Angel were dinner guests on Thanksgiving at the home of Mrs. Judd's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Naylor. In the afternoon they had their nephews visit with them, Chester and Arthur Keene, of St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Prantle and daughter Ann motored to St. Paul Friday to visit Miss Horwarth's friend, Miss Ursula McDonald.

FRUITLAND

Fruitland, Or., Dec. 2.—Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Evans and daughter, Joan, were Sunday visitors at the Girod home. H. E. Evans has been drilling the fore part of last week at Dayton, Or.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lengelo have returned home from an extended stay in California. Their return will put a new pupil in school at Fruitland. The Rev. Mr. Storer announced last Sunday that there would be preaching at the Fruitland Evangelical church next Sunday morning.

Get Rid Of Your Rheumatism Before Winter Sets In

Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poison Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-four Hours

Every druggist in this county is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer that if a full pint bottle of Allenru, the sure conqueror of rheumatism, does not show the way to stop the agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment. Allenru has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and pitious and where the patient was helpless. James H. Allen, of 26 Forbes St., Rochester, N. Y., the discoverer of Allenru, who for many years suffered the torments of acute rheumatism, desires all sufferers to know that he has instructed druggists to guarantee it as above in every instance. Ferry's drug store is my appointed agent in your city. If you live out of town I'll gladly send you free particulars.—Adv.

ing following Sunday school, which is held at 10 a. m. The Fruitland Community club held its monthly meeting last Friday evening before a good house and the program and refreshments were enjoyed by many. Mr. DuBoise, who was to be on the program, had the misfortune to skid into a ditch about a mile from the school house but following the program a bunch of boys drove up and helped him out. There will be no meeting in December of this club but the third Friday in January has been set as the next date. A. M. Hammer returned home from the coast last Sunday where he had been for the last few weeks on a vacation. He reports having had a fine time despite the much downpour of "Jupe" and his sprinkler. Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Cade of Albany spent Wednesday afternoon and night at the T. J. Cade home and Thursday a Thanksgiving dinner was given at the home of George Riley. Mrs. B. H. Cade, who is the mother of Mrs. Riley and T. J. Cade, paid the Riley's a visit last week. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Stevens, who recently arrived from Canada, were visitors at the Hammer home Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Stevens formerly were residents of this community. H. C. Todd of Portland was a visitor at the Deutler home last week.
