

WILLAMETTE VALLEY COMMUNITY NEWS

STAYTON NEWS

Stayton, Or., Dec. 9.—Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Stigmund left Monday morning for Corvallis, where they will visit for several days. Mr. Stigmund will then return to his duties at the Bon Ton confectionary, while Mrs. Stigmund visits for a while in Portland.

The Buick roadster formerly owned by Dr. Beauchamp, which was nearly demolished by a falling tree early in the fall when Dr. and Mrs. Beauchamp were motor-ing from Stayton, has been returned to Stayton and is now at the Baker & Ryan garage.

Mr. and Mrs. George Brown and daughters, Charlotte and Patricia, moved to Sheridan, Wednesday. Mr. Brown has special agent for the Standard Oil company here and will also set in that capacity at Sheridan.

Mr. William Crabtree is still in Albany at the bedside of her aged mother, Mrs. Powell, who recently fell from an upstairs window and suffered exposure for several hours before found. Her recovery is not expected.

Fitz Goodman, who has been working in Klamath Falls for some time, has returned to Stayton to spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Newt Howe, accompanied by Mrs. Howe's children, Varney and Helen Mouslette, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lesley Sunday. Mrs. Lesley and Mrs. Howe are sisters.

Jack Edwards, who has been refinishing the interior of the Christian church, has completed the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller spent several days last week in Stayton at the bedside of Mr. Miller's father, who has been quite ill.

Dick Knight is operating the engine at the sawmill owned by Dr. Ferres.

The Stayton basketball team will meet the Turner team Friday night, December 11, in the high school gymnasium.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Thomas, who have been living in Los Angeles for the past year, have returned to Stayton to make their home.

Mrs. Harry Humphreys and Mrs. Clyde Downing entertained jointly Friday afternoon in honor of the birthday of their twin sisters.

Frank Cornett of Albany visited Sunday at the William Crabtree home.

Jim Arnold, who suffered the loss of a finger several weeks ago, in an accident at his mother's home in Stayton, resumed his duties Monday as a driver of one of the Standard Oil trucks.

Members of the Christian church

Sunday school will sponsor a Christmas program to be given at the church Wednesday evening, December 13.

The cooked food sale held Saturday, December 5, in the Methodist building by the Christian Ladies Aid, was highly successful more than $40 being cleared.

Mr. and Mrs. V. Lyle McCroskey motored to Portland, Tuesday afternoon, to attend the Knight-Ralston wedding on Wednesday night. Mr. McCroskey returned to Stayton, Thursday morning, and Mrs. McCroskey spent the remainder of the week visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. J. L. Hanson.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Mack and family moved Tuesday to their new home in Stayton. Mrs. Mack will continue to operate her Stayton Hat Shop which will be operated by Mrs. G. E. Taylor.

A baby girl was born early Thursday morning to Mr. and Mrs. William Smith of Stayton. The Smiths have resided in Stayton until just recently and the many friends and relatives of the family were delighted at the news of the arrival.

GERVAIS NEWS

Gervais, Dec. 11.—Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Henning attended Nylia Court Daughters of the Nile dinner at Woodburn last Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Dowd of McMinnville spent Monday at the home of their son Dr. and Mrs. Hugh A. Dowd.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Parker of Fairfield were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Allsup Saturday.

Mrs. Sylvia Smith spent the week end at her home in Portland.

Mrs. Elenora E. Fleming of Pomona, California, was a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Leith for several days last week.

Fleming and Mrs. Leith are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Henning motored to Portland Sunday afternoon and were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Kellerman in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cannard and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Cannard and two children of St. Johns were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cannard Sunday. They also visited with Desre Cannard who is convalescing from his injury about six weeks ago and is getting along nicely.

Twindle and Mrs. Harris were friends in Minnesota many years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dunlavy and son, John, and daughter, Marie, and Mrs. C. V. Ashbaugh attended a community program at Lathrop Center school house Tuesday evening. Mrs. Ashbaugh and Miss Dunlavy had a part on the program. They sang a duet and Miss Dunlavy also sang a solo.

