandparents and attend school.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Weidman and family are recent arrivals here from western Canada and are visiting Mrs. Weidman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Weaver.

Mrs. C. P. Horn and son, Richard, were business visitors to Portland Tuesday.

Mrs. R. G. White and Mrs. Ralph Hall are in Portland, where they were called by the serious illness of their father, D. James. Mr. White drove down to Portland, Sunday, taking with him the Misses Gladys, Helen and Barbara Hall and Dorothy Owens to see their grandfather.

Four delegates from here attended the Polk county Endeavor society convention held at Mouth, Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Ten societies, representing three different denominations were present. Five state speakers were in attendance, speaking on the subject of "Fidelity," which was thoroughly discussed from every phase.

RICKREALL NEWS

Rickreall, Nov. 26.—Mr. and Mrs. Jim Nesmith have gone to Portland to remain until after Thanksgiving with friends.

Mrs. Tom Burch left today for an indefinite visit at the home of her brother, Ernest Munch, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Southwick are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Gordiner of Salem for Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Gregg of the Dallas hospital nursing force called at the Southwick home recently.

Miss Bertha Parsons of Dallas was a guest of Margaret Sporteman Mr. and Mrs. Jack Goodell and daughter were shoppers in Dallas today.

Miss Gracie Belle Emmons, Miss Mary Donaldson, started today for

MILL CITY

Mill City, Ore., Nov. 26.—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Meyer and son of Portland were week-end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Baker.

Mrs. C. T. Haseman, Mrs. E. A. Cober, Mrs. E. C. Gordon and Mrs. Mueckley of this city spent Tuesday in Salem on a shopping tour.

Mrs. E. A. Baker and her brother Frank Harris made a business trip to Salem Tuesday.

The Mill City Woman's club started their Red Cross drive Tuesday and are reported to be making good headway.

Mrs. A. A. Holthouse and Mrs. Eva Raines went to Salem Tuesday on business.

SILVERTON

Silverton, Or., Nov. 26.—(Special)—Fred Dowe of Alberta, Canada, has purchased the Fred David 30-acre farm on the Piddling river west of Silverton. Mr. Dowe has moved to his new home.

The executive committee of the Silverton unit of the Lutheran Brotherhood has sent invitations to the 45 different organizations at Silverton asking them to send a representative to a general committee which will meet December 4 at the chamber of commerce rooms for the purpose of laying plans for the Christmas charity work at Silverton. The Brotherhood is heading the work at Silverton.

Salem callers the first of the week, and sons spent Thanksgiving in Mr. and Mrs. Harry Demsey Falls City.

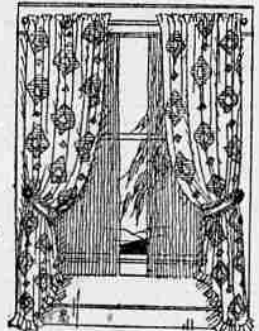

OREGON

NORMA
A First National Picture
TALNIDGE
in Graustark
STARTS SATURDAY

MILLER'S
Good Goods
Salem's Leading Department Store

BEGINNING TOMORROW!
A SPECIAL PURCHASE and SALE of Ruffled Curtains
Every Pair New and First Quality!

$1.49 Pair

—For any room in the house. These should interest the thrifty housekeeper from the angle of beauty as well as thrift—Ready to put up with very little inconvenience. White net with two inch ruffled edges of old gold and old blue voile picoted in black. Ruffled tie backs to match.

Fancy Marquisette Ruffled Curtains

$2.49 Pair

—These are extremely "easy" to look upon—very good quality and an exceptional value at this price. Both plain and fancy. Old or delft blue and lavender, also yellow. Ruffled tie backs to match. Each set in an individual box ready to hang.

Dotted Marquisette Ruffled Curtains

$3.75 Pair

—Dotted marquisette with novelty picoted ruffled edge to match. These come in plain solid colors also. Rose and lavender. See them tomorrow! The prices are within the range of your purse. The patterns are just what are being used in the east.

All Are Ready to Hang—2 1/4 Yard Lengths

Today 1:45 to 11:00 P. M. Continuous Performance

SEE DOUGLAS MACLEAN

The Lovable Locksmith of Laughter Unlock the Gates of Gayety With

"Seven Keys To Baldpate"

It's Our Special Thanksgiving Program Selected to Suit the Whole Family!

COMEDY :: NEWS
McDONALD
TODAY :: FRIDAY

OREGON

MATINEE 35c EVENINGS 35c—50c
Children 10c

Special Purchase and Sale of Winter Fabric Gloves

$1 Pair
300 Pairs Go On Sale Tomorrow Morning!

All are Fancy Cuff, Turn Backs, and Straight Cuff in Novelty Embroidery Effects.

Colors, Sable, Grey, Mode, Oak

ALL SIZES

ALL SIZES

Salem's Leading Department Store