Maybe you'd rather have 6 good acres with a small house and barn out on the great highway north and worth $4500 than your Salem home; or wouldn't it be better to raise the boys on a little farm of 10 acres with a good house and barn and 2 big chicken houses and 600 fine hens and 2 cows and the farm machinery necessary and all for $7500 and you can trade your town home; or if you have a couple of fairly well improved close acres and want a good big town house worth $4000, you bring it in; or if you are one of those birds who know just how to run a town we can trade you a store, stock, residence, mayor, post master and section boss and all worth $10,000 for an apartment house or a good farm; or if you're a "slicker" we've a "feller" with a fine house and a couple of acres on the highway worth $6300 who wants a house in Salem and he just loves to be soaked.

In the southern part of Salem Rev. Charles Ward of the First Presbyterian church had charge of the services, which were held in the Leslie Methodist church.

Rev. Fred C. Taylor preached at the 17th Street Christian church, where congregations from the eastern part of Salem gathered.

Dr. Norman K. Tully, pastor of the local Presbyterian church, preached at the West Salem community church building.

All German congregations, including those of the Central Methodist, the Bethany Reformed German Baptist and the Mennonite churches, met at the German Baptist church. Rev. M. Denny of the Bethany Reformed church had charge of the services.

HERRIOT NOT ABLE TO FORM NEW CABINET

Constitution Scorned

Speeches delivered by various members of the socialist group in their party caucuses showing a desire to impose extreme financial measures such as the capital levy by extra constitutional means if necessary, have been the only overt acts recorded. One of the socialist leaders when reminded that he was advocating measures outside the constitution, replied:

"To hell with the constitution."

The senate has appeared to be the obstacle to all the calculations of the radical-socialist combination in their plan to impose their will in financial matters. One idea put forward has been for the majority of the chamber of deputies to disregard the senate altogether as a factor in the passage of financial bills.

The conservative parties forming the present opposition have been much more active since M. Painleve formed last month his second ministry of the year.

SMOKING BY WOMEN IRKS EDUCATORS

tradition is against it in sorority houses. Nine other Illinois institutions either have rules against it, or student self government bodies are opposed.

Banned By Rules

Co-educational schools of Iowa do not countenance smokes. Regulations against it are included in dormitory rules at the state university, where drastic action has been taken against too frequent offenders. Women at Grinnel are almost unanimously opposed to it. Drake has no formal ukase against it, but requests girls found smoking to leave school.

"Never," is Minnesota's declaration to any likilhood of following Bryn Maw's example. Carleton College officialdom says it could never happen there.

Wisconsin has given the subject scant thought. It hasn't been necessary says deans of women. Downer, exclusive girl's school in Milwaukee, voices against the practice as " very unwomanly."

Rules are unwritten that women must not smoke in Ohio institutions. The state university thinks that girls may smoke among their families, says Dean Elizabeth Conrad, but not at school. A poll of co-eds reveals that one-third have smoked, but all deny smoking "very much."

Indiana school authorities do not find it necessary to lay down an official taboo.

Some toleration of girl student smokers is current in Washington University, St. Louis, Nebraska and Emporia, Kansas.

Washington permits smoking in girls' dormitories. Dean Amanda Heppner of Nebraska thinks the practice is silly "but as long as men are not prohibited from smoking why should we prohibit women. It is not a question of morals."

Mrs. Henry Millie Bakes Winning Cake, Pie Award Given to Mrs. Gibson

the direction of Miss Bernice Lowen, home economist, who was in charge of the cooking school. Immediately following the announcement of the prizes all the cakes and pies entered were sold for the benefit of the Associated Charities fund. A total of $36.70 was netted from the sale and turned over to the Charities board.

The big turkey which was dressed and stuffed by Miss Lowen at Tuesday's lesson was roasted in the oven of the Hotpoint range on the platform of the armory where the classes were held, at the last class meeting yesterday. Plum pudding fit for the table of a king, a cranberry jelly that was the envy of every woman present, and a pumpkin pie that was a joy to behold were prepared by Miss Lowen yesterday. More than 600 women attended the final class.

Practically a unanimous vote of the women present decided for The Capital Journal that the cooking school will be a regular institution to be held each year.