There will be a community entertainment in the Brooks school house Friday evening. Rev. Mr. Boothby of the Methodist church and several young men from Willamette university are expected to be there and give some musical numbers. Everyone is invited.

Clyde Harris is in the hospital in Stayton. He underwent a major operation Sunday morning and is reported to be doing well at present.

RICKREALL

Rickreall, Dec. 11.—Mrs. Frank Bell has entertained as her house guest the past week Mrs. D. A. Trezona of Grove City, Pa. Mrs. Trezona was accompanied from the east by her brother, Dr. Stephen Lewis, a returned missionary from China and together they traveled to points as far west as San Francisco, where Dr. Lewis sailed once more for China, and Mrs. Trezona is visiting friends in California and Oregon before returning home.

Mrs. John Hodges has been among the ill of this week, but is rapidly recovering.

Mrs. Peter Cook was the recipient of a most beautiful leather arm chair, presented to her by her daughter for her birthday today.

Charley Whaley has purchased the property occupied by the Ragdale family and will move there as soon as the latter finds a suitable place for rent. Houses are scarce here at this time of year, as so many move in for school.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster of Independence and Mrs. Johnson of Portland are guests of their mother, Mrs. Peter Cook.

Mrs. Forrest Pence underwent an operation for formation of tissue in the nasal passage, and expected to have another operation yesterday to the same trouble, but upon examination Dr. Findley removed her tonsils instead, and will wait until after Christmas to complete the new operation.

Community sing was well attended last Tuesday night and the greater part of the singing time was spent on Christmas songs.

Miss Irah Courtwright of the Oregon normal is spending this week end at the Harry Dempsey home.

The Community bazaar tonight is to have as an added attraction a male quartet from Willamette university who will intersperse their numbers with those prepared by the orchestra.

Mrs. T. S. Burch has returned from Portland.

The three critic teachers were dinner guests at the Hamilton farm home near McCoy Wednesday evening, and will attend the faculty dinner given at the dormitory at Monmouth tonight.

arrival. Dr. Beauchamp, a local physician, and Mrs. Quillie, Stayton nurse, were in attendance.

Miss Sheila Neal of Silver Creek Falls and Ralph Hester of Union Hill were united in marriage Sunday, November 29, at the home of the bride's parents in the presence of relatives. Miss Clara Heater, sister of the groom, was the bride's only attendant and Elmer Boyer of Salem acted as best man to the groom. The Rev. Henry Russell of Garibaldi, area uncle of the bride, performed the ceremony. Both young people are graduates of Stayton high school in the class of '24 and are well known in this part of Marion county.

Mrs. E. D. Crabtree, accompanied by her small daughter, Clea Marie Crabtree, spent the greater part of last week in Portland as a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Rolph, who were formerly residents of Stayton. Mrs. Crabtree returned to Stayton, Sunday night.

B. M. Harrington, who has been connected with the Santiam woolen mills for several years, has resigned as manager of the local mill. He will be succeeded by George Clark of Portland, who has been acting as manager of the garment factory operated by the Santiam Woolen Mills corporation in Portland.

The Turner high school basketball game Friday night was lost to the Crabtree team.

D. S. Riches was a Salem visitor Friday.

M. T. Miller and wife returned from their Klamath Falls trip Wednesday evening. He reported good hunting and lots of ducks. They encountered about eight inches of snow on the summit.

A. L. Bonas was a Salem visitor Saturday afternoon.

Several from this vicinity attended the meeting of the Marion County Jersey club at Marion, Saturday.

Prof. G. W. Delay, Miss Margaret DeJardin and Samuel Brown, Jr., motored to Eugene last Thursday to attend the students conference held there, returning Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. DeJardin, Mr. and Mrs. Julian DeJardin, of Homere, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brasel of West Woodburn, and Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Kreppinger of Gervais, motored to Scotts Mills Sunday and were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert DeJardin.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rooster entertained a number of their friends at the home of J. E. Cuthbert at a 500 party last Saturday evening. Refreshments were served and at a late hour all returned to their homes wishing Mr. and Mrs. Rooster a long and happy married life.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cuthbert and children Rex and Betty and Glenn Cuthbert were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elton Rae of Salem.

