CERTIFICATION OF CHICKENS IS EXPLAINED HERE

Numerous poultry raisers from all parts of the valley yesterday afternoon heard Dr. H. A. Jull, head of the poultry division of the United States department of agriculture, tell of a proposed uniform plan for certification and crediting of chickens.

Under the plan a system of certification, certification registration, advanced registration would be established. He stressed the necessity for sanitation and constitutional vigor of stock. The plan proposed, he stated, has been adopted by the standardization conference at Manhattan, Kansas, with representatives present from all states.

A. G. Lunn, chief of the poultry department of the Oregon Agricultural College, introduced Mr. Jull.

SALEM BOY GETS PERFECT SCORE

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Dec. 2.—Thomas F. Childs of Salem, freshman in engineering, made the highest score in a recent Thurstone psychological examination with a mark of 230. This examination requires one hour and 42 minutes to give, and a score of 230 points is possible if all answers are made correctly.

Psychological tests have been given in a few schools on this campus for several years in an experimental way, and the results of these trials are said to indicate a possibility of beneficial results from the wider and uniform application of this form of examination especially to entering students. The Thurstone test is being used 109 participating colleges throughout the United States, O. A. C. being the only Oregon college to join in the trial. The examination is divided into eight parts including language, word analogies, figure analogies, number completion, analogies, and opposites.

Is Green No More

"My experience with your medicine has been wonderful. My stomach and liver trouble of five years standing took a new turn two years ago when I took on an olive green complexion. I spent $1200 with doctors and specialists only to prove that I was still as green as ever. A friend advised me to take May's Wonderful Remedy, and I am green no more. My stomach and liver trouble has all disappeared." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. J. C. Perry, D. J. Fry and druggists everywhere.—Adv.
