MacDowell Club Gives Indian Music

A better understanding of the dignity, solemnity and capacity for suffering stoically and unflinchingly which characterize the American Indian was received last night by the several hundred men and women who attended the concert in Waller hall given by the MacDowell club.

Much of the best of our Indian music is a tale by a Cheyenne chief, the reading of one of our greatest Indian legends, and a charming Indian dance were distinctly enjoyable.

The program opened with a tableaux of dawn at an Indian tepee. Two program numbers and an encore were given by the 14 piece orchestra following the tableaux. The first number, Indian Saga, by Thomas Allen, was an Indian intermezzo delightfully rendered. The second, Indianoia by D. R. Henry, was an Indian war dance. Drums and flutes played outstanding parts in this number.

George Bent, big Cheyenne chief, former Carlyle football hero, and college graduate, gave a comprehensive talk on Indian legends and the part that music played in the life of the American Indian. Alfred Noyes' beautiful poem, River of Stars, which gives in lovely verse, one of our most powerful Indian legends with its background Niagara Falls, was read in an entirely sympathetic and understanding manner by Miss Carol Dibley. A vivid and graceful Indian dance was given by Miss Nancy Thielson.

Three musical groups completed the program. Miss Eugenia Savage, pianist, Mrs. Ruth Emory Riddle, soprano, and the Schubert octette also appeared on the program.

Miss Savage played the tale, lament and dance, which are Louise Wright's interpretation of Longfellow's Hiawatha. The parts of the poem which each interpreted were read by Miss Savage before presentation. They were delightfully done. A MacDowell number, "From an Indian Lodge" completed her group.

Mrs. Riddle gave three Indian songs, one by Grann and two by Leonard which were ably aided to her wide range and sympathetic tones. All three were of the same type—a bit ponderous but very melodic.

Two of the best known of Cadman's American Indian Love songs were given by the Schubert octette in a most finished and artistic manner. As an encore they gave the popular "By the Waters of Minnetonka." The octette won a host of new admirers with their work last night.

With the Indian program a thing of the past MacDowell club members are centering their interest on the concert Saturday evening in Waller hall when the first club chorus will make the first appearance of the new year. The new artist will be Miss Emilie Lancel, who is making her first appearance in Oregon this week.

Miss Lancel returned recently from a successful concert tour in Europe. She gave recitals in both London and Paris and was well received by music critics in both centers.

Miss Jennelle Vandevort and Miss Kitty Walker returned yesterday by motor to Yakima, Wash., after spending the Thanks giving holidays with their families. Miss Vandevort, who is girl reserve secretary at Yakima, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Vandevort while Miss Walker visited her relatives at Liberty.

Additional guests at the Vandevort home during the Thanksgiving week end were Mrs. Mary Smith and Mrs. John Haws, both of Portland.

On Thanksgiving day they were all guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver B. Whitney at the old Vandevort family home in Polk county about four miles from Salem. Twenty three members of the Vandevort family were guests at the dinner.

Mrs. Bert Smith was hostess at an attractive dinner in her home on Saturday evening, her birthday anniversary. Yellow and white chrysanthemums and yellow candles in crystal holders centered the table with covers laid for Mrs. Phil Williams, Mrs. Louise Tumbleson, Mrs. J. S. Beck, Mrs. J. P. Tucker, Miss Ora Tucker and the hostess, Mrs. Smith.

The women of the Presbyterian church will hold a bazaar at the church parlors all day tomorrow. A cafeteria lunch will be served at noon.

The literature section sponsored by the Salem branch of the American Association of University Women will meet tomorrow evening at the home of Mrs. E. C. Richards on Center street. The class meets regularly on the first and third Wednesdays of each month.

Miss Nell Thielson spent the week end in Portland where she was the house guest of Miss Edna Simonton.

France Honors New York Bishop

Ambassador Daeschner, on behalf of France, presented to Bishop Manning this Sevres vase as a gift for the Cathedral of St. John the Divine in New York. It was made at the Government factory in Sevres and sent by Aristides Briand.