Miss Gladys Hall of Falls City is visiting with relatives here.

G. T. Wadsworth attended the bankers banquet given at the Multnomah hotel in Portland Friday evening.

Miss Claire Collette spent Saturday and Sunday in Corvallis visiting friends.

MEHAMA

Mehama, Dec. 10.—Marion Forest is moving from Fox Valley to the Harrington place, a short distance above here.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Monroe and Mrs. Ledgewood spent last Friday with Mrs. R. Wilson of Salem.

Karl Winger has installed a radio in his home and is enjoying some very good music.

Word has reached here that Theron Wilkerson, formerly of this place, now living in Cambridge, Idaho, was hurt playing football and has been on crutches for the past two months and from all indications will be for some time yet.

Mr. Lambert has built a new house on his place near here. There has been no house on this place for years.

Mrs. Ledgewood entertained at an evening of five hundred last Saturday. Those present were Chester Kubin, Edwin Kubin, Ernest Kubin, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe and Mr. and Mrs. Kubin. At a late hour refreshments were served and all report a very pleasant evening.

Trick Phillips is back in high school after a week's absence due to sickness.

Mr. L. Dixon was in Salem on business last Saturday.

Mr. R. Wilson and family of Salem spent Sunday visiting here and in Lyons.

Della Carruth is back in school here after a few weeks of school in Salem.

Gilas Wagner was in town over Sunday. He says a few more days and the tide works at the camp will be done for the winter.

Bob and Reg Godeff are living in Clatsop place and cutting wood during the winter months.

Mr. Ledgewood's work at the Brightenush will soon be done and he will be home for the remainder of the winter.

Middle Grove, Or., Dec. 11.—The meetings in the Evangelical church are still in progress and will continue all next week. The pastor, Rev. Burns, is conducting them and is assisted by Miss Dorothy Johnson of Portland, who leads the singing.

The school children are busy getting ready for their Christmas program.

Miss Corvitt, the school nurse, came out and visited the school Tuesday afternoon. She took lunch with Mrs. Hedine afterward.

Most of the children who have been ill are back in school and others are getting well.

Mrs. Will Scharfe and son, Harry, have almost recovered from the chickenpox.

Miss Grace Kleiman, who has been ill for some time, is getting better and able to go again.

Shopping Days

11 Shopping Days

Christmas shopping sensibly simplified—a gift order lets "him" choose for himself.

Bishop's

11 Shopping Days

Christmas shopping sensibly simplified—a gift order lets "him" choose for himself.

Bishop's

TURNER NEWS

Turner, Or., Dec. 11.—Mrs. L. J. Rowley visited with friends in Amity from Friday to Sunday.

Mrs. Chambers was a week-end visitor with friends in Amityville. W. F. Poore of Salem was a visitor in Turner and Stayton, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Lewis motored to Harrisburg, Friday.

Bones Bros. received a carload of new Forda, Friday.

Last Thursday a number of the men of the Christian church gathered at the church and spent the day grading and leveling the lawn. It is a decided improvement to the church property.

Bones Bros. have their new Northland radio installed at the garage. It is proving to be quite an attraction.

The Turner high school basketball game Friday night was lost to the Crabtree team.

D. S. Riches was a Salem visitor Friday.

M. T. Miller and wife returned from their Klamath Falls trip Wednesday evening. He reported good hunting and lots of ducks. They encountered about eight inches of snow on the summit.

A. L. Bonas was a Salem visitor Saturday afternoon.

Several from this vicinity attended the meeting of the Marion County Jersey club at Marion, Saturday.

