Salem Club Active In Federation

Several hundred couples were present at the first formal dance of the new year at the Ilhsee country club last night. The affair was one of the loveliest ever given in Salem. Balloons were floated under electric reflectors resulting in blending of all the colors of the rainbow. The pastel color plan was carried out entirely.

In general charge of the affair were F. D. Thieleen and Donald Young. The chairman of the decorating committee was Gus Hixon with William Paulus, Dwight Quisenberry and Russell Bone-steale assisting.