Y. W. Board Members To Be Chosen

Seven vacancies on the Y. W. C. A. executive board will be filled after elections which will be held on Monday and Tuesday of next week at the local Y. W. rooms. The new members will serve for three years.

Board members whose three year terms expire next week and who are up for reelection are Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, Mrs. W. E. Kirk, Mrs. Harry M. Hawkins, Mrs. J. C. Perry, Mrs. Eric Butler and Miss Mary Findley. New names suggested by the nominating committee are Mrs. Ella Blackerby, Mrs. Robert Dunn, Mrs. E. E. Ling, Mrs. E. E. Elliott and Mrs. F. M. Erickson. The seven positions on the board will be filled from the two groups. Members of the nominating committee in charge of this election are Mrs. John Albert, Mrs. Alice McKelvey, Mrs. E. E. Ling, Mrs. Mason Bishop and Miss Marian Wyman. All members of the association will be eligible to vote.

Through the cooperation of the local secretary, Miss Marion Wyman, classes in beginning French and beginning Spanish will open in the Y. W. rooms at seven o'clock tonight. The classes are open to all interested and college entrance credit will be given for the classes, which will meet two hours each week. Miss Mildred Christensen, teacher of French in the Salem high school, will teach the French class and the Spanish class will be led by Miss Louise Townsend, Spanish teacher at the high school.

At four o'clock this afternoon the annual fall recognition service of all girls reserves in the grade schools of Salem will be held in the Y. W. rooms. More than sixty girls will take part in the service.

Following the dinner of the business and professional women's club of Salem in the chamber of commerce auditorium at six thirty tomorrow evening Rev. Martin Feresethian will address the group on "Idealism in Business and Professions." In addition to the address by Mr. Feresethian the program for the evening will include musical numbers on the new orthophonic Victrola which will be furnished by the Moore music house.

Important committee reports will be called for during the business session by the club president, Miss Julia K. Webster.

St. Paul's guild of the Episcopal church will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Earl Duce, 212 Owens street with Mrs. C. C. Page acting as hostess. Members are asked to bring thimbles.

T. H. D. Club Gives Annual Dance

Many baskets and clumps of autumn leaves combined with soft lights and gay colored streamers formed an attractive background in Derby hall on Saturday evening when members of the T. H. D. club were hostesses at their annual dance. More than fifty couples were present at the affair.

A feature of the evening was the old fashioned dance given by Miss Maxine Myers and Cynthia Delano who wore lovely costumes in pink and blue.

Patrons and patronesses for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Peterson and Mr. and Mrs. Miles McKay.

In the hostess and guest group were the Misses Bertha Miller, Ruth Walker, Edna Warden, Francis Plov, Darle Bowden, Gladys McKay, Elele Boynton, Reta Clark, Irene Boje, Marjorie Miller, Irma Bolander, Melita Wolfe, Caroline Neece, Helen Campbell, Esther Hansen, Thea Sampson, Georgia Spencer, Marie Edwards, Thelma Mesch, Marie Randall, Thelma Johnson, Hattie Brown, Florence Walker, Gladys Rafferty, Elele Victor, Florence Howe, Cleo Walker, Mildred Spang, Eva McKay, Dorothea Du-bach, Margaret Reiley, Frances Tucker, Majorie Binko, Nancy Savage, Laura Marr, Virginia Wilson, Vivian Lettingwell, Pauline Christensen, Leah Suing, Myrtle Richardson, Sally Lansing, and Charles Claggett, Al Umana, Julian Burroughs, Leo Spitzbart, Chet Lindley, Manley Strayer, Floyd Vokel, Chet Bigwood, Arthur Knox, Willard Marshall, Earl Sandifer, Walter Leise, Erna Webb, Tom Woods, Wm. Strand, Lawrence Heeman, W. Hendricks, Jack Luckler, Fred Paulus, Max Rogers, Harold Larson, Charles Dolane, John Graf, Morris McKinney, Ed Soderstrom, Virgil Genser, Gilbert Wynkoop, Henry Montague, Lee Haskins, Carl Ramsey, Vera Mathis, Frank Dewitt, Jack Currey, Carl Pischert, Charles Denham, Jimmy Lockert, Edwin Goodnough, Roland Reinhart, Ed Heeman, George Malstrom and Duncan Ferguson.