Prof. G. W. Delay, Miss Margaret DeJardin and Samuel Brown, Jr., motored to Eugene last Thursday to attend the students conference held there, returning Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. DeJardin, Mr. and Mrs. Julian DeJardin, of Homere, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brasel of West Woodburn, and Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Kreppinger of Gervais, motored to Scotts Mills Sunday and were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert DeJardin.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rooster entertained a number of their friends at the home of J. E. Cuthbert at a 500 party last Saturday evening. Refreshments were served and at a late hour all returned to their homes wishing Mr. and Mrs. Rooster a long and happy married life.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cuthbert and children Rex and Betty and Glenn Cuthbert were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elton Rae of Salem.

Miss Gladys Hall of Falls City is visiting with relatives here.

G. T. Wadsworth attended the bankers banquet given at the Multnomah hotel in Portland Friday evening.

Miss Claire Collette spent Saturday and Sunday in Corvallis visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Porter of Portland were the guests of his grandmother, Mrs. Malinda Chambers, Monday night. They will be at the Beech farm home for a week or more.

Erni Bear was a Salem visitor Monday.

Miss Agnes Kelly of Salem was the guest of her parents from Friday till Monday.

Ben Funston was a business visitor in Turner, Saturday.

Bones Bros. are hauling rock and filling where the house was located and are preparing to enlarge the garage.

Several residents of the Turner district were taking in the sights of Salem following the show at the Oregon theater. Among some of the places visited was a Chinese restaurant. The party was under the leadership of M. E. Towne and several Turner people attended "The Scarlet West" at the Oregon theater Saturday night.

H. W. Smith was home from his jury duties in Portland for the week-end. He returned Tuesday, accompanied by Mrs. Smith.

Mr. Hadley, who lives in the C. M. Miller house, is reported to be still quite ill.

Mrs. E. P. Pierce, of the Aumsville State bank, was a Portland visitor Tuesday.

Dr. Mary Staples and Miss Givan of the Cloverdale district attended the Methodist Ladies Aid bazaar and dinner given in the Masonic building Saturday.

Donald and Lucille Riches accompanied by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Riches, were Salem visitors Tuesday.

G. Alexander and F. P. Rowley attended the Silver meetings at the Court street Christian church Tuesday night.

BRUSH COLLEGE

Brush College Dec. 9.—The Camp five girls of the Presbyterian church of Salem will give an entertainment at Brush College Saturday evening, Dec. 12. The object being to raise funds for the children's home at Corvallis. The ladies of the neighborhood will furnish light refreshments to be sold following the program.

The meeting of the Grange Friday night was very well attended. A hot supper was served to at least one hundred and twenty-five persons.

The program presented by the students of the Chemawa school consisted of orchestra numbers, quartets, readings and many other features. It was much enjoyed by all present and a hearty vote of thanks was given the entertainers. The regular election of officers took place following the program.

Mr. Fred Ewing was elected Master of Brush College Grange. Other officers elected were Mrs. McCall, lecturer; Mrs. Whitner, chaplain; Mrs. Wright, lady assistant; Mr. W. D. Henry, secretary; Chas. McCarter, assistant steward.

The Brush College Helpers met at the home of Mrs. Blodgett on Thursday afternoon. Guests from Salem were Mrs. Chas. Parks and Mrs. Elce, Mrs. Mitchell of Portland and Mrs. Imlah. Miss Mae Gibson assisted in entertaining.

After the business and social hour delicious refreshments were served. The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Frank Crawford. This will be an evening meeting and the ladies of the club will entertain their husbands at this time, Dec. 17.

Mrs. John Schindler entertained Mrs. Mitchell and her son Harold of Portland the past week.

The Bible study class will meet at the home of Mrs. McCarter Thursday evening. Mrs. Alice Olson will be the leader for the evening.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Pettys were glad to welcome them back after their extended tour of the Pacific coast states. They report a wonderful time enjoyed.

The pupils of the Brush College school are now enjoying hot lunches at noon.

The regular meeting of the Community club will be postponed until the Christmas program is ready.

