Mrs. Park, Mrs. Dodd, Hostesses

Members of one of Salem's oldest afternoon social clubs were guests at a delightful Christmas party yesterday when Mrs. Charles A. Park and Mrs. Alice H. Dodd entertained the Letour Hour club in the Park home on Chemeketa street. Additional guests were Mrs. H. C. Epley and Mrs. Paul Wallace.

Lovely Christmas decorations about the rooms included masses of holly and Oregon grape and red tapers in silver holders. A Christmas tree was laden with gifts for each of the guests. During the tea hour Mrs. Paul Wallace assisted Mrs. Park and Mrs. Dodd.

The guest group included Mrs. Epley, Mrs. Wallace, Mrs. John Albert, Mrs. John Scott, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. George Pearce, Mrs. E. C. Small, Mrs. W. H. Steuelf, Mrs. Charles Weller, Mrs. H. J. Clements, Mrs. Elizabeth Lamb, Mrs. D. J. Fry Sr., Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. M. M. Chapman, Mrs. Lot L. Pearce, Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Miss Oda Chapman, Mrs. Fred Steuelf and Mrs. Kitty Graver.

A total of $670 was netted from the mail sale of Christmas seals in Salem, according to a report given out yesterday by Mrs. E. A. Elliott, treasurer of the Woman's club who are handling the sale in Salem. Despite previous reports that the seal sale promised to be more successful this year than last the mail sale was smaller this year. One reason for this is that fewer letters were sent out in the hope that the booths would be more extensively patronized.

The total realized from the booths in the post office which opened last week and the booths in the various business houses which opened Monday was found yesterday morning to be only $110. The realization that they are still far behind the sum collected last year is spurring members of the Woman's club to greater effort in the seal sale.

Booths will remain open all during this week and on Monday Tuesday and Wednesday of next week.

Members of the young mothers club were delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Leo Huddleston Tuesday afternoon. The home was lovely with Christmas decorations, ferns and flowers.
