Holiday Affairs Numerous

Brothers, sisters, aunts and uncles, cousins and "in-laws," from near and far have gathered in Salem homes this week to observe together the one day of the year set aside as a day of thanksgiving. Because this day in its significance overshadowed all minor events, the week has been one devoted almost exclusively to family dinners and family gatherings.

This week, however, was marked by one event which will be long remembered by the several hundred present. The Illihee country club was the scene on Thanksgiving eve of a beautiful dance. Never was the clubhouse more spectacular than on Wednesday evening. Hundreds of balloons and colored lights, were combined in most unusual rainbow light effects.

Because of the success of the Thanksgiving dance officials are planning a formal dinner dance at the country club on New Year's eve. According to plans being formulated at this time, this dinner dance will be quite the gala event of several seasons. To insure the success of the dinner dance on New Year's eve it will be necessary that fifty members directly sponsor the affair within the next ten days, say Fred Thielsen and Donald Young who are directly in charge. Club members are asked to communicate with Mr. Thielsen as soon as possible.

Silverton, Nov. 28.—At a beautiful church wedding Thursday evening at six o'clock Miss Cora LaVera Satern, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. Satern, became the bride of Victor S. Madsen, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Madsen. The ceremony was performed before the candle lit altar at Trinity church by the Rev. George Henriksen. Both sides of the aisle leading to the altar were banked with ferns and huge chrysanthemums in orchid, pink and white.

Preceding the entrance of the bridal party, Mrs. Alvin Legard sang "Because," and following the ceremony she sang "Friend of Mine." Miss Dora Henriksen played Lohengrin's wedding march as the bridal party entered and Mendelssohn's wedding march as the party left the altar. During the ceremony "O Promise Me" was softly played.

The bride was charming in a gown of white satin and silver lace. She wore a full length veil which was caught with silver lace into a simple headdress. She was attended by the groom's only sister, Miss Lillie Madsen, who wore a gown of orchid and silver. Both the bride and her attendant carried shower bouquets of Cecil Brunner and bride's roses with the shower of silver ribbon and violets. Violets are the house flower of the groom's fraternity.

Harold Larson, a fraternity brother and a business partner, acted as best man. Ushers were Alfred Jensen, Orval Larson and Merl Larson.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Harold Satern, Mrs. Oscar Satern and Mrs. Arthur Madsen. Presiding at the buffet supper table were Miss Alice Jensen and Miss Nettie Hatteberg. Assisting at serving were Miss Alma Fuarue, Miss Louise Henriksen, Miss Myrna Sather and Mrs. Edwin Hatteberg.

After a wedding trip to Puget Sound points, Mr. and Mrs. Madsen will make their home at Silverton where Mr. Madsen is in business. Both Mr. and Mrs. Madsen have attended the Oregon Agricultural college where Mr. Madsen is a member of the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity.

Mrs. R. L. Putnam performed the service in the parsonage of the Court street Christian church on Thursday morning at eleven o'clock which united in marriage Miss Florence Walker of Salem and Kenneth Karns of Stayton. Miss Lois Plummer played the wedding march. Only a few relatives and intimate friends were present.

The bride wore a frock of pale blue satin backed crepe. Her only attendant was Miss Margaret Faith Gilmer. Calvin Steward served as best man.

After a short trip Mr. and Mrs. Karns will make their home on the Karns ranch east of Stayton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Loose entertained as their guests at dinner on Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. Voorhis Loes and daughter, Geraldine, of Silverton, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Fink and son, Donald, of McMinnville and W. H. Harris. Lavendar chrysanthemums formed an attractive centerpiece on the dining table. In the evening the group motored to McMinnville, where they were guests at the firemen's ball.

THREE GENERATIONS OF WOMEN

Since the humble origin of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in 1881, made on a kitchen stove, three generations of women have used this old fashioned root and herb remedy for their ailments with wonderful success. Very often we hear of families where the grandmother, mother and daughter testify to its virtue. This accounts for the astonishing growth and demand for this dependable medicine from all over the United States and from many foreign countries as well.—Adv.

Another interesting family dinner on Thanksgiving day was that at which Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mills were hosts at their home on State street. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Spaulding, Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding and small daughter, Leone, and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Sapulding of Newberg and their children, Jane and Junior. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Griffith and small daughter were additional guests at a supper late in the afternoon.

Holiday Observed At Chemawa

The campus at Chemawa was the scene of a number of enjoyable affairs on Thanksgiving day. Superintendent and Mrs. Harwood Hall were honor guests at a dinner at the teachers' club. Unmarried members of the faculty who live at the club were the hosts and they had as their additional guests several faculty members and their wives who live in the cottages on the campus.

Another feature of the day, an annual affair at Thanksgiving and Christmas at the school, was the big dinner given for the students at which the faculty members served the students. On these two days of the year all of the students are seated at one time while they are served by the faculty. Later in the evening the faculty and older students were entertained at a social. More than nine hundred and fifty students and a number of parents who were guests were seated in the dining room for the dinner served at noon. A number of musical numbers were given during the dinner hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall have as their guests this week W. W. Coon of Washington, D. C., who is supervisor of the Indian schools in this district. On Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Hall honored Mr. Coon at a reception in their home to which were bidden faculty members and their wives. Singing of old fashioned songs was the diversion of the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Ruthyn Turney were in charge of the music and numbers were given by the school orchestra. More than a hundred guests were in the group.

Maple Nut Cake

A favorite recipe of a famous Domestic Science Expert

½ cup Crisco
1 cup light brown sugar
½ cup milk
2 eggs
1½ cups flour
¾ teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 cup chopped nuts
1 teaspoon vanilla extract

Cream Crisco, add sugar, yolks of eggs, milk. Beat. Add flour, salt, baking powder, sifted together. Add nuts, fold in beaten whites of eggs. Add flavoring. Bake in well Criscoed loaf pan in moderate oven for thirty-five to forty-five minutes. Cover with maple icing.

Maple Icing

1 teaspoon butter
4 tablespoons hot milk
1 cup powdered sugar
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon maple flavoring, beat well

Domestic Science Experts say

I find that I can make delicious cakes with Crisco, just as with expensive butter. When a recipe calls for butter, I use the same amount of Crisco and add one teaspoon of salt for each cup of Crisco used.