AUBURN

About three thousand pounds of beans of the "Martha Washington" variety have recently been handled here, having been raised on the J. Hartwell property. Mrs. Hartwell was formerly Mrs. Morrison of this place.

Mrs. J. Hugg has been in a critical condition, resulting from a ruptured blood vessel. She is still confined to her bed, being very weak from the loss of blood.

Kathleen Lindbeck was pleasantly surprised when twenty-six of her schoolmates came in to spend the evening Friday night with her and other good things to eat.

The Auburn Community club met Thursday evening at the school house and reorganized for the winter. Rev. Blodgett was elected president, and Mrs. Murray Johnson, vice-president; Mrs. E. J. Ayers, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Lloyd Lee

SIDNEY-TALBOT

Sidney, Or., Dec. 11.—Mrs. Lizzie Nye, who has been the guest of Mrs. Mary Nye for the last few days, returned to her home at Corvallis, Sunday evening.

Mrs. William Wiederkehr entertained members of her family at a chicken dinner at her home last Saturday. Those present were: Mrs. Irvin Hood and Miss Tonia Bostrack of Albany, Mrs. William Thomas and Miss Mamie Bostrack of Salem. All are sister of Mrs. Wiederkehr and all are teachers.

Miss Layonna Stanton of Portland was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Moler for the day, Monday.

Miss Elva Newman, who is spending the winter with Mrs. Wiederkehr, visited with friends in Eugene over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gilmore and family spent three days last week as guests of Mrs. Gilmore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Wiedman, at their home near Jordan. They returned Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Powers of Waldo Hills spent Friday visiting at the Cooley farm.

C. F. Moler and Ray Reeves sold a truckload of hogs to a Salem firm, Monday.

A carload of wheat was shipped Wednesday from Talbot to a Portland firm by Potts and Bally of Buena Vista.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Moler had as their guests Sunday evening, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. O'Neil and daughter, Alice, Miss Myrtle Moore and Mr. Blow, all of Corvallis.

W. J. Turnidge of Portland was visiting old friends near Talbot for a few days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Calavan and family motored to Stayton, Sunday, and were the guests for the day of Mr. Calavan's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Calavan.

D. E. Turnidge and J. M. Calavan sold a truckload of hogs in Salem, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Davidson and Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Davidson drove to Shelburn, Sunday, and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Jess Wells. Mr. and Mrs. Wells are old residents of Talbot and have recently moved to Shelburn, where they will operate an up-to-date poultry ranch. At present they have over four hundred young Leghorn hens of the Hannon strain. They expect to install electric incubators in the spring and market baby chicks.

Mrs. William Freeman, who has been visiting for the last week at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Freeman, returned to Kelso, Sunday, where she is spending the winter with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nichols had as their guests last week, Earl Nichols of Minnesota, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Nichols and Mrs. Minnie Nichols of Salem. Earl Nichols and Fred Nichols are brothers and until last week had not met for 17 years.

For Information
About Railroad
Trips Phone 727
OREGON ELECTRIC

Complete Line of Electrical Gifts

We handle all standard makes of electrical appliances and have for Christmas offering, a splendid assortment of the following articles:

Waffle Irons
Percolators
Grills
Toasters
Fixtures
Ranges

Christmas Tree Sets
Table Lamps
Heaters
Curling Irons
Flash Lights
Radio Sets, Supplies

Notice
Universal Electric Range demonstration will continue next week. Miss
Murdoch in charge.

HALIK & EOFF

What a Surprise For Christmas Morning

Times have changed. Formerly Santa Claus brought toys which in the course of a few months were broken or worn out. Nowadays he brings a radio set which is a source of joy for many years.

Be up to the times. Treat your family to the greatest maker of harmony in the home—a radio set. It will meet the needs of all the family. Dancing concerts, speeches—all are available if you have one of our famous Radiola sets.

A. L. Stiff Furniture Co.
COMPLETE HOUSE FURNISHERS