The seventieth birthday anniversary of Mrs. Maggie Cade was delightfully celebrated on Sunday when her sons and daughters and grandchildren from various parts of the state and from Washington met at her home here to spend the day with her.

A turkey dinner was served at noon with covers laid for Mrs. Cade, her son and daughter in law, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Cade of Sumner, Wash., her granddaughter, Miss Lela Cade who is a student at Oregon Agricultural college; a son in law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Linegar of Monmouth and their two children Russell and Carl; another son and daughter in law, Mr. and Mrs. Lelle Cade of Albany. This was the first reunion of all the members of the family within ten years.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Park have as their house guest Miss Lela Hecke of Woodlawn, near Sacramento, Cal. Miss Hecke will spend several weeks here.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex A. Turner returned yesterday to their home in Seattle after spending several days with their brother in law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Meester.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars ladies' auxiliary will meet tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock at the home of Mrs. George Lewis at 1189 north Winter street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Knighton of Portland, spent the week end as guests of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Waters of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Sanford returned yesterday from Hood River where they were guests since Thanksgiving day of Mrs. Sanford's mother.

The committee in charge of the social hour which will follow the O. D. of a meeting in MacCormack hall this evening includes, Mrs. A. A. Mickel, chairman, Mrs. Harry Briens, Mrs. T. A. Windisher, Mrs. Frank McCarthy, Mrs. B. F. Dimeter, Miss E. Petzel, Miss Theresa Vogel, and Miss R. Van Cless.

The fifth of series of card parties being given this winter by the altar society of the St. Vincent de Paul parish will be given in the school auditorium this evening.

Mrs. F. G. Delano, Mrs. Elmer Duce, Mrs. P. E. Fullerton, and Mrs. Claire Vibbert entertained members of the Friday bridge luncheon club and their husbands at dinner at the Vibbert home last night followed by an evening of cards at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Duce.

A basket of gorgeous yellow chrysanthemums centered the table with covers arranged for Mr. and Mrs. U. Scott Page, Mr. and Mrs. Leon W. Gleason, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Butler, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Kurtz, Dr. and Mrs. O. A. Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Harley O. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. David Wright, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Guelfroy, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Delano, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Duce, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Fullerton, and Mr. and Mrs. Claire Vibbert.

High honors at bridge were won by Mrs. Harley White and Mr. Delano. On Friday the club members will be guests at bridge and luncheon of Mrs. Leon W. Gleason.

The Woman's Benefit association will meet in MacCormack hall on Thursday evening at eight o'clock. All members are asked to attend as elections will be held at this meeting.

Mrs. F. E. Shafer entertained the Monday afternoon bridge club in her home yesterday. Additional guests were Mrs. E. S. East, Mrs. W. F. Huchner and Mrs. A. M. Dairyple.

High honors at bridge were won by Mrs. A. H. Moore. Members of the club in the group were Mrs. H. S. Poisal, Mrs. J. B. Hosford, Mrs. W. E. Wilson, Mrs. J. R. Pollock, Mrs. A. H. Moore, and the hostess, Mrs. Shafer.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Krause and son Johnnie, were the guests recently of Mr. Krause's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Krause of Portland.

Because the student body of the normal school practically filled the auditorium where the concert was given only a few Salem people motored to Monmouth last night to hear Paul Althouse, famous Metropolitan opera company tenor, and Arthur Middleton, well known baritone, who have a recital there, in the Salem group were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zinn, Mrs. Harry Harms and A. H. Gille.

Following the concert Mr. Althouse, Mr. Middleton, and their accompanist, Edward Harris, motored to Salem and were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. John R. Sites at a supper party, at the Sites home on Court street. Mr. Althouse and Dr. Sites are old friends.

Mr. Althouse and Mr. Middleton returned only recently from their second concert tour of Australia. On their last trip they gave more than fifty concerts in Australia alone.

The meeting of the Merry Go Round club announced for tonight has been postponed for a week. Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Shipley will entertain the club in their home next Tuesday evening.

The December meeting of Chemeketa chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will be held on Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. B. L. Steves on
