Benefit Bridge Tea Tomorrow

Outstanding among the events of early December will be the benefit bridge tea, the first of the season, at which members of the Salem Woman's club will be hostesses in the clubhouse on north Cottage street tomorrow afternoon. Playing will commence at two o'clock and tea will be served promptly at four. More than forty tables have been reserved for the afternoon and many additional guests will come in at the tea hour.

Mrs. Homer Goulet is general chairman in charge of the affair and Mrs. George A. White is assisting her. The committee assisting also includes Mrs. John L. Rand, Mrs. C. M. Robertson, Mrs. Frank Myers, Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding, Mrs. William Bell, Mrs. Curtis Cross, Mrs. Ralph Cooley, Mrs. E. E. Bragg, Mrs. P. A. Elker, Mrs. Rhea Luper, Mrs. E. E. Lang, Mrs. A. L. Walker, Mrs. Roy Mills and Mrs. Hal D. Patton.

The clubhouse will be decorated entirely with Christmas novelties and will be the first of the Christmas parties.

One of the loveliest weddings of last week was an event of Thanksgiving evening when Miss Ruth Lattin became the bride of Russell W. Buckles in a beautiful ceremony performed in the country home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Lattin. Mr. Buckles is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Buckles. Fifty relatives and friends of the young couple attended the ceremony at which Rev. E. H. Shanks, pastor of the First Baptist church officiated.

The Lattin home was beautifully decked with white and lavender chrysanthemums. A hower of palms, ferns and tall baskets of the chrysanthemums was erected at one end of the living room where the ceremony took place. Tall candelabra stood on either side. Before the service Mrs. E. H. Shanks sang "Until" and "At Dawning." The wedding march from Lohengrin was played by Miss June Director, violinist, and Miss Minnie Miller, director.

The bride wore a lovely gown of apricot crepe trimmed in metal lace and velvet ribbon. About her head she wore a tiny wreath of eilver leaves. She carried a bouquet of chrysanthemums. She was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Pauline Pierce, the bride's only attendant wore an attractive frock of blue satin made with a circular skirt and pleated trimming. She carried chrysanthemums. Harold Lattin served as best man for the groom.

Little Estelle Reiser, in a dainty satin dress, scattered rose petals in the path of the bride. A reception followed the ceremony with the bridal party and the parents of the young couple forming an informal receiving line. Seating in the dining room were Miss Mary Peck, Miss Minnie and Miss Edna Miller, Miss Myrtle Kibbey, Miss Pauline Pierce and Mrs. Velma Bradford. Musical numbers were given during the evening by Miss Minnie and Miss Edna Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Buckles left the same evening for a trip north.
